(2) Any such provision in the articles of incorporation requiring such greater vote shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by such greater vote.

(3) The authorization or taking of any action by vote or concurrence of the shareholders may be rescinded or revoked by the same vote or concurrence as at the time of rescission or revocation would be required to authorize or take such action in the first instance, subject to the contract rights of other persons.

History.—s. 129, ch. 75-250.

607.391 Waiver of notice of meetings of shareholders.—Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder of a corporation under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the shareholders need be specified in any

If any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

(2) Within 10 days after obtaining such authorization by written consent, notice must be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing. The notice shall fairly summarize the material features of the authorized action and, if the action be a merger, consolidation, or sale or exchange of assets for which dissenters rights are provided under this chapter, the notice shall contain a clear statement of the right of shareholders dissenting therefrom to be paid the fair value of their shares upon compliance with further provisions of this chapter regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders.

(3) In the event that the action to which the shareholders consent is such as would have required the filing of a certificate under any other section of this chapter if such action had been voted on by shareholders at a meeting thereof, the certificate filed under such other section shall state that written consent has been given in accordance with the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 131, ch. 75-250.

(3) Each existing corporation's registered agent as of the effective date of this act shall continue to constitute the registered agent of the corporation, until changed in accordance with this act.

(4) It shall not be necessary for any such corporation to amend its articles to set forth the provisions required by this chapter to be set forth in the articles of incorporation or to amend any existing corporate documents or contracts to comply with the provisions of this act.

(5) Each such corporation shall have all of the powers enumerated in s. 607.011 except to the extent that such powers are limited by its articles of incorporation.

609.04 Unlawful to transact business prior to compliance.—No person may transact or conduct any business, within this state, under any "declaration of trust," or like association, without first complying with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, and no person organized to do business under any such "declaration of trust," may offer for sale, barter, or exchange any unit, share, contract, note, bond, mortgage, oil or mineral lease or other security of such organization or association, without first having complied with the provisions and requirements of this chapter.

609.07 Issuance of certain units, shares, etc.—

The declaration of trust may provide that the units, shares, certificates of beneficial ownership or interest, or other security issued, or to be issued, in accordance with the provisions thereof shall be fully paid and nonassessable. When the declaration of trust so provides, every holder of any such unit, share, certificate of beneficial ownership or interest, or other security issued by the trust, who has not paid in full the sum agreed to be paid for each unit, share, certificate of beneficial ownership or interest, or other security, shall be personally liable to the trust, or to its creditors, as the case may be, in an amount equal to the portion of said sum remaining unpaid. Such holders shall not otherwise be liable for any debt or obligation of the trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-171.

609.08 Merger of association into wholly-owned subsidiary corporation; dissenters' rights of appraisal.—

(1) Any association organized under the laws of this state pursuant to a declaration of trust filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, which owns all of the outstanding shares of any corporation, domestic or foreign, may merge into such corporation as provided in this section if such merger is permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction under which such corporation is organized.

(2) The association shall comply with the provisions of this section, and the subsidiary corporation, hereinafter designated the surviving corporation, shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the jurisdiction under which it is organized.

(3) If the surviving corporation is to be governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of chapter 607 with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the Department of State of this state:

(a) An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of the association and in any proceeding for the enforcement of any rights under the declaration of trust of the association of a dissenting shareholder of the association against the surviving corporation.

(b) An irrevocable appointment of the Secretary of State as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding.

(c) An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of the association the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of its declaration of trust with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

(4) The board of trustees of the association shall, by resolution adopted by such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

(a) The name of the association and the name of the surviving corporation.

(b) The articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation, if revised from original filing.

(c) The manner and basis of converting the shares of the association into shares of the surviving corporation, which shall consist entirely of shares having the characteristics of corporation shares but otherwise with the same relative preferences, limitations and rights amongst themselves as the shares of the association.

(5) The board of trustees of the association, upon approving such plan of merger, shall by resolution direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders of the association, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice shall be given to each shareholder of record, whether or not entitled to vote at such meeting, in the manner provided in the declaration of trust of the association for giving of notice of meetings of shareholders and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes is to consider the proposed plan of merger. A copy of a summary of the plan of merger shall be included in or enclosed with such notice. The notice shall contain a clear and concise statement of appraisal rights, if any, to which shareholders of the association dissenting from the plan may be entitled under the provisions of the declaration of trust and the terms, conditions, and procedures for preserving and perfecting such rights.

(6) At such meeting of shareholders, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger. The plan of merger shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of the association entitled to vote thereon, or such higher percentage as may be required under the provisions of the declaration of trust of the association, unless any class of shares of the association is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the plan of merger shall be approved upon receiving the like percentage of affirmative vote of the holders of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class. Any class of shares of the association shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the declaration of trust, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class.

(7) After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of the association, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger, the merger may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger.

(8) Upon such approval pursuant to subsection (6), articles of merger shall be executed by the association by the chairman of the board of trustees and acknowledged by him in such capacity, and shall set forth:

(a) The name of the association and the name of the corporation, designating the corporation as the surviving corporation.

(b) The plan of merger.

(c) The dates of adoption of the plan of merger by the shareholders of the association and by the board of directors of the surviving corporation.

(9) The articles of merger shall be delivered to the Department of State. If the Department of State finds that such articles conform to law, it shall, when all fees and taxes have been paid as prescribed in this chapter, and when a filing fee of $200 has been paid to the Department of State (which fee shall be paid by it into the General Revenue Fund of the state), file the articles of merger.

(10) The surviving corporation shall thereafter cause a copy of the articles of merger certified by the Department of State to be filed in the office of the official who is the recording officer of each county of this state in which real property of the association is situated, but no delay or failure to so file shall impair the validity or effectiveness of the merger.

(11) Upon the filing of the articles of merger by the Department of State, the merger shall be effected.

(12) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (11), the date on which the merger shall be effected may be specified in the articles of merger; however, in no event shall the effective date be prior to, or more than 90 days after, the filing of the articles of merger by the Department of State.

(13) When such merger has been effected, it shall have the same effects as those specified for mergers between corporations in s. 607.231(3), regardless of the location of any property, rights, interests, or obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever, within or without this state, except insofar as provided otherwise by the laws of the jurisdiction under which the surviving corporation is organized if the surviving corporation be a foreign corporation. The personal liability, if any, of any shareholder of the association existing at the time of such merger shall not thereby be extinguished, shall remain personal to such shareholder, and shall not become the liability of any subsequent transferee of any share in the surviving corporation or of any other stockholder of the surviving corporation.

(14) Except as otherwise expressly provided to the contrary in the declaration of trust of any association organized under the laws of this state pursuant to a declaration of trust filed in accordance with this chapter, no shareholder of the association shall have any dissenters' rights of appraisal on account of any merger pursuant to this section or for any other reason.

corporation and its transfer agent may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the corporation or transfer agent receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security.

History.—s. 2, ch. 61-204.

610.041 Assignment by a fiduciary.—Except as otherwise provided in this act, a corporation or transfer agent making a transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary:

(2) May assume without inquiry that the fiduciary has complied with any controlling instrument and with the law of the jurisdiction governing the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

(3) Is not charged with notice of and is not bound to obtain or examine any court record or any recorded or unrecorded document relating to the fiduciary relationship or to the assignment, even though the record or document is in its possession.

610.051 Evidence of appointment or incumbency.—A corporation or transfer agent making a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary who is not the registered owner shall obtain the following evidence of an appointment or incumbency:

(1) In the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer thereof and dated within 60 days before the transfer; or

(2) In any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the corporation or transfer agent to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the corporation or transfer agent to be appropriate. Corporations and transfer agents may adopt standards with respect to evidence of appointment or incumbency under this subsection provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable. Neither the corporation nor transfer agent is charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this subsection except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

The corporation or transfer agent is not put on notice unless the written notice identifies the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part, provides an address for communication directed to the claimant and is received before the transfer. Nothing in this act relieves the corporation or transfer agent of any liability for making or refusing to make the transfer after it is so put on notice, unless it proceeds in the manner authorized in subsection (2).

(2) As soon as practicable after the presentation of a security for transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a corporation or transfer agent which has received notice of a claim of beneficial interest adverse to the transfer may send notice of the presentation by registered or certified mail to the claimant at the address given by him. (1) No person who participates in the acquisition, disposition, assignment or transfer of a security by or to a fiduciary including a person who guarantees the signature of the fiduciary is liable for participation in any breach of fiduciary duty by reason of failure to inquire whether the transaction involves such a breach unless it is shown that he acted with actual knowledge that the proceeds of the transaction were being or were to be used wrongfully for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or that the transaction was otherwise in breach of duty.

(2) If a corporation or transfer agent makes a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a person who guaranteed the signature of the fiduciary is not liable on the guarantee to any person to whom the corporation or transfer agent by reason of this act incurs no liability.

617.68 Licensing procedures and general requirements for agents and counselors; penalty for violation.—

(1) Sections 617.68-617.81 of this part may be referred to as the "Licensing Procedures Law."

(2) As used in said law "agent" means any person, firm, partnership or corporation for profit who contracts with or is employed by a corporation under this part for the solicitation or sale of memberships in a plan, hereunder.

(3) As used in said law "counselor" means any person who contracts with or is employed by an "agent" for the solicitation or sale of memberships in a plan, hereunder.

(4) No person, firm, partnership or corporation shall be, act as, or advertise or hold himself or itself out to be an agent or counselor in this state unless he or it is then licensed as such agent or counselor under a currently effective license issued by the department pursuant to the provisions of this part, except as otherwise provided herein.

(5) For the protection of the people of this state, the department shall not issue, continue, renew or permit to exist any such license as to any person, firm, partnership or corporation who has not established to the department's satisfaction that he or it is qualified therefor.

(6) The department shall prescribe and furnish all forms required under this section in connection with the application for and issuance of such licenses and for appointment and termination of appointment of agents and counselors.

(7) The department shall not issue a license as to an agent or counselor except upon written application therefor filed with it at its offices in Tallahassee, to any person who has not met the qualifications therefor, and paid in advance all applicable license fees as provided herein. All such applications shall be made under oath of the applicant.

(8) Application for license as an agent shall be signed by the applicant and the appointing corporation and shall be filed with the department by the corporation proposed to be so represented, and shall be accompanied by an executed copy of all contracts entered into between the corporation and the agent.

(9) Application for license as a counselor shall be signed by the applicant and the agent to be represented and shall be filed with the department by the agent proposed to be so represented, accompanied by executed copies of any contracts entered into between the agent and counselor.

(10) Each application for license as an agent shall be accompanied by payment of a license fee of $25, and each application for license as a counselor shall be accompanied by payment of a license fee of $10.

(11) The department may propound any reasonable interrogatories, in addition to those contained in the application, to any applicant for a license, or on any renewal or continuation thereof, relating to his or its qualifications and any other matter which, in the department's opinion, is deemed necessary or advisable for the protection of the public and to ascertain the applicant's qualifications. The department may, upon completion of the application, make such further investigation as it may deem advisable of the applicant's character, reputation, experience, background and fitness for a license.

(12) If, upon the basis of the completed application for a license and such further inquiry or investigation as the department may make concerning the applicant, the department is satisfied that the applicant is qualified for the license applied for and that all pertinent license fees have been paid, it shall approve the application and promptly issue the same.

(13)(a) The department shall transmit the original and a copy of each license as follows:

1. Agent's license, original to the corporation and copy to the licensee;
2. Counselor's license, original to the agent and copy to the licensee.

While the license is in force the original thereof shall be retained by the appointing corporation in the case of agents, and by the agent in the case of counselor.

(b) Each license shall be in such form as the department may designate and show the type and serial number of license, date of issuance, name and address of the licensee, general conditions pertaining to expiration, continuation or renewal, and such other matters as the department deems advisable.

(14) If, upon the basis of the completed application and such further inquiry or investigation, the department deems the applicant to be lacking in any one or more of the qualifications for the license applied for, it shall disapprove the application. At the same time the department shall return to the applicant or other person entitled thereto any license fee received by it in connection with the application for a license.

(15) All licenses as to which all requisite applications, payment of license fees and evidence thereof in customary form received by the department at its office in Tallahassee, within 1 calendar month prior to the expiration of the license year then current or within 1 calendar month after the commencement of the next following new license year, shall be dated and effective as of the first day of such new license year and shall be as for the entire such license year (subject to suspension, revocation, renewal, continuation or termination as otherwise provided in this part); but such a license, if issued pursuant to qualification thereof during the last calendar month of the preceding license year as hereinabove provided, shall be deemed to relate back in effectiveness to the date within such calendar month on which the last of such qualifying requirements was received by the department at its offices in Tallahassee.

(16) The license of an agent or counselor shall continue in force until suspended, revoked or otherwise terminated, but subject to annual continuation by the corporation as to an agent and by an agent as to a counselor named therein, on or before October 1, by payment of a renewal or continuation fee of $25 for an agent's license and a fee of $10 for a counselor's license, accompanied by the corporation's or agent's written request, as the case may be, for such renewal or continuation.

(17) Annually on or before October 1, each corporation and agent shall file with the department the alphabetical lists, statements and information as to licenses being renewed or continued, or being terminated, accompanied by payment of the applicable renewal or continuation fee as set forth in subsection (15).

(18) Any such license as to which request for renewal or continuation is not received by the department at its offices at Tallahassee, as required by subsection (15), shall be deemed to have expired at midnight on October 30 next following such failure. Request for renewal or continuation of any such license or payment of fee therefor which is received by the department after such October 1, but on or before the next following November 1, may be accepted and effectuated by the department, in its discretion.

(19) Upon the expiration of any license, the licensee formerly so licensed shall be completely without any of the authority or rights theretofore conferred by the license, and shall not thereafter, while without the required license, engage or attempt to engage in any transaction or business for which such license was issued. No licensee shall again be granted such a license unless and until he or it applies and fully qualifies therefor as provided in this part except as provided in subsection (15). A license issued hereunder is valid only as to the licensee named therein and is not transferable.

(20) Each corporation and agent appointing an agent or counselor in this state, as the case may be, shall file the appointment with the department, and at the same time pay the license fee as prescribed in subsection (16). Every such appointment shall be subject to the issuance of the appropriate agent's or counselor's license.

(21) As a part of each appointment there shall be a certified statement or affidavit of an executive officer of the appointing authority stating what investigation, if any, has been made concerning the proposed licensee and his background, including a credit report or summary thereof, and the appointing authority's opinion to the best of his or its knowledge and belief as to the moral character, fitness and reputation of the proposed licensee.

(22) In the appointment of a counselor, the agent shall also certify therein, if true, that the applicant has the necessary training or that the agent will guarantee that he will have the necessary training to hold himself out as a counselor, and the agent shall further certify that he or it is willing to be bound by the acts of such counselor within the scope of his employment.

(23) Subject to annual renewal or continuation by the corporation as to agents and by the agents as to counselors as provided in subsection (16), appointment of licensees shall continue in effect until the licensee's license is revoked or otherwise terminated, unless written notice of earlier termination of the appointment is filed with the department by either the corporation as to agents or the agent as to counselors.

(24)(a) Subject to the agent's or counselor's contract rights, a corporation, in the case of agents, and the agent, in the case of counselors, may terminate the appointment of any agent or counselor at any time. The appointing authority shall promptly give written notice of termination to the licensee, either by delivery thereof to the licensee in person or by mailing it, postage prepaid and addressed to the licensee at his address last of record with the appointing authority. Notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States Post Office mail depository. As soon as possible, and at all events within 30 days after terminating the appointment of an agent or counselor (other than as an appointment terminated by the appointing authority's failure to continue or renew it), the appointing authority shall file written notice thereof with the department, together with a statement that it has given the licensee notice thereof as herein provided.

(b) Upon termination of the appointment of an agent or counselor, whether by failure to renew or continue the appointment or license or otherwise, the appointing authority shall file with the department the information required under subsection (27).

(25) An agent or counselor may terminate his or its appointment at any time by giving written notice thereof to the appointing authority and filing a copy of the notice with the department. Such termination shall be subject to the appointing authority's contract rights.

(26) Upon receipt of notice of termination of the appointment of an agent or counselor, the department shall forthwith terminate the pertinent license of the licensee.

(27) The appointing authority shall annually, prior to October 1, file with the department an alphabetical list for each such license-type of the names and addresses of each licensee whose appointment and license in this state is being terminated and is not to remain in effect, accompanied by a statement of the appointing authority and such other reasonable proof as the department may prescribe or accept, that written notice of intention so to terminate the appointment and license has been given to each such licensee.

(28)(a) Any appointing authority terminating the appointment and license of an agent or counselor, whether such termination is by direct action of the appointing authority or by failure to renew or continue the appointment and license, shall file with the department a statement of the reasons for, if any, and facts relative to such termination.

(b) In the case of termination by failure to renew or continue the appointment or license, the above-required information shall be filed with the department as soon as possible and, at all events, within 30 days after the date of notice of intention not to so renew or continue was filed with the department. In all other cases, such information shall be filed with the department at the time of or, at all events, within 10 days after notice of the termination was filed with the department.

(c) Any information, document, record or statement so furnished or disclosed to the department shall be absolutely privileged and shall not be admissible as evidence in or as basis for any action against the appointing authority or any of its representatives.

(29)(a) As to each applicant who for the first time in this state is applying and qualifying for a license as an agent or counselor, the appointing authority shall, coincidentally with such appointment or employment, secure and thereafter keep on file a full detailed credit report or character report, made by an established and reputable independent credit reporting service, relative to the agent or counselor so appointed or employed. Within 30 days after such appointment or employment has been made or commenced, the appointing authority shall furnish to the department on a form furnished by it such information as it may reasonably require relative to such agent or counselor and investigation.

(b) Any information so furnished shall be absolutely privileged and shall not be admissible or used as evidence in any action against the appointing authority, reporting service or other persons furnishing the same.

(30)(a) All funds belonging to the corporation or agents or others received by an agent or counselor in transactions under his license shall be trust funds so received by the licensee in a fiduciary capacity, and the licensee in the applicable regular course of business shall account for and pay the same to the corporation or the agent, as the case may be, or to any other person entitled thereto.

(b) Any agent or counselor who, not being lawfully entitled thereto, diverts or appropriates such funds or any portion thereof to his or its own use shall, upon conviction, be guilty of larceny by embezzlement and shall be punished as provided by law.

(31) Every agent licensed hereunder shall maintain in his or its office such records as will enable the department and the public to obtain all necessary information relative to his or its business activities, including daily reports concerning memberships in such plans, and such other records as the department shall designate in its discretion.

(32) Any person, other than a corporation, who violates any provision of the licensing procedures and general requirements set forth in part II of this chapter shall, in addition to denial, suspension, revocation or refusal of license or other administrative penalties, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Each instance of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

(33) Any person, firm, partnership or corporation registered pursuant to the provisions of s. 517.12 shall be exempt from the agent or counselor licensing provisions of this part.

617.72 Improper conduct; inquiry.—

(1) The department may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon a written complaint signed by any interested person and filed with it, inquire into any alleged improper conduct of any corporation holding a certificate of authority, or agent or counselor, licensed hereunder, in this state.

(2) In the prosecution of such inquiries the corporation, agent or counselor shall, whenever so required by the department, cause its or his books and records to be open for inspection for the purpose of such inquiries.

(3) As a prerequisite to exercising the right or authority to investigate the books and records of such corporations or licensees, the department shall serve upon such corporations or licensees a copy of the general charges against it or him, so as to apprise it or him of the general purpose, nature and scope of the investigation or inquiry, and including the name and identity of the person, if any, who may have filed a complaint with the department as referred to in subsection (1) if the investigation is any way related to such complaint.

(4) Such general charges are not required to allege any facts constituting such improper conduct as would justify the department in instituting proceedings to suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of a corporation or the license of an agent or counselor.

(5) Service of such copy of general charges may be made by delivering copy to the corporation or licensee or mailing same by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, addressed to its or his business or residence address. If so mailed, notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a mail depository of the United States Post Office.

(6) The charges or complaints against any corporation, agent or counselor may be informally alleged and need not be in any such language as is necessary to charge a crime on an indictment or information.

617.75 Procedure for refusal, suspension, or revocation of license.—

(1) If any licensee is convicted by a court of a violation of this part, the license of such licensee shall thereby be deemed to be immediately revoked.

(2) If after an investigation or upon other evidence the department has reason to believe that there may exist any one or more grounds for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the license of any agent or counselor as such grounds are specified in ss. 617.73 and 617.74, the department may proceed to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license.

(3)(a) As to the subject of any examination or investigation being conducted by it, the department or any assistant, deputy, or examiner appointed by it may administer oaths, examine and cross-examine witnesses, receive oral and documentary evidence, and shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and testimony, and require by subpoena the production of books, papers, records, files, correspondence, documents, or other evidence which it deems relevant to the inquiry.

(b) If any person refuses to comply with any such subpoena or to testify as to any matter concerning which he may be lawfully interrogated, the Circuit Court of Leon County or of the county wherein such examination or investigation is being conducted, or of the county wherein such person resides, on the department's application may issue an order requiring such person to comply with the subpoena and to testify; and any failure to obey such an order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(c) Subpoenas shall be served, and proof of such service made, in the same manner as if issued by a circuit court. Witness fees and mileage, on behalf of the state, if claimed, shall be allowed the same as for testimony in a circuit court.

(d) Any person willfully testifying falsely under oath as to any matter material to any such examination, investigation, or hearing shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of perjury and shall be punished accordingly.

(4)(a) If any person asks to be excused from attending or testifying or from producing any books, papers, records, contracts, documents, or other evidence in connection with any examination, hearing, or investigation being conducted by the department or its examiner on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, and shall notwithstanding be directed to give such testimony or produce such evidence, he must, if so directed by the department, nonetheless comply with such direction, but he shall not thereafter be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may have so testified or produced evidence, and no testimony so given or evidence produced shall be received against him upon any criminal action, investigation or proceeding; except that no such person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for any perjury committed by him in such testimony, and the testimony or evidence so given or produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal action, investigation, or proceeding concerning such perjury; nor shall he be exempt from the refusal, suspension, or revocation of any license, permission, or authority conferred, or to be conferred, pursuant to this part.

(b) Any such individual may execute, acknowledge, and file with the department a statement expressly waiving such immunity or privilege in respect to any transaction, matter, or thing specified in such statement, and thereupon the testimony of such individual or such evidence in relation to such transaction, matter, or thing may be received or produced before any judge or justice, court, tribunal, grand jury, or otherwise, and if so received or produced such individual shall not be entitled to any immunity or privileges on account of any testimony he may so give or evidence so produced.

(5) Any person who refuses or fails, without lawful cause, to testify relative to the affairs of any corporation, agent, or counselor or other person when subpoenaed and requested by the department to so testify as provided in subsection (3) shall, in addition to the penalty provided in said subsection, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties provided under s. 617.65.

(6) The department's papers, documents, reports, or evidence relative to a hearing for revocation or suspension of a license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 120 shall not be subject to subpoena without the department's consent, except for subpoenas issued pursuant to the hearing for revocation or suspension, until after the same shall have been published at the hearing, unless after notice to the department and hearing a circuit court determines that the department would not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed by such subpoenas.

(7)(a) The department shall, in its order suspending a license, specify the period during which the suspension is to be in effect, but such period shall not exceed 1 year. The license shall remain suspended during the period so specified; subject, however, to any rescission or modification of the order by the department, or modification or reversal thereof by the court, prior to expiration of the suspension period. A license which has been suspended shall not be reinstated except upon request for such reinstatement, but the department shall not grant such reinstatement if it finds that the circumstance or circumstances for which the license was suspended still exist or are likely to recur.

(b) No licensee under any license which has been revoked by the department shall have the right to apply for another license under this part within 2 years from the effective date of such revocation, or, if judicial review of such revocation is sought, within 2 years from the date of final court order or decree affirming the revocation. The department shall not, however, grant a new license to any licensee if it finds that the circumstance or circumstances for which the previous license was revoked still exist or are likely to recur.

(c) If licenses as agent or counselor as to the same individual have been revoked at two separate times, the department shall not thereafter grant or issue any license under this part as to such agent or counselor.

(d) During the period of suspension, or after revocation of the license, the former licensee shall not engage in or attempt to profess to engage in any transaction or business for which a license is required under this part.

617.76 Surrender of license.—

(1) Though issued to a licensee, all certificates of licenses issued under this part are at all times the property of the state, and upon notice of any suspension, revocation, refusal to renew, failure to renew, expiration or other termination of the license, such license shall no longer be in force and effect.

(2) This section shall not be deemed to require the surrender to the department of any certificate of license, unless such surrender has been requested by the department.

617.77 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension of, revocation of, or refusal to renew license.—

(1) If the department finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license issued under this part, the department may, in its discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation, or refusal, and except on a second offense or where such suspension, revocation, or refusal is mandatory, impose upon the licensee an administrative penalty in the amount of $100, or, if the department has found willful misconduct or willful violation on the part of the licensee, $500. The administrative penalty may, in the department's discretion, be augmented in amount by an amount equal to any commissions received by or accruing to the credit of the licensee in connection with any transaction as to the grounds for suspension, revocation, or refusal related.

(2) The department may allow the licensee a reasonable period, not to exceed 30 days, within which to pay to the department the amount of the penalty so imposed. If the licensee fails to pay the penalty in its entirety to the department at its office at Tal-

(1) If the department finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license issued under this part, the department may, in its discretion, except where an administrative fine is not permissible under s. 617.77, or where such suspension, revocation, or refusal is mandatory, in lieu of such suspension, revocation, or refusal, or in connection with any administrative monetary penalty imposed under s. 617.77, place the offending licensee on probation for a period, not to exceed 2 years, as specified by the department in its order.

(2) As a condition to such probation or in connection therewith, the department may specify in its order reasonable terms and conditions to be fulfilled by the probationer during the probation period. If during the probation period the department has good cause to believe that the probationer has violated such terms and conditions or any of them, it shall forthwith suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the license of the probationer, as upon the original ground or grounds referred to in subsection (1), by its order given to the licensee and corporations or agents represented by him.

The board of directors shall have the right to call a special meeting at any time, and 10 percent of the members or stockholders may file a petition stating the specific business to be brought before the association and demand a special meeting at any time. Such meeting must thereupon be called by the directors. Notice of all special meetings, together with a statement of the purpose thereof, shall be mailed to each member at least 10 days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that the bylaws may require instead that such notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation, published at the principal place of business of the association.

618.12 Directors; election.—

(1) The affairs of the association shall be managed by a board of not less than three directors, to be elected by the members or stockholders, with such qualifications as may be provided for in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. The bylaws may provide that the territory in which the association has members shall be divided into districts and that the directors shall be nominated according to such district, either directly or by district delegates elected by the members in that district. In such case the bylaws shall specify the number of directors to be nominated by each district, the manner and method of reapportioning the directors and of redistricting the territory covered by the association. The bylaws may provide that primary elections shall be held in each district to nominate the directors apportioned to such districts and the result of all such primary elections may be ratified by the next regular meeting of the association or may be considered final as to the association. The bylaws may provide that one or more directors may be nominated by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services or by the other directors nominated by the members or their delegates. Such directors shall represent primarily the interest of the general public in such associations. Such directors shall not number more than one-third of the entire number of directors.

(2) An association may provide a fair remuneration for the time actually spent by its officers and directors in the service and for the service of the members of its executive committee. No director, during the term of his office, shall be a party to a contract for profit with the association differing in any way from the business relations accorded regular members or holders of common stock of the association or others, or differing from terms generally current in that district.

(3) The bylaws may provide for an executive committee to be elected by the board of directors from within or without the membership of the board and may allot to such committee all the functions and powers of the board of directors, subject to the general direction and control of the board.

(4) When a vacancy on the board of directors occurs other than by expiration of term, the remaining members of the board, by a majority vote, shall fill the vacancy, unless the bylaws provide for the nomination of directors by districts. In such case the board of directors shall call a special meeting of the members or stockholders in the respective district to nominate a person qualified to fill the vacancy.

History.—s. 12, ch. 9300, 1923; CGL 6477; s. 12, ch. 14675, 1931; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106.

They shall also elect a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as may be provided for in the bylaws, none of whom need be directors or members of the association. The office of secretary and treasurer may be combined into one office designated as secretary-treasurer, or both functions and titles may be united in one person. The treasurer may be a bank or any depository, and as such, shall not be considered as an officer, but as a function of the board of directors, and in such case the secretary shall perform the usual accounting duties of the treasurer excepting that the funds shall be deposited only as and where authorized by the board of directors.

618.14 Removal of officers and directors.—

(1) Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the secretary of the association, together with a petition signed by 10 percent of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The removal shall be voted upon at the next regular or special meeting of the association, and by a vote of a majority of the members, the association may remove the officer or director and fill the vacancy. The director or officer against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of the charges previous to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present witnesses, and the person bringing the charges against him shall have the same opportunity.

(2) In case the bylaws provide for election of directors by districts with primary elections in each district then the petition for removal of a director must be signed by 20 percent of the members residing in the district from which he was elected. The board of directors must call a special meeting of the members residing in that district to consider the removal of the director. By a vote of the majority of the members of that district, the director in question shall be removed from office.

History.—s. 15, ch. 9300, 1923; CGL 6480; s. 15, ch. 14675, 1931.

620.11 Status of person erroneously believing himself limited partner.—A person who has contributed to the capital of a business conducted by a person or partnership erroneously believing that he has become a limited partner in a limited partnership is not, by reason of his exercise of the rights of a limited partner, a general partner with the person or in the partnership carrying on the business, or bound by the obligations of such person or partnership; provided, that on ascertaining the mistake he promptly renounces his interest in the profits of the business or other compensation by way of income.

No limited partner shall in respect to any such claim:

(a) Receive or hold as collateral security any partnership property, or

(b) Receive from a general partner or the partnership any payment, conveyance, or release from liability, if at the time the assets of the partnership are not sufficient to discharge partnership liabilities to persons not claiming as general or limited partners.

(2) The receiving of collateral security, or a payment, conveyance, or release in violation of the provisions of subsection (1) is a fraud on the creditors of the partnership.

620.14 Relation of limited partners inter se.—

Where there are several limited partners the members may agree that one or more of the limited partners shall have a priority over other limited partners as to the return of their contributions, as to their compensation by way of income, or as to any other matter. History.—s. 15, ch. 21887, 1943.
cf.—s. 620.10 Rights of limited partner.

620.16 Withdrawal or reduction of limited partner's contribution.—

(1) A limited partner shall not receive from a general partner or out of partnership property any part of his contribution until:

(a) All liabilities of the partnership, except liabilities to general partners and to limited partners on account of their contributions, have been paid or there remains property of the partnership sufficient to pay them.

(b) The consent of all members is had, unless the return of the contribution may be rightfully demanded under the provisions of subsection (2), and

(c) The certificate is canceled or so amended as to set forth the withdrawal or reduction.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), a limited partner may rightfully demand the return of his contribution:

(a) On the dissolution of a partnership, or

(b) When the date specified in the certificate for its return has arrived, or

(c) After he has given 6 months' notice in writing to all other members, if no time is specified in the certificate either for the return of the contribution or for the dissolution of the partnership.

(3) In the absence of any statement in the certificate to the contrary or the consent of all members, a limited partner, irrespective of the nature of his contribution, has only the right to demand and receive cash in return for his contribution.

(4) A limited partner may have the partnership dissolved and its affairs wound up when:

(a) He rightfully but unsuccessfully demands the return of his contribution, or

(b) The other liabilities of the partnership have not been paid, or the partnership property is insufficient for their payment as required by subsection (1)(a) and the limited partner would otherwise be entitled to the return of his contribution.

(b) For any unpaid contribution which he agreed in the certificate to make in the future at the time and on the conditions stated in the certificate.

(2) A limited partner holds as trustee for the partnership:

(a) Specific property stated in the certificate as contributed by him, but which was not contributed or which has been wrongfully returned, and

(b) Money or other property wrongfully paid or conveyed to him on account of his contribution.

(3) The liabilities of a limited partner as set forth in this section can be waived or compromised only by the consent of all members; but a waiver or compromise shall not affect the right of a creditor of a partnership, who extended credit or whose claim arose after the filing and before a cancellation or amendment of the certificate, to enforce such liabilities.

(4) When a contributor has rightfully received the return in whole or in part of the capital of his contribution, he is nevertheless liable to the partnership for any sum, not in excess of such return with interest, necessary to discharge its liabilities to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims arose before such return.

(4) An assignee shall have the right to become a substituted limited partner if all the members (except the assignor) consent thereto or if the assignor, being thereunto empowered by the certificate, gives the assignee that right.

(5) An assignee becomes a substituted limited partner when the certificate is appropriately amended in accordance with s. 620.25.

(6) The substituted limited partner has all the rights and powers, and is subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of his assignor, except those liabilities of which he was ignorant at the time he became a limited partner and which could not be ascertained from the certificate.

(7) The substitution of the assignee as a limited partner does not release the assignor from liability to the partnership under ss. 620.06 and 620.17.

History.—s. 19, ch. 21887, 1943.

620.20 Effect of retirement, death, or insanity of general partner.—The retirement, death, or insanity of a general partner dissolves the partnership, unless the business is continued by the remaining general partners:

(2) The interest may be redeemed with the separate property of any general partner, but may not be redeemed with partnership property.

(3) The remedies conferred by subsection (1) shall not be deemed exclusive of others which may exist.

(4) Nothing in this part shall be held to deprive a limited partner of his statutory exemption.

History.—s. 22, ch. 21887, 1943.

620.23 Distribution of assets.—

(1) In settling accounts after dissolution the liabilities of the partnership shall be entitled to payment in the following order:

History.—s. 3, ch. 59-395.

620.43 Issuance of permit.—Upon the filing of such copy the Department of State shall, if the objects of the limited partnership are such as are not prohibited by the laws of the state, issue a permit allowing such foreign limited partnership to transact business in this state and such partnership shall thereupon be empowered to exercise all and be limited to the same rights, powers, and privileges as like partnerships organized under the laws of this state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 59-395; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

620.44 Fees payable to Department of State.

—The fees of the Department of State under part II of this chapter shall be as follows: For receiving, filing and indexing certificates, statements, affidavits, decrees, or any other papers provided for by this chapter, a filing fee in each case to be paid at the time of the first filing and on January 1 annually thereafter an amount based upon the amount of capital employed or to be employed in the state according to the following schedule: Four dollars per $1,000 of invested capital; provided, however, that no filing fee shall be less than $30 nor more than $1,000. Upon the payment of such filing fee, on the first filing, and on each annual payment thereafter, the Department of State shall issue its permit of authority to do business to said limited partnership and it shall be unlawful for such limited partnership to transact business as such until such filing fee has been paid; provided, further, that the annual filing fee payable on January 1 next following the date of the original filing the amount of the filing fee shall be prorated for that portion of the year the limited partnership has existed between the original filing date and the next ensuing January 1. Such permit of authority to be issued by the Department of State shall be prima facie evidence of the right of such limited partnership to do business under the terms and provisions of this part and shall be considered as the payment to the state for the rights, privileges, protection, and benefits conveyed by the provisions of part II of this chapter, and no such limited partnership shall do business in this state without first having obtained the permit of authority of the Department of State for the ensuing year.

History.—s. 5, ch. 59-395; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 19, ch. 71-114.

620.45 Filing of amendments to certificate.—

Every foreign limited partnership amending its certificate after receiving a permit as provided in s. 620.43, shall within 60 days after such amendment, file a duly authenticated copy thereof with the Department of State. The Department of State shall issue to the partnership a certificate of the filing after receipt of a filing fee of $10.

History.—s. 6, ch. 59-395; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

620.46 Revocation of permit.—The Department of State may revoke a permit of any foreign limited partnership failing to file any report or pay any tax required by part II of this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 59-395; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

620.47 Validity of contracts of partnership unaffected by noncompliance.—The failure of any foreign limited partnership to comply with the provisions of part II of this chapter, shall not affect the validity of any contract with such foreign limited partnership, but no action shall be maintained or recovery had in any of the courts of this state by any such partnership or its successors or assigns so long as such foreign limited partnership fails to comply with the provisions of part II of this chapter.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-395.

620.48 Penalty for violations.—The members of any foreign limited partnership, whether general or special partners, who shall violate the provisions of this part prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign limited partnerships for profit may transact business or acquire, hold, or dispose of property in this state shall be held liable for the debts of the limited partnership as general partners.

History.—s. 8, ch. 59-395.

620.49 Service of process.—Service of process may be had on any general partner found in Florida and shall be valid as if served on each individual member of the partnership. In the event no general partner can be found in Florida, service of process may be effected by service upon the Department of State as agent of said limited partnership as provided for in s. 48.181.

History.—s. 9, ch. 59-395; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

- (1) A person has knowledge of a fact not only when he has actual knowledge of it, but also when he has knowledge of such other facts as in the circumstances show bad faith.
- (2) A person has notice of a fact when another person claiming the benefit of the notice:
  - (a) States the fact to the person, or
  - (b) Delivers through the mail or by other means of communication a written statement of the fact to the person or to his agent at his place of business or residence.

History.—s. 3, ch. 72-108.

620.575 Rules of construction.—

- (1) The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this part.
- (2) The law of estoppel and of agency shall apply under this part.
- (3) This part shall be so interpreted and construed as to make uniform the law of those states that enact it.
- (4) This part shall not be construed to impair the obligation of any contract existing when the act goes into effect nor to affect any action or proceedings begun or right that has accrued before this act takes effect, but otherwise all partnerships shall be governed by this part, whether formed before or after its effective date.

History.—s. 4, ch. 72-108.

620.58 Rules for cases not provided for in this part.—In any case not provided for in this part, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall govern.

History.—s. 5, ch. 72-108.

620.585 "Partnership" defined.—

(1) A "partnership" is an association of two or more persons to carry on a business for profit as coowners.

(2) An association formed under any other statute of this state, or any statute adopted by authority other than the authority of this state, is not a partnership under this part unless the association would have been a partnership in this state before the adoption of this part. This part shall apply to limited partnerships except insofar as the statutes relating to limited partnerships are inconsistent with this part.

History.—s. 6, ch. 72-108.

620.59 Rules for determining the existence of a partnership.—In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules shall apply:

(1) Except as provided by s. 620.635, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to third persons.

(2) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership of itself does not establish a partnership, whether the coowners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

(3) The sharing of gross returns of itself does not establish a partnership, whether the persons sharing them do or do not have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

(4) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business, but no such inference shall be drawn if the profits were received in payment:

- (a) Of a debt by installments or otherwise;
- (b) As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord;
- (c) As an annuity to a widow or representative of a deceased partner;
- (d) As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business; or
- (e) As the consideration for the sale of goodwill of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

History.—s. 7, ch. 72-108.

620.595 Partnership property.—

(1) All property originally brought into the partnership or subsequently acquired by purchase or otherwise on account of the partnership is partnership property.

(2) Unless a contrary intention appears, property acquired with partnership funds is partnership property.

(3) Any estate in real property may be acquired in the partnership name. Title so acquired may be conveyed in the partnership name.

(4) A conveyance to a partnership in the partnership name, though without words of inheritance, passes the entire estate of the grantor, unless a contrary intent appears.

History.—s. 8, ch. 72-108.

620.60 Partner agent of partnership.—

(1) Every partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. The act of every partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the partnership of which he is a member, binds the partnership, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter, and the person with whom he is dealing has knowledge of the fact that he has no authority.

(2) An act of a partner that is not apparently for the carrying on of the business of the partnership in the usual way does not bind the partnership unless authorized by the other partners.

(3) Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have abandoned the business, one or more, but less than all, of the partners have no authority to:

- (a) Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the assignee's promise to pay the debts of the partnership.
- (b) Dispose of the goodwill of the business.
- (c) Do any other act that would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of a partnership.
- (d) Confess a judgment.
- (e) Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or reference.

(4) No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on authority shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

History.—s. 9, ch. 72-108.

620.605 Conveyance of real property of the partnership.—

(1) When title to real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title to the property by a conveyance executed in the partnership name; but the partnership may recover the property unless the partner's act binds the partnership under the provisions of s. 620.60(1), or unless the purchaser or his assignee is a holder for value without knowledge that the partner has exceeded his authority in making the conveyance. When title is held in the partnership name and it is necessary to identify the partners at the time of a conveyance, encumbrance, or other instrument affecting partnership real property, one of the partners may execute an affidavit stating the names of the partners and that they are the partners then existing. The affidavit shall be conclusive as to the facts therein stated as to purchasers without notice.

(2) When title to real property is in the name of one or more, but not all, of the partners, and the public records do not disclose the right of the partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey title to the property, but the partnership may recover the property if the partners' act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of s. 620.60(1) unless the purchaser or his assignee is a holder for value without knowledge that the partners have exceeded their authority in making the conveyance.

(3) When the title to real property is in the names of all the partners, a conveyance must be executed by all the partners, including the personal representative of a deceased partner.

History.—s. 10, ch. 72-108; s. 159, ch. 73-333.

620.61 Partnership bound by admission of partner.—An admission or representation made by any partner concerning partnership affairs within the scope of his authority is evidence against the partnership.

History.—s. 11, ch. 72-108.

620.615 Partnership charged with knowledge of or notice.—Notice to any partner of a matter concerning partnership affairs, and the knowledge of the partner acting in the particular matter, acquired while a partner or then present to his mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operate as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

History.—s. 12, ch. 72-108.

620.62 Partnership bound by partner's wrongful act.—When loss or injury is caused to a person, not a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred by a wrongful act or omission of a partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or with the authority of his co-partners, the partnership is liable for it to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

History.—s. 13, ch. 72-108.

620.625 Partnership bound by partner's breach of trust.—The partnership is bound to make good the loss:

(1) When one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and

(2) When the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by a partner while it is in the custody of the partnership.

History.—s. 14, ch. 72-108.

620.63 Nature of partner's liability.—All partners are liable:

(1) Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under ss. 620.62 and 620.625.

(2) Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership; but a partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract.

History.—s. 15, ch. 72-108.

620.635 Partner by estoppel.—

(1) When a person represents himself, or consents to another representing him, to anyone as a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners by words spoken or written or by conduct, he is liable to any person to whom the representation has been made who has given credit on the faith of the representation to the actual or apparent partnership, and if he has made the representation or consented to its being made in a public manner, he is liable to the person, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

(a) When a partnership liability results, he is liable as though he were an actual member of the partnership.

(b) When no partnership liability results, he is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability; otherwise he is liable separately.

(2) When a person has been thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual partners, he is an agent of the persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though he were a partner with respect to persons who rely upon the representation. When all members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results; but otherwise it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the representation.

History.—s. 16, ch. 72-108.

620.64 Liability of incoming partner.—A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is liable for all the obligations of the partnership arising before his admission as though he had been a partner when the obligations were incurred, except that this liability shall be satisfied only out of partnership property.

History.—s. 17, ch. 72-108.

620.645 Rules determining rights and duties of partners.—The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:

(1) Each partner shall be repaid his contributions, whether by way of capital or advances, to the partnership property, and shall share equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, are satisfied; and must contribute toward the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to his share in the profits.

(2) The partnership must indemnify every partner for payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by him in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business or for the preservation of its business or property.

(3) A partner who in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of capital that he agreed to contribute shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(4) A partner shall receive interest on the capital contributed by him from the date when repayment should be made.

(5) All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(6) No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services in winding up the partnership affairs.

(7) No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners.

(8) Any difference arising about ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners; but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without the consent of all the partners.

History.—s. 18, ch. 72-108.

620.65 Partnership books.—The partnership books shall be kept, subject to any agreement between the partners, at the principal place of business of the partnership, and every partner shall have access to and may inspect and copy any of them at all times.

History.—s. 19, ch. 72-108.

620.655 Duty of partners to render information.—On demand partners shall render true and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or the legal representative of any deceased partner or partner under legal disability.

History.—s. 20, ch. 72-108.

620.66 Partner accountable as a fiduciary.—

(1) Every partner must account to the partnership for any benefit, and hold as trustee for it any profits, derived by him without the consent of the other partners from any transaction connected with the formation, conduct, or liquidation of the partnership or from any use by him of its property.

(2) This section applies also to the representatives of a deceased partner engaged in the liquidation of the affairs of the partnership as the personal representatives of the last surviving partner.

History.—s. 21, ch. 72-108.

620.665 Right to an account.—Any partner shall have the right to a formal account of partnership affairs:

(1) If he is wrongfully excluded from the partnership business or possession of its property by his copartners.

(2) If the right exists under the terms of an agreement.

(3) As provided by s. 620.66.

(4) At any other reasonable time.

History.—s. 22, ch. 72-108.

620.67 Continuation of partnership beyond fixed term.—

(1) When a partnership for a fixed term or particular undertaking is continued after the termination of the term or undertaking without an express agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at termination so far as is consistent with a partnership at will.

(2) A continuation of the business by the partners or such of them as habitually acted in it during the term without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs is prima facie evidence of a continuation of the partnership.

History.—s. 23, ch. 72-108.

620.675 Extent of property rights of a partner.—The property rights of a partner are:

- (1) His rights in specific partnership property;
- (2) His interest in the partnership; and
- (3) His right to participate in the management.

History.—s. 24, ch. 72-108.

620.68 Nature of a partner's right in specific partnership property.—

(1) A partner is coowner with his partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.

(2) The incidents of this tenancy are such that:

(a) Subject to the provisions of this part and to any agreement between the partners, a partner has an equal right with his partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes; but he has no right to possess the property for any other purpose without the consent of his partners.

(b) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property.

(c) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment or execution, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt, the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the homestead or exemption laws.

(d) On the death of a partner his right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except when the deceased was the last surviving partner, his right in the property vests in his legal representative. The surviving partner or partners or the legal representative of the last surviving partner has no right to possess the partnership property except for a partnership purpose.

(e) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to widows, heirs, or next of kin.

History.—s. 25, ch. 72-108.

620.685 Nature of partner's interest in the partnership.—A partner's interest in the partnership is his share of the profits and surplus. It is personal property.

History.—s. 26, ch. 72-108.

620.69 Assignment of partner's interest.—

(1) A conveyance by a partner of his interest in the partnership of itself does not dissolve the partnership, nor, as against the other partners in the absence of agreement, entitle the assignee to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, to require any information or account of partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books during the continuance of the partnership. It entitles the assignee to receive the profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled in accordance with his contract.

(2) If the partnership is dissolved, the assignee is entitled to receive his assignor's interest and may require an account from the date of the last account agreed to by all the partners.

History.—s. 27, ch. 72-108.

620.695 Partner's interest subject to charging order.—

(1) On application to a court having jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court may charge the interest of the debtor partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest, and may then or later appoint a receiver of his share of the profits and of any other money due or to become due to him from the partnership, and make all other orders to take the actions that the debtor partner might have made or that the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) The partner's interest charged may be redeemed at any time before foreclosure, or, in case of a sale being directed by the court, may be purchased without thereby causing a dissolution:

(a) With separate property by any one or more of the partners; or

(b) With partnership property by any one or more of the partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not charged or sold.

(3) Nothing in this part shall deprive a partner of any right under the exemption laws covering his interest in the partnership.

History.—s. 28, ch. 72-108.

620.70 "Dissolution" defined.—The "dissolution" of a partnership is the change in the relation of the partners caused by a partner ceasing to be associated in the carrying on, as distinguished from the winding up, of the business.

History.—s. 29, ch. 72-108.

620.705 Partnership not terminated by dissolution.—On dissolution the partnership is not terminated, but continues until the winding up of partnership affairs is completed.

History.—s. 30, ch. 72-108.

620.71 Causes of dissolution.—Dissolution is caused:

(1) Without violation of the agreement between the partners:

(a) By the termination of the definite term or particular undertaking specified in the agreement,

(b) By the expressed decision of a partner when no definite term or particular undertaking is specified,

(c) By the express will of all the partners who have not assigned their interests or suffered them to be charged for their separate debts, either before or after the termination of any specified term or particular undertaking, or

(d) By the expulsion of a partner from the business bona fide in accordance with such a power conferred by the agreement between the partners;

(2) In contravention of the agreement between the partners when the circumstances do not permit a dissolution under any other provision of this section by the expressed decision of a partner at any time;

(3) By any event that makes it unlawful for the business of the partnership to be carried on or for the members to carry it on in partnership;

(4) By the death of any partner;

(5) By the bankruptcy of a partner or the partnership;

(6) By judgment of court under s. 620.715.

History.—s. 31, ch. 72-108.

620.715 Dissolution by decree of court.—The court shall adjudge a dissolution:

(1) On application by or for a partner when:

(a) A partner has been declared a lunatic in a judicial proceeding or is shown to be of unsound mind.

(b) A partner becomes in any other way incapable of performing his part of the partnership contract.

(c) A partner has been guilty of conduct that tends to affect prejudicially the carrying on of the business.

(d) A partner willfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership agreement, or otherwise so conducts himself in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with him.

(e) The business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss.

(f) Any ground under s. 620.71 is found to exist.

(2) On the application of the purchaser of a partner's interest under ss. 620.69 and 620.695:

(a) After the termination of the specified term or particular undertaking.

(b) At any time if the partnership was a partnership at will when the interest was assigned or when the charging order was issued.

History.—s. 32, ch. 72-108.

620.72 General effect of dissolution on authority of partner.—Except as may be necessary to wind up partnership affairs or to complete transactions begun but not then finished, dissolution terminates all authority of a partner to act for the partnership:

(1) With respect to the partners when the dissolution is not by the act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner; or when the dissolution is by the act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner when s. 620.725 so requires.

(2) With respect to persons not partners, as declared in s. 620.73.

History.—s. 33, ch. 72-108.

620.725 Right of partner to contribution from copartners after dissolution.—When the dissolution is caused by the act, death, or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to his copartners for his share of any liability created by a partner acting for the partnership as if the partnership had not been dissolved unless:

(1) The dissolution being by act of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution, or

(2) The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy.

History.—s. 34, ch. 72-108.

620.73 Power of partner to bind partnership to third persons after dissolution.—

(1) After dissolution a partner can bind the partnership except as provided in subsection (3):

(a) By an act appropriate for winding up partnership affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution;

(b) By a transaction that would bind the partnership if dissolution had not taken place, provided the other party to the transaction:

1. Had extended credit to the partnership before dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the dissolution; or

2. Though he had not extended credit, had nevertheless known of the partnership before dissolution and, having no knowledge or notice of dissolution, the fact of dissolution had not been advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the place or in each place, if more than one, at which the partnership business was regularly carried on.

(2) The liability of a partner under subsection (1)(b) shall be satisfied out of partnership assets alone when before dissolution that partner had been:

(a) Unknown as a partner to the person with whom the contract is made; and

(b) So far unknown and inactive in partnership affairs that the business reputation of the partnership could not be said to have been in any degree due to his connection with it.

(3) The partnership is in no case bound by an act of a partner after dissolution:

(a) When the partnership is dissolved because it is unlawful to carry on the business, unless the act is appropriate for winding up partnership affairs;

(b) When the partner has become bankrupt; or

(c) When the partner has no authority to wind up partnership affairs; except by a transaction with one who:

1. Had extended credit to the partnership before dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of his want of authority; or

2. Had not extended credit to the partnership before dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of his want of authority, the fact of his want of authority had not been advertised in the manner provided for advertising the fact of dissolution in subsection (1)(b)2.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of a person under s. 620.635 who after dissolution represents himself or consents to another representing him as a partner in a partnership engaged in carrying on business.

History.—s. 35, ch. 72-108.

620.735 Effect of dissolution on partner's existing liability.—

(1) The dissolution of the partnership of itself does not discharge the existing liability of any partner.

(2) A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between himself, the partnership creditor and the person or partnership continuing the business. The agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.

(3) When a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed shall be discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the obligations.

(4) The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for all obligations of the partnership incurred while he was a partner but subject to the prior payment of his separate debts.

History.—s. 36, ch. 72-108.

620.74 Right to wind up.—Unless otherwise agreed the partners who have not wrongfully dissolved the partnership or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, not bankrupt, has the right to wind up the partnership affairs; but any partner, his legal representative or his assignee may obtain winding up by the court.

History.—s. 37, ch. 72-108.

620.745 Rights of partners to application of partnership property.—

(1) When dissolution is caused in any way except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner as against his copartners and all persons claiming through them, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. If dissolution is caused by the bona fide expulsion of a partner under the partnership agreement and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under s. 620.735(2), he shall receive in cash only the net amount due him from the partnership.

(2) When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement, the rights of the partners shall be as follows:

(a) Each partner who has not caused dissolution wrongfully shall have:

1. All the rights specified in subsection (1), and

2. The right to damages for breach of the agreement against each partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully.

(b) If all the partners who have not caused the dissolution wrongfully desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, they do so during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property, if they secure the payment by bond approved by the court or pay the value of his interest in the partnership at the dissolution to a partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, less any damages recoverable under paragraph (a)2., and in like manner indemnify him against all present or future partnership liabilities.

(c) A partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully shall have:

1. If the business is not continued under the provisions of paragraph (b), all the rights of a partner under subsection (1), subject to paragraph (a)2.

2. If the business is continued under paragraph (b), the right, as against his copartners and all claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, to have the value of his interest in the partnership, less any damages caused to his copartners by the dissolution, ascertained and paid to him in cash, or the payment secured by bond approved by the court, and to be released from all existing liabilities of the partnership; but in ascertaining the value of the partner's interest, the value of the good will of the business shall not be considered.

History.—s. 38, ch. 72-108.

620.75 Rights when partnership is dissolved for fraud or misrepresentation.—When a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties to it, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled:

(1) To a lien on, or a right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership property after satisfying the partnership liabilities to third persons for any sum of money paid by him for the purchase of an interest in the partnership and for capital or advances contributed by him; and

(2) After all liabilities to third persons have been satisfied to stand in the place of the creditors of the partnership for payments made by him for partnership liabilities; and

(3) To be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all debts and liabilities of the partnership.

History.—s. 39, ch. 72-108.

620.755 Rules for distribution.—In settling accounts between the partners after dissolution, the following rules shall be observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary:

(1) The assets of the partnership are:

(a) The partnership property,

(b) The contributions of the partners necessary for the payment of all the liabilities specified in subsection (2).

(2) The liabilities of the partnership shall rank in order of payment, as follows:

(a) Those owing to creditors other than partners,

(b) Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits,

(c) Those owing to partners for capital,

(d) Those owing to partners for profits.

(3) The assets shall be applied in the order of their declaration in subsection (1) to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

(4) As provided by s. 620.645(1), the partners shall contribute the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities; but if any, but not all, of the partners are insolvent or, not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liabilities.

(5) An assignee for the benefit of creditors or any person appointed by the court may enforce the contributions specified in subsection (4).

(6) Any partner or his legal representative may enforce the contributions specified in subsection (4) to the extent of the amount that he has paid in excess of his share of the liability.

(7) The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for the contributions specified in subsection (4).

(8) When partnership property and the individual properties of the partners are in possession of a court for distribution, partnership creditors shall have priority on partnership property and separate creditors on individual property, saving the rights of lien or secured creditors as heretofore provided.

(9) When a partner has become bankrupt or his estate is insolvent, the claims against his separate property shall rank in the following order:

(a) Those owing to separate creditors,

(b) Those owing to partnership creditors,

(c) Those owing to partners by way of contribution.

History.—s. 40, ch. 72-108.

620.76 Liability of persons continuing the business in certain cases.—

(1) When a new partner is admitted into an existing partnership, or a partner retires and assigns, or the representative of the deceased partner assigns, his rights in partnership property to two or more of the partners, or to one or more of the partners and one or more third persons, and the business is continued without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the first or dissolved partnership are also creditors of the partnership continuing the business.

(2) When all but one partner retire and assign, or the representative of a deceased partner assigns, their rights in partnership property to the remaining partner who continues the business without liquidation of partnership affairs, either alone or with others, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(3) When any partner retires or dies and the business of the dissolved partnership is continued as set forth in subsections (1) and (2) with the consent of the retired partners or the representative of the deceased partner, but without any assignment of his right in partnership property, rights of creditors of the dissolved partnership and of the creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business shall be the same as if the assignment had been made.

(4) When all the partners or their representatives assign their rights in partnership property to one or more third persons who promise to pay the debts and who continue the business of the dissolved partnership, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(5) When any partner wrongfully causes a dissolution and the remaining partners continue the business under the provisions of s. 620.745(2)(b), either alone or with others, and without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(6) When a partner is expelled and the remaining partners continue the business, either alone or with others without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(7) The liability of a third person becoming a partner in the partnership continuing the business under this section to the creditors of the dissolved partnership shall be satisfied out of partnership property only.

(8) When the business of a partnership after dissolution is continued under any conditions set forth in this section, the creditors of the dissolved partnership, as against the separate creditors of the retiring or deceased partner or the representative of the deceased partner, have a prior right to any claim of the retired partner or the representative of the deceased partner against the person or partnership continuing the business on account of the retired or deceased partner's interest in the dissolved partnership or on account of any consideration promised for the interest or for his right in partnership property.

(9) Nothing in this section shall modify any right of creditors to set aside an assignment on the ground of fraud.

(10) The use by the person or partnership continuing the business of the partnership name, or the name of a deceased partner as part of it of itself shall not make the individual property of the deceased partner liable for any debts contracted by the person or partnership.

History.—s. 41, ch. 72-108.

620.765 Rights of retiring partner or estate of deceased partner when the business is contin- ued.—When a partner retires or dies and the business is continued under any of the conditions set forth in s. 620.76(1), (2), (3), (5), or (6) or s. 620.745(2)(b), without any settlement of accounts between him or his estate and the person or partnership continuing the business, unless otherwise agreed, he or his legal representative, as against the persons or partnership, may have the value of his interest at the date of dissolution ascertained, and shall receive as an ordinary creditor an amount equal to the value of his interest in the dissolved partnership with interest or, at his option or that of his legal representative, instead of interest, the profits attributable to the use of his right in the property of the dissolved partnership; but the creditors of the dissolved partnership as against the separate creditors, or the representative of the retired or deceased partner, shall have priority on any claim arising under this section, as provided by s. 620.76(8).

History.—s. 42, ch. 72-108.

- 621.15 Applicability of chapter 67-590.

621.01 Legislative intent.—It is the legislative intent to provide for the incorporation of an individual or group of individuals to render the same professional service to the public for which such individuals are required by law to be licensed or to obtain other legal authorization.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-64.

621.02 Short title.—This act may be cited as the "Professional Service Corporation Act."

History.—s. 2, ch. 61-64.

621.03 Definitions.—As used in this act the following words shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) The term "professional service" means any type of personal service to the public which requires as a condition precedent to the rendering of such service the obtaining of a license or other legal authorization and which prior to the passage of this act and by reason of law could not be performed by a corporation. By way of example and without limiting the generality thereof, the personal services which come within the provisions of this act are the personal services rendered by certified public accountants, public accountants, chiropractors, dentists, osteopaths, physicians and surgeons, doctors of medicine, doctors of dentistry, podiatrists, chiropodists, architects, veterinarians, attorneys-at-law, and life insurance agents.

(2) The term "professional corporation" means a corporation which is organized under this act for the sole and specific purpose of rendering professional service and which has as its shareholders only individuals who themselves are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized within this state to render the same professional service as the corporation.

History.—s. 3, ch. 61-64.

621.04 Exemptions.—This act shall not apply to any individuals or groups of individuals within this state who prior to the passage of this act were permitted to organize a corporation and perform personal services to the public by the means of a corporation, and this act shall not apply to any corporations organized by such individual or group of individuals prior to the passage of this act; provided, however, any such individual or group of individuals or any such corporation may bring themselves and such corporation within the provisions of this act by amending the articles of incorporation in such a manner so as to be consistent with all the provisions of this act and by affirmatively stating in the amended articles of incorporation that the shareholders have elected to bring the corporation within the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 4, ch. 61-64.

621.05 Corporation organization.—An individual or group of individuals duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same professional services within this state may organize and become a shareholder or shareholders of a professional corporation for pecuniary profit under the provisions of chapter 607 for the sole and specific purpose of rendering the same and specific professional service.

History.—s. 5, ch. 61-64; s. 10, ch. 79-9.

621.06 Rendition of professional services, limitations.—No corporation organized and incorporated under this act may render professional services except through its officers, employees, and agents who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within this state; provided, however, this provision shall not be interpreted to include in the term "employee," as used herein, clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, and other assistants who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be rendering professional services to the public for which a license or other legal authorization is required; and provided further, that nothing contained in this act shall be interpreted to require that the right of an individual to be a shareholder of a corporation organized under this act, or to organize such a corporation, is dependent upon the present or future existence of an employment relationship between him and such corporation, or his present or future active participation in any capacity in the production of the income of such corporation or in the performance of the services rendered by such corporation.

History.—s. 6, ch. 61-64; s. 1, ch. 67-590.

621.07 Liability of officers, shareholders, corporation, etc.—Nothing contained in this act shall be interpreted to abolish, repeal, modify, restrict, or limit the law now in effect in this state applicable to the professional relationship and liabilities between the person furnishing the professional services and the person receiving such professional service and to the standards for professional conduct; provided, however, that any officer, agent, or employee of a corporation organized under this act shall be personally liable and accountable only for negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by him, or by any person under his direct supervision and control, while rendering professional service on behalf of the corporation to the person for whom such professional services were being rendered; and provided further that the personal liability of shareholders of a corporation organized under this act, in their capacity as shareholders of such corporation, shall be no greater in any aspect than that of a shareholder-employee of a corporation organized under chapter 607. The corporation shall be liable up to the full value of its property for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by any of its officers, agents, or employees while they are engaged on behalf of the corporation in the rendering of professional services.

History.—s. 7, ch. 61-64; s. 2, ch. 67-590; s. 11, ch. 79-9.

621.08 Limitation on corporation's business transactions; investment of funds.—No corporation organized under this act shall engage in any business other than the rendering of the professional services for which it was specifically incorporated; provided, however, nothing in this act or in any other provisions of existing law applicable to corporations shall be interpreted to prohibit such corporation from investing its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investments, or from owning real or personal property necessary for the rendering of professional services.

History.—s. 8, ch. 61-64.

621.09 Limitation on issuance and transfer of stock.—No corporation organized under the provisions of this act may issue any of its capital stock to anyone other than an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which the corporation was incorporated. No shareholder of a corporation organized under this act shall enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of his stock.

History.—s. 9, ch. 61-64.

621.10 Disqualification of shareholder, officer, etc.; forfeiture of charter.—If any officer, shareholder, agent, or employee of a corporation organized under this chapter who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within this state or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, he shall sever all employment with, and financial interests in, such corporation forthwith. A corporation's failure to require compliance with this provision shall constitute a ground for the forfeiture of its articles of incorporation and its dissolution. When a corporation's failure to comply with this provision is brought to the attention of the Department of State, the department forthwith shall certify that fact to the Department of Legal Affairs for appropriate action to dissolve the corporation.

History.—s. 10, ch. 61-64; ss. 10, 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 69-288; s. 1, ch. 70-305; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

621.11 Alienation of shares, restrictions.—No shareholder of a corporation organized under this act may sell or transfer his shares in such corporation except to another individual who is eligible to be a shareholder of such corporation.

History.—s. 11, ch. 61-64; s. 3, ch. 67-590.

621.12 Identification with shareholders.—The corporate name of a corporation organized under this act shall contain the last names of some or all of the shareholders and may contain the last names of retired or deceased former shareholders of the corporation or of a predecessor corporation or partnership. The corporate name shall also contain the word "chartered" or "professional association" or the abbreviation "P.A." The use of the word "company," "corporation," or "incorporated" or any other word, abbreviation, affix, or prefix indicating that it is a corporation in the corporate name of a corporation organized under this act, other than the word "chartered" or "professional association," or the abbreviation "P.A.," is specifically prohibited. It shall be permissible, however, for the corporation to render professional services and to exercise its authorized powers under a name which is identical to its corporate name except that the words "chartered" or "professional association" or the abbreviation "P.A." is omitted, provided that the corporation has first registered the name to be so used in the manner required for the registration of fictitious names.

History.—s. 12, ch. 61-64; s. 1, ch. 77-134.

621.13 Applicability of chapter 607.—Chapter 607 is applicable to a corporation organized pursuant to this act except to the extent that any of the provisions of this act are interpreted to be in conflict with the provisions of chapter 607, and in such event the provisions and sections of this act shall take precedence with respect to a corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this act. A professional corporation organized under this act shall consolidate or merge only with another domestic professional corporation organized under this act to render the same specific professional service, and a merger or consolidation with any foreign corporation is prohibited. A professional corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under this act may change its business purpose from the rendering of professional service to provide for any other lawful purpose by amending its certificate of incorporation in the manner required for an original incorporation under chapter 607. However, such an amendment, when filed with and accepted by the Department of State, shall remove such corporation from the provisions of chapter 621 including, but not limited to, the right to practice a profession. A change of business purpose shall not have any effect on the continued existence of the corporation and the limitations of s. 607.177(1) shall not preclude such an amendment.

History.—s. 13, ch. 61-64; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 69-288; s. 210, ch. 77-104.

621.14 Construction of law.—The provisions of this act shall not be construed as repealing, modifying, or restricting the applicable provisions of law relating to incorporations, sales of securities, or regulating the several professions enumerated in this act except insofar as such laws conflict with the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 15, ch. 61-64.

621.15 Applicability of chapter 67-590.—The amendments to ss. 621.06, 621.07 and 621.11 by chapter 67-590, Laws of Florida, shall apply to all corporations heretofore or hereafter organized under this act.

History.—s. 4, ch. 67-590.

624.401 Certificate of authority required.—

(1) No person shall act as an insurer and no insurer or its agents, attorneys, subscribers, or representatives, shall directly or indirectly transact insurance in this state except as authorized by a subsisting certificate of authority issued to the insurer by the department, except as to such transactions as are expressly otherwise provided for in this code.

(2) No insurer shall from offices or by personnel or facilities located in this state solicit insurance applications or otherwise transact insurance in another state or country unless it holds a subsisting certificate of authority issued to it by the department authorizing it to transact the same kind or kinds of insurance in this state.

(3) This state hereby preempts the field of regulating insurers and their agents and representatives, and no county, city, municipality, district, school district, or political subdivision shall require of any insurer, agent, or representative regulated under this code any authorization, permit, or registration of any kind for conducting transactions lawful under the authority granted by the state under this code.

624.402 Exceptions, certificate of authority required.—A certificate of authority shall not be required of an insurer with respect to the following:

(1) Investigation, settlement, or litigation of claims under its policies lawfully written in this state, or liquidation of assets and liabilities of the insurer (other than collection of new premiums), all as resulting from its former authorized operations in this state.

(2) Transactions involving a policy, subsequent to issuance thereof, covering only subjects of insurance not resident, located, or expressly to be performed in this state at time of issuance, and lawfully solicited, written, or delivered outside this state.

(3) Transactions pursuant to surplus lines coverages lawfully written under part VI of chapter 626.

(4) Reinsurance, when transacted as authorized under s. 624.610.

(5) The continuation and servicing of life insurance or disability insurance policies or annuity contracts remaining in force as to residents of this state where the insurer has withdrawn from the state and is not transacting new insurance therein.

History.—s. 46, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

624.403 Authorization for investment purposes only.—A foreign insurer may transact business in this state without certificate of authority, for the purpose and to the extent only of investing its funds in Florida real estate or in securities secured thereby, by complying with the laws of this state relating to foreign business corporations in general. Such an insurer shall not be subject to any other provisions of this code.

History.—s. 47, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

624.404 General eligibility of insurers for certificate of authority.—To qualify for and hold authority to transact insurance in this state an insurer must be otherwise in compliance with this code and with its charter powers, and must be an incorporated stock insurer, or an incorporated mutual insurer, or a reciprocal insurer, of the same general type as may be formed as a domestic insurer under this code; except that:

(1) No insurer shall be authorized to transact insurance in this state which does not maintain reserves as required by part I of chapter 625 (Assets and Liabilities) applicable to the kind or kinds of insurance transacted by such insurer, wherever transacted in the United States; or which transacts insurance in the United States on the assessment premium plan, stipulated premium plan, cooperative plan, or any similar plan.

(2) No foreign insurer shall be authorized to transact insurance in this state unless it is otherwise qualified therefor under this code and has operated satisfactorily for at least 3 years in its state or country of domicile or is the wholly owned subsidiary of an insurer which is an authorized insurer in this state, or is the successor in interest through merger or consolidation of an authorized insurer.

(3) The department shall not grant or continue authority to transact insurance in this state as to any insurer the management of which is found by it to be incompetent or untrustworthy, or so lacking in insurance company managerial experience as to make the proposed operation hazardous to the insurance-buying public; or which it has good reason to believe is affiliated directly or indirectly through ownership, control, reinsurance transactions or other insurance or business relations, with any person or persons whose business operations are or have been marked, to the detriment of policyholders or stockholders or investors or creditors or of the public, by manipulation of assets, or of accounts, or of reinsurance, or by bad faith.

(4) No insurer, the voting control or ownership of which is held in whole or substantial part by any government or governmental agency, or which is operated for or by any such government or agency, shall be authorized to transact insurance in this state. Membership in a mutual insurer, or subscription in a reciprocal insurer, or ownership of stock of an insurer by the alien property custodian or similar official of the United States, or supervision of an insurer by public insurance supervisory authority shall not be deemed to be an ownership, control, or operation of the insurer for the purposes of this subsection.

(5) No authorized insurer shall act as a fronting company for any unauthorized insurer. A "fronting company" is an authorized insurer which by reinsurance or otherwise generally transfers to one or more unauthorized insurers substantially the entire risk of loss under substantially all of the insurance written by it in this state, on one or more lines of insurance, on all of the business produced through one or more agents or agencies, or on all of the business from a designated geographical territory. This provision shall not apply as to any policies which are in force on the effective date of this code.

(6) No insurer shall be authorized to transact insurance in this state which during the 3 years immediately preceding its application for a certificate of authority has violated any of the insurance laws of this state and after being informed of such violation has failed to correct the same, except, that if all other requirements are met the department may nevertheless issue a certificate of authority to such an insurer upon the filing by the insurer of a sworn statement of all such insurance so written in violation of law, and upon payment to the department of a sum of money as additional filing fee equivalent to all premium taxes and other state taxes and fees as would have been payable by the insurer if such insurance had been lawfully written by an authorized insurer under the laws of this state. This fee when collected shall be deposited to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund.

(7) Nothing in this code shall be deemed to prohibit the granting and continuance of a certificate of authority to a domestic title insurer organized as a business trust, if the declaration of trust of such insurer was filed in the office of the Secretary of State prior to January 1, 1959, and if the insurer otherwise meets the applicable requirements of this code. Such an insurer may hereinafter in this code be referred to as a "business trust insurer."

(8) For the purpose of satisfying the requirements of ss. 624.407 and 624.408, the investment portfolio of an insurer applying for an initial certificate of authority to do business in this state shall value its bonds and stocks at the then current market value.

624.405 Name of insurer.—

(1) No insurer shall be formed or authorized to transact insurance in this state under a name which is the same as that of any other authorized insurer or is so nearly similar thereto as to cause or tend to cause confusion, or which would tend to mislead as to the type of organization of the insurer. Before incorporating under or using any name the insurer or proposed insurer shall submit its name or proposed name to the department for its approval consistent with this provision, and such approval shall be endorsed upon any proposed charter or application for authority which may be submitted to any officer authorized to grant such proposed charter or authority.

(2) Before approving or disapproving the name or proposed name of an insurer the department shall notify all other authorized insurers whose name might be adversely affected, allowing them 30 days after the date of the notice within which to file their objections with it. If a name is so objected to, the department shall disapprove the name unless it is of the opinion that the objections are not well-founded.

(3) No charter or authority shall be granted to any person by any court, office, department, or officer authorized to grant authority or permission to organize or act as an insurer unless the application therefor or proposed charter bears the endorsed approval of the name by the department.

(4) No life insurer shall be so authorized which has or uses a name deceptively similar to that of another insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state within the preceding 5 years if life insurance policies originally issued by such other insurer are still outstanding in this state.

History.—s. 49, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

624.406 Combinations of insuring powers, one insurer.—An insurer which otherwise qualifies therefor may be authorized to transact any one kind or combination of kinds of insurance as defined in part V except:

(1) A life insurer may also grant annuities, but shall not be authorized to transact any other kind of insurance other than disability; except, that the department shall, if the insurer is otherwise qualified therefor, continue to so authorize any life insurer which, immediately prior to the effective date of this code, was lawfully authorized to transact in this state a kind or kinds of insurance in addition to life and disability.

(2) A reciprocal insurer shall not transact life insurance.

(3) Except as to domestic mutual title insurers, or domestic business trust title insurers as referred to in s. 624.404(7), so authorized prior to the effective date of this code, a title insurer shall be a stock insurer.

History.—s. 50, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

(3) As to surplus required for qualification to transact one or more kinds of insurance and thereafter to be maintained, new domestic mutual insurers are governed by chapter 628 of this code, and domestic reciprocal insurers are governed by chapter 629.

1624.408 Special surplus requirements; new insurers.—

(1) In addition to the minimum paid-in capital stock (stock insurers), minimum surplus (mutual and reciprocal insurers), or net trust fund (business trust insurers) required by s. 624.407, an insurer hereafter applying for an initial certificate of authority in this state shall possess, when first authorized in this state, surplus or additional surplus or additional net trust fund equal to the larger of $1,000,000 (stock, mutual, reciprocal and business trust insurers) or 50 percent of its paid-in capital stock (stock insurers).

(2) If within 3 years after date of its initial certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state such an insurer requests authority to transact an additional kind or kinds of insurance, it shall not be so authorized unless it then possesses surplus or additional surplus in such an amount as would be required under this section as for an original certificate of authority covering all the kinds of insurance the insurer then proposes to transact.

(3)(a) After issuance of its initial certificate of authority, the insurer shall maintain a surplus or net trust fund such as required under this section of not less than $100,000, except that a title insurer must at all times have the surplus as to policyholders as provided for in s. 624.409(2).

(b) After issuance of its initial certificate of authority, any insurer which is issued a certificate of authority on or after May 22, 1979, shall maintain a surplus or net trust fund such as required under this section of not less than $250,000, except that a title insurer must at all times have the surplus as to policyholders as provided in s. 624.409(2).

1624.409 Capital and surplus funds required; old insurers.—

(1) Any insurer possessing a subsisting certificate of authority in this state, or which has filed an application thereof, together with all necessary and pertinent documents, immediately prior to January 1, 1968, may continue to be so authorized to transact the same kind or kinds of insurance while otherwise qualified for such authority and while possessing and maintaining the amount of paid-in capital stock and surplus (if a stock insurer), surplus (if a mutual or reciprocal insurer), or net trust fund (if a business trust insurer), together with any escalated increases thereof, as required as if the applicable laws in force immediately prior to January 1, 1968, had continued in force.

(2) A title insurer must at all times have and maintain surplus as to policyholders in the amount of not less than $400,000; and if the insurer is a stock insurer not less than $100,000 of such surplus as to policyholders must be represented by paid-in capital stock; provided also that a minimum surplus of $200,000 shall be maintained at all times by a title insurer.

(3) Except, that any such insurer which after the effective date of this code requests authority to transact any kind or kinds of insurance in addition to those it was authorized to transact prior thereto shall possess and maintain unimpaired the same amount of paid-in capital stock (if a stock insurer) or surplus (if a mutual or reciprocal insurer) or net trust fund (if a business trust insurer) as would be required of a new insurer under s. 624.407 for authority to transact all the kinds of insurance the insurer then proposes to transact.

(4) Surety insurers having unimpaired paid-in capital stock (if a stock insurer) or unimpaired surplus (if a mutual or reciprocal insurer) of less than $250,000 are not acceptable as surety upon the bonds of the city, county and state officers, under s. 627.754.

(2) A casualty insurer may be authorized to transact also disability insurance without additional capital or additional surplus.

(3) A property insurer may without additional capital or additional surplus include such amount and kind of insurance against legal liability for injury, damage, or loss to the person or property of others, and for medical, hospital, and surgical expense related to such injury, as the department deems to be reasonably incidental to insurance of real property against fire and other perils under policies covering residential properties involving not more than four families, with or without incidental office, professional, private school or studio occupancy by an insured, whether or not the premium or rate charged for certain perils so covered is specified in the policy. Any provision of s. 624.609 (Limits of risk) to the contrary notwithstanding, no insurer authorized as to property insurance only shall, pursuant to this subsection, retain risk as to any one subject of insurance as to hazards other than property insurance hazards, in an amount exceeding 5 percent of its surplus to policyholders.

- (d) To transact surety insurance, $75,000.

provided that if a foreign insurer writes more than one kind of insurance in this state listed from (a) through (d) of this subsection, it shall not be required to deposit more than $75,000. Such deposits shall be for the protection of the insurer's policyholders or its policyholders and creditors; and provided further that if a foreign insurer has a surplus to policyholders of not less than $1 million of which not less than $500,000 is unassigned surplus, according to the latest annual statement, such foreign insurer shall not be required to make such deposit.

(3) In addition to the deposits otherwise required pursuant to this section, the department may, after notice and hearing, require any insurer, for good cause shown, to deposit and maintain deposited in trust for the protection of the insurer's policyholders or its policyholders and creditors, for such time as the department deems necessary, securities eligible for such deposit under s. 625.52, having a value of not less than the amount which the department shall determine is necessary, which amount shall be not less than $75,000, or more than $1 million, depending on the insurer's obligations in this state.

(4) All such deposits in this state are subject to the applicable provisions of part III of chapter 625 (Administration of Deposits).

(3) Any such deposit made in this state shall be held for the protection of the insurer's policyholders or policyholders and creditors in the United States and shall be subject to the applicable provisions of part III of chapter 625 (Administration of Deposits) and chapter 630 (Alien Insurers).

(2) The department shall issue to the applicant insurer a proper certificate of authority if it finds that:

(a) The insurer has met the other requirements of this code; and

(b) With reference to a domestic company, the issuance of such certificate of authority would not have a substantial adverse effect on the stability of the insurance industry of this state and would be in the best interest of the public. In making its finding, the department shall take into consideration the number of outstanding certificates of authority and the number of new certificates issued within the immediately preceding 3 years.

(3) If it does not so find, the department shall issue its order refusing the certificate.

(4) The certificate, if issued, shall specify the kind or kinds of insurance the insurer is authorized to transact in this state. At the insurer's request, the department may issue a certificate of authority limited to particular types of insurance or insurance coverages within the scope of a kind of insurance as defined in part V.

624.416 Continuance, expiration, reinstatement and amendment of certificate of authority.—

(1) Certificates of authority issued or renewed under this code shall continue in force as long as the insurer is entitled thereto under this code and until suspended, revoked, or terminated at the request of the insurer; subject, however, to continuance of the certificate by the insurer each year by:

(1) Each authorized insurer shall annually on or before March 1, or within such extension of time therefor as the department, for good cause, may have granted, file with the department a full and true statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs as of the December 31 preceding. The statement shall be in such general form and context as approved or adopted for current use by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or its successor organization, for use as to the type of insurer and kinds of insurance to be reported upon, and as supplemented for additional information required by the department. The statement shall be verified by the oath of two executive officers of the insurer; or if a reciprocal insurer, by the oath of the attorney in fact or its like officers if a corporation.

(2) The statement of an alien insurer shall be verified by the insurer's United States manager or other officer duly authorized. It shall be a separate statement, to be known as its general statement, of its transactions, assets, and affairs within the United States unless the department requires otherwise. If the department requires a statement as to the insurer's affairs elsewhere, the insurer shall file such statement with the department as soon as reasonably possible.

(3) Each insurer having a deposit as required under s. 624.411 (Deposit requirement, domestic and foreign insurers) shall file with the department annually with its annual statement a certificate to the effect that the assets so deposited have a market value equal to or in excess of the amount of deposit so required.

(4) At time of filing, the insurer shall pay the fee for filing its annual statement in the amount specified in s. 624.501 (Filing, license, and miscellaneous fees).

(5) The department may refuse to continue, or may suspend or revoke, the certificate of authority of an insurer failing to file its annual statement and accompanying certificates when due.

(6) In addition to information called for and furnished in connection with its annual statement, an insurer shall furnish to the department as soon as reasonably possible such information as to its transactions or affairs as the department may from time to time request in writing. All such information furnished pursuant to the department's request shall be verified by the oath of two executive officers of the insurer, or, if a reciprocal insurer, by the oath of the attorney in fact or its like officers if a corporation.

(7) The signatures of all such persons when written on annual statements or other reports required by this section shall be presumed to have been so written by authority of the person whose signature is affixed thereon. The affixing of any signature by anyone other than the purported signer shall constitute a violation of this section and be punishable as provided in s. 626.957.

(8) The department may require an insurer to furnish an annual certified financial report which shall reflect the audited financial condition of the insurer as of the end of the calendar year and its operations, changes in financial position, and changes in capital and surplus for the year then ended, in conformity with statutory accounting practices prescribed, or otherwise permitted, by the Department of Insurance.

(1) Except as stated in s. 624.426, no authorized property, casualty, or surety insurer shall assume direct liability as to a subject of insurance resident, located, or to be performed in this state unless the policy or contract of insurance is issued by or through, and is countersigned by, a local producing agent who is a resident of this state, regularly commissioned and licensed currently as an agent of the insurer under this code. If two or more authorized insurers issue a single policy of insurance against legal liability for loss or damage to person or property caused by the nuclear energy hazard, or a single policy insuring against loss or damage to property by radioactive contamination, whether or not also insuring against one or more other perils proper to insure against in this state, such policy if otherwise lawful may be countersigned on behalf of all of the insurers by a licensed resident agent of any insurer appearing thereon. Such agent shall receive on each policy or contract the full and usual commission allowed and paid by the insurer to its agents on business written or transacted by them for the insurer.

(2) If any subject of insurance referred to in subsection (1) is insured under a policy, or contract, or certificate of renewal or continuation thereof, issued in another state and covering also property and risks outside this state, a certificate evidencing such insurance as to subjects located, resident, or to be performed in this state, shall be issued by or through and shall be countersigned by the insurer's commissioned and licensed local producing agent resident in this state in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as is provided in subsection (1) as to policies and contracts; except that the compensation to be paid to the agent may relate only to the Florida portion of the insurance risks represented by such policy or contract.

(3) An agent shall not sign or countersign in blank any policy to be issued outside of his office, or countersign in blank any countersignature endorsement therefor, or certificate issued thereunder. An agent may give a power of attorney to, or otherwise authorize, the issuing insurance company to countersign such documents by imprinting his name thereon in lieu of manually countersigning said document; but an agent shall not give a power of attorney to, or otherwise authorize, any other person to countersign any such document in his name unless the person so authorized is directly employed by the agent and by no other person, and is so employed in the office of the agent.

(4) This section shall not be deemed to prohibit mutual and reciprocal insurers from using salaried local resident licensed agents for the production and servicing of business in this state and the issuance and countersignature by such agents of insurance policies or contracts, where required under subsection (1), and without payment of commission therefor.

624.509 Premium tax; rate and computation.—

(1) In addition to the license taxes provided for in this chapter, each insurer shall also annually, and on or before March 1 in each year, except as to wet marine and transportation insurance taxed under s. 624.510, pay to the Department of Revenue a tax on insurance premiums or assessments, including membership fees and policy fees and gross deposits received from subscribers to reciprocal or interinsurance agreements, and on annuity premiums or considerations, received during the preceding calendar year, the amounts thereof to be determined as hereinafter set forth in this section to wit:

(a) An amount equal to 2 percent of the gross amount of such receipts on account of life and disability insurance policies covering persons resident in this state and on account of all other types of policies and contracts (except annuity policies or contracts taxable under paragraph (b) hereof) covering property, subjects or risks located, resident or to be performed in this state, omitting premiums on reinsurance accepted, and less return premiums or assessments, but without deductions for reinsurance ceded to other insurers, and without deductions for moneys paid upon surrender of policies or certificates for cash surrender value, and without deductions for discounts or refunds for direct or prompt payment of premiums or assessments, and without deductions on account of dividends of any nature or amount paid and credited or allowed to holders of insurance policies, certificates, or surety, indemnity, or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts or agreements; and

(b) An amount equal to 1 percent of the gross receipts on annuity policies or contracts paid by holders thereof in this state.

(2) Payment by the insurer of the license taxes and premium receipts taxes provided for in part IV of this chapter is a condition precedent to doing business within this state.

(3)(a) Installments of the tax levied under this section shall be due and payable on April 15, July 15, and October 15 in each year, based upon the estimated gross amount of receipts of insurance premiums or assessments received during the immediately preceding calendar quarter. A final payment of tax due for the year shall be made at the time the taxpayer files his return for such year. On or before March 1 in each year, an annual return shall be filed showing, by quarters, the gross amount of receipts taxable for the preceding year and the installment payments made during that year.

(b) Any taxpayer who fails to report and pay any installment of tax, or who estimates any installment of tax to be less than 80 percent of the amount finally shown to be due in any quarter, shall be deemed to be in violation of this section and be subject to a penalty of 10 percent on any underpayment of taxes due and payable for that quarter. Any taxpayer paying, for each installment required herein, 27 percent of the amount of the annual tax reported on his return for the preceding year shall not be subject to the penalty provided by this section.

(c) When any taxpayer fails to pay any amount due hereunder, or any portion thereof, on or before the day when such tax or installment of tax shall be required by law to be paid, there shall be added to the amount due interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date due until paid.

(d) All penalties and interest imposed by this chapter shall be payable to and collectible by the Department of Revenue in the same manner as if they were a part of the tax imposed.

(e) The Department of Revenue, for good cause shown by written request, may eliminate or compromise penalties after its investigation reveals that the penalty would be too severe or unjust, but interest shall be collected.

(f) Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the distribution of the premiums tax and any penalties or interest collected thereunder shall be made to the General Revenue Fund and the cities in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the Department of Insurance and approved by the Administration Commission.

(4) The income tax imposed under chapter 220 which is paid by any insurer shall be credited against, and to the extent thereof discharge, the liability for tax imposed by this section for the annual period in which said income tax payment is made. As to a foreign insurer issuing policies insuring against loss or damage from the risks of fire, tornado, and certain casualty lines, the tax imposed by this section, as intended and contemplated by this subsection, shall be construed to mean the net amount of said tax remaining after there has been credited thereon such gross premium receipts tax as may be payable by such insurer in pursuance of the imposition of such tax by any incorporated cities or towns in the state for firemen's relief and pension funds and policemen's retirement funds maintained in such cities or towns, as provided in and by relevant provisions of Florida Statutes. For purposes of this subsection, payments of estimated income tax under chapter 220 shall be deemed "paid" either at the time the insurer actually files its annual return under chapter 220 or at the time said return is required to be filed, whichever first occurs, and not at such earlier time as such payments of estimated tax are actually made.

<sup>1</sup>(5) From and after July 1, 1980, the premium tax authorized by this section shall not be imposed upon receipts of annuity premiums or considerations paid by holders in this state if the tax savings derived are credited to the holders in this state. Upon request by the Department of Insurance, any insurer availing itself of this provision shall submit to the department evidence which establishes that the tax savings derived have been credited to holders in this state. As used in this subsection, the term "holders" shall be deemed to include employers contributing to an employee's pension, annuity, or profit-sharing plan.

(3) The income tax imposed under chapter 220 which is paid by any insurer shall be credited against, and to the extent thereof discharge, the liability for tax imposed by this section for the annual period in which said income tax payment is made. As to a foreign insurer issuing policies insuring against loss or damage from the risks of fire, tornado, and certain casualty lines, the tax imposed by this section, as intended and contemplated by this subsection, shall be construed to mean the net amount of said tax remaining after there has been credited thereon such gross premium receipts tax as may be payable by such insurer in pursuance of the imposition of such tax by any incorporated cities or towns in the state for firemen's relief and pension funds and policemen's retirement funds maintained in such cities or towns, as provided in and by relevant provisions of Florida Statutes. For purposes of this subsection, payments of estimated income tax under chapter 220 shall be deemed "paid" either at the time the insurer actually files its annual return under chapter 220 or at the time said return is required to be filed, whichever first occurs, and not at such earlier time as such payments of estimated tax are actually made.

History.—s. 85, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-237; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

624.514 Regional home offices of foreign insurers; credits on premium tax liability.—

(1) A foreign insurer formed by or under the laws of any other state or foreign country, which is subject to the taxes imposed by ss. 624.509 and 624.510, and which owns and substantially occupies any building in this state as a regional home office, as hereinafter defined, shall be entitled to a credit against such tax in an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of the tax as determined under said sections. As to a foreign insurer issuing policies insuring against loss or damage from the risks of fire, tornado, and certain casualty lines, the tax imposed by ss. 624.509 and 624.510, as intended and contemplated by the above provisions of this subsection, shall be construed to mean the net amount of said tax remaining after there has been credited thereon such gross premium receipts tax as may be payable by such insurer in pursuance of the imposition of such tax by any incorporated cities or towns in the state for firemen's relief and pension funds and policemen's retirement funds maintained in such cities or towns, as provided in and by relevant provisions of Florida Statutes.

(2) A "regional home office," for the purposes of this section, shall mean an office performing, for an area covering three or more states, or two states and one or more foreign countries, the selling, underwriting, issuing and servicing of insurance, including the following functions relating thereto: Actuarial; medical, where required; law; approval or rejection of applications for insurance and issuance of policies thereon; approval of payment of all types of claims; maintenance of records to provide policyholder information and service; advertising and publications; public relations; and supervision and training of sales and service forces.

(3) Such a foreign insurer shall, on or before March 1 of each year, on forms to be prescribed by the Department of Revenue, furnish proof which shall satisfy the Department of Revenue that such foreign insurer owned and substantially occupied during the preceding calendar year a regional home office, as contemplated by subsection (2). Upon receipt of such proof, the Department of Revenue shall issue to the State Treasurer a certificate that the foreign insurer owned and substantially occupied during the preceding calendar year a building in this state as such a regional home office, with the location thereof, and is entitled to the credits and deductions provided for in subsection (1) with respect to the taxes imposed by ss. 624.509 and 624.510 which accrued during such calendar year and which are payable on or before the following March 1. Provided, that with respect only to the calendar year in which a foreign insurer shall first establish such a regional home office in this state, if the proof filed with the Department of Revenue on or before March 1 of the succeeding year, as above provided in this subsection, shall evidence to the satisfaction of the Department of Revenue that said foreign insurer established such a regional home office in this state on or prior to August 1 of such calendar year and substantially occupied and maintained same during the remainder of such calendar year, then the foreign insurer shall be entitled to the rights, credits and deductions provided in this section as fully as though it had owned and substantially occupied said regional home office during the entire period of such calendar year; and in such event the certificate to be issued by the Department of Revenue to the State Treasurer, as above provided in this subsection, shall be so worded as to accomplish the intent and purpose of this proviso.

(4) Where two or more such foreign insurers, each of which is subject to the taxes imposed by ss. 624.509 and 624.510, are under common ownership or management and control, and which insurers jointly own with equal interest and in the aggregate substantially occupy any building in Florida as a regional home office, as such a regional home office is otherwise described and defined in subsections (1) and (2), and each of which insurers otherwise meets the full requirements of the provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3), shall be granted the rights, benefits and privileges and charged with the duties as set forth in, and included within the provisions of, said subsections (1), (2) and (3) as fully as though each of said insurers substantially owns and occupies such a building in Florida as its said regional home office. In relation to such insurers, the certificate required to be executed and delivered by the Department of Revenue to the State Treasurer as required by subsection (3) shall be conformed to meet the requirements of this subsection. "Common ownership or management and control" in relation to any such two or more foreign corporations shall be construed to mean actual common control of such corporations consequent upon stock ownership or agreements and as a result of the ultimate control of such corporations being vested in one corporate board of directors, or as a result of the persons who are members of the controlling faction of the board of directors of one of such corporations being members of the controlling faction for the board or boards of directors of such other corporation or corporations.

(b) This subsection shall not apply as to retrocessions of insurance by an assuming insurer which handles a substantial volume of reinsurance, unless such retrocessions are found by the department, after hearing, to be for the purpose of evasion of other requirements or prohibitions of this code.

(3) No credit shall be allowed, as an asset or as a deduction from liability, to any ceding insurer for reinsurance unless the reinsurance is payable by the assuming insurer on the basis of the liability of the ceding insurer under the contracts reinsured without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding insurer.

(4) Upon request of the department, a ceding insurer shall promptly inform the department in writing of the cancellation or any other material change of any of its reinsurance treaties or arrangements.

§625.111 Title insurance reserve.—In addition to an adequate reserve as to outstanding losses, as required under s. 625.041, a title insurer shall establish, segregate, and maintain a guaranty fund or unearned premium reserve as hereinafter provided. The sums hereinafter required to be reserved for unearned premiums on title guarantees and policies at all times and for all purposes shall be considered and constitute unearned portions of the original premiums and shall be charged as a reserve liability of such insurer in determining its financial condition. While said sums are so reserved they shall be withdrawn from the use of the insurer for its general purposes, impressed with a trust in favor of the holders of title guarantees and policies, and held available for reinsurance of the title guarantees and policies in the event of the insolvency of the insurer. Nothing herein contained shall preclude such insurer from investing said reserve in investments authorized by law for such an insurer, and the income from such invested reserve shall be included in the general income of the insurer to be used by such insurer for any lawful purpose. This unearned premium reserve shall consist of not less than an amount computed as follows:

(1) Ten percent of the total amount of risk premiums written in the calendar year for title insurance contracts shall be assigned originally to the reserve.

(2) During each of the 20 years next following the year in which the title insurance contract was issued, the reserve applicable to the contract shall be reduced by 5 percent of the original amount of such reserve. In the event that any title insurer has not reduced the amount of any unearned premium reserve heretofore established pursuant to any prior law by 5 percent of the amount originally assigned to the reserve for each year subsequent to the issuance of the title insurance contract, then said title insurer shall, in this calendar year, reduce the amount of its reserve applicable to the contract by 5 percent of the amount originally assigned to the reserve for each year in which no reduction was made, and thereafter shall continue to reduce its reserve as required by this subsection.

(3) Except, that if the title insurer is a business trust, in lieu of the reserves required under subsections (1) and (2), the insurer shall maintain at all times a reserve of not less than 30 cents per $1,000 of the face amount of all title guarantees and policies issued during the last preceding 10 years. Said sums, herein required to be reserved for unearned premiums on title guarantees and policies, shall at all times and for all purposes be considered and constitute unearned portions of the original premiums and shall be charged as a reserve liability of such insurer in determining its financial condition. While said sums are so reserved they shall be:

(a) Withdrawn from the use of the insurer for its general purposes,

(b) Impressed with a trust in favor of the holders of title guarantees and policies, and

(c) Held available for reinsurance of the title guarantees and policies in the event of insolvency of the insurer.

That portion of the unearned premium reserve established in respect of a title guarantee or policy issued more than 10 years previously shall be released and shall no longer constitute part of the unearned premium reserve and may be used for any purpose by the insurer.

(4) And except, that if the title insurer is a trust company incorporated under the laws of Florida, the reserves required under subsections (1) and (2) shall be reduced by the amount required by the Florida Banking Code to be transferred to surplus by such company.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§625.121 Standard Valuation Law; life insurance.—

(1) This section shall be known as the "Standard Valuation Law."

(2) ANNUAL VALUATION.—The department shall annually value, or cause to be valued, the reserve liabilities, hereinafter called "reserves," for all outstanding life insurance policies and annuity and pure endowment contracts of every life insurer doing business in this state, and may certify the amount of any such reserves, specifying the mortality table or tables, rate or rates of interest and methods, net level premium method or others, used in the calculation of such reserves. In the case of an alien insurer, such valuation shall be limited to its insurance transactions in the United States. In calculating such reserves, the department may use group methods and approximate averages for fractions of a year or otherwise. It may accept in its discretion the insurer's calculation of such reserves. In lieu of the valuation of the reserves herein required of any foreign or alien insurer, it may accept any valuation made or caused to be made by the insurance supervisory official of any state or other jurisdiction when such valuation complies with the minimum standard herein provided, and if the official of such state or jurisdiction accepts as sufficient and valid for all legal purposes the certificate of valuation of the department when such certificate states the valuation to have been made in a specified manner according to which the aggregate reserves would be at least as large as if they had been computed in the manner prescribed by the law of that state or jurisdiction. Where any such valuation is made by the department, it may use the actuary of the department or employ an actuary for the purpose, and the reasonable compensation of the actuary, at a rate approved by the department, and reimbursement of traveling expenses pursuant to s. 624.320 upon demand by the department supported by an itemized statement of such compensation and expenses, shall be paid by the insurer. When a domestic insurer furnishes the department with a valuation of its outstanding policies as computed by its own actuary or by an actuary deemed satisfactory for the purpose by the department, the valuation shall be verified by the actuary of the department without cost to the insurer.

(3) The minimum standard for the valuation of all such policies and contracts issued prior to the operative date of s. 627.476 (Standard Nonforfeiture Law) shall be any basis satisfactory to the commissioner. Any basis satisfactory to the commissioner on the effective date of this code shall be deemed to meet such minimum standards.

<sup>2</sup>(4) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (h), the minimum standard for the valuation of all such policies and contracts issued on or after the operative date of s. 627.476 (Standard Nonforfeiture Law) shall be the commissioners' reserve valuation method defined in subsection (5); 5 percent interest for group annuity and pure endowment contracts and 3.5 percent interest for all other such policies and contracts, or in the case of policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, issued on or after July 1, 1973, 4 percent interest for such policies issued prior to October 1, 1979, and 4.5 percent interest for such policies issued on or after October 1, 1979; and the following tables:

(a) For all ordinary policies of life insurance issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies, the commissioners' 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table; except, that for any category of such policies issued on female risks modified net premiums and present values, referred to in subsection (5), may be calculated according to an age not more than 6 years younger than the actual age of the insured.

(b) For all industrial life insurance policies issued on the standard basis, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies, the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table, unless the commissioners' 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table is applicable according to s. 627.476.

(c) For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies, the 1937 Standard Annuity Mortality Table or, at the option of the insurer, the Annuity Mortality Table for 1949, ultimate, or any modification of either of these tables approved by the department.

(d) For group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such policies, the Group Annuity Mortality Table for 1951, any modification of such table approved by the department, or, at the option of the insurer, any of the tables or modifications of tables specified for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

(e) For total and permanent disability benefits in or supplementary to ordinary policies or contracts, for policies or contracts issued on or after January 1, 1966, the tables of period 2 disablement rates and the 1930 to 1950 termination rates of the 1952 disability study of the Society of Actuaries, with due regard to the type of benefit; for policies or contracts issued on or after January 1, 1961, and prior to January 1, 1966, either such tables or, at the option of the insurer, the class three disability table (1926); and for policies issued prior to January 1, 1961, the class three disability table (1926). Any such table for active lives shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

(f) For accidental death benefits in or supplementary to policies, for policies issued on or after January 1, 1966, the 1959 Accidental Death Benefits

Table; for policies issued on or after January 1, 1961, and prior to January 1, 1966, either such table or, at the option of the insurer, the Intercompany Double Indemnity Mortality Table; and for policies issued prior to January 1, 1961, the Intercompany Double Indemnity Mortality Table. Either table shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance policies.

(g) For group life insurance, life insurance issued on the substandard basis and other special benefits, such tables as may be approved by the department as being sufficient with relation to the benefits provided by such policies.

(h) The minimum standard for the valuation of all individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after the operative date of this paragraph and for all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after such operative date under group annuity and pure endowment contracts shall be the commissioners' reserve valuation method defined in subsection (5) and the following tables and interest rates:

1. For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued prior to October 1, 1979, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the department, and 6 percent interest for single premium immediate annuity contracts and 4 percent interest for all other individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

2. For individual single premium immediate annuity contracts issued on or after October 1, 1979, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the department, and 7.5 percent interest.

3. For individual annuity and pure endowment contracts issued on or after October 1, 1979, other than single premium immediate annuity contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, the 1971 Individual Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the department, and 5.5 percent interest for single premium deferred annuity and pure endowment contracts and 4.5 percent interest for all other such individual annuity and pure endowment contracts.

4. For all annuities and pure endowments purchased prior to October 1, 1979, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the department, and 6 percent interest.

5. For all annuities and pure endowments purchased on or after October 1, 1979, under group annuity and pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits purchased under such contracts, the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Table, or any modification of this table approved by the department, and 7.5 percent interest.

After July 1, 1973, any insurer may file with the department a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this paragraph after a specified date before January 1, 1979, which shall be the operative date of this paragraph for such insurer. However, an insurer may elect a different operative date for individual annuity and pure endowment contracts from that elected for group annuity and pure endowment contracts. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this paragraph for such insurer shall be January 1, 1979.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method, for the life insurance and endowment benefits of policies providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums, shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such policies, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the policy and the excess of 1. over 2. as follows:

1. A net level annual premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first policy year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due; provided, however, that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the 19-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age 1 year higher than the age at issue of such policy.

2. A net 1-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first policy year.

(b) Reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method for:

1. Life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums,

2. Group annuity and pure endowment contracts, purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer, including a partnership or sole proprietorship, or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under s. 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended,

3. Disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts, and

4. All other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies, and benefits provided by all other annuity and pure en-shall be calculated by a method which is consistent with and yields results consistent with the principles of subsection (5)(a), except that any extra premiums charged because of impairments, nonrecurring expense factors, or special hazards shall be disregarded in the determination of modified net premiums.

(c) This subsection shall apply to all annuity and pure endowment contracts other than group annuity and pure endowment contracts purchased under a retirement plan or plan of deferred compensation, established or maintained by an employer, including a partnership or sole proprietorship, or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under s. 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended. Reserves according to the commissioners' annuity reserve method for benefits under annuity or pure endowment contracts, excluding any disability and accidental death benefits in such contracts, shall be the greatest of the respective excesses of the present values, at the date of valuation, of the future guaranteed benefits, including guaranteed nonforfeiture benefits, provided for by such contracts at the end of each respective contract year, over the present value, at the date of valuation, of any future valuation considerations derived from future gross considerations, required by the terms of such contract, that become payable prior to the end of such respective contract year. The future guaranteed benefits shall be determined by using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate or rates specified in such contracts for determining guaranteed benefits. The valuation considerations are the portions of the respective gross considerations applied under the terms of such contracts to determine nonforfeiture values.

<sup>2</sup>(6) MINIMUM AGGREGATE RESERVES.—In no event shall an insurer's aggregate reserves for all life insurance policies, excluding disability and accidental death benefits, issued on or after the operative date of s. 627.476, be less than the aggregate reserves calculated in accordance with the method set forth in subsection (5) and the mortality table or tables and rate or rates of interest used in calculating nonforfeiture benefits for such policies.

(7) OPTIONAL RESERVE BASIS.—

(a) Reserves for all policies and contracts issued prior to the operative date of s. 627.476 may be calculated, at the option of the insurer, according to any standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for all such policies and contracts than the minimum reserves required by the laws in effect immediately prior to such date.

<sup>2</sup>(b) For any category of policies, contracts, or benefits specified in subsection (4), issued on or after the operative date of s. 627.476 (the Standard Nonforfeiture Law), reserves may be calculated, at the option of the insurer, according to any standard or standards which produce greater aggregate reserves for such category than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided, but the rate or rates of interest used for policies and contracts, other than annuity and pure endowment contracts, shall not be higher than the corresponding rate or rates of interest used in calculating any nonforfeiture benefits provided for therein.

(8) LOWER VALUATIONS.—An insurer which at any time had adopted any standard of valuation producing greater aggregate reserves than those calculated according to the minimum standard herein provided may, with the approval of the department, adopt any lower standard of valuation, but not lower than the minimum herein provided.

<sup>2</sup>(9) DEFICIENCY RESERVE.—If in any contract year the gross premium charged by any life insurer on any policy or contract is less than the valuation net premium for the policy or contract calculated by the method used in calculating the reserve thereon but using the minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest, there shall be maintained on such policy or contract a deficiency reserve in addition to the reserve defined by subsection (5). For each such policy or contract the deficiency reserve shall be the present value, according to the minimum valuation standards of mortality and rate of interest, of the differences between all such valuation net premiums and the corresponding premiums charged for such policy or contract during the remainder of the premium-paying period. As regards renewable term life insurance the policy reserve and foregoing deficiency reserve shall be calculated using the current term period only. For any category of policies, contracts, or benefits specified in subsection (4), issued on or after the operative date of s. 627.476 (the Standard Nonforfeiture Law), the aggregate deficiency reserves may be reduced by the amount, if any, by which the aggregate reserves actually calculated in accordance with subsection (7) exceed the minimum aggregate reserves prescribed by subsection (6).

(10) This section does not apply as to those credit life insurance policies for which reserves are computed and maintained as required under s. 625.131.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-356, provides that, if chs. 625 and 627 are repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-356 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

625.131 Credit life and disability policies, special reserve bases.—

(1) The minimum reserve for single premium credit disability insurance, monthly premium credit life insurance and monthly premium credit disability insurance shall be the unearned gross premium.

(2) As to single premium credit life insurance policies, the insurer shall establish and maintain reserves which are not less than the value, at the valuation date, of the risk for the unexpired portion of the period for which the premium has been paid as computed on the basis of 130 percent of the commissioners' 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and 3.5 percent interest. At the department's discretion, the insurer may make a reasonable assumption as to the ages at which net premiums are to be determined. In lieu of the foregoing basis, reserves based upon unearned gross premiums may be used at the option of the insurer.

History.—s. 121, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 75-58; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

625.141 Valuation of bonds.—

(1) All bonds or other evidences of debt having a fixed term and rate of interest held by an insurer may, if amply secured and not in default as to principal or interest, be valued as follows:

(a) If purchased at par, at the par value.

(b) If purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield in the meantime the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made, or in lieu of such method, according to such accepted method of valuation as is approved by the department.

(c) Purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase, plus actual brokerage, transfer, postage or express charges paid in the acquisition of such securities.

(2) The department shall have full discretion in determining the method of calculating values according to the rules set forth in this section, but no such method or valuation shall be inconsistent with any applicable valuation or method used by insurers in general, or any such method then currently formulated or approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or its successor organization.

History.—s. 122, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

625.151 Valuation of other securities.—

(1) Securities, other than those referred to in s. 625.141, held by an insurer shall be valued, in the discretion of the department, at their market value, or at their appraised value, or at prices determined by it as representing their fair market value.

(2) Preferred or guaranteed stocks or shares while paying full dividends may be carried at a fixed value in lieu of market value, at the discretion of the department and in accordance with such method of valuation as it may approve.

(3) Stock of a subsidiary corporation of an insurer shall not be valued at an amount in excess of the net value thereof as based upon those assets only of the subsidiary which would be eligible under part II for investment of the funds of the insurer direct.

(4) No valuations under this section shall be inconsistent with any applicable valuation or method then currently formulated or approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or its successor organization.

History.—s. 123, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

625.161 Valuation of property.—

(1) Real property acquired pursuant to a mortgage loan or contract for sale, in the absence of a recent appraisal deemed by the department to be reliable, shall not be valued at an amount greater than the unpaid principal and accrued interest of the defaulted loan or contract at the date of such acquisition, together with any taxes and expenses paid or incurred in connection with such acquisition, and the cost of improvements thereafter made by the insurer and any amounts thereafter paid by the insurer on assessments levied for improvements in connection with the property.

(2) Other real property held by an insurer shall not be valued at an amount in excess of fair value as determined by recent appraisal. If valuation is based on an appraisal more than 3 years old, the department may, at its discretion, call for and require a new appraisal in order to determine fair value.

(3) Personal property acquired pursuant to chattel mortgages made in accordance with s. 625.329 shall not be valued at an amount greater than the unpaid balance of principal and accrued interest on the defaulted loan at the date of acquisition, together with taxes and expenses incurred in connection with such acquisition, or the fair value of such property, whichever amount is the lesser.

History.—s. 124, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

625.171 Valuation of purchase money mortgages.—Purchase money mortgages on real property referred to in s. 625.161(1) shall be valued in an amount not exceeding the acquisition cost to the insurer of real property covered thereby or 90 percent of the fair value of such real property, whichever is less.

History.—s. 125, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

625.172 Replacing certain assets; reporting certain liabilities.—

(1) The department, upon determining that an insurer's asset has not been evaluated according to applicable law or that it does not qualify as an asset, shall require the insurer to replace the asset with an asset suitable to the department within 90 days if the removal of said asset from the insurer's assets would place the insurer in financial impairment.

(2) The department, upon determining that an insurer has failed to report certain liabilities that should have been reported, shall require that the insurer report such liabilities to the department within 90 days.

If the deposit is required under the retaliatory provision, s. 624.429, the deposit shall be held for so long as the basis of such retaliation exists.

(2) Any such deposit, whether in the form of a certificate of deposit or otherwise, shall be released and returned:

(a) To the insurer during solvency to the extent such deposit is in excess of the amount required;

(b) To the insurer, during solvency, upon its written request, to the extent such deposit is in excess of the amount then required under this code; or

(c) To the insurer, during solvency, upon its written request, when such insurer has met all requirements and the department is satisfied the deposit is no longer necessary.

(d) Upon proper order of a court of competent jurisdiction, to the receiver, conservator, rehabilitator, liquidator of the insurer, or to any other properly designated official or officials who succeed to the management and control of the insurer's assets.

§625.63 Proofs for release of deposit.—

(1) Before authorizing the release of any deposit or excess portion thereof to the insurer, as provided in s. 625.62, the department shall require the insurer to file with the department a written statement in such form and with such verification as the department deems advisable setting forth the facts upon which it bases its entitlement to such release.

(2) If release of the deposit is claimed by the insurer upon the ground that its liabilities in this state, as to which the deposit was originally made and is held, have been assumed by another insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state, the insurer shall file with the department a duly attested copy of the contract or agreement of such reinsurance.

(3) Upon being satisfied by such statement and such other information and evidence as the department may reasonably require, and by such examination, if any, of the affairs of the insurer as it deems advisable to make, that the insurer is entitled to the release of its deposits or excess portions thereof as provided in s. 625.62, the department shall release, or authorize the custodian bank or trust company in the case of deposits made under s. 625.54 or s. 625.55 to release, the deposit or excess portion thereof to the insurer or its authorized representative. The department shall have no liability as to any such release so made or authorized by it in good faith.

(4) Upon the failure of the department to release any deposit whether in the form of a certificate of deposit or otherwise or any excess portion thereof, requested as provided in s. 625.62 upon compliance by the insurer with the requirements of this section or within 90 days after receipt of the insurer's written request, whichever is later, the department shall, upon petition by the insurer, post or cause to be posted a notice of pendency of the insurer's request, at the place customarily used for the posting of public notices, at the courthouse of each county, and shall make a copy of such notice available to the established news agencies having offices at Tallahassee, Florida. The department may prescribe the general form of such notice, shall specify the insurer's name, or may list such names where more than one request is pending at the same time. Such notice shall state therein that such insurer or insurers has petitioned for the release and return of deposits pursuant to and in compliance with ss. 625.62 and 625.63, that the department has no information upon which to base a finding that the insurer or insurers named in the notice is not lawfully entitled to obtain the release and return of such deposits, and that unless such information is presented to it within 90 days from the date specified in the notice such deposits must be returned to the insurer or insurers. In the event that no such information is presented to the department within such 90-day period, it shall thereupon release and return the deposit or deposits as requested by the insurer or insurers whose request was not challenged. In the event that such information is presented to the department within said period, it shall refuse to release or return the deposit of the insurer or insurers concerned and shall hold a hearing with respect thereto upon the request of such insurer or insurers.

The license shall apply to a specific machine or to any machine of identical type which is substituted for it, and shall specify the name and address of the insurer and agent, the name of the policy to be so sold, the serial number of the machine, and the place where the machine is to be in operation. The license shall be subject to termination, suspension, or revocation coincidentally with that of the agent. (2) In the prosecution of such inquiries the agent, solicitor or adjuster shall, whenever so required by the department, cause his books and records to be open for inspection for the purpose of such inquiries.

(3) As a prerequisite to exercising the right or authority to investigate the books and records of such a licensee, the department shall serve upon the licensee a copy of the general charges against him, so as to apprise the licensee of the general purpose, nature, and scope of the investigation or inquiry, and including the name and identity of the person, if any, who may have filed a complaint with the department as referred to in subsection (1) if the investigation is in any way related to such complaint.

(4) Such general charges are not required to allege any facts constituting any alleged improper conduct of the licensee, for such inquiry or investigation is authorized as a factfinding inquiry or investigation for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of facts constituting such improper conduct as would justify the department in instituting proceedings to suspend or revoke the license of any such licensee as hereinafter in this chapter provided.

(5) Service of such copy of general charges may be made by delivering copy to the licensee or mailing same by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested addressed to him at his business or residence address. If so mailed, notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a mail depository of the United States Post Office.

(6) The charges or complaints against any agent, solicitor or adjuster may be informally alleged and need not be in any such language as is necessary to charge a crime on an indictment or information.

(7) The expense for any hearings or investigations under this law, as well as the fees and mileage of witnesses, may be paid out of the appropriate fund.

(8) For demonstrated lack of reasonably adequate knowledge and technical competence to engage in the transactions authorized by the license or permit.

(9) Fraudulent or dishonest practices in the conduct of business under the license or permit.

(10) Misappropriation, conversion, or unlawful withholding of moneys belonging to insurers or insureds or beneficiaries or to others and received in conduct of business under the license.

§626.621 Grounds for discretionary refusal, suspension, or revocation of license or permit.—

The department may, in its discretion, deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the license of any agent, solicitor, or adjuster, or the permit of any service representative, supervising or managing general agent, or claims investigator, and it may suspend or revoke the eligibility to hold a license or permit of any such persons if it finds that as to the applicant, licensee, or permittee any one or more of the following applicable grounds exist under circumstances for which such denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal is not mandatory under s. 626.611:

(1) For any cause for which issuance of the license or permit could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the department.

(2) Violation of any provision of this code or of any other law applicable to the business of insurance in the course of dealing under the license or permit.

(3) Violation of any lawful order or rule or regulation of the department.

(4) Failure or refusal, upon demand, to pay over to any insurer he represents or has represented any money coming into his hands belonging to the insurer.

626.631 Procedure for refusal, suspension, or revocation of license or permit.—

(1) If any licensee or permittee is convicted by a court of a violation of this code or a felony, the license or permit of such individual shall thereby be deemed to be immediately revoked without any further procedure relative thereto by the department.

(2) The department's papers, documents, reports, or evidence relative to a hearing for revocation or suspension of a license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 120 shall not be subject to subpoena without the department's consent, except for subpoenas issued pursuant to the hearing for revocation or suspension, until after the same shall have been published at the hearing, unless after notice to the department and hearing the court determines that the department would not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed by such subpoenas.

626.641 Duration of suspension or revocation.—

(1) The department shall, in its order suspending a license or permit or in its order suspending the eligibility of a person to hold or apply for such license or permit, specify the period during which the suspension is to be in effect, but such period shall not exceed 1 year. The license, permit, or eligibility shall remain suspended during the period so specified, subject, however, to any rescission or modification of the order by the department, or modification or reversal thereof by the court, prior to expiration of the suspension period. A license, permit, or eligibility which has been suspended shall not be reinstated except upon request for such reinstatement, but the department shall not grant such reinstatement if it finds that the circumstance or circumstances for which the license, permit, or eligibility was suspended still exist or are likely to recur.

(2) No individual licensed or the permittee under any license or permit revoked by the department, or any individual who has had his eligibility to hold same revoked by the department, shall have the right to apply for another license or permit under this code within 2 years from the effective date of such revocation or, if judicial review of such revocation is sought, within 2 years from the date of final court order or decree affirming the revocation. The department shall not, however, grant a new license or permit or reinstate eligibility to hold such license or permit if it finds that the circumstance or circumstances for which the eligibility was revoked or for which the previous license or permit was revoked still exist or are likely to recur; if an individual's license as agent or solicitor or eligibility to hold same has been revoked upon the ground specified in s. 626.611(12) (controlled business), the department shall refuse to grant or issue any new license so applied for.

(3) If licenses as agent or solicitor, or the eligibility to hold same, as to the same individual have been revoked at two separate times, the department shall not thereafter grant or issue any license or permit under this code as to such individual.

(4) During the period of suspension, or after revocation of the license or permit, the former licensee or permittee shall not engage in or attempt to profess to engage in any transaction or business for which a license or permit is required under this code.

626.651 Effect of suspension, revocation upon associated licenses and licensees.—

(1) Upon suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any one license of an agent or solicitor, or upon suspension or revocation of eligibility to hold a license or permit, the department may at the same time likewise suspend or revoke all other licenses or status of eligibility held by the licensee under this code.

(2) In case of the suspension or revocation of license of any general lines agent, or in case of suspension or revocation of eligibility, the license of any and all other agents who are members of such agency, whether incorporated or unincorporated, and any and all solicitors employed by such agency, who knowingly are parties to the act which formed the ground for the suspension or revocation may likewise be suspended or revoked for the same period as that of the offending agent; but this shall not prevent any agent or solicitor, except the one whose license was first suspended or revoked, from being licensed as a member of or a solicitor for some other agency.

The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to life agents.

History.—s. 244, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 16, ch. 71-86; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

1626.661 Surrender of license or permit.—

(1) Though issued to a licensee or permittee, all certificates of licenses and permits issued under this chapter are at all times the property of the State of Florida, and upon notice of any suspension, revocation, refusal to renew, failure to renew, expiration or other termination of the license, such license or permit shall no longer be in force and effect.

(2) This section shall not be deemed to require the surrender to the department of any certificate of license or permit, unless such surrender has been requested by the department.

History.—s. 245, ch. 59-205; s. 2, ch. 61-105; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1626.671 Penalty for violation.—Any individual who knowingly makes a false or otherwise fraudulent application for any license or permit under part I of this chapter, or who knowingly violates any provision of part I of this chapter, shall upon conviction thereof and in addition to any applicable denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license or permit, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Each instance of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

1626.681 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension, revocation, or refusal of license.—

(1) If the department finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license or permit issued under this chapter, the department may, in its discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation, or refusal, and except on a second offense or where such suspension, revocation, or refusal is mandatory, impose upon the licensee or permittee an administrative penalty in the amount of $100 or, if the department has found willful misconduct or willful violation on the part of the licensee or permittee, $500. The administrative penalty may, in the department's discretion, be augmented in amount by an amount equal to any commissions received by or accruing to the credit of the licensee in connection with any transaction as to which the grounds for suspension, revocation, or refusal related.

(2) The department may allow the licensee or permittee a reasonable period, not to exceed 30 days, within which to pay to the department the amount of the penalty so imposed. If the licensee or permittee fails to pay the penalty in its entirety to the department at its office at Tallahassee within the period so allowed, the licenses or permit of the licensee or permittee shall stand suspended or revoked or renewal or continuation shall be refused, as the case may be, upon expiration of such period.

1626.691 Probation.—

(1) If the department finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license or permit issued under this part, the department may, in its discretion, except where an administrative fine is not permissible under s. 626.681 or where such suspension, revocation, or refusal is mandatory, in lieu of such suspension, revocation, or refusal, or in connection with any administrative monetary penalty imposed under s. 626.681, place the offending licensee or permittee on probation for a period, not to exceed 2 years, as specified by the department in its order.

(2) As a condition to such probation or in connection therewith, the department may specify in its order reasonable terms and conditions to be fulfilled by the probationer during the probation period. If during the probation period the department has good cause to believe that the probationer has violated such terms and conditions or any of them, it shall suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the license or permit of the probationer, as upon the original ground or grounds referred to in subsection (1).

(1) When under the laws of any other state any fine, tax, penalty, license fee, deposit of money, or security, or other obligation or prohibition is imposed upon resident insurance agents of Florida doing business in such other state, then so long as such laws continue in force or are so administered, the same requirements, obligations and prohibitions, of whatever kind, shall be imposed upon every insurance agent of such other state doing business in Florida.

(2) If any insurer permits its insurance contract to be issued in violation of this section, its certificate of authority to do business in Florida shall be suspended for a period of 3 months.

(3) If any resident agent of Florida shall knowingly countersign any insurance contract in violation of this section, or shall otherwise knowingly violate any of the provisions hereof, his license to write insurance in this state shall be suspended for a period of 3 months.

626.730 Purpose of license.—

(1) The purpose of a license issued under this code to a general lines agent or solicitor is to authorize and enable the licensee actively and in good faith to engage in the insurance business as such an agent or solicitor with respect to the general public, and to facilitate the public supervision of such activities in the public interest; and not for the purpose of enabling the licensee to receive a rebate of premium in the form of "commission" or other compensation as an "agent" or "solicitor," or to enable the licensee to receive commissions or other compensation based upon insurance solicited or procured by or through him upon his own interests or those of other persons with whom he is closely associated in capacities other than that of insurance agent or solicitor.

(2) The department shall not grant, renew, continue, or permit to exist any license as such agent or solicitor as to any applicant therefor or licensee thereunder if it finds that the license has been or is being or will probably be used by the applicant or licensee for the purpose of securing rebates or commissions on "controlled business," that is, on insurance written on his own interests or those of his family or of any firm, corporation or association with which he is associated, directly or indirectly, or in which he has an interest other than as to the insurance thereof.

(3) A violation of this section shall be deemed to exist or be probable (as to an applicant for license) if the department finds that during any 12-month period aggregate commissions or other compensation accruing in favor of the applicant or licensee based upon the insurance procured or to be procured (in the case of an applicant for license) by or through the licensee with respect to insurance of his own interests or those of his family or of any firm, corporation or association with which he is associated or in which he is interested as above referred to in subsection (2), have exceeded or will exceed 35 percent of the aggregate amount of commissions and compensation accruing or to accrue in his favor during the same period as to all insurance coverages procured or to be procured by or through him. Except, any general lines agent who, on July 1, 1959, had aggregate commissions or other compensation on controlled business as defined in this section in excess of the aforesaid 35 percent, shall be permitted to continue writing such insurance for the same insured or insureds, so long as the agent continues to hold a general lines agent's license in good standing to transact the same kinds of insurance so written, until the termination of such license by failure to renew or continue, suspension or revocation.

(4) This section shall not be deemed to prohibit the licensing under a limited license as to motor vehicle physical damage insurance, as provided for in s. 626.321, any person employed by or associated with a motor vehicle sales or financing agency, with respect to insurance of the interest of such agency in a motor vehicle sold or financed by it. This section shall not apply with respect to the interest of a real estate mortgagee in or as to insurance covering such interest, or in the real estate subject to such mortgage.

(1) The department may, in its discretion, issue a temporary license as agent to a licensed agent's employee, family member, business associate, or personal representative, or to the representative of a direct writing insurer of which the agent was the licensed agent in the area served by the agency, for the purpose of continuing or winding up the business affairs of the agent or agency, all subject to the following conditions:

(a) The agent so being replaced must have become deceased or unable to perform his duties as agent because of military service or illness or other physical or mental disability; or, in the case of a direct writing insurer, as above mentioned, have had his employment or agency appointment terminated by the insurer;

(b) There must be no other person connected with the agent's business who is licensed as a general lines agent.

(c) The proposed temporary licensee must be qualified as for a regular general lines agent's license under this code except as to residence, examination, education, or experience.

(d) Application for the temporary license must be made by the applicant upon statements and affidavit filed with the department on forms as prescribed and furnished by it.

(e) The temporary license shall be issued and be valid for a period of not over 6 months, and, except as to disabling or confining illness, shall not be renewed either to the then holder of the temporary license or to any other person for or on behalf of the agent, agency, or direct writing insurer.

(f) Under a temporary license the licensee shall not represent as agent any insurer not last represented by the agent so being replaced, nor be licensed as to any additional kind or classification of insurance than those covered by the last existing agency appointments of such replaced agent; except, that if during the temporary license period an insurer withdraws from such agency, the temporary licensee may be appointed and licensed as agent by another like insurer only for the period remaining under the temporary license originally issued as to such withdrawing insurer or during any renewal of such original license as authorized under paragraph (e), and the agency contract between the licensee and such other insurer shall so provide. This provision shall not be deemed to prohibit termination of its appointment by any insurer.

(g) The holder of a temporary license may be granted a regular agent's license upon taking and successfully completing a classroom course or correspondence course in insurance or having the insurance employment experience as prescribed in s. 626.732, and passing an examination as required by s. 626.221; but the department may waive the requirements as to residence, and the time of taking such examination as prescribed in s. 626.231(2).

(2) Except in the case of renewal of a temporary license due to the continuing disability of the agent, as defined and provided for in paragraph (e), the department shall not grant to the same individual more than one temporary license during any 12-month period. There shall be not more than one renewal of the temporary license due to such disabling or confining illness of such licensed agent, and such renewal shall follow consecutively the expiration of the original temporary license, and in no event shall the total period covered by any original temporary license and the renewal thereof exceed 12 consecutive months.

(3) If a temporary licensee is used to replace an individual whose agency appointment or employment and license has been terminated by the insurer, such latter individual shall not again be appointed or licensed as an agent of the same insurer or affiliated insurers within a period of 24 months following the date of such termination.

(4) If an absent or disabled agent being replaced under a temporary license returns or becomes able to resume the active conduct of the agency, or if the disposition of the affairs of the agency of a deceased or mentally incompetent agent is completed, or the temporary licensee has qualified for a regular license, before expiration otherwise of the temporary license, the temporary license shall thereupon forthwith terminate, and the licensee shall promptly deliver the temporary license certificate to the department at Tallahassee for cancellation.

(5) The applicant for a temporary license shall pay to the department, prior to the issuance thereof, the applicable license fee as specified therefor in s. 624.501 (filing, license, and miscellaneous fees).

(6) Except as in this section expressly provided, the holder of a temporary license shall be subject to the same requirements and responsibilities as apply under this code to agents regularly licensed.

(1) The department may, in its discretion, issue a temporary limited license as industrial fire agent, as such a limited license is provided for in s. 626.321, for a temporary period not exceeding 90 days to an individual who is otherwise qualified, who is completing the educational or training requirements prescribed in s. 626.732, and who will, prior to termination of such 90-day period, take the required examination.

(2) If the applicant fails to pass the first examination, his temporary license terminates, unless, in the department's discretion, the applicant is permitted to take a second examination. The department may issue a new temporary license for a period not to exceed 90 days to a person permitted to take a second examination. An applicant permitted to take the second examination shall file an application therefor and take the examination within the time set by the department. If he fails to pass the second examination, his temporary license shall be immediately terminated.

(3) The fee for such a temporary license shall be as specified in s. 624.501 (filing, license, and miscellaneous fees).

§626.741 Nonresident agents; licensing and restrictions.—

(1) The department may, upon written application and the payment of a license fee as specified therefor in s. 624.501 (filing, license and miscellaneous fees), issue a license as a general lines agent to an individual who is otherwise qualified therefor under parts I and II (Licensing Procedures Law), but who is not a resident of this state, if by the laws of the state of his residence, residents of this state may be licensed in like manner as a nonresident agent of his state.

(2) The department shall not, however, issue any such license to any nonresident who has an office or place of business in this state, or who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any insurance agent, insurance agency, or in any solicitor licensed as a resident of this state; nor to any individual who does not, at time of issuance and throughout the existence of the Florida license, hold a license as agent or broker issued by the state of his residence; nor to any individual who is employed by any insurer as a service representative or who is a supervising or managing general agent in any state, whether or not also licensed in another state as an agent or broker. The department shall have discretion to refuse to issue any such license to a nonresident when it has reason to believe that the applicant by ruse or subterfuge is attempting to avoid the intent and prohibitions contained in this subsection, or to believe that any of the grounds exist as for suspension or revocation of license as set forth in ss. 626.611 and 626.621.

(3) Such a nonresident shall not enter this state for the purpose of inspecting any risk or property without the written permission of the insured, or of a countersigning agent, resident in this state, on such risk. Nor shall he directly or indirectly solicit, negotiate or effect insurance contracts in this state unless accompanied by a countersigning agent, resident in this state, on such risk.

(4)(a) All insurance policies as defined in s. 627.402, written under the nonresident agent's license, including those written or issued pursuant to the Surplus Lines Law, part VI, on risks or property located in this state must be countersigned by a local agent resident of this state; and it shall be the duty and responsibility of the nonresident agent, and, if called upon to do so by the countersigning agent, of the insurer likewise, to assure that such resident local agent receives the same commission as allowed by the state of residence of the nonresident agent, but in no event shall the resident local agent receive, accept, or retain less than 50 percent of the usual Florida local agent's commission, or 50 percent of the nonresident agent's commission, whichever is less, on policies of insurance covering property as defined in s. 624.604 and insurance covering in whole or in part real property and tangible personal property, including property floater policies. On all other policies of insurance, including insurance covering motor vehicles, plate glass, burglary, robbery, theft, larceny, boiler and machinery, workers' compensation, fidelity and surety, bodily injury liability, and property damage liability, in no event shall he receive, accept, or retain less than 25 percent of the usual Florida local agent's commission or 25 percent of the nonresident agent's commission, whichever is less.

(b) The provisions of this subsection, with respect to resident agent countersignature commission, shall not be applicable to any contracts of insurance purchased by a person whose premiums for insurance in the preceding year of such purchase exceeded $250,000 in the aggregate. Nothing herein is intended to preclude the negotiation and payment of a commission to the countersigning agent to compensate him for services performed or to be performed.

(5) Except as in this section and s. 626.742 and s. 626.743 provided, nonresident agents shall be subject to the same requirements as apply to agents resident in this state.

§626.742 Same; service of process.—

(1) Each licensed nonresident agent shall appoint the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer as his attorney to receive service of legal process issued against the agent in this state, upon causes of action arising within this state out of transactions under his license. Service upon the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer as attorney shall constitute effective legal service upon the agent.

(2) The appointment shall be irrevocable for as long as there could be any cause of action against the agent arising out of his insurance transactions in this state.

(3) Duplicate copies of such legal process against such agent shall be served upon the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer by a person competent to serve a summons.

(4) Upon receiving such service, the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall forthwith send one of the copies of the process, by registered mail with return receipt requested, to the defendant agent at his last address of record with the department.

(5) The Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall keep a record of the day and hour of service upon him of all such legal process.

626.903 Suits by unauthorized insurers prohibited.—As to transactions not permitted under s. 624.402, no unauthorized insurer shall institute, file, or maintain, or cause to be instituted, filed, or maintained, any suit, action, or proceeding in this state to enforce any right, claim or demand arising out of any insurance transaction in this state.

History.—s. 344, ch. 59-205.

626.904 "Unauthorized Insurers Process Law"; short title; interpretation.—

(1) Sections 626.904-626.912 may be cited as the "Unauthorized Insurers Process Law."

(2) Such law shall be so interpreted as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—s. 345, ch. 59-205.

626.905 Purpose of Process Law.—The purpose of the Unauthorized Insurers Process Law is to subject certain insurers to the jurisdiction of courts of this state in suits by or on behalf of insureds or beneficiaries under insurance contracts. The Legislature declares that it is a subject of concern that many residents of this state hold policies of insurance issued or delivered in the state by insurers while not authorized to do business in this state, thus presenting to such residents the often insuperable obstacle of resorting to distant forums for the purpose of asserting legal rights under such policies. In furtherance of such state interest, the Legislature herein provides a method of substituted service of process upon such insurers and declares that in so doing it exercises its power to protect its residents and to define, for the purpose of this chapter, what constitutes doing business in this state, and also exercises powers and privileges available to the state by virtue of Public Law 15, 79th Congress of the United States, chapter 20, 1st session, s. 340, as amended, which declares that the business of insurance and every person engaged therein shall be subject to the laws of the several states.

History.—s. 346, ch. 59-205.

626.906 Acts constituting Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer as process agent.—Any of the following acts in this state, effected by mail or otherwise, by an unauthorized foreign or alien insurer is equivalent to and shall constitute an appointment by such insurer of the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer, and his successor or successors in office, to be its true and lawful attorney, upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of an insured or beneficiary, arising out of any such contract of insurance; and any such act shall be signification of the insurer's agreement that such service of process is of the same legal force and validity as personal service of process in this state upon such insurer:

(1) The issuance or delivery of contracts of insurance to residents of this state or to corporations authorized to do business therein;

(2) The solicitation of applications for such contracts;

(3) The collection of premiums, membership fees, assessments or other considerations for such contracts; or

(4) Any other transaction of insurance.

626.907 Service of process; judgment by default.—

(1) Service of process upon an insurer pursuant to s. 626.906 shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer or some person in apparent charge of his office two copies thereof. The Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall forthwith mail by registered mail one of the copies of such process to the defendant at his last known principal place of business, and shall keep a record of all process so served upon him. The service of process is sufficient, provided notice of such service and a copy of the process are sent within 10 days thereafter by registered mail by plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney to the defendant at his last known principal place of business, and the defendant's receipt, or receipt issued by the post office with which the letter is registered, showing the name of the sender of the letter and the name and address of the person to whom the letter is addressed, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney showing a compliance herewith are filed with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending on or before the date the defendant is required to appear, or within such further time as the court may allow.

(2) Service of process in any such action, suit or proceeding shall in addition to the manner provided in subsection (1) be valid if served upon any person within this state, who, in this state on behalf of such insurer, is

- (a) Soliciting insurance,
- (b) Making, issuing or delivering any contract of insurance, or
- (c) Collecting or receiving any premium, membership fee, assessment or other consideration for insurance; and a copy of such process is sent within 10 days thereafter by registered mail by the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney to the defendant at the last known principal place of business of the defendant, and the defendant's receipt, or the receipt issued by the post office with which the letter is registered, showing the name of the sender of the letter and the name and address of the person to whom the letter is addressed, and the affidavit of the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney showing a compliance herewith are filed with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending on or before the date the defendant is required to appear, or within such further time as the court may allow.

(3) No plaintiff shall be entitled to a judgment by default or a decree pro confesso under this section until the expiration of 30 days from date of the filing of the affidavit of compliance.

(4) Nothing in this section shall limit or abridge the right to serve any process, notice or demand upon any insurer in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

History.—s. 348, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.908 Defense of action by unauthorized insurer; damages and attorney fee.—

(1) Before an unauthorized insurer shall file or cause to be filed any pleading in any action or proceeding instituted against it under ss. 626.906 and 626.907, such insurer shall:

(a) Procure a certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state, or

(b) Deposit with the clerk of the court in which such action or proceeding is pending cash or securities or file with such clerk a bond with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, in an amount to be fixed by the court sufficient to secure the payment of any final judgment which may be rendered in such action. The court may in its discretion make an order dispensing with such deposit or bond where the insurer makes a showing satisfactory to the court that it maintains in a state of the United States funds or securities, in trust or otherwise, sufficient and available to satisfy any final judgment which may be entered in such action or proceeding, and that the insurer will pay any final judgment entered therein without requiring suit to be brought on such judgment in the state where such funds or securities are located, and that if, nevertheless, such suit is brought on such final judgment the insurer shall waive all defenses thereto.

(c) Any proof, evidence or testimony in support of such motion shall be taken in the jurisdiction of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending.

(d) If the unauthorized insurer seeks to take discovery or de bene esse depositions of witnesses beyond the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is pending, upon seasonable application by the plaintiff, the court by appropriate order shall require the unauthorized insurer, before such depositions are taken, to make similar deposit as described in paragraph (b), in sufficient amount to pay the reasonable expenses of the plaintiff and his attorney in attending the taking of such depositions, including reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court.

(2) The court in any action or proceeding in which service is made in the manner provided in s. 626.907 may, in its discretion, order such postponement as may be necessary to afford the defendant reasonable opportunity to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), and to defend such action.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) is to be construed to prevent an unauthorized insurer from filing a motion to quash or to set aside the service of any process made in the manner provided in s. 626.907, hereof on the ground either:

(a) That such unauthorized insurer has not done any of the acts enumerated in s. 626.906, or

(b) That the person on whom service was made pursuant to s. 626.907(2) was not doing any of the acts therein enumerated.

History.—s. 349, ch. 59-205.

626.909 Jurisdiction of department; service of process on Secretary of State.—

(1) The Legislature hereby declares that it is a subject of concern that the purpose of the "Unauthorized Insurers Process Law" as expressed in s. 626.905 may be denied by the possibility that the right of service of process provided for in that law may be restricted only to those actions, suits or proceedings brought by insureds or beneficiaries. It therefore declares that it is the intent of s. 626.905 that it is the obligation and duty of the state to protect its residents and also proceed under this law through the department in the courts of this state. It further declares that it is also the intent of the Legislature to subject unauthorized insurers to the jurisdiction of the department in proceedings, examinations or hearings before it as provided for in this code.

(2) In addition to the procedure for service of process on unauthorized insurers contained in ss. 626.906 and 626.907, the department shall have the right to bring any action, suit or proceeding in the name of the state or conduct any proceeding, examination or hearing provided for in this code against any unauthorized insurer for violation of any lawful order of the department or any provision of this code, specifically including but not limited to the regulation of trade practices provided for in ss. 626.951-626.986, if the insurer transacts insurance in this state as defined in ss. 624.10 and 626.906 and does not transact such business under a subsisting certificate of authority as required by s. 624.401. In the event the transaction of business is done by mail, the venue of the act is at the point where the matter transmitted by mail is delivered and takes effect.

(3) Transaction of business in this state, as so defined, by any unauthorized insurer shall be deemed consent by the insurer to the jurisdiction of the department in proceedings, examinations and hearings before it as provided for in this code and shall constitute an irrevocable appointment by such insurer of the Secretary of State and his successor or successors in office as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit or proceeding in any court by the department or by the state and upon whom may be served all notices and orders of the department arising out of any such transaction of business; and such transaction of business shall constitute the agreement of such insurer that any such process against it or any such notice or order which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served personally within this state on such insurer. Service of process shall be in accordance with and in the same manner as now provided for service of process upon nonresidents under the provision of s. 48.161, and service of process shall also be valid if made as provided in s. 626.907(2).

(4) No plaintiff shall be entitled to a judgment by default or a decree pro confesso under this section until the expiration of 30 days from date of the filing of the affidavit of compliance.

(5) Nothing in this section shall limit or abridge the right to serve any process, notice, orders, or demand upon the insurer in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(6) Nothing in this section shall apply as to surplus lines insurance when written pursuant to the surplus lines law, ss. 626.913-626.937, or as to transactions as to which a certificate of authority is not required of the insurer, as stated in s. 624.402, (Exceptions, certificate of authority required).

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-118; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.910 Penalty for violation by unauthorized insurers.—Any unauthorized insurer transacting insurance in this state and subject to service of process as referred to in s. 626.909, shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for each violation of any lawful order of the department or any provision of this code.

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-118; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.911 Attorney fee.—In any action against an unauthorized foreign or alien insurer upon a contract of insurance issued or delivered in this state to a resident thereof or to a corporation authorized to do business therein, if the insurer has failed for 30 days after demand prior to the commencement of the action to make payment in accordance with the terms of the contract, the trial judge shall allow to the plaintiff a reasonable attorney fee or compensation and include such fee or compensation in any judgment that may be rendered in such action.

History.—s. 350, ch. 59-205.

626.912 Exemptions from Process Act.—The provisions of ss. 626.904-626.911 shall not apply to any action, suit or proceeding against any unauthorized foreign or alien insurer arising out of any contract of insurance:

(1) Covering reinsurance, wet marine and transportation, commercial aircraft or railway insurance risks, or

(2) Against legal liability arising out of the ownership, operation, or maintenance of any property having a permanent situs outside of this state, or

(3) Against loss of or damage to any property having a permanent situs outside this state, or

(4) Issued under and in accordance with the surplus lines law, where such insurer enters a general appearance or where such contract of insurance contains a provision designating the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer and his successor or successors in office or designating a Florida resident agent to be the true and lawful attorney of such unauthorized insurer upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of an insured or beneficiary arising out of any such contract of insurance and service of process effected on such Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer, his successor or successors in office or such resident agent shall be deemed to confer complete jurisdiction over such unauthorized insurer in such action.

History.—s. 351, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.913 "Surplus Lines Law"; short title; purposes.—

(1) Sections 626.913-626.937 constitute and may be referred to as the "Surplus Lines Law."

(2) It is declared that the purposes of the Surplus Lines Law are to provide orderly access for the insuring public of Florida to insurers not authorized to transact insurance in this state, through only qualified, licensed, and supervised surplus lines agents resident in Florida, for insurance coverages and to the extent thereof not procurable from authorized insurers; to protect such authorized insurers, which under the laws of Florida must meet certain standards as to policy forms and rates, from unwarranted competition by unauthorized insurers who, in the absence of this law, would not be subject to similar requirements; and for other purposes as set forth in this Surplus Lines Law.

(3) This section, and this Surplus Lines Law, do not apply as to insurance coverages which are subject to s. 626.938 (Report and tax of independently procured coverages).

History.—s. 352, ch. 59-205.

626.914 Definitions.—As used in this Surplus Lines Law:

(1) "Surplus lines agent" means an individual licensed as provided in this part to handle the placement of insurance coverages with unauthorized insurers; and to place such coverages with authorized insurers as to which the licensee is not licensed as an agent if so placed through a countersigning Florida licensed resident agent of such insurer.

(2) "Surplus lines insurer" means an unauthorized insurer in which an insurance coverage is placed or may be placed under this surplus lines law.

(3) To "export" means to place in an unauthorized insurer under this surplus lines law, insurance covering a subject of insurance resident, located, or to be performed in Florida.

History.—s. 353, ch. 59-205.

626.915 Surplus lines insurance authorized.

—If certain insurance coverages of subjects resident, located, or to be performed in this state cannot be procured from authorized insurers, such coverages, hereinafter designated "surplus lines," may be procured from unauthorized insurers, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The insurance must be eligible for export under s. 626.916 or s. 626.917;

(2) The insurer must be an eligible surplus lines insurer under s. 626.917 or s. 626.918;

(3) The insurance must be so placed through a licensed Florida surplus lines agent resident in Florida; and

(4) The other applicable provisions of this surplus lines law must be complied with.

History.—s. 354, ch. 59-205.

626.916 Eligibility for export.—

(1) No insurance coverage shall be eligible for export unless it meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The full amount of insurance required must not be procurable, after a diligent effort has been made to do so, from among the insurers authorized to transact and actually writing that kind and class of insurance in this state, and the amount of insurance exported shall be only the excess over the amount so procurable from authorized insurers.

(b) The premium rate at which the coverage is exported shall not be lower than that rate applicable, if any, in actual and current use by a majority of the authorized insurers for the same coverage on a similar risk.

(c) The policy or contract form under which the insurance is exported shall not be more favorable to the insured as to the coverage or rate than under similar contracts on file and in actual current use in this state by the majority of authorized insurers actually writing similar coverages on similar risks; except, that a coverage may be exported under a unique form of policy designed for use with respect to a particular subject of insurance if a copy of such form is filed with the department by the surplus lines agent desiring to use the same and is subject to the department's disapproval within 10 days of filing such form exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays if it finds that use of such special form is not reasonably necessary for the principal purposes of the coverage or that its use would be contrary to the purposes of this surplus lines law with respect to the reasonable protection of authorized insurers from unwarranted competition by unauthorized insurers.

(d) Except as to extended coverage in connection with fire insurance policies and except as to wind-storm insurance, the policy or contract under which the insurance is exported shall not provide for deductible amounts, in determining the existence or extent of the insurer's liability, other than those available under similar policies or contracts in actual and current use by one or more authorized insurers. This paragraph shall not apply with respect to workers' compensation self-insurance qualified as such under chapter 440.

(2) Except that the department may by rules and regulations declare eligible for export generally, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d), any class or classes of insurance coverage or risk for which it finds, after a hearing, which it shall hold annually or more often, of which notice thereof was given to each insurer authorized to transact such class or classes in this state, that there is no reasonable or adequate market among authorized insurers. Any such rules and regulations shall continue in effect during the existence of the conditions upon which predicated, but subject to earlier termination by the department.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to wet marine and transportation or aviation risks which are subject to s. 626.917.

History.—s. 355, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 63-86; s. 1, ch. 67-380; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 91, ch. 79-40.

626.917 Eligibility for export; wet marine, aviation.—

(1) Insurance coverage of wet marine and transportation or aviation risks as defined in this code in s. 624.607(1)(a)1. may be exported under the following conditions:

(a) The insurance must be placed only by or through a licensed Florida surplus lines agent;

(b) The insurer must be one made eligible by the department specifically for such coverages, based upon information furnished by the insurer and indicating that the insurer is well able to meet its financial obligations; and

(c) The surplus lines agent shall, within 60 days after procurement of the policy or contract, file with the department a copy of the policy, cover note, or contract.

(2) This section shall not apply as to pleasure boats, nor as to private aircraft owned by private owners for business and pleasure purposes only (excluding commercial), exclusive of check flight or ferry flight coverage only.

History.—s. 356, ch. 59-205; s. 2, ch. 63-86; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.918 Eligible surplus lines insurers.—

(1) No surplus lines agent shall place any coverage with any unauthorized insurer which is not then an eligible surplus lines insurer as provided for under this section.

(2) No unauthorized insurer shall be or become an eligible surplus lines insurer unless made eligible by the department in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) Eligibility of the insurer must be requested in writing by a licensed surplus lines agent;

(b) The insurer must be currently an authorized insurer in the state or country of its domicile as to the kind or kinds of insurance proposed to be so placed, and must have been such an insurer for not less than the 3 years next preceding; or must be the wholly-owned subsidiary of an already eligible surplus lines insurer or authorized insurer that has been so eligible for a period of not less than the 3 years next preceding;

(c) Before granting eligibility the requesting surplus lines agent or the insurer shall furnish the department with a duly authenticated copy of its current annual financial statement in the English language and with all monetary values therein expressed in United States dollars, at an exchange rate—in the case of statements originally made in the currencies of other countries—then current and shown in the statement, and with such additional information relative to the insurer as the department may request;

(d) The insurer, if organized under the laws of a state of the United States, must have surplus as to policyholders of not less than the amount required under this code for a like authorized insurer; or, if an alien insurer, must have and maintain in the United States a trust fund for the protection of all its policyholders in the United States under terms deemed by the department to be reasonably adequate, in an amount equal to the capital and surplus required of authorized insurers. Any such surplus as to policyholders or trust fund shall be represented by investments consisting of public obligations of the United States, or of any state, county, or municipality thereof, or by other investments of the same general character and quality as are eligible investments for like funds of like domestic insurers under part II of chapter 625 of this code;

(e) The insurer must be of good reputation as to the providing of service to its policyholders and the payment of losses and claims;

(f) The insurer must be eligible, as for authority to transact insurance in this state, under subsections (3) (management and affiliations), and (4) (voting control or operation by alien government or agency) of s. 624.404; and

(g) This subsection does not apply as to unauthorized insurers made eligible under s. 626.917 as to wet marine and aviation risks as in such section provided.

(3) The department shall from time to time publish a list of all currently eligible surplus lines insurers, and shall mail a copy thereof to each licensed surplus lines agent at his office last of record with the department.

(4) This section shall not be deemed to cast upon the department any duty or responsibility to determine the actual financial condition or claims practices of any unauthorized insurer; and the status of eligibility, if granted by the department, shall indicate only that the insurer appears to be sound financially and to have satisfactory claims practices, and that the department has no credible evidence to the contrary.

(5) Where it appears that any particular insurance risk which is eligible for export, but insurance coverage thereon, in whole or in part, is not procurable from the eligible surplus lines insurers, after a diligent effort, then the surplus lines agent may file a supplemental affidavit stating such facts and advising the insurance department that such part of the risk as shall be unprocurable, as aforesaid, is being placed with named unauthorized insurers, in the amounts and percentages set forth in the affidavit. Such named unauthorized insurer shall, however, before accepting any risk in this state, deposit with the insurance department United States Government bonds of the market value of $10,000 which shall be held by said department for the benefit of Florida policyholders only and the surplus lines agent shall procure from such unauthorized insurer and file with the Department of Insurance a certified copy of its statement of condition as of the close of the last calendar year. If such statement reveals, including both capital and surplus, net assets of at least $500,000, then the surplus lines agent may proceed to consummate such contract of insurance. Whenever any insurance risk or any part thereof, is placed with an unauthorized insurer, as provided herein, the policy, binder or cover note shall bear conspicuously on its face in boldface type the following notation: "All or part of the insurers participating in this risk have not been authorized to transact business in Florida, nor have they been declared eligible as a surplus lines insurer by the Department of Insurance of this state. The placing of such insurance by a duly licensed surplus lines agent in this state, shall not be construed as approval of such insurer by the Department of Insurance of Florida. Consequently, you do not have the protection of the insurance laws of Florida." All other provisions of this code shall apply to such placement the same as if such risks were placed with an eligible surplus lines insurer.

History.—s. 357, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 61-105; s. 3, ch. 63-86; s. 1, ch. 63-209; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-18.

626.919 Withdrawal of eligibility; surplus lines insurer.—

(1) If at any time the department has reason to believe that any unauthorized insurer then on the list of eligible surplus lines insurers is insolvent, or in unsound financial condition, or does not make reasonable prompt payment of just losses and claims in this state, or that it is no longer eligible under the conditions therefor provided in s. 626.918, it shall withdraw the eligibility of the insurer to insure surplus lines risks in this state.

(2) If the department finds that an insurer currently eligible as a surplus lines insurer has willfully violated the laws of Florida, it may, in its discretion, withdraw the eligibility of the insurer to insure surplus lines risks in this state.

(3) The department shall promptly mail notice of all such withdrawals of eligibility to each surplus lines agent at his address last of record with the department.

626.920 Export procedure.—

(1) Within 60 days after the effectuation of any surplus lines insurance (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays), the surplus lines agent shall file with the department in its office at Tallahassee:

(a) A copy of the binder, cover note, certificate, policy, or other confirmation of insurance showing the identity and location of the subject of the proposed insurance; name and address of proposed insured; name of proposed insurer or insurers; perils to be covered; form or type of policy or contract under which to be insured; any special or additional coverages or conditions; amount of premium or rate; and such other pertinent information as the department may reasonably require; and

(b) The affidavit of the surplus lines agent, on forms as prescribed and furnished by the department, as to efforts made to place the coverage with authorized insurers and the results thereof.

(2) This section does not apply as to wet marine and transportation or aviation coverages which are subject to s. 626.917.

History.—s. 359, ch. 59-205; s. 4, ch. 63-86; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.921 Surplus lines examining office; filings confidential.—

(1) For the expeditious examination of surplus lines insurance coverages as provided for in s.

626.920, the department shall establish and maintain in its offices at Tallahassee such facilities, as an "examining office," as may reasonably be necessary for the purpose.

(2) In the operation of the examining office, the department may employ or obtain necessary personnel and office furniture, fixtures and facilities, or may make joint use of personnel, furniture, fixtures and facilities otherwise employed or used in its office.

(3) Filings made by surplus lines agents with the examining office, other than the affidavits provided for in s. 626.920(1)(b), shall not be open to public inspection and shall be held as confidential information. This provision shall not apply as to the quarterly reports filed by such agents pursuant to s. 626.931 or to any information in connection with a unique form of policy issued pursuant to s. 626.916(1)(c).

History.—s. 360, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

626.922 Evidence of the insurance; changes; penalty.—

(1) Upon placing a surplus line coverage, the surplus lines agent shall promptly issue and deliver to the insured evidence of the insurance consisting either of the policy as issued by the insurer or, if such policy is not then available, a certificate, cover note, or other confirmation of insurance. Such document shall be executed or countersigned by the surplus lines agent and shall show the description and location of the subject of the insurance, coverage, conditions, and term of the insurance, the premium and rate charged and taxes collected from the insured, and the name and address of the insured and insurer. If the direct risk is assumed by more than one insurer, the document shall state the name and address and proportion of the entire direct risk assumed by each insurer.

(2) No surplus lines agent shall issue any such document, or purport to insure or represent that insurance will be or has been granted by any unauthorized insurer unless he has prior written authority from the insurer for the insurance, or has received information from the insurer in the regular course of business that such insurance has been granted, or an insurance policy providing the insurance actually has been issued by the insurer and delivered to the insured.

(3) If after the issuance and delivery of any such document there is any change as to the identity of the insurers, or the proportion of the direct risk assumed by the insurer as stated in the original certificate, cover note, or confirmation, or in any other material respect as to the insurance coverage evidenced by such a document, the surplus lines agent shall promptly issue and deliver to the insured a substitute certificate, cover note or confirmation, or endorsement for the original such document, accurately showing the current status of the coverage and the insurers responsible thereunder. No such change shall result in a coverage or insurance contract which would be in violation of this surplus lines law if originally issued on such basis.

(4) If a policy issued by the insurer is not available upon placement of the insurance and the surplus lines agent has issued and delivered a certificate, cover note or confirmation, as hereinabove provided, upon request therefor by the insured the surplus lines agent shall as soon as reasonably possible procure from the insurer its policy evidencing the insurance and deliver the policy to the insured in replacement of the certificate, cover note, or confirmation theretofore issued.

(5) Any surplus lines agent who knowingly or negligently issues a false certificate, cover note, or confirmation of insurance, or false endorsement therefor, or who fails promptly to notify the insured of any material change with respect to such insurance by delivery to the insured of a substitute certificate, cover note or confirmation, or endorsement as provided in subsection (3), shall, upon conviction, be subject to the penalties provided by s. 624.15 of this code or to any greater applicable penalty otherwise provided by law.

History.—s. 361, ch. 59-205.

626.923 Filing copy of policy or certificate.—

Upon issuing a surplus lines policy, the surplus lines agent shall, within 60 days from the date of such issuance, file with the department an exact copy of the policy so issued. If a policy has not been issued, the surplus lines agent shall so file an exact copy of his certificate, cover note, or other confirmation of insurance as delivered to the insured. The surplus lines agent shall likewise promptly file with the department an exact copy of any substitute certificate, cover note, or other confirmation of insurance, and of every endorsement of an original policy, certificate, cover note, or other confirmation of insurance, delivered to an insured, together with such surplus lines agent's memorandum informing the department as to the substance of any change represented by such substitute certificate, cover note, or other confirmation, or of any such endorsement, as compared with the coverage as originally placed or issued.

626.924 Information required on contract.—

Each surplus lines agent through whom a surplus lines coverage is procured shall write or print on the outside of the policy and on any certificate, cover note, or other confirmation of the insurance his name, address, identification number, and the name and address of the local agent through whom the business originated; and shall have stamped or written upon the first page of the policy or the certificate, cover note, or confirmation of insurance the words: THIS INSURANCE IS ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE FLORIDA SURPLUS LINES LAW.

History.—s. 363, ch. 59-205; s. 5, ch. 63-86.

(b) A material misrepresentation made to an insured or any other person having an interest in the proceeds payable under such contract or policy, for the purpose and with the intent of effecting settlement of such claims, loss, or damage under such contract or policy on less favorable terms than those provided in, and contemplated by, such contract or policy; or

4. Denying claims without conducting reasonable investigations based upon available information;

5. Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims upon written request of the insured within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed; or

6. Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation in writing to the insured of the basis in the insurance policy, in relation to the facts or applicable law, for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement.

(10) FAILURE TO MAINTAIN COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURES.—Failure of any person to maintain a complete record of all the complaints received since the date of the last examination. For purposes of this subsection, "complaint" means any written communication primarily expressing a grievance.

(11) MISREPRESENTATION IN INSURANCE APPLICATIONS.—

(a) Knowingly making false or fraudulent statements or representations on, or relative to, an application for an insurance policy for the purpose of obtaining a fee, commission, money, or other benefit from any insurer, agent, broker, or individual.

(b) Any agent, solicitor, examining physician, applicant, or other person who knowingly makes any false and fraudulent statement or representation in, or with reference to, any application or negotiation for insurance, in addition to any other penalty provided in this act, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(12) "TWISTING."—Knowingly making any misleading representations or incomplete or fraudulent comparisons of any insurance policies or insurers for the purpose of inducing, or tending to induce, any person to lapse, forfeit, surrender, terminate, retain, pledge, assign, borrow on, or convert any insurance policy or to take out a policy of insurance in another insurer.

(13) ADVERTISING GIFTS PERMITTED.—No provision of subsection (6), subsection (7), or subsection (8) shall be deemed to prohibit a licensed insurer or its agent from giving to insureds, prospective insureds, and others, for the purpose of advertising, any article of merchandise having a value of not more than $10.

(14) FREE INSURANCE PROHIBITED.—

(a) Advertising, offering, or providing free insurance as an inducement to the purchase or sale of real or personal property or of services directly or indirectly connected with such real or personal property.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, "free" insurance is:

1. Insurance for which no identifiable and additional charge is made to the purchaser of such real property, personal property, or services.

2. Insurance for which an identifiable or additional charge is made in an amount less than the cost of such insurance as to the seller or other person, other than the insurer, providing the same.

(c) Paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply to:

1. Insurance of loss of or damage to the real or personal property involved in any such sale or services, under a policy covering the interests therein of the seller or vendor.

2. Blanket disability insurance as defined in s. 627.659 of this code.

3. Credit life insurance or credit disability insurance.

4. Any individual, isolated, nonrecurring unadvertised transaction not in the regular course of business.

5. Title insurance.

6. Any purchase agreement involving the purchase of a cemetery lot or lots in which, under stated conditions, any balance due is forgiven upon the death of the purchaser.

(d) Using the word "free" to describe life or disability insurance, in connection with the advertising or offering for sale of any kind of goods, merchandise, or services.

(15) ILLEGAL DEALINGS IN PREMIUMS; EXCESS OR REDUCED CHARGES FOR INSURANCE.—

(a) Knowingly collecting any sum as a premium or charge for insurance, which is not then provided, or is not in due course to be provided, subject to acceptance of the risk by the insurer, by an insurance policy issued by an insurer as permitted by this code.

(b) Knowingly collecting as a premium or charge for insurance any sum in excess of or less than the premium or charge applicable to such insurance, in accordance with the applicable classifications and rates as filed with and approved by the department, and as specified in the policy; or, in cases when classifications, premiums, or rates are not required by this code to be so filed and approved, premiums and charges in excess of or less than those specified in the policy and as fixed by the insurer. This provision shall not be deemed to prohibit the charging and collection, by surplus lines agents licensed under part VI of this chapter, of the amount of applicable state and federal taxes in addition to the premium required by the insurer.

(c) Imposing or requesting an additional premium for automobile liability insurance, or refusing to renew the policy, solely because the insured was involved in an automobile accident, unless the applicant's or insured's insurer has incurred a loss under the insured's policy, other than with respect to uninsured motorist coverage, arising out of the accident, or unless the insurer's file shall contain sufficient proof of fault, or other criteria, to justify the additional charge or refusal to renew. An insurer which imposes and collects such a surcharge shall, in conjunction with the notice of premium due, notify the named insured that he is entitled to reimbursement of such amount under the conditions listed below, and shall subsequently reimburse him, if the named insured demonstrates that the operator involved in the accident was:

1. Lawfully parked.

2. Reimbursed by, or on behalf of, a person responsible for the accident or has a judgment against such person.

3. Struck in the rear by another vehicle headed in the same direction and was not convicted of a moving traffic violation in connection with the accident.

5. Not convicted of a moving traffic violation in connection with the accident.

6. Finally adjudicated not to be liable by a court of competent jurisdiction.

7. In receipt of a traffic citation which was dismissed or nolle prossed.

(d) Upon the request of the insured, the insurer and licensed agent shall supply to the insured the complete proof of fault or other criteria which justifies the additional charge of cancellation.

(e) This subsection does not apply to life or disability insurance.

(f) No insurer shall impose or request an additional premium for motor vehicle insurance, cancel a policy, or refuse to renew a policy solely because the insured is a handicapped or physically disabled person.

(g) No insurer may cancel or otherwise terminate any insurance contract, or require execution of a consent to rate endorsement, during the stated policy term for the purpose of offering to issue, or issuing, a similar or identical contract to the same insured at a higher premium rate or continuing an existing contract at an increased premium.

(h) No insurer shall, with respect to premiums charged for automobile insurance, unfairly discriminate solely on the basis of age, sex, marital status, or scholastic achievement.

(16) INSURANCE COST SPECIFIED IN "PRICE PACKAGE."—

(a) When the premium or charge for insurance of or involving such property or merchandise is included in the overall purchase price or financing of the purchase of merchandise or property, the vendor or lender shall separately state and identify the amount charged and to be paid for the insurance, and the classifications, if any, upon which based; and the inclusion or exclusion of the cost of insurance in such purchase price or financing shall not increase, reduce, or otherwise affect any other factor involved in the cost of the merchandise, property, or financing as to the purchaser or borrower.

(b) This subsection does not apply to transactions which are subject to the provisions of part I of chapter 520, entitled "The Motor Vehicle Sales Finance Act."

(c) This subsection does not apply to credit life or credit disability insurance which is in compliance with s. 627.681(2).

(17) CERTAIN INSURANCE TRANSACTIONS THROUGH CREDIT CARD FACILITIES PROHIBITED.—

(a) Except as provided in part VIII of chapter 627, no person shall knowingly solicit or negotiate any insurance, seek or accept applications for insurance, issue or deliver any policy, or receive, collect, or transmit premiums, to or for any insurer, or otherwise transact insurance in this state, or relative to a subject of insurance resident, located, or to be performed in this state, through the arrangement or facilities of a credit card facility or organization, for the purpose of insuring credit card holders or prospective credit card holders. "Credit card holder" as used in this subsection means any person who may pay the charge for purchases or other transactions through the credit card facility or organization, whose credit with such facility or organization is evidenced by a credit card identifying such person as being one whose charges the credit card facility or organization will pay, and who is identified as such upon the credit card either by name, account number, symbol, insignia, or any other method or device of identification. This paragraph does not apply as to disability or health insurance as defined in s. 624.603.

(b) Whenever any person does or performs in this state any of the acts set forth in paragraph (a) for or on behalf of any insurer therein referred to, such insurer shall be held to be doing business in this state and shall be subject to the same state, county, and municipal taxes as insurers that have been legally qualified and admitted to do business in this state by agents or otherwise are subject, the same to be assessed and collected against such insurers; and such persons so doing or performing any of such acts shall be personally liable for all such taxes.

(18) INTERLOCKING OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT.—

(a) Any domestic insurer may retain, invest in, or acquire the whole or any part of the capital stock of any other insurer or insurers, or have a common management with any other insurer or insurers, unless such retention, investment, acquisition, or common management is inconsistent with any other provision of this code, or unless by reason thereof the business of such insurers with the public is conducted in a manner which substantially lessens competition generally in the insurance business.

(b) Any person otherwise qualified may be a director of two or more domestic insurers which are competitors, unless the effect thereof is substantially to lessen competition between insurers generally or materially tend to create a monopoly.

(c) Any limitation contained in this subsection shall not apply to any person who is a director of two or more insurers under common control or management.

(19) PROHIBITED ARRANGEMENTS AS TO FUNERALS.—

(a) No life insurer shall designate in any life insurance policy the person to conduct the funeral of the insured, or organize, promote, or operate any enterprise or plan to enter into any contract with any insured under which the freedom of choice in the open market of the person having the legal right to such choice is restricted as to the purchase, arrangement, and conduct of a funeral service or any part thereof for any individual insured by the insurer.

(b) No insurer shall contract or agree to furnish funeral merchandise or services in connection with the burial of any person upon the death of any person insured by such insurer.

(c) No insurer shall contract or agree with any funeral director or undertaker to the effect that such funeral director or undertaker shall conduct the funeral of any person insured by such insurer.

(d) No insurer shall provide, in any insurance contract covering the life of any person in this state, for the payment of the proceeds or benefits thereof in other than legal tender of the United States and of this state, or for the withholding of such proceeds or benefits, all for the purpose of either directly or indirectly providing, inducing, or furthering any arrangement or agreement designed to require or induce the employment of a particular person to conduct the funeral of the insured.

(20) CERTAIN LIFE INSURANCE RELATIONS WITH FUNERAL DIRECTORS PROHIBITED.—

(a) No life insurer shall permit any funeral director or undertaker to act as its representative, adjuster, claim agent, special claim agent, or agent for such insurer in soliciting, negotiating, or effecting contracts of life insurance on any plan or of any nature issued by such insurer or in collecting premiums for holders of any such contracts.

(b) No life insurer shall:

1. Affix, or permit to be affixed, advertising matter of any kind or character of any funeral director or undertaker to such policies of insurance.

2. Circulate, or permit to be circulated, any such advertising matter with such insurance policies.

3. Attempt in any manner or form to influence policyholders of the insurer to employ the services of any particular funeral director or undertaker.

(c) No such insurer shall maintain, or permit its agent to maintain, an office or place of business in the office, establishment, or place of business of any funeral director or undertaker in this state.

(21) FALSE CLAIMS; OBTAINING OR RETAINING MONEY DISHONESTLY.—

(a) Any agent, physician, claimant, or other person who causes to be presented to any insurer a false claim for payment, knowing the same to be false; or

(b) Any agent, solicitor, collector, or other person who shall represent any insurer or collect or do business without the authority of the insurer, secure cash advances by false statements, or fail to turn over when required, or satisfactorily account for, all collections of such insurer, shall, in addition to the other penalties provided in this act, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties provided by s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(22) PROPOSAL REQUIRED.—If a person simultaneously holds a securities license and a life insurance license, he shall prepare and leave with each prospective buyer a written proposal, on or before delivery of any investment plan. "Investment plan" means a mutual funds program, and the proposal shall consist of a prospectus describing the investment feature and a full illustration of any life insurance feature. The proposal shall be prepared in duplicate, dated, and signed by the licensee. The original shall be left with the prospect, the duplicate shall be retained by the licensee for a period of not less than 3 years, and a copy shall be furnished to the department upon its request. In lieu of a duplicate copy, a receipt for standardized proposals filed with the department may be obtained and held by the licensee.

(23) SOLICITING OR ACCEPTING NEW OR RENEWAL INSURANCE RISKS BY INSOLVENT INSURER PROHIBITED; PENALTY.—

(a) Whether or not delinquency proceedings as to the insurer have been or are to be initiated, but while such insolvency exists, no director or officer of an insurer, except with the written permission of the Department of Insurance, shall authorize or permit the insurer to solicit or accept new or renewal insurance risks in this state after such director or officer knew, or reasonably should have known, that the insurer was insolvent.

(b) Any such director or officer, upon conviction of violation of this subsection, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(24) REFUSAL TO INSURE.—In addition to other provisions of this code, the refusal to insure, or continue to insure, any individual or risk solely because of:

(a) Race, color, creed, marital status, sex, or national origin;

(b) The residence, age, or lawful occupation of the individual or the location of the risk, unless there is a reasonable relationship between the residence, age, or lawful occupation of the individual or the location of the risk and the coverage issued or to be issued;

(c) The insured's or applicant's failure to agree to place collateral business with a particular insurer; or

(d) The fact that the insured or applicant had been previously refused insurance coverage by any insurer, when such refusal to insure or continue to insure for this reason occurs with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 19, ch. 77-468; s. 1, ch. 78-377; s. 1, ch. 79-289.

626.9551 Favored agent or insurer; coercion of debtors.—

(1) No person may:

(a) Require, as a condition precedent or condition subsequent to the lending of money or extension of credit or any renewal thereof, that the person to whom such money or credit is extended, or whose obligation the creditor is to acquire or finance, negotiate any policy or contract of insurance through a particular insurer or group of insurers or agent or broker or group of agents or brokers.

(b) Unreasonably disapprove the insurance policy provided by a borrower for the protection of the property securing the credit or lien. For purposes of this paragraph, such disapproval shall be deemed unreasonable if it is not based solely on reasonable standards, uniformly applied, relating to the extent of coverage required by such lender or person extending credit and the financial soundness and the services of an insurer. Such standards shall not discriminate against any particular type of insurer, nor shall such standards call for the disapproval of an insurance policy because such policy contains coverage in addition to that required.

(c) Require, directly or indirectly, that any borrower, mortgagor, purchaser, insurer, broker, or agent pay a separate charge in connection with the handling of any insurance policy required as security for a loan on real estate or pay a separate charge to substitute the insurance policy of one insurer for that of another. This paragraph does not include the interest which may be charged on premium loans or premium advances in accordance with the security instrument.

(d) Use or disclose information resulting from a requirement that a borrower, mortgagor, or purchaser furnish insurance of any kind on real property being conveyed or used as collateral security to a loan, when such information is to the advantage of the mortgagee, vendor, or lender, or is to the detriment of the borrower, mortgagor, purchaser, or insurer, or the agent or broker, complying with such a requirement.

(2) The department may investigate the affairs of any person to whom this section applies to determine whether such person has violated this section. If a violation of this section is found to have been committed knowingly, the person in violation shall be subject to the same procedures and penalties as provided in ss. 626.9571, 626.9581, 626.9591, and 626.9601.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 79-289; s. 236, ch. 79-400.

626.9561 Power of department.—The department shall have power to examine and investigate the affairs of every person involved in the business of insurance in this state in order to determine whether such person has been or is engaged in any unfair method of competition or in any unfair or deceptive act or practice prohibited by s. 626.9521.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9571 Defined practices; hearings, witnesses, appearances, production of books and service of process.—

(1) Whenever the department has reason to believe that any person has engaged, or is engaging, in this state in any unfair method of competition or any unfair or deceptive act or practice as defined in s. 626.9541 or s. 626.9551 or is engaging in the business of insurance without being properly licensed as required by this code and that a proceeding by it in respect thereto would be to the interest of the public, it shall conduct or cause to have conducted a hearing in accordance with chapter 120.

(2) The department or a duly empowered hearing officer shall, during the conduct of such hearing, have those powers enumerated in s. 120.58; however, the penalties for failure to comply with a subpoena or with an order directing discovery shall be limited to a fine not to exceed $1000 per violation.

(3) Statements of charges, notices, and orders under this act may be served by anyone duly authorized by the department, either in the manner provided by law for service of process in civil actions or by certifying and mailing a copy thereof to the person affected by such statement, notice, order, or other process at his or its residence or principal office or place of business. The verified return by the person so serving such statement, notice, order, or other process, setting forth the manner of the service, shall be proof of the same, and the return postcard receipt for such statement, notice, order, or other process, certified and mailed as aforesaid, shall be proof of service of the same.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9581 Cease and desist and penalty orders.—After the hearing provided in s. 626.9571, the department shall enter a final order in accordance with s. 120.59. If it is determined that the person charged has engaged in an unfair or deceptive act or practice or the unlawful transaction of insurance, the department shall also issue an order requiring the violator to cease and desist from engaging in such method of competition, act, or practice or the unlawful transaction of insurance. Further, if the act or practice is a violation of s. 626.9541 or s. 626.9551, the department may, at its discretion, order any one or more of the following:

(1) Suspension or revocation of the person's certificate of authority, license, or eligibility for any certificate of authority or license, if he knew, or reasonably should have known, he was in violation of this act.

(2) Such other relief as may be provided in the insurance code.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9601 Penalty for violation of cease and desist orders.—Any person who violates a cease and desist order of the department under s. 626.9581 while such order is in effect, after notice and hearing as provided in s. 626.9571, shall be subject, at the discretion of the department, to any one or more of the following:

(1) A monetary penalty of not more than $50,000 as to all matters determined in such hearing.

(2) Suspension or revocation of such person's certificate of authority, license, or eligibility to hold such certificate of authority or license.

(3) Such other relief as may be provided in the insurance code.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9611 Rules.—The department may, in accordance with chapter 120, promulgate reasonable rules as are necessary or proper to identify specific methods of competition or acts or practices which are prohibited by s. 626.9541 or s. 626.9551, but the rules shall not enlarge upon or extend the provisions of ss. 626.9541 and 626.9551.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

626.9621 Provisions of part additional to existing law.—The powers vested in the department by this part shall be additional to any other powers to enforce any penalties, fines, or forfeitures authorized by law.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9631 Civil liability.—The provisions of this part are cumulative to rights under the general civil and common law, and no action of the department shall abrogate such rights to damages or other relief in any court.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9641 Policyholders, bill of rights.—

(1) The principles expressed in the following statements shall serve as standards to be followed by the department in exercising its powers and duties, in exercising administrative discretion, in dispensing administrative interpretations of the law, and in promulgating rules:

(d) Policyholders shall have a right to an insurance company that is financially stable.

(e) Policyholders shall have the right to be serviced by a competent, honest insurance agent or broker.

(f) Policyholders shall have the right to a readable policy.

(g) Policyholders shall have the right to an insurance company that provides an economic delivery of coverage and that tries to prevent losses.

(h) Policyholders shall have the right to a bal-

(2) This section shall not be construed as creating a civil cause of action by any individual policyholder against any individual insurer.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-260.

626.9701 Rate increases and premium surcharges; consideration of certain noncriminal violations for excessive speed prohibited.—Noncriminal violations solely for excessive speed less than 70 m.p.h. on highways which are outside of business and residential districts and which have at least four lanes divided by a median strip at least 20 feet wide and on highways which comprise a part of the national system of interstate and defense highways shall not be considered by insurance companies in rate increases for individuals or surcharges for insurance premiums.

History.—s. 5, ch. 76-218.

626.9702 Illegal dealings in premiums; excess charges for insurance.—

(1) No insurer shall impose or request an additional premium for automobile insurance, or refuse to renew a policy, solely because the insured or applicant was convicted of one or more traffic violations which do not involve an accident or do not cause revocation or suspension of the driving privileges of the insured, without adequate proof of a direct, demonstrable, objective relationship between the violation for which the surcharge was imposed and the increased risk of highway accidents.

(2) No insurer shall cancel or otherwise terminate any automobile insurance contract with an insured after the insured has paid the premiums on such policy for 5 years or more solely because the insured is involved in a single traffic accident.

(3) Any person or organization which violates any provision of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in s. 627.381.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-158.

626.9705 Life or disability insurance; illegal dealings.—

(1) No life or disability insurer shall refuse to renew, sell, or issue a life or disability insurance policy, establish or charge a premium or rate to an applicant or a prospective policyholder, or establish or charge an unfair, discriminatory premium or rate to such person solely on the ground that the applicant or policyholder suffers from a severe disability.

(2) "Severe disability," as used in this section, means any spinal cord disease or injury resulting in permanent and total disability, amputation of any extremity that requires prosthesis, permanent visual acuity of 20/200 or worse in the better eye with the best correction, a peripheral field so contracted that the widest diameter of such field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees, or neurosensory deafness.

(3) Nothing in this section should be construed as requiring an insurer to provide insurance coverage against a severe disability which the applicant or policyholder has already sustained.

History.—ss. 1, 7, ch. 75-279; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 79-171.

626.9706 Life insurance; discrimination on basis of sickle-cell trait prohibited.—

(1) No insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state shall refuse to issue and deliver any policy of life insurance solely because the person to be insured has the sickle-cell trait.

(2) No life insurance policy issued and delivered in this state shall carry a higher premium rate or charge solely because the person to be insured has the sickle-cell trait.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-35.

626.9707 Disability insurance; discrimination on basis of sickle-cell trait prohibited.—

(1) No insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state shall refuse to issue and deliver in this state any policy of disability insurance, whether such policy is defined as individual, group, blanket, franchise, industrial, or otherwise, which is currently being issued for delivery in this state and which affords benefits and coverage for any medical treatment or service authorized and permitted to be furnished by a hospital, clinic, health clinic, neighborhood health clinic, health maintenance organization, physician, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or medical service facility or personnel solely because the person to be insured has the sickle-cell trait.

(2) No disability insurance policy issued or delivered in this state shall carry a higher premium rate or charge solely because the person to be insured has the sickle-cell trait.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-35.

626.973 Fictitious groups.—

(1) No insurer or any person on behalf of any insurer shall make, offer to make, or permit any preference or distinction in property, marine, casualty, or surety insurance as to form of policy, certificate, premium, rate, benefits, or conditions of insurance, based upon membership, nonmembership, employment, or of any person or persons by or in any particular group, association, corporation, or organization, and shall not make the foregoing preference or distinction available in any event based upon any "fictitious grouping" of persons as defined in this code, such "fictitious grouping" being hereby defined and declared to be any grouping by way of membership, nonmembership, license, franchise, employment, contract, agreement or any other method or means.

(2) The restrictions and limitations of this section shall not extend to life and disability insurance.

History.—s. 398, ch. 59-205.

626.988 Financial institutions; agents and solicitors prohibited from employment; exceptions.—

(1) For the purpose of this section the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Financial institution" means any bank, bank holding company, savings and loan association, savings and loan association holding company, or savings and loan association service corporation or any subsidiary, affiliate, or foundation of any of the foregoing. This definition shall not, however, include any financial institution which has been granted an exemption by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to s. 4(d) of the Federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, or any financial institution which neither owns more than 10 percent of the capital stock, nor exercises effective control, of a bank, savings and loan association, or entity licensed under chapter 494 and licensed or authorized to transact business in Florida. Specifically excluded from this definition is any bank which is not a subsidiary or affiliate of a bank holding company and is located in a city having a population of less than 5,000 according to the last preceding census.

(b) "Insurance agency activities" means the procurement of applications for, or the solicitation, negotiation, selling, effectuating, or servicing of, any policy or contract of insurance other than credit life insurance and credit disability insurance.

(c) "Financial institution agency" means any person, firm, partnership, or corporate entity which is engaged in insurance agency activities, as herein defined, and is associated with, or owned, controlled, employed, or retained by, a financial institution as herein defined.

(2) No insurance agent or solicitor licensed by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of this chapter who is associated with, under contract with, retained by, owned or controlled by, to any degree, directly or indirectly, or employed by, a financial institution shall engage in insurance agency activities as an employee, officer, director, agent, or associate of a financial institution agency.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an insurance agent or solicitor licensed by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of this chapter who is affiliated with, under contract with, retained by, or owned or controlled directly or indirectly to any degree by, a bank holding company subsidiary or affiliate, which is not a bank, licensed and operating primarily under chapter 494, may engage in insurance agency activities if permitted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, but only to the extent that such activities are directly related to the extension of credit, specifically real estate mortgage loans made or brokered by licensees under chapter 494, and only to the extent necessary to protect the real property which is subject to the mortgage loan against loss or damage. With respect only to residential property consisting of not more than four individual dwelling units, such agent or solicitor may offer a policy affording insurance on the primary residence, appurtenant structures, personal property, and personal liability, but excluding any insurance customarily written under an inland marine form. In addition, such agent may offer decreasing term life insurance on the life of the borrower not to exceed the amount and term of the mortgage.

(4) The Department of Insurance shall not grant, renew, continue, or permit to exist any license as such agent or solicitor as to any applicant therefor or licensee thereunder if it finds that the license has been, is being, or will probably be, used by the applicant or licensee for any purpose prohibited by this section.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, the Department of Insurance shall permit the continued operation under the same ownership and control of all financial institution agencies which were in existence and engaged in insurance agency activities as of April 2, 1974. To make possible such continuation, the Department of Insurance may license agents and solicitors who are otherwise qualified, as successors to those agents and solicitors who are exempt from the provisions of this section and their successors, for so long as the specified financial institution agency continues to function as it was constituted on April 2, 1974. However, no agent or solicitor so licensed under this section shall be permitted to be employed, or controlled to any degree, directly or indirectly, by any financial institution agency except the particular agency for which he was so licensed as a successor for the purposes of this section.

(6) This section shall not prevent an agent or solicitor from serving as an officer or director of a financial institution, provided he conducts all of his insurance activities free of ownership or control of the financial institution and provided further that the financial institution does not participate directly or indirectly in the earnings from his insurance activities.

(7) This section shall not apply to agents or solicitors who were engaged as of April 2, 1974, in activities prohibited by this section and who have been continuously so engaged since that date, but this exemption applies only with respect to the specific type of license held and the financial institution with which the agent or solicitor was associated on said date.

626.989 Division of Insurance Fraud; investigative, subpoena powers; accident reports to division; personnel and expenses; division of costs.—

(1) If, by its own inquiries or as a result of complaints, the Division of Insurance Fraud has reason to believe that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, an act or practice that violates s. 817.234 or s. 624.15, it may administer oaths and affirmations, request the attendance of witnesses or proffering of matter, and collect evidence. The department shall not compel the attendance of any person or matter in any such investigation except pursuant to subsection (3).

(2) If matter that the division seeks to obtain by request is located outside the state, the person so requested may make it available to the division or its representative to examine the matter at the place where it is located. The division may designate representatives, including officials of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on its behalf, and it may respond to similar requests from officials of other states.

(3) The division may request that an individual who refuses to comply with any such request be ordered by the circuit court to provide the testimony or matter. The court shall not order such compliance unless the division has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the court that the testimony of the witness or the matter under request has a direct bearing on a violation of s. 817.234 or s. 624.15 or is pertinent and necessary to further such investigation. Except in a prosecution for perjury, an individual who complies with a court order to provide testimony or matter after asserting a privilege against self-incrimination to which he is entitled by law may not be subjected to a criminal proceeding or to a civil penalty with respect to the act concerning which he is required to testify or produce relevant matter.

(4) The department's papers, documents, reports, or evidence relative to the subject of an investigation under this section shall not be subject to public inspection for so long as the department deems reasonably necessary to complete the investigation, to protect the person investigated from unwarranted injury, or to be in the public interest. Further, such papers, documents, reports, or evidence relative to the subject of an investigation under this section shall not be subject to subpoena until opened for public inspection by the department, unless the department consents, or until, after notice to the department and a hearing, the court determines the department would not be unnecessarily hindered by such subpoena. Division investigators shall not be subject to subpoena in civil actions by any court of this state to testify concerning any matter of which they have knowledge pursuant to a pending insurance fraud investigation by the division.

(5) Any company which believes that such a fraudulent claim is being made shall, within 60 days of the receipt of such notice, send to the Division of Insurance Fraud, on a form prescribed by the department, the information requested and such additional information relative to the claim and the parties claiming loss or damages because of the accident as the department may require. The Division of Insurance Fraud shall review such reports and select such claims as, in its judgment, may require further investigation. It shall then cause an independent examination of the facts surrounding such claim to be made to determine the extent, if any, to which fraud, deceit, or intentional misrepresentation of any kind exists in the submission of the claim. The Division of Insurance Fraud shall report any alleged violations of law which its investigations disclose to the appropriate licensing agency and state attorney having jurisdiction with respect to any such violation, as provided in s. 624.310. If prosecution by the state attorney is not begun within 60 days of the division's report, the state attorney shall inform the division of the reasons for the lack of prosecution.

(6) No insurer, or employees or agents of any insurer, shall be subject to civil liability for libel or otherwise by virtue of the filing of reports or furnishing other information required by this section or required by the Division of Insurance Fraud as a result of the authority herein granted.

(7) All costs of administration and operation of said Division of Insurance Fraud shall be borne by the insurers licensed to write fire and casualty insurance in this state. The Insurance Commissioner shall equally divide such costs among all such companies, charging each such company an identical amount adequate to provide the total cost of each fiscal year of operation. Such amounts as derived by said assessment shall be deposited in the State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund. The total budget of said division shall be as determined annually in the General Appropriations Act.

(8) Division investigators shall have the power to make arrests for criminal violations established as a result of investigations only. The general laws applicable to arrests by peace officers of this state shall also be applicable to such investigators. Such investigators shall have the power to execute arrest warrants and search warrants for the same criminal violations, serve subpoenas issued for the examination, investigation, and trial of all offenses determined by their investigations, and arrest upon probable cause without warrant any person found in the act of violating any of the provisions of applicable laws. Investigators empowered to make arrests under this section shall not be empowered to carry firearms or other weapons in the performance of their duties.

(9) It is unlawful for any person to resist an arrest authorized by this section or in any manner to interfere, either by abetting or assisting such resistance or otherwise interfering, with division investigators in the duties imposed upon them by law or department regulation.

1627.011 Short title.—Part I of this chapter may be referred to as the "Rating Law."

History.—s. 412, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.021 Scope of part I.—

(1) Part I of this chapter applies only to property, casualty, and surety insurances (as defined in part V of chapter 624 of this code) of subjects of insurance resident, located or to be performed in this state, except as provided in subsection (2).

(2) This chapter does not apply to:

(a) Reinsurance, except joint reinsurance as provided in s. 627.311 of this chapter.

(b) Disability insurance.

(c) Insurance against loss of or damage to aircraft, their hulls, accessories or equipment, or against liability, other than workers' compensation and employer's liability, arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of aircraft.

(d) Insurance of vessels or craft, their cargoes, marine builders' risks, marine protection and indemnity, or other risks commonly insured under marine, as distinguished from inland marine, insurance policies.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter all motor vehicle insurance shall be deemed to be casualty insurance only.

History.—s. 413, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 92, ch. 79-40.

1627.031 Purpose of part I; interpretation.—

(1) The purposes of part I of this chapter are:

(a) To promote the public welfare by regulating insurance rates as herein provided to the end that they shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) To authorize the existence and operation of qualified rating organizations and advisory organizations and require that specified rating services of such rating organizations be generally available to all authorized insurers; and

(c) To authorize cooperation between insurers in rate making and other related matters.

(2) It is the purpose of this part to protect policyholders and the public against the adverse effects of excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory motor vehicle insurance rates, and to encourage independent action by, and reasonable price competition among, insurers.

History.—s. 411, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 67-9; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-3(B); s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.032 "California Plan" repealed as to motor vehicle insurance.—

(1) It is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature to repeal the so-called "California Plan," insofar as it applies to motor vehicle insurance as defined in s. 627.063, until a more permanent and broad program of automobile insurance reform can be adopted. This act is designed to assure the public that adequate automobile insurance protection will be available to the citizens of Florida at reasonable prices. It is the intention of the Legislature that group marketing of motor vehicle insurance shall be authorized, consistent with sound actuarial principles.

(2) Nothing contained in chapter 71-3(B), Laws of Florida, shall be construed as a modification of any findings of the Legislature contained in chapter 70-989, Laws of Florida, or as an extension of the moratorium, or as an approval of any automobile insurance rates in use in Florida. It is the duty of the department through its office to regulate such rates. If at any time said department has reason to believe any such rate is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory under the law, it is directed to take the necessary action to cause such rates to comply with the laws of Florida.

History.—s. 2, ch. 71-3(B); s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.041 Definitions.—As used in part I of this chapter:

(1) "Rate" means the unit charge by which the measure of exposure or the amount of insurance specified in a policy of insurance or covered thereunder is multiplied to determine the premium.

(2) "Premium" means the consideration paid or to be paid to an insurer for the issuance and delivery of any binder or policy of insurance.

(3) "Rating organization" means every person, other than an authorized insurer, whether located within or outside this state, who has as his object or purpose the making of rates, rating plans, or rating systems. Two or more authorized insurers which act in concert for the purpose of making rates, rating plans, or rating systems, and which do not operate within the specific authorizations contained in s. 627.311 (joint underwriters and joint reinsurers), s. 627.314(2),(4) (concerted action), and s. 627.351 (assigned risk plan), shall be deemed to be a rating organization. No single insurer shall be deemed to be a rating organization.

(4) "Advisory organization" means every group, association, or other organization of insurers, whether located within or outside this state, which prepares policy forms or makes underwriting rules incident to but not including the making of rates, rating plans or rating systems or which collects and furnishes to authorized insurers or rating organizations loss or expense statistics or other statistical information and data and acts in an advisory, as distinguished from a rate making, capacity.

(5) "Member" means an insurer who participates in or is entitled to participate in the management of a rating, advisory or other organization.

(6) "Subscriber" means an insurer which is furnished at its request:

(a) With rates and rating manuals by a rating organization of which it is not a member; or

(b) With advisory services by an advisory organization of which it is not a member.

(7) "Willful" or "willfully" in relation to an act or omission which constitutes a violation of this part means with actual knowledge or belief that such act or omission constitutes such violation and with specific intent nevertheless to commit such act or omission.

History.—s. 414, ch. 59-205; s. 2, ch. 67-9; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.062 Rate standards.—

(1) The rates for all classes of insurance to which the provisions of this part are applicable shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(2) As to all such classes of insurance, other than workers' compensation, employer's liability insurance and motor vehicle insurance:

(a) No rate shall be held to be excessive unless:

1. Such rate is unreasonably high for the insurance provided, and

2. A reasonable degree of competition does not exist in the area with respect to the classification to which the rate is applicable.

(b) No rate shall be held to be inadequate unless:

1. The rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided, and

2. The continued use of the rate endangers the solvency of the insurer using the same, or unless

3. The rate is unreasonably low for the insurance provided, and the use of the rate by the insurer using the same has, or if continued will have, the effect of destroying competition or of creating a monopoly.

(c) A rate shall be deemed excessive if, among other things, the rate structure established by a stock insurance company provides for replenishment of surpluses from premiums, when such replenishment is attributable to investment losses.

(d) This subsection shall not apply to motor vehicle insurance as defined in s. 627.063.

(3) Nothing contained in this section or elsewhere in this part shall be construed to repeal or modify the provisions of ss. 626.951 through 626.986, relating to unfair trade practices, and any rate, rating classification, rating plan or schedule, or variation thereof established in violation of said sections shall, in addition to the consequences stated in said sections or elsewhere, be deemed a violation of this section.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-9; s. 3, ch. 71-3(B); s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 21, ch. 77-468; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 93, ch. 79-40.

627.063 "Motor vehicle insurance" defined.—

For the purposes of this part "motor vehicle insurance" means a policy of automobile or motor vehicle insurance delivered or issued for delivery in the state by an authorized insurer:

(1) Insuring a natural person as named insured or one or more related individuals resident of the same household, or both; and

(2) Insuring a motor vehicle of the private passenger or station wagon type which is not used as public or livery conveyance for passengers or rented to others, or insuring any other four-wheeled motor vehicle having a capacity of 1500 pounds or less which is not used in the occupation, profession, or business of the insured, other than farming; and

(3) Other than any policy:

(a) Issued under an automobile insurance assigned risk plan; or

(b) Insuring more than four automobiles; or

(c) Covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-3(B); s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.0651 Making and use of rates for motor vehicle insurance.—

(1) Insurers shall establish rates, rating schedules, or rating manuals to allow the insurer a reasonable rate of return on motor vehicle insurance written in Florida. A copy of rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals, and changes therein, shall be filed with the department as soon as practicable following their effective date, but no later than 30 days after that date.

(2) Upon receiving notice of a rate filing or rate change, the department may review the rate or rate change to determine if the rate is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. In making that determination the department may consider the following factors:

(a) Past and prospective loss experience within and outside this state.

(b) The past and prospective administrative, selling, and loss adjustment expenses.

(c) The degree of competition among insurers for the risk insured.

(d) Investment income expected on the flow of funds generated by the average policy for motor vehicle insurance in this state.

(e) Dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned to Florida policyholders, members, or subscribers.

(f) All other relevant factors, including judgment factors, within and outside this state.

(g) The cost of repairs to automobiles.

(h) The cost of medical services.

(i) The adequacy of loss reserves.

(j) The cost of reinsurance.

(k) Trend factors, including trends in actual losses per insured unit for the insurer making the filing.

(3) Rates shall be deemed excessive if they are likely to produce a profit from Florida business that is unreasonably high in relation to the risk involved in the class of business, or if expenses are unreasonably high in relation to services rendered.

(4) Rates shall be deemed excessive if, among other things, the rate structure established by a stock insurance company provides for replenishment of surpluses from premiums, when such replenishment is attributable to investment losses.

(5) Rates shall be deemed inadequate if they are clearly insufficient, together with the investment income attributable to them, to sustain projected losses and expenses in the class of business to which they apply.

(6) One rate shall be deemed unfairly discriminatory in relation to another in the same class if it clearly fails to reflect equitably the difference in expected losses and expenses.

(7) Rates are not unfairly discriminatory because different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, so long as rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

(8) Rates are not unfairly discriminatory if averaged broadly among members of a group. Nor shall such rates be unfairly discriminatory even though they may be lower than rates for nonmembers of the group. However, such rates are unfairly discriminatory if they are not actuarially measurable and credible and sufficiently related to actual or expected loss and expense experience of the group so as to assure that nonmembers of the group are not unfairly discriminated against.

(9) In reviewing the rate or rate change filed, the department may require the insurer to provide at the insurer's expense all information necessary to evaluate the condition of the company and the reasonableness of the filing according to the criteria enumerated herein.

(10) If after review of the rate or rate change, the pertinent records of the insurer, and market conditions, the department finds on a preliminary basis that the rate or rate change may be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the department shall so notify the insurer. Upon being so notified, the insurer or rating organization shall, within 60 days, file with the department all information which the insurer or organization believes proves the reasonableness, adequacy, and fairness of the rate or rate change. In such instances the insurer or rating organization shall carry the burden of proof.

(11) In the event the department finds that a rate or rate change is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the department may order that a new rate or rate schedule be thereafter filed by the insurer. Supporting information responsive to the department's findings shall be submitted with the filing.

(12) Within 30 days after January 1, 1980, the Department of Insurance shall commence a review of the rates of all licensed motor vehicle insurers in effect at the time. If, after the review, the department finds on a preliminary basis that the rate may be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the department shall so notify the insurer. Upon being so notified, the insurer shall within 60 days file with the department all information which the insurer believes proves the reasonableness, adequacy, and fairness of the rate. In such instances, the insurer shall carry the burden of proof. In the event the department finds that a rate is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the department may order that a new rate schedule be thereafter filed by the insurer and further specifying the manner in which noncompliance shall be corrected.

627.066 Excessive profits for motor vehicle insurance prohibited.—

(1) Each insurer group shall file with the department, prior to July 1 of each year on a form prescribed by the department, the following data for Florida private passenger automobile business. The data filed for the group shall be a consolidation of the data of the individual insurers of the group. The data shall include both voluntary and Joint Underwriting Association business, as follows:

- (a) Calendar year total limits earned premium.
- (b) Accident year incurred losses and loss adjustment expenses.
- (c) The administrative and selling expenses incurred in Florida or allocated to Florida for the calendar year.
- (d) Policyholder dividends applicable to the calendar year.

(2) Excessive profit has been realized:

(a) If there has been an underwriting gain for the 3 most recent calendar/accident years combined which is greater than the anticipated underwriting profit plus 5 percent of earned premiums for those calendar/accident years.

(b) As used herein with respect to any 3-year period, "anticipated underwriting profit" means the sum of the dollar amounts obtained by multiplying, for each rate filing of the insurer group in effect during such period, the earned premiums applicable to such rate filing during such period by the percentage factor included in such rate filing for profit and contingencies, such percentage factor having been determined with due recognition to investment income from funds generated by Florida business. Separate calculations need not be made for consecutive rate filings containing the same percentage factor for profits and contingencies.

(3) Each insurer group shall also file a schedule of Florida private passenger automobile loss and loss adjustment experience for each of the 3 most recent accident years. The incurred losses and loss adjustment expenses shall be valued as of March 31 of the year following the close of the accident year, developed to an ultimate basis, and at two 12-month intervals thereafter, each developed to an ultimate basis, so that a total of three evaluations will be provided for each accident year. The first year to be so reported shall be accident year 1976, so that the reporting of 3 accident years will not take place until accident years 1977 and 1978 have become available.

(4) Each insurer group's underwriting gain or loss for each calendar/accident year shall be computed as follows: The sum of the accident year incurred losses and loss adjustment expenses as of March 31 of the following year, developed to an ultimate basis, plus the administrative and selling expenses incurred in the calendar year, plus policyholder dividends applicable to calendar year, will be subtracted from the calendar year earned premium to determine the underwriting gain or loss.

(5) For the three most recent calendar/accident years, the underwriting gain or loss will be compared to the anticipated underwriting profit.

(6) If the insurer group has realized an excessive profit, the department may order a return of the excessive amounts to policyholders.

(7) In determining what action should be taken if excessive profits are realized, the department shall consider the following as they relate to Florida private passenger automobile insurance:

(a) The underwriting profit or loss of the insurer group in prior years.

(b) The financial strength and stability of the insurer group.

(c) The loss development patterns of the insurer group.

(8) The department may excuse an insurer from complying with these reporting requirements if the volume of business written by the insurer would not justify the expense of the reporting requirement.

(9) Any excess profit of an insurance company offering motor vehicle insurance shall be returned to policyholders in the form of a cash refund rather than a credit towards the future purchase of insurance.

History.—s. 23, ch. 77-468.

627.071 "Inland marine insurance" defined.

—For the purposes of this code "inland marine insurance" shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute, or by interpretation thereof, or if not so defined or interpreted, by ruling of the department, or as established as general custom of the business, as inland marine insurance.

History.—s. 417, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.072 Making and use of rates.—

(1)(a) As to all rates which are subject to part I of this chapter, other than motor vehicle insurance, the following factors shall be used in the determination and fixing of rates:

1. Past and prospective loss experience within and outside this state;

2. The conflagration and catastrophe hazards;

3. A reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies;

4. Dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers;

5. Investment income on unearned premium reserves and loss reserves;

6. Past and prospective expenses both country-wide and those specifically applicable to this state; and

7. All other relevant factors, including judgment factors, within and outside this state.

(b) In the case of fire insurance rates, consideration shall be given to the experience of the fire insurance business during a period of not less than the most recent 5-year period for which such experience is available.

(2) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by an insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the requirements of the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof for which subdivision or combination separate expense provisions are applicable.

(3) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any difference among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses. Such classifications and modifications shall apply to all risks under the same or substantially the same circumstances or conditions.

(4)(a) In the case of workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance, the Department of Insurance shall consider utilizing the following methodology in rate determinations: Premiums, expenses, and expected claim costs would be discounted to a common point of time (such as the initial point of a policy year) in the determination of rates. The cash-flow pattern of premiums, expenses, and claim costs would be determined initially by using data from 8 to 10 of the largest insurers writing workers' compensation insurance in the state. Such insurers may be selected for their statistical ability to report the data on an accident-year basis and in accordance with subparagraphs (b)1., 2., and 3., for at least 2½ years. Such a cash-flow pattern would be modified when necessary in accordance with the data and whenever a radical change in the payout pattern is expected in the policy year under consideration.

(b) If the methodology set forth in paragraph (a) is utilized, to facilitate the determination of such a cash-flow pattern methodology:

1. Each insurer shall include in its statistical reporting to the rating bureau and the department the accident year by calendar quarter data for paid-claim costs;

2. Each insurer shall submit financial reports to the rating bureau and the department which shall include total incurred claim amounts and paid-claim amounts by policy year and by injury types as of December 31 of each calendar year; and

3. Each insurer shall submit to the rating bureau and the department paid-premium data on an individual risk basis in which risks are to be subdivided by premium size as follows:

Number of Risks in Premium Range

Standard Premium
Size

[to be filled in by carrier]	$300 - 999
	1,000 - 4,999
	5,000 - 49,999
	50,000 - 99,999
	100,000 +

Total:

4. Each insurer which does not have the capability of reporting in accordance with subparagraphs 1., 2., and 3. shall be required to commence such reporting procedures as of January 1, 1980.

(c) The Insurance Commissioner is directed to consider using the methodology specified in paragraph (a) prior to March 31, 1980, and in the event he decides not to use this methodology, he shall report such decision and his reasons therefor to the committees of substance in the area of insurance in each house of the Legislature by March 31, 1980.

627.091 Rate filings; workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.—

(1) As to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances, every insurer shall file with the department every manual of classifications, rules, and rates, every rating plan, and every modification of any of the foregoing which it proposes to use. Every insurer is authorized to include deductible provisions in its manual of classifications, rules, and rates. Such deductibles shall in all cases be in a form and manner which is consistent with the underlying purpose of chapter 440.

(2) Every such filing shall state the proposed effective date thereof, and shall indicate the character and extent of the coverage contemplated. When a filing is not accompanied by the information upon which the insurer supports the filing and the department does not have sufficient information to determine whether the filing meets the applicable requirements of this part, it shall within 15 days after the date of filing require the insurer to furnish the information upon which it supports the filing and in such event the waiting period provided for in s. 627.101(2) shall commence as of the date such information is furnished. The information furnished in support of a filing may include:

- (a) The experience or judgment of the insurer or rating organization making the filing;
- (b) Its interpretation of any statistical data it relies upon;
- (c) The experience of other insurers or rating organizations; or
- (d) Any other factors which the insurer or rating organization deems relevant.

(3) A filing and any supporting information shall be open to public inspection as provided in s. 627.101.

(4) An insurer may satisfy its obligation to make such filings by becoming a member of, or a subscriber to, a licensed rating organization which makes such filings, and by authorizing the department to accept such filings in its behalf; but nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as requiring any insurer to become a member or a subscriber to any rating organization.

(5) Pursuant to the provisions of s. 627.321, the department may examine the underlying statistical data used in such filings.

(6) Whenever the committee of a recognized rating organization with responsibility for workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance rates in Florida meets to discuss the necessity for rate increases or decreases, the determination of rates, the rates to be requested, and any other matters pertaining to such rates, such meetings shall be held in Florida and shall be subject to s. 286.011. The committee of such a rating organization shall provide 6 weeks' notice to the department. The department shall provide at least 3 weeks' notice to the public of such meetings.

History.—s. 97, ch. 79-40.

627.096 Workers' Compensation Rating Bureau.—

(1) There is created within the Department of Insurance a Workers' Compensation Rating Bureau which shall make an investigation and study of all insurance companies authorized to issue workers' compensation and employer's liability coverage in this state. Such bureau shall study the data, statistics, schedules, or other information as it may deem necessary to assist and advise the department in its review of filings made by or on behalf of workers' compensation and employer's liability insurers. The department shall have the authority to promulgate rules requiring all workers' compensation and employer's liability insurers to submit to the rating bureau any data, statistics, schedules, and other information deemed necessary to the rating bureau's study and advisement.

(2) The acquisition by the Department of General Services of data processing software, hardware, and services necessary to carry out the provisions of this act for the Treasurer's Management Information Center of the Department of Insurance shall be exempt from the provisions of part I of chapter 287.

History.—s. 98, ch. 79-40.

(1) The department shall review filings as to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances as soon as reasonably possible after they have been made in order to determine whether they meet the applicable requirements of this part. If the department determines that part of a rate filing does not meet the applicable requirements of this part, it may reject so much of the filing as does not meet these requirements, and approve the remainder of the filing.

(2) Within 15 days after the date the filing, together with any additional information, if any, in support of the filing which has been requested by the department under s. 627.091(2), has been received by the department, the department shall place the filing and its supporting information on file in its office for public inspection and give notice thereof to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing.

(3) A filing which the department has placed on file for public inspection as provided in subsection (2) shall so remain on file for 15 days (counting such filing date as the first day of such public inspection period) and shall not be approved, disapproved, or become effective during such 15-day period except after a public hearing. After the 15-day public inspection period, the department shall specifically approve the filing before it becomes effective, unless within such 15-day period the department has concluded it to be in the public interest to hold a public hearing to determine whether the filing meets the requirements of this chapter and has given notice of such hearing to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, and in which case the effectiveness of the filing shall be subject to the further order of the department made as provided in s. 627.111. If after the 15-day public inspection period the department specifically disapproves the filing, the provisions of subsection (5) shall apply.

(4) An insurer or rating organization may, at the time it makes a filing with the department, request a public hearing thereon. In such event, the department shall forthwith place the filing on file in its office for public inspection and shall give notice of the hearing.

(5) If the department disapproves a filing it shall promptly give notice of such disapproval to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, stating the respects in which it finds the filing does not meet the requirements of this chapter. If the department approves a filing it shall give prompt notice thereof to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing, and in which case the filing shall become effective upon such approval or upon such subsequent date as may be satisfactory to the department and the insurer or rating organization that made the filing. If the filing becomes effective in the absence of affirmative approval, or disapproval, as provided in subsection (3), the filing shall become operative upon such effective date or upon such subsequent date as may be provided for therein.

(1) If, pursuant to s. 627.101(3), the department determines to hold a public hearing as to a filing, or holds such a public hearing pursuant to request therefor under s. 627.101(4), it shall give written notice thereof to the rating organization or insurer that made the filing, shall hold such hearing within 30 days after commencement of the public inspection period provided for in s. 627.101(2) or subsection (4), and not less than 10 days prior to the date of the hearing it shall give written notice of the hearing to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing. The department may also, in its discretion, give advance public notice of such hearing by publication of notice in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation in this state.

(2) If the department's order disapproves the filing, the filing shall not become effective during the effectiveness of such order. If the department's order approves the filing, the filing shall become effective upon the date of the order or upon such subsequent date as may be satisfactory to the insurer or rating organization that made the filing.

<sup>1</sup>627.141 Subsequent disapproval of filing; workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.—If at any time after a filing has been approved by it or has otherwise become effective the department finds that the filing no longer meets the requirements of this chapter, it shall issue an order specifying in what respects it finds that such filing fails to meet such requirements and stating when, within a reasonable period thereafter, such filing shall be deemed no longer effective. The order shall not affect any insurance contract or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in the order.

(1) In determining at any time whether to approve or disapprove a filing as to workers' compensation or employer's liability insurances, or to permit the filing otherwise to become effective, the department shall give consideration only to the applicable standards and factors referred to in ss. 627.062 and 627.072.

(2) As to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances, no manual of classifications, rule, rating plan, rating system, plan of operation, or any modification of any of the foregoing which establishes standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both, shall be disapproved if the rates thereby produced meet the applicable requirements of this part.

627.171 Excess rates.—With written consent of the insured filed with the insurer, a rate in excess of that otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

627.191 Adherence to filings; workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.—No insurer or employee thereof, and no agent, shall make or issue a contract or policy of workers' compensation or employer's liability insurance except in accordance with the filings which are in effect for such insurer, as provided in the applicable provisions of this part, or in accordance with s. 627.171 (excess rates) of this code.

History.—s. 429, ch. 59-205; s. 11, ch. 67-9; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 102, ch. 79-40.

627.211 Deviations; workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.—

(1) Every member or subscriber to a rating organization shall, as to workers' compensation or employer's liability insurance, adhere to the filings made on its behalf by such organization; except that any such insurer may make written application to the department for permission to file a uniform percentage decrease or increase to be applied to the premiums produced by the rating system so filed for a kind of insurance, for a class of insurance which is found by the department to be a proper rating unit for the application of such uniform percentage decrease or increase, or for a subdivision of workers' compensation or employer's liability insurance:

(a) Comprised of a group of manual classifications which is treated as a separate unit for ratemaking purposes, or

(b) For which separate expense provisions are included in the filings of the rating organization.

Such application shall specify the basis for the modification and shall be accompanied by the data upon which the applicant relies. A copy of the application and data shall be sent simultaneously to the rating organization.

(2) In considering the application for permission to file the deviation, the department shall give consideration to the applicable principles for rate making as set forth in ss. 627.062 and 627.072. The department shall issue an order permitting the deviation for such insurer to be filed if it finds it to be justified. It shall issue an order denying such application if it finds that the resulting premiums would be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(3) Each deviation permitted to be filed shall be effective for a period of 1 year from the date of such permission unless terminated sooner with the approval of the department, but no such termination shall be effectuated until after the deviation has been in effect for a period of at least 6 months.

History.—s. 431, ch. 59-205; s. 12, ch. 67-9; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95; s. 103, ch. 79-40.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

627.215 Excessive profits for workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance prohibited.—

(1) Each insurer group shall file with the department prior to July 1 of each year, on a form prescribed by the department, the following data for workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance:

(a) Calendar-year earned premium.

(b) Accident-year incurred losses and loss-adjustment expenses.

(c) The administrative and selling expenses incurred in Florida or allocated to Florida for the calendar year.

(d) Policyholder dividends applicable to the calendar year.

The data filed for the group shall be a consolidation of the data of the individual insurers of the group.

(2)(a) Excessive profit has been realized if underwriting gain plus investment income generated by loss reserves is greater than the anticipated underwriting profit plus 5 percent of earned premiums for the 3 most recent calendar years.

(b) As used in this section with respect to any 3-year period, "anticipated underwriting profit" means the sum of the dollar amounts obtained by multiplying, for each rate filing of the insurer group in effect during such period, the earned premiums applicable to such rate filing during such period by the percentage factor included in such rate filing for profit and contingencies, such percentage factor having been determined with due recognition to investment income from funds generated by Florida business. Separate calculations need not be made for consecutive rate filings containing the same percentage factor for profits and contingencies.

(3) Each insurer group shall also file a schedule of Florida loss and loss-adjustment experience for each of the 3 most recent accident years. The incurred losses and loss-adjustment expenses shall be valued as of December 31 of the accident year, developed to an ultimate basis, and at two 12-month intervals thereafter, each developed to an ultimate basis, so that a total of three evaluations will be provided for each accident year. The first year to be so reported shall be accident year 1979, so that the reporting of 3 accident years will not take place until accident years 1980 and 1981 have become available. For reporting purposes unrelated to determining excessive profits, the loss and loss-adjustment experience of each accident year shall continue to be reported until each accident year has been reported at eight stages of development.

(4) Each insurer group's underwriting gain or loss for each calendar-accident year shall be computed as follows: The sum of the accident-year incurred losses and loss-adjustment expenses as of December 31 of the year, developed to an ultimate basis, plus the administrative and selling expenses incurred in the calendar year, plus policyholder dividends applicable to the calendar year, shall be subtracted from the calendar-year earned premium to determine the underwriting gain or loss.

(5) For the 3 most recent calendar-accident years, the underwriting gain or loss shall be compared to the anticipated underwriting profit.

(6) If the insurer group has realized an excessive profit, the department may order a return of the excessive amounts to policyholders.

(7) In determining what action should be taken if excessive profits are realized, the department shall consider the following, as they relate to Florida workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance:

(a) The underwriting profit or loss of the insurer group in prior years.

(b) The financial strength and stability of the insurer group.

(c) The loss development patterns of the insurer group.

(8) The department may excuse an insurer from complying with these reporting requirements if the volume of business written by the insurer would not justify the expense of the reporting requirement.

(9) Any excess profit of an insurance company offering workers' compensation or employer's liability insurance shall be returned to policyholders in the form of a cash refund rather than a credit toward the future purchase of insurance.

History.—s. 104, ch. 79-40.

§627.221 Rating organizations; licensing; fee.—

(1) A corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership, or an individual, whether located within or outside this state, may make application to the department for license as a rating organization. As to property or inland marine insurance, the application shall be for such kinds of insurance, or subdivision or class of risk or a part or combination thereof as are specified in the application. As to casualty and surety insurances, the application shall be for such kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof as are specified in the application. The applicant shall file with its application:

(a) A copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and of its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business,

(b) A list of its members and subscribers,

(c) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the department or process affecting such rating organization may be served, and

(d) A statement of its qualifications as a rating organization.

If the department finds that the applicant is competent, trustworthy, and otherwise qualified to act as a rating organization and that its constitution, articles of agreement or association or certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the conduct of its business conform to the requirements of law, it shall issue a license specifying (in the case of a casualty or surety rating organization) the kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof, or (in the case of a property insurance rating organization) the kinds of insurance or subdivision or class of risk or part or combination thereof, for which the applicant is authorized to act as a rating organization.

(2) Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall expire on the September 30 next following date of issuance, and shall be subject to annual renewal.

(3) The fee for the license shall be in the amount specified therefor in s. 624.501 (filing, license, and miscellaneous fees). This fee when collected shall be deposited to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund.

(4) Licenses issued pursuant to this section may be suspended or revoked by the department in the event the rating organization ceases to meet the requirements of this section.

§627.231 Subscribers to rating organizations.—

(1) Subject to rules and regulations which have been approved by the department as reasonable, each rating organization shall permit any insurer, not a member, to subscribe to its rating services. As to property and marine rating organizations an insurer shall be so permitted to subscribe to rating services for any kind of insurance, subdivision, or class of risk or a part or combination thereof for which the rating organization is authorized so to act. As to casualty and surety rating organizations an insurer shall be so permitted to subscribe to rating services for any kind of insurance or subdivision thereof for which the rating organization is authorized so to act. The rating organization shall give notice to subscribers of proposed changes in such rules and regulations.

(2) The reasonableness of any rule or regulation in its application to subscribers, or the refusal of any rating organization to admit an insurer as a subscriber, shall, at the request of any subscriber or any such insurer, be reviewed by the department. If the department finds that such rule or regulation is unreasonable in its application to subscribers, it shall order that such rule or regulation shall not be applicable to subscribers. If the rating organization fails to grant or reject an insurer's application for subscribership within 30 days after it was made, the insurer may request a review by the department as if the application had been rejected. If the department finds that the insurer has been refused admittance to the rating organization as a subscriber without justification, it shall order the rating organization to admit the insurer as a subscriber. If it finds that the action of the rating organization was justified, it shall make an order affirming its action.

(3) Each rating organization shall furnish its rating services without discrimination to its members and subscribers.

(2) Its list of members and subscribers; and

(3) The name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the department or process affecting such rating organization may be served.

1627.271 Stamping bureau.—Any property insurance rating organization may provide for the examination of policies, daily reports, binders, renewal certificates, endorsements or other evidences of insurance, or the cancellation thereof and may make reasonable rules governing their submission. Such rules shall contain a provision that in the event any insurer does not within 60 days furnish satisfactory evidence to the rating organization of the correction of any error or omission previously called to its attention by the rating organization, it shall be the duty of the rating organization to notify the department thereof. All information so submitted for examination shall be confidential.

(1) Any member or subscriber to a rating organization may appeal to the department from the action or decision of such rating organization in approving or rejecting any proposed change in or addition to the workers' compensation or employer's liability insurance filings of such rating organization, and the department shall issue an order approving the decision of such rating organization or directing it to give further consideration to such proposal. If such appeal is from the action or decision of the rating organization in rejecting a proposed addition to its filings, the department may, in the event it finds that such action or decision was unreasonable, issue an order directing the rating organization to make an addition to its filings, on behalf of its members and subscribers, in a manner consistent with its findings, within a reasonable time after the issuance of such order.

(2) If such appeal is based upon the failure of the rating organization to make a filing on behalf of such member or subscriber which is based on a system of expense provisions which differs, in accordance with the right granted in s. 627.072(2), from the system of expense provisions included in a filing made by the rating organization, the department shall, if it grants the appeal, order the rating organization to make the requested filing for use by the appellant. In deciding such appeal, the department shall apply the applicable standards set forth in ss. 627.062 and 627.072.

1627.291 Information to be furnished insureds; appeal by insureds; workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.—

(1) As to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances, every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall, within a reasonable time after receiving written request therefor and upon payment of such reasonable charge as it may make, furnish to any insured affected by a rate made by it, or to the authorized representative of such insured, all pertinent information as to such rate.

(2) As to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances, every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall provide within this state reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its rating system may be heard, in person or by his authorized representative, on his written request to review the manner in which such rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded him. If the rating organization or insurer fails to grant or rejects such request within 30 days after it is made, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if his application had been rejected. Any party affected by the action of such rating organization or insurer on such request may, within 30 days after written notice of such action, appeal to the department, which may affirm or reverse such action.

1627.301 Advisory organizations.—

(1) No advisory organization shall conduct its operations in this state unless and until it has filed with the department:

(a) A copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, articles of agreement or of association, and bylaws or rules and regulations governing its activities, all duly certified by the custodian of the originals thereof;

(b) A list of its members and subscribers; and

(c) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the department or process may be served.

(2) Every such advisory organization shall notify the department promptly of every change in:

(a) Its constitution;

(b) Its articles of incorporation, agreement, or association;

(c) Its bylaws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business;

(d) List of members and subscribers; and

(e) The name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the department or process affecting such organization may be served.

(3) No such advisory organization shall engage in any unfair or unreasonable practice with respect to such activities.

History.—s. 440, ch. 59-205; s. 15, ch. 67-9; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.311 Joint underwriters and joint reinsurers.

(1) Every group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwritings or joint reinsurance, shall be subject to regulation with respect thereto as herein provided, subject, however, with respect to joint underwriting, to all other provisions of this chapter and, with respect to joint reinsurance, to ss. 624.15 (general penalty) and 627.321 (examinations) of this code.

(2) If the department finds that any activity or practice of any such group, association, or other organization is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, it may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

<sup>2</sup>(3) The department may, after consultation with insurers licensed to write automobile insurance in this state, approve a joint underwriting plan for purposes of equitable apportionment or sharing among insurers of automobile liability insurance and other motor vehicle insurance, as an alternate to the plan required in s. 627.351(1). All insurers authorized to write automobile insurance in this state shall subscribe to the plan and participate therein. The plan shall be subject to continuous review by the department which may at any time disapprove the entire plan or any part thereof if it determines that conditions have changed since prior approval and that in view of the purposes of the plan changes are warranted. Any disapproval by the department shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 120. If adopted, the plan:

(a) Shall be subject to all provisions of s. 627.351(1), except apportionment of applicants;

(b) May provide for one or more designated insurers, able and willing to provide policy and claims service, to act on behalf of all other insurers to provide insurance for applicants who are in good faith entitled to, but unable to, procure insurance through the voluntary insurance market at standard rates;

(c) Shall provide that designated insurers shall issue policies of insurance and provide policyholder and claim service on behalf of all insurers for the joint underwriting association;

(d) Shall provide for the equitable apportionment among insurers of losses and expenses incurred; and

(e) Shall provide that the joint underwriting association shall operate subject to the supervision and approval of a board of governors consisting of nine individuals including one who shall be elected as chairman.

1. Four members of the board shall be appointed by the Insurance Commissioner. Two of the commissioner's appointees shall be chosen from the insurance industry. Any board member appointed by the Insurance Commissioner may be removed and replaced by him at any time without cause.

2. Five members of the board shall be appointed by the participating insurers, two of whom shall be from the insurance agents' associations.

3. All board members, including the chairman, shall be appointed to serve for 2-year terms beginning annually on a date designated by the plan.

(4)(a) The department may, after consultation with insurers licensed to write workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance in this state, approve a joint underwriting plan for the purpose of equitable apportionment or sharing of workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance among insurers. The plan shall operate subject to the supervision of a board of governors, to be named by the Insurance Commissioner, the members of which shall serve for terms of 2 years, consisting of three insurers participating in the plan, three employers, and one producing agent for the plan. The minutes, audits, and procedures of the board of governors shall be subject to chapter 119. The plan of operation of the joint underwriting plan shall be prepared by the board of governors and shall be subject to approval by the Insurance Commissioner. In addition, the Insurance Commissioner shall review the plan of operation on an ongoing basis. The plan shall be subject to revision at the request of the Insurance Commissioner at any time. The board of governors shall designate one or more servicing carriers for the plan from the ranks of those insurers participating in the plan. Any such designation shall be subject to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, and any such designation may be rescinded for cause by the board subject to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner or by the Insurance Commissioner if deemed appropriate in the exercise of his judgment. The plan shall take such actions as will, in the judgment of the board, encourage safety among its insureds. It shall annually report to the Department of Insurance and to the Legislature on those actions taken by it in this regard. It shall employ full-time safety consultants or engineers who will be available to advise insureds who may from time to time seek advice regarding safety procedures and to advise such insureds as may demonstrate an unreasonably high frequency of worker accidents. Each designated servicing carrier shall provide as a condition for such designation sufficient personnel to provide support for such safety management subject to coordination by the chief safety manager of the plan. In addition, each designated servicing carrier shall provide personnel for claims adjustment so as to avoid undue costs due to unjust or improper claims against the plan. Such personnel shall be responsive to the requirements and policy dictates of the board of governors subject to approval by the Insurance Commissioner. In the event that no insurer is willing or able in the judgment of the Insurance Commissioner to act as a servicing carrier for the plan, then the board shall have the power to designate a manager and such staff as may in its judgment be necessary in addition to the chief safety manager and related staff to operate the plan. Designated servicing carriers shall provide policy and claims service on behalf of all other insurers participating in the plan in order to provide workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance for applicants who are in good faith entitled to but who are unable to purchase workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance through the voluntary insurance market at standard rates. Such plan shall provide that the designated insurers shall issue policies of insurance and provide policyholder and claim service on behalf of all insurers for the joint underwriting association. The plan shall provide for the equitable apportionment among insurers of losses and expenses incurred. The plan is authorized to pay a commission to producing agents not to exceed 5 percent of the total premium. If the plan is adopted, all insurers authorized to write workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance in this state shall subscribe thereto and participate therein. The plan shall be operated as a nonprofit venture. The plan shall be divided into two subplans as follows:

1. Subplan "A" shall provide coverage for insureds who have a demonstrated accident frequency problem, who have a measurably adverse loss ratio over a period of years, or who have demonstrated an attitude of noncompliance with safety requirements.

2. Subplan "B" shall provide coverage for all other insureds of the joint underwriting plan.

The methodology of applying these criteria, which shall be used to determine into which subplan an insured shall be placed, shall be determined by the Insurance Commissioner, and such methodology shall be applied regardless of the number of employees or the amount of payroll of the insured. The board of governors shall establish a system of surcharges applicable to insureds covered under subplan A, subject to approval by the Insurance Commissioner. A system of surcharges applicable to insureds covered under subplan B shall not be established. Retrospective evaluation of premiums and loss and expense experience of insureds within either subplan, as well as retrospective evaluation of premiums, losses, and expense experience of each subplan, shall be performed by the board of governors according to methodology submitted by the board to, and approved by, the Insurance Commissioner. If the board of governors determines by such retrospective evaluation of a subplan that a return of a portion of premiums is in order, then such a return shall be accomplished within such subplan subject to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner.

(b) No later than 45 days prior to the expiration date of an insured's policy year, the insured shall be advised by the insurer that he may be continued in or assigned to the joint underwriting plan and advised that such assignment will require an additional cost or premium. The insured shall be advised that if he desires, his name will be filed publicly with the Department of Insurance to enable insurance providers the opportunity to offer coverage outside the plan. If the insured agrees, his name, company name, mailing address, telephone number, and the names of his insurer and agent shall be placed on file no later than 25 days prior to the policy expiration date with the Department of Insurance. Any policy subsequently written as a result of the provisions of this paragraph shall be subject to s. 626.752.

(c) Effective July 1, 1981, self-insurers as defined in s. 440.02(7)(b)1. and 3. shall participate in the equitable apportionment among insurers of losses and loss-adjustment expenses incurred by the plan with credit for investment income. Expenses shall be limited to actual expenses incurred by the plan. However, this paragraph shall not apply to governmental entities which are self-insurers under s. 440.38(6) or s. 440.57 or public utilities who are self-insurers under s. 440.38(1)(b). Self-insurers participating in the plan shall be deemed to be insurers for the purposes of this subsection. When the provisions of this paragraph become effective, two individual self-insurers participating in the plan and authorized under s. 440.38(1)(b) and two group self-insurers participating in the plan and authorized under s. 440.57 shall be added to the board of governors as named by the Insurance Commissioner.

Note.—Section 4, ch. 79-394, provides that, if ch. 629 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-394 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

§627.314 Concerted action by two or more insurers.—

(1) Subject to and in compliance with the provisions of this part authorizing insurers to be members or subscribers of rating or advisory organizations or to engage in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, two or more insurers may act in concert with each other and with others with respect to any matters pertaining to:

- (a) The making of rates or rating systems except for private passenger automobile insurance rates;
  - (b) The preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, underwriting rules, surveys, inspections, and investigations;
  - (c) The furnishing of loss or expense statistics or other information and data; or
  - (d) The carrying on of research.
- (2) With respect to any matters pertaining to the making of rates or rating systems; the preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, underwriting rules, surveys, inspections, and investigations; the furnishing of loss or expense statistics or other information and data; or the carrying on of research, two or more authorized insurers having a common ownership or operating in the state under common management or control are hereby authorized to act in concert between or among themselves the same as if they constituted a single insurer. To the extent that such matters relate to cosurety bonds, two or more authorized insurers executing such bond are hereby authorized to act in concert between or among themselves the same as if they constituted a single insurer.

(3)(a) Members and subscribers of rating or advisory organizations may use the rates, rating systems, underwriting rules or policy or bond forms of such organizations, either consistently or intermittently, but except as provided in subsection (2) and ss. 627.311 and 627.351, shall not agree with each other or rating organizations or others to adhere thereto.

(b) The fact that two or more authorized insurers, whether or not members or subscribers of a rating or advisory organization, use, either consistently or intermittently, the rates or rating systems made or adopted by a rating organization or the underwriting rules or policy or bond forms prepared by a rating or advisory organization shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding that an agreement to so adhere exists, and may be used only for the purpose of supplementing or explaining direct evidence of the existence of any such agreement.

(c) This subsection does not apply as to workers' compensation and employer's liability insurances.

(4) Licensed rating organizations and authorized insurers are authorized to exchange information and experience data with rating organizations and insurers in this and other states and may consult with them with respect to rate making and the application of rating systems.

(5) Upon compliance with the provisions of this part applicable thereto, any rating organization or advisory organization, and any group, association or other organization of authorized insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance through such organization or by standing agreement among the members thereof, may conduct operations in this state. As respects insurance risks or operations in this state, no insurer shall be a member or subscriber of any such organization, group or association that has not complied with the provisions of this part applicable to it.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provisions of part I, insurers shall not participate directly or indirectly in the deliberations or decisions of rating organizations on private passenger automobile insurance. However, such rating organizations shall, upon request of individual insurers, be required to furnish at reasonable cost the rate indications resulting from the loss and expense statistics gathered by them. Individual insurers may modify the indications to reflect their individual experience in determining their own rates. Such rates shall be filed with the department for public inspection whenever requested and shall be available for public announcement only by the press, department, or insurer.

627.318 Records.—

(1) Every insurer, rating organization, advisory organization and every group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance shall maintain reasonable records, of the type and kind reasonably adapted to its method of operation, of its experience or the experience of its members and of the data, statistics or information collected or used by it in connection with the rates, rating plans, rating systems, underwriting rules, policy or bond forms, surveys or inspections made or used by it, so that such records will be available at all reasonable times to enable the department to determine whether such organization, insurer, group or association, and, in the case of an insurer or rating organization, every rate, rating plan and rating system made or used by it, complies with the provisions of this part applicable to it. The maintenance of such records in the office of a licensed rating organization of which an insurer is a member or subscriber will be sufficient compliance with this section for any such insurer maintaining membership or subscribership in such organization, to the extent that the insurer uses the rates, rating plans, rating systems or underwriting rules of such organization. Such records shall be maintained in an office within this state or shall be made available for examination or inspection within this state by the department at any time upon reasonable notice.

(2) In addition to, or in lieu of, any other penalty therefor, for each failure to maintain the records as required hereunder, the department may impose upon the person so failing the penalty prescribed by s. 627.381(1).

627.321 Examinations.—

(1) As often as it deems necessary, and not less frequently than each three years, the department shall examine each licensed rating organization, each advisory organization, each group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, and each authorized insurer transacting in this state any class of insurance to which the provisions of this part are applicable. The examination shall be for the purpose of ascertaining compliance by the person examined with the applicable provisions of this part. As to insurers, no such examination requirement shall be satisfied by the periodic examination of the insurer's general affairs.

(2) In lieu of any such examination, the department may accept the report of a similar examination made by the insurance supervisory official of another state.

(3) The reasonable cost of the examination shall be paid by the person examined, and such person shall be subject, as though an "insurer," to the provisions of s. 624.320 (examination expense).

(4) Such examinations shall also be subject to the applicable provisions of ss. 624.318 (conduct of examination), 624.319 (examination reports), 624.321 (witnesses and evidence), 624.322 (testimony compelled; immunity from prosecution), and 624.323 (same; penalty for refusal to testify).

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

627.331 Recording and reporting of loss, expense, and claim experience; rating information.

(1) The department shall promulgate and may modify reasonable rules and statistical plans, reasonably adapted to each of the rating systems used, which shall thereafter be used by each insurer in the recording and reporting of its loss and countrywide expense experience, in order that the experience of all insurers may be made available at least annually in such form and detail as may be necessary to aid the department in determining whether rates comply with the applicable standards of this part. Such rules and plans may also provide for the recording and reporting of expense experience items which are specially applicable to this state and are not susceptible of determination by a prorating of countrywide expense experience. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the department from requiring all insurers licensed to write insurance covering a motor vehicle, as defined in s. 324.021, to report their loss and expense experience to the department in a manner in conformity with a statistical plan or plans adopted by the department.

(2) In promulgating such rules and plans, the department shall give due consideration to the rating systems in use in this state and, in order that such rules and plans may be as uniform as is practicable among the several states, to the rules and to the form of the plans used for such rating systems in other states. No insurer shall be required to record or report its loss experience on a classification basis that is inconsistent with the rating system used by it, except for motor vehicle insurance as otherwise provided by law.

(3) The department may designate one or more rating organizations or other agencies to assist it in gathering such experience and making compilations thereof, and such compilations shall be made available, subject to reasonable rules promulgated by the department, to insurers and rating organizations.

(4) The department shall require insurers and rating organizations to furnish it with a copy of their rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals which are in effect, and a copy of any changes in such rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals, as soon as practicable following their effective date, but in no event later than 30 days thereafter. The submission of rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals to the department by a licensed rating organization of which an insurer is a member or subscriber will be sufficient compliance with this subsection for any insurer maintaining membership or subscribership in such organization, to the extent that the insurer uses the rates, rating schedules, and rating manuals of such organization. All such information shall be available for public inspection, upon receipt by the department, during usual business hours.

(5) Any insurer writing an automobile liability policy in the state shall report certain information annually to the department. The information shall be divided into the following main categories: bodily injury liability, property damage liability, uninsured motorist, personal injury protection benefits, medical payments, comprehensive, and collision. The information given shall be on direct insurance writings in the state alone. For the first year only, the insurer shall provide data for the current year and 4 previous years for paragraphs (a) through (i). Insurers shall be required to report all of the following information:

- (a) Premiums written.
- (b) Premiums earned.
- (c) Unearned premiums.
- (d) The dollar amount of paid claims.
- (e) Incurred claims, but not including claims incurred but not reported.
- (f) Loss reserves for all claims except those incurred but not reported.
- (g) Reserves for claims incurred but not reported.
- (h) Net investment gain or loss and other income gain or loss allocated to Florida business, utilizing the investment allocation formula contained in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' Profitability Report by line by state.
- (i) Underwriting income or loss.
- (j) Accident year paid losses.
- (k) Loss reserves at the beginning of the year.
- (l) Prior accident year paid losses, paid during the year.
- (m) Accident year incurred losses.
- (n) Accident year outstanding losses.
- (o) Loss reserves at the end of the year.
- (p) Such additional information as may be required by the department in order to evaluate the cost impact of the various deductibles mandated under the insurance code.
- (q) Such additional information as the insurance commissioner may require in order to evaluate the reasonableness of rates or to assure that such rates are not excessive or unfairly discriminatory or to evaluate the financial condition of insurers underwriting motor vehicle insurance.

627.343 Uniform risk classification reporting system for motor vehicle insurance.

(1) The department shall establish and promulgate a uniform statewide reporting system to classify risks for the purpose of evaluating rates and premiums and for the purpose of evaluating competition and the availability of motor vehicle insurance in the voluntary market. The system shall divide risks into classifications based upon variations in hazards or expense of claims. The classification system may include any difference among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses, but in no event shall the system adopted by the department discriminate among risks based upon race, creed, color, or national origin. The classification system shall divide the state into geographical areas based upon hazards or expenses of claims.

(2) Each insurer shall annually file with the department a statement reflecting the total number of persons insured by the insurer within each classification by coverage, the premium volume in each classification by coverage, the paid and reserved losses incurred in each classification by coverage, the number of cancellations or nonrenewals by the insurer during the period, and the number of new insureds during the period. This statement shall be filed annually on a date determined by the department and shall cover a 1-year period.

(3) The department may promulgate rules to require each insurer to report its loss and expense experience by classification, in such detail and as often as may be necessary to aid the department in determining the reasonableness of rates, the validity of loss projections, and the validity of the risk classification system.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-374.

§627.351 Insurance risk apportionment plan.—

(1) Agreements may be made among casualty and surety insurers with respect to the equitable apportionment among them of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to, but who are unable to, procure such insurance through ordinary methods, and such insurers may agree among themselves on the use of reasonable rate modifications for such insurance, such agreements and rate modifications to be subject to the approval of the department. The department shall, after consultation with the insurers licensed to write automobile liability insurance in this state, adopt a reasonable plan or plans for the equitable apportionment among such insurers of applicants for such automobile insurance or personal injury protection benefits as provided in s. 627.736 who are in good faith entitled to, but are unable to, procure such benefits or such insurance through ordinary methods, and, when such plan has been adopted, all such insurers shall subscribe thereto and shall participate therein. Such plan or plans shall include rules for classification of risks and rates therefor. Any insured placed with the plan shall be notified of the fact that insurance coverage is being afforded through the plan and not through the private market, and such notification shall be given in writing within 10 days of such placement. To assure that plan rates are made adequate to pay claims and expenses, insurers shall develop a means of obtaining loss and expense experience on at least an annual basis, and the plan shall file such experience, when available, with the department in sufficient detail to make a determination of rate adequacy. Such experience shall be filed with the department not more than 9 months following the end of the annual statistical period under review. Within 60 days thereafter the department shall approve such rate revisions as are supported by the filing. In addition to provisions for claims and expenses, the rate making formula shall include a factor for projected claims trending and 5 percent for contingencies. Trend factors shall not be found to be inappropriate if not in excess of trend factors normally used in the development of residual market rates by the appropriate licensed rating organization.

(2) Agreements may be made among property insurers with respect to the equitable apportionment among them of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to, but who are unable to procure, such insurance through ordinary methods, and such insurers may agree among themselves on the use of reasonable rate modifications for such insurance. Such agreements and rate modifications shall be subject to the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(3) It is the finding of the legislature that:

(a) Due to the lack of windstorm insurance coverage in certain areas, economic growth and development is being deterred or otherwise stifled in said areas, mortgages are in default, and financial institutions are unable to make loans.

(b) Other areas of the state may be similarly affected in the future.

<sup>2</sup>(4) The Department of Insurance shall require all insurers licensed to transact property insurance on a direct basis in this state to provide windstorm coverage to applicants from areas determined to be eligible pursuant to subsection (5), who in good faith are entitled to, but are unable to procure, such coverage through ordinary means, or it shall adopt a reasonable plan or plans for the equitable apportionment or sharing among such insurers of windstorm coverage. The commissioner shall promulgate rules which shall provide a formula for the recovery and repayment of any deferred assessments.

(a) For the purpose of this section, "properties" eligible for such windstorm coverage are defined as dwellings, buildings, and other structures, including mobile homes which are used as dwellings and which are tied down in compliance with mobile home tie-down requirements prescribed by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles pursuant to s. 320.8325, and the contents of all such properties.

(b) All insurers required to be members of such plan shall participate in its writings, expenses, profits, and losses. Such gross participation shall be in the proportion that the net direct premiums of each member written on property in Florida during the preceding calendar year bears to the aggregate net direct premiums of all members of the plan written on property in Florida during the preceding calendar year. The commissioner, after review of annual statements, other reports, and any other statistics which he shall deem necessary, shall certify to the plan the aggregate net direct premiums written on property in Florida by all members. Any such plan shall provide a formula whereby a company voluntarily providing windstorm coverage in affected areas will be relieved wholly or partially from apportionment. A company which is a member of a group of companies under common management may elect to have its credits applied on a group basis, and any company or group may elect to have its credits applied to any other company or group.

(c) The plan shall also provide that any member with a surplus as to policyholders of $5,000,000 or less writing 25 percent of its total countrywide property insurance premiums in Florida may petition the department, within 90 days of the effective date of chapter 76-96, Laws of Florida, and thereafter within the first 90 days of each calendar year, to qualify as a limited apportionment company. Such a company's apportionment in any calendar year for which it is qualified shall not exceed its gross participation, which shall not be affected by the formula for voluntary writings. In no event shall a limited apportionment company be required to participate in any apportionment of losses in the aggregate which exceeds $50,000,000 after payment of available plan funds in any calendar year. The plan shall provide that if the department determines that any assessment will result in an impairment of the surplus of a limited apportionment company, the department may direct that all or part of such assessment be deferred.

(d) The plan shall provide for the deferment, in whole or in part, of the assessment of a member insurer if, in the opinion of the commissioner, payment of the assessment would endanger or impair the solvency of the member insurer. In the event an assessment against a member insurer is deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which such assessment is deferred may be assessed against the other member insurers in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in paragraph (b).

(e) The plan may include deductibles and rules for classification of risks and rate modifications consistent with the objective of providing and maintaining funds sufficient to pay catastrophe losses.

(f) The plan may authorize the formation of a private nonprofit corporation, a private nonprofit unincorporated association, or a nonprofit mutual company which may be empowered, among other things, to borrow money and to accumulate reserves or funds to be used for the payment of insured catastrophe losses. The plan shall incorporate and continue the plan of operation and articles of agreement in effect on the effective date of chapter 76-96, Laws of Florida, to the extent that it is not inconsistent with chapter 76-96, Laws of Florida, and as subsequently modified consistent with chapter 76-96, Laws of Florida. The board of directors and officers currently serving shall continue to serve until their successors are duly qualified as provided under the plan. The assets and obligations of the plan in effect immediately prior to the effective date of chapter 76-96, Laws of Florida, shall be construed to be the assets and obligations of the successor plan created herein.

(g) On such coverage, an agent's remuneration shall be that amount of money payable to him by the terms of his contract with the company with which the business is placed. However, no commission will be paid on that portion of the premium which is in excess of that company's standard premium.

(5) The provisions of subsection (4) shall be applicable only with respect to any county or area which the department has heretofore designated or as to which the department, after public hearing, finds that the following criteria exist:

(a) Due to the lack of windstorm insurance coverage in the county or area so affected, economic growth and development is being deterred or otherwise stifled in said county or area, mortgages are in default, and financial institutions are unable to make loans; and

(b) The county or area so affected has adopted and is enforcing the structural requirements of the Southern Standard Building Code, or its equivalent, for new construction and has included adequate minimum floor elevation requirements for structures in areas subject to inundation.

Any time after the department has determined that the criteria referred to in this section do not exist with respect to any county or area of the state, it may, after a subsequent public hearing, declare that the said county or area is no longer eligible for windstorm coverage through the plan.

(6)(a) The Department of Insurance shall, after consultation with the casualty insurers licensed in this state, adopt a plan or plans for the equitable apportionment among them of casualty insurance coverage which may be afforded political subdivisions which are in good faith entitled to, but are unable to, procure such coverage through the voluntary market at standard rates or through a statutorily approved plan authorized by the Department of Insurance. The Department of Insurance may adopt a Joint Underwriting Plan which shall provide for one or more designated insurers able and willing to provide policyholder and claims service, including the issuance of insurance policies, to act on behalf of all other insurers required to participate in the Joint Underwriting Plan. Any Joint Underwriting Plan adopted shall provide for the equitable apportionment of any profits realized, or of losses and expenses incurred, among participating insurers. The plan shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Rules for the classification of risks and rates which reflect the past and prospective loss experience in different geographic areas.

2. A rating plan which reasonably reflects the prior claims experience of the insureds.

3. Excess coverage by insurers if the Insurance Commissioner, in his discretion, requires such coverage by insurers participating in the Joint Underwriting Plan.

(b) In the event an underwriting deficit exists at the end of any year the plan is in effect, each policyholder shall pay to the Joint Underwriting Plan a premium contingency assessment not to exceed one-third of the premium payment paid by such policyholder for that year. The Joint Underwriting Plan shall pay no further claims on any policy for which the policyholder fails to pay the premium contingency assessment.

(c) Any deficit sustained under the plan shall first be recovered through a premium contingency assessment. Concurrently, the rates for insureds shall be adjusted for the next year so as to be actuarially sound in conformance with rules of the department.

(d) If there is any remaining deficit under the plan after maximum collection of the premium contingency assessment, such deficit shall be recovered from the companies participating in the plan in the proportion that the net direct premiums of each such member written during the preceding calendar year bears to the aggregate net direct premiums written in this state by all members of the Joint Underwriting Plan.

(e) Upon adoption of a plan, all casualty insurers licensed in the state shall subscribe thereto and participate therein.

(7)(a) The Department of Insurance shall, after consultation with insurers as set forth in paragraph (b), adopt a temporary joint underwriting plan as set forth in paragraph (d).

(b) Entities licensed to issue casualty insurance as defined in paragraphs 624.605(1)(b), (j), and (p) and self-insurers authorized to issue medical malpractice insurance under s. 627.357 shall participate in the plan and shall be members of the temporary Joint Underwriting Association.

(c) The Joint Underwriting Association shall operate subject to the supervision and approval of a board of governors consisting of representatives of five of the insurers participating in the Joint Underwriting Association, an attorney to be named by The Florida Bar, a physician to be named by the Florida Medical Association, and a hospital representative to be named by the Florida Hospital Association. The board of governors shall choose, during the first meeting of the board after June 30 of each year, one of its members to serve as chairman of the board and another member to serve as vice chairman of the board.

(d) The temporary joint underwriting plan shall function for a period not exceeding 3 years from July 1, 1978, and if still in existence at the end of such 3-year period, it shall automatically terminate. The plan shall provide coverage for claims arising out of the rendering of, or failure to render, medical care or services and, in the case of health care facilities, coverage for bodily injury or property damage to the person or property of any patient arising out of the insured's activities, in appropriate policy forms for all health care providers as defined in paragraph (i). The plan shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Classifications of risks and rates which reflect past and prospective loss and expense experience in different areas of practice and in different geographical areas.

2. A rating plan which reasonably recognizes the prior claims experience of insureds.

3. Provisions as to rates for:

- a. Insureds who are retired or semiretired.

- b. The estates of deceased insureds.

- c. Part-time professionals.

4. Protection in an amount to be determined by the Insurance Commissioner.

5. Rules to implement the orderly dissolution of the plan at its termination.

The Insurance Commissioner may, in his discretion, require that insurers participating in the Joint Underwriting Association offer excess coverage.

(e) In the event an underwriting deficit exists for any policy year the plan is in effect, each policyholder shall pay to the association a premium contingency assessment not to exceed one-third of the premium payment paid by such policyholder to the association for that policy year. The association shall pay no further claims on any policy for the policyholder who fails to pay the premium contingency assessment.

1. Any deficit sustained under the plan shall first be recovered through the premium contingency assessment.

2. If there is any remaining deficit under the plan after maximum collection of the premium contingency assessment, such deficit shall be recovered from the companies participating in the plan in the proportion that the net direct premiums of each such member written during the calendar year immediately preceding the end of the policy year for which there is a deficit assessment bears to the aggregate net direct premiums written in this state by all members of the association. "Premiums" as used herein shall mean premiums for the lines of insurance defined in paragraphs 624.605(1)(b), (j), and (p), including premiums for such coverage issued under package policies.

- (f) The plan shall provide for one or more insurers able and willing to provide policy service through licensed resident agents and claims service on behalf of all other insurers participating in the plan. In the event no insurer is able and willing to provide such services, the Joint Underwriting Association is authorized to perform any and all such services.

- (g) The Department of Insurance, prior to termination of the plan, shall determine whether a need reasonably exists for continuing coverage for those who have been insured by the plan, as to claims solely for incidents which occurred during the existence of the plan. If such need is found, the Department of Insurance shall establish a plan for the purchase of such coverage for a reasonable time, prior to termination of the plan.

- (h) All books, records, documents, or audits relating to the Joint Underwriting Association or its operation shall be open to public inspection, except that a claim file in the possession of the Joint Underwriting Association shall not be available for review during the processing of that claim.

- (i) As used in this subsection:

1. "Health care provider" means hospitals licensed under chapter 395; physicians licensed under chapter 458; osteopaths licensed under chapter 459; podiatrists licensed under chapter 461; dentists licensed under chapter 466; chiropractors licensed under chapter 460; naturopaths licensed under chapter 462; nurses licensed under chapter 464; clinical laboratories registered under chapter 483; physicians' assistants certified under chapter 458; physical therapists and physical therapist assistants licensed under chapter 486; health maintenance organizations certificated under part II of chapter 641; ambulatory surgical centers licensed under chapter 395; other medical facilities as defined in subparagraph 2.; blood banks, plasma centers, industrial clinics, and renal dialysis facilities; or professional associations, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures, or other associations for professional activity by health care providers.

gical human medical treatment and in which the patient is admitted to and discharged from said facility within the same working day, and which is not part of a hospital. However, a facility existing for the primary purpose of performing terminations of pregnancy or an office maintained by a physician or dentist for the practice of medicine shall not be construed to be an "other medical facility."

3. "Health care facility" means any hospital licensed under chapter 395, health maintenance organization certificated under part II of chapter 641, ambulatory surgical center licensed under chapter 395, or other medical facility as defined in subparagraph 2.

(1) Any person aggrieved by any rate charged, rating plan, rating system, or underwriting rule followed or adopted by an insurer or rating organization may himself or by his authorized representative make written request of the insurer or rating organization to review the manner in which the rate, plan, system, or rule has been applied with respect to insurance afforded him. If the request is not granted within 30 days after it is made, the requester may treat it as rejected. Any person aggrieved by the refusal of an insurer or rating organization to grant the review requested, or by the failure or refusal to grant all or part of the relief requested, may file a written complaint with the department, specifying the grounds relied upon. If the department has already disposed of the issue as raised by a similar complaint or believes that probable cause for the complaint does not exist or that the complaint is not made in good faith, it shall so notify the complainant. Otherwise, and if it also finds that the complaint charges a violation of this chapter and that the complainant would be aggrieved if the violation is proven, it shall proceed as provided in subsection (2).

(2) If after examination of an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance, upon the basis of other information, or upon sufficient complaint as provided in subsection (1), the department has good cause to believe that such insurer, organization, group, or association, or any rate, rating plan, or rating system made or used by any such insurer or rating organization, does not comply with the requirements and standards of this part applicable to it, it shall, unless it has good cause to believe such noncompliance is willful, give notice in writing to such insurer, organization, group, or association stating therein in what manner and to what extent noncompliance is alleged to exist and specifying therein a reasonable time, not less than 10 days thereafter, in which the noncompliance may be corrected, including any premium adjustment. Notices under this subsection shall be confidential as between the department and the parties unless proceedings are held under subsection (3).

(3) If the department has good cause to believe that such noncompliance is willful or if, within the period prescribed by the department in the notice required by subsection (2), the insurer, organization, group, or association does not make such changes as may be necessary to correct the noncompliance specified by the department or establish to the satisfaction of the department that such specified noncompliance does not exist, then the department is required to proceed to further determine the matter. If no notice has been given as provided in subsection (2), the notice shall state in what manner and to what extent noncompliance is alleged to exist. The proceedings shall not consider any subject not specified in the notice required by subsections (2) and (3).

(4) If the department finds:

(a) That any rate, rating plan, or rating system violates the applicable provisions of this part, it may issue an order to the insurer, rating organization, group, or association which has been the subject of the proceedings specifying in what respects such violation exists and requiring compliance within a reasonable time thereafter; or

(b) That an insurer, rating organization, advisory organization, or a group, association, or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwriting or joint reinsurance is in violation of the applicable provisions of this part other than the provisions dealing with rates, rating plans, or rating systems, it may issue an order to such insurer, organization, group, or association which has been the subject of the proceedings specifying in what respects such violation exists and requiring compliance within a reasonable time thereafter; or

(c) That any such violation by an insurer or rating organization which has been the subject of proceedings was willful, it may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the certificate of authority of such insurer or the license of such rating organization, with respect to the class of insurance which has been a subject of the hearing; or

(d) That any rating organization has willfully engaged in any fraudulent or dishonest act or practice, it may suspend or revoke, in whole or in part, the license of such organization in addition to any other penalty provided in this part.

§627.381 Penalty for violations.—

(1) The department may, if it finds that any person or organization has violated any provision of part I of this chapter, impose a penalty of not more than $250 for each such violation, but, if it finds such violation to be willful, it may impose a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such violation. Such penalties may be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.

(2) The department may suspend the license or authority of any rating organization or insurer which fails to comply with an order of the department within the time limited by such order, or any extension thereof which the department may grant. The department shall not suspend the license or authority of any rating organization or insurer for failure to comply with an order until the time prescribed for an appeal therefrom has expired or, if an appeal has been taken, until such order has been affirmed. The department may determine when a suspension of license or authority shall become effective and it shall remain in effect for the period fixed by it, unless it modifies or rescinds such suspension, or until the order upon which such suspension is based is modified, rescinded or reversed.

Such a minor shall not, by reason of his minority, be entitled to rescind, avoid or repudiate the contract, nor to rescind, avoid or repudiate any exercise of a right or privilege thereunder, except that such a minor, not otherwise emancipated, shall not be bound by any unperformed agreement to pay by promissory note or otherwise, any premium on any such annuity or insurance contract.

(3) If any minor mentioned in subsection (2), is possessed of an estate that is being administered by a guardian or curator, no such contract shall be binding upon such estate as to payment of premiums, except as and when consented to by the guardian or curator and approved by the probate court of the county in which the administration of the estate is pending, and such consent and approval shall be required as to each premium payment.

(4) Any annuity contract or policy of life or disability insurance procured by or for a minor under subsection (2), shall be made payable either to the minor or his estate or to a person having an insurable interest in the life of such minor.

627.408 Application as evidence.—

(1) No application for the issuance of any life or disability insurance policy or annuity contract shall be admissible in evidence in any action relative to such policy or contract, unless a true copy of the application was attached to or otherwise made a part of the policy or contract when issued. This provision shall not apply to industrial life insurance policies or to monthly debit life insurance policies.

(2) If any policy of life or disability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state is reinstated or renewed, and the insured or the beneficiary or assignee of the policy makes written request to the insurer for a copy of the application, if any, for such reinstatement or renewal, the insurer shall, within 30 days after receipt of such request at its home office or at any of its branch offices, deliver or mail to the person making such request a copy of such application, reproduced by any legible means. In the case of such a request from the beneficiary, the time within which the insurer is required to furnish a copy of such application shall not begin to run until after receipt of evidence satisfactory to the insurer of the beneficiary's vested interest in the policy or contract.

627.409 Representations in applications; warranties.—

(1) All statements and descriptions in any application for an insurance policy or annuity contract, or in negotiations therefor, by or in behalf of the insured or annuitant, shall be deemed to be representations and not warranties. Misrepresentations, omissions, concealment of facts, and incorrect statements shall not prevent a recovery under the policy or contract unless either:

(a) Fraudulent; or

(c) The insurer in good faith would either not have issued the policy or contract, or would not have issued it at the same premium rate, or would not have issued a policy or contract in as large an amount, or would not have provided coverage with respect to the hazard resulting in the loss, if the true facts had been made known to the insurer as required either by the application for the policy or contract or otherwise.

(2) A breach or violation by the insured of any warranty, condition, or provision of any wet marine or transportation insurance policy, contract of insurance, endorsement, or application therefor shall not render void the policy or contract, or constitute a defense to a loss thereon, unless such breach or violation increased the hazard by any means within the control of the insured.

History.—s. 458, ch. 59-205; s. 2, ch. 71-45; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.410 Filing, approval of forms.—

(1) No basic insurance policy or annuity contract form, or application form where written application is required and is to be made a part of the policy or contract, or group certificates issued under master contracts delivered in this state, or printed rider or endorsement form or form of renewal certificate, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state, unless the form has been filed with the department at its offices in Tallahassee by or in behalf of the insurer which proposes to use such form, and approved by the department. This provision shall not apply to surety bonds, or to specially rated inland marine risks, nor to policies, riders, endorsements or forms of unique character designed for and used with relation to insurance upon a particular subject (other than as to disability insurance), or which relate to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under life or disability insurance policies and are used at the request of the individual policyholder, contract holder, or certificate holder. As to group insurance policies effectuated and delivered outside this state but covering persons resident in this state, the group certificates to be delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall be filed with the department for information purposes only at its request.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of any such use or delivery. At the expiration of such 30 days the form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by order of the department. Approval of any such form by the department shall constitute a waiver of any unexpired portion of such waiting period. The department may extend by not more than an additional 15 days the period within which it may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form, by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial 30-day period. At the expiration of any such period as so extended, and in the absence of such prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved.

(3) The department may, for cause, withdraw a previous approval. No insurer shall issue or use any form disapproved by the department, or as to which the department has withdrawn approval, after the effective date of the department's order.

(4) The department may, by order, exempt from the requirements of this section for so long as it deems proper any insurance document or form or type thereof as specified in such order, to which, in its opinion, this section may not practicably be applied, or the filing and approval of which are, in its opinion, not desirable or necessary for the protection of the public.

(5) This section shall apply also to any such form used by domestic insurers for delivery in a jurisdiction outside this state, if the insurance supervisory official of such jurisdiction informs the department that such form is not subject to approval or disapproval by such official, and upon the department's order requiring the form to be submitted to it for the purpose. The applicable same standards shall apply to such forms as apply to forms for domestic use.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-248.

627.411 Grounds for disapproval.—The department shall disapprove any form filed under s. 627.410, or withdraw any previous approval thereof, only if the form:

(1) Is in any respect in violation of or does not comply with this code.

(2) Contains or incorporates by reference, where such incorporation is otherwise permissible, any inconsistent, ambiguous, or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which deceptively affect the risk purported to be assumed in the general coverage of the contract.

(3) Has any title, heading, or other indication of its provisions which is misleading.

(4) Is printed or otherwise reproduced in such manner as to render any material provision of the form substantially illegible.

(5) If for disability insurance, provides benefits which are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged, or contains provisions which are unfair or inequitable or contrary to the public policy of this state, or which encourage misrepresentation.

History.—s. 460, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.412 Standard provisions, in general.—

(1) Insurance contracts shall contain such standard or uniform provisions as are required by the applicable provisions of this code pertaining to contracts of particular kinds of insurance. The department may waive the required use of a particular provision in a particular insurance policy form if:

(a) It finds such provision unnecessary for the purpose of the insured and inconsistent with the purposes of the policy, and

(b) The policy is otherwise approved by it.

(2) No policy shall contain any provision inconsistent with or contradictory to any standard or uniform provision used or required to be used, but the department may approve any substitute provision which is, in its opinion, not less favorable in any particular to the insured or beneficiary than the provisions otherwise required.

(3) In lieu of the provisions required by this code for contracts for particular kinds of insurance, substantially similar provisions required by the law of the domicile of a foreign or alien insurer may be used when approved by the department.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective

July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

'627.413 Contents of policies in general; identification.—

- (1) Every policy shall specify:
  - (a) The names of the parties to the contract.
  - (b) The subject of the insurance.
  - (c) The risks insured against.
  - (d) The time when the insurance thereunder takes effect and the period during which the insurance is to continue.
  - (e) The premium.
  - (f) The conditions pertaining to the insurance.
- (2) If under the policy the exact amount of premium is determinable only at stated intervals or termination of the contract, a statement of the basis and rates upon which the premium is to be determined and paid shall be included.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply as to surety contracts, or to group insurance policies.

(4) All policies and annuity contracts issued by domestic insurers, and the forms thereof filed with the department, shall have printed thereon an appropriate designating letter or figure, or combination of letters or figures or terms identifying the respective forms of policies or contracts. Whenever any change is made in any such form, the designating letters, figures or terms thereon shall be correspondingly changed.

'627.4132 Stacking of coverages prohibited.—

If an insured or named insured is protected by any type of motor vehicle insurance policy for liability, uninsured motorist, personal injury protection, or any other coverage, the policy shall provide that the insured or named insured is protected only to the extent of the coverage he has on the vehicle involved in the accident. However, if none of the insured's or named insured's vehicles is involved in the accident, coverage is available only to the extent of coverage on any one of the vehicles with applicable coverage. Coverage on any other vehicles shall not be added to or stacked upon that coverage. This section shall not apply to reduce the coverage available by reason of insurance policies insuring different named insureds.

History.—s. 10, ch. 76-266.

Note.—This section was created subsequent to the enactment of ch. 76-168 and is therefore presumed to be excluded from the blanket repeal of ch. 627 by that act.

'627.414 Additional policy contents.—A policy may contain additional provisions not inconsistent with this code and which are:

- (1) Required to be inserted by the laws of the insurer's domicile;
- (2) Necessary, on account of the manner in which the insurer is constituted or operated, in order to state the rights and obligations of the parties to the contract; or
- (3) Desired by the insurer and neither prohibited by law nor in conflict with any provisions required to be included therein.

Any policy provision in violation of this section shall be invalid.

'627.416 Execution of policies.—

(1) Every insurance policy shall be executed in the name of and on behalf of the insurer by its officer, attorney in fact, employee, or representative duly authorized by the insurer.

(2) A facsimile signature of any such executing individual may be used in lieu of an original signature.

(3) No insurance contract heretofore or hereafter issued and which is otherwise valid shall be rendered invalid by reason of the apparent execution thereof on behalf of the insurer by the imprinted facsimile signature of an individual not authorized so to execute as of the date of the policy.

(2) Two or more authorized insurers may, with the approval of the department, issue a combination policy which shall contain provisions substantially as follows:

(a) That the insurers executing the policy shall be severally liable for the full amount of any loss or damage, according to the terms of the policy, or for specified percentages or amounts thereof, aggregating the full amount of insurance under the policy, and

(b) That service of process, or of any notice or proof of loss required by such policy, upon any of the insurers executing the policy, shall constitute service upon all such insurers.

(3) This section shall not apply to cosurety obligations.

§627.418 Validity of noncomplying contracts.—

(1) Any insurance policy, rider, or endorsement hereafter issued and otherwise valid which contains any condition or provision not in compliance with the requirements of this code, shall not be thereby rendered invalid (except as provided in s. 627.415) but shall be construed and applied in accordance with such conditions and provisions as would have applied had such policy, rider, or endorsement been in full compliance with this code. In the event an insurer issues or delivers any policy for an amount which exceeds any limitations otherwise provided in this code, said insurer shall be liable to the insured or his beneficiary for the full amount stated in said policy in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed under this code.

(2) Any insurance contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state covering a subject or subjects of insurance resident, located or to be performed in this state and which, pursuant to the provisions of this code, the insurer may not lawfully insure under such a contract, shall be cancellable at any time by the insurer, any provision of the contract to the contrary notwithstanding; and the insurer shall promptly cancel the contract in accordance with the department's request therefor. No such illegality or cancellation shall be deemed to relieve the insurer of any liability incurred by it under the contract while in force, or to prohibit the insurer from retaining the pro rata earned premium thereon. This provision does not relieve the insurer from any penalty otherwise incurred by the insurer under this code on account of any such violation.

§627.419 Construction of policies.—

(1) Every insurance contract shall be construed according to the entirety of its terms and conditions as set forth in the policy and as amplified, extended, or modified by any application therefor or any rider or endorsement thereto.

(2) The word physician or medical doctor, when used in any accident and sickness policy, medical service plan, or other contract providing for the payment of surgical procedures which are specified in the policy or contract or are performed in an accredited hospital in consultation with a licensed physician and are within the scope of a dentist's professional license, shall be construed to include a dentist who performs such specified procedures.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when any accident and sickness policy, medical service plan, or other contract provides for the payment for procedures specified in the policy or contract which are within the scope of an optometrist's or podiatrist's professional license, such policy shall be construed to include payment to an optometrist or podiatrist who performs such procedures. In the case of podiatry services, such payments shall be made in accordance with the coverage now provided for medical and surgical benefits.

(a) It is not intended that this subsection be construed to enlarge or diminish the practice of optometry as now defined in chapter 463 or the practice of podiatry as now defined in chapter 461.

(b) This subsection has been presented and considered by the Legislature as a means to eliminate specific problems concerning practitioners in the eye care and podiatry fields. The question as to need as a means to improve the health care system is not a consideration of this subsection.

(4) If the insurer offers a policy containing a provision for medical expense benefits that does not provide payment for chiropractic services, it shall offer as a part thereof an optional rider or endorsement, if specifically requested by the insured or subscriber under an individual policy or a certificate holder or subscriber under a master policy, which defines such benefits as including payment to a chiropractor for procedures specified in the policy which are within the scope of the practice of chiropractic as now defined in chapter 460. Any additional cost to the insured or certificate holder must be reasonably related to benefits provided.

§627.421 Delivery of policy.—

(1) Subject to the insurer's requirement as to payment of premium, every policy shall be mailed or delivered to the insured or to the person entitled thereto within a reasonable period of time after its issuance, except where a condition required by the insurer has not been met by the applicant or insured.

(2) In event the original policy is delivered or is so required to be delivered to or for deposit with any vendor, mortgagee, or pledgee of any motor vehicle, and in which policy any interest of the vendee, mortgagor, or pledgor in or with reference to such vehicle is insured, a duplicate of such policy setting forth the name and address of the insurer, insurance classification of vehicle, type of coverage, limits of liability, premiums for the respective coverages, and duration of the policy, or memorandum thereof containing the same such information, shall be delivered by the vendor, mortgagee, or pledgee to each such vendee, mortgagor, or pledgor named in the policy or coming within the group of persons designated in the policy to be so included. If the policy does not provide coverage of legal liability for injury to persons or damage to the property of third parties, a statement of such fact shall be printed, written, or stamped conspicuously on the face of such duplicate policy or memorandum. This subsection does not apply to inland marine floater policies.

(3) Any automobile liability or physical damage policy shall contain on the front page a summary of major coverages, conditions, exclusions, and limitations contained in that policy. Any such summary shall state that the issued policy should be referred to for the actual contractual governing provisions. The company may, in lieu of the summary, provide a readable policy.

Subject to its terms relating to assignability, any life or disability policy, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, under the terms of which the beneficiary may be changed upon the sole request of the insured, may be assigned either by pledge or transfer of title, by an assignment executed by the insured alone and delivered to the insurer, whether or not the pledgee or assignee is the insurer. Any such assignment shall entitle the insurer to deal with the assignee as the owner or pledgee of the policy in accordance with the terms of the assignment, until the insurer has received at its home office written notice of termination of the assignment or pledge, or written notice by or on behalf of some other person claiming some interest in the policy in conflict with the assignment.

History.—s. 471, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.423 Payment discharges insurer.—Whenever the proceeds of or payments under a life or disability insurance policy or annuity contract heretofore or hereafter issued become payable in accordance with the terms of such policy or contract, or the exercise of any right or privilege thereunder, and the insurer makes payment thereof in accordance with the terms of the policy or contract or in accordance with any written assignment thereof, the person then designated in the policy or contract or by such assignment as being entitled thereto shall be entitled to receive such proceeds or payments and to give full acquittance therefor, and such payments shall fully discharge the insurer from all claims under the policy or contract unless, before payment is made, the insurer has received at its home office written notice by or on behalf of some other person that such other person claims to be entitled to such payment or some interest in the policy or contract.

History.—s. 472, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

insurer may reduce or refuse to pay benefits otherwise payable thereunder solely on account of the existence of similar benefits provided under any individual disability insurance policy which is issued by the same or another insurer and which is subject to any of the provisions of part VI.

(2) No group hospital, medical, or surgical expense policy, group hospital, medical, or surgical service plan, or group-type self-insurance plan providing protection, insurance, or indemnity against hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall be issued, or issued for delivery, in this state after October 1, 1974, which shall contain any provision whereby the insurer may reduce or refuse to pay benefits otherwise payable thereunder solely on account of the existence of similar benefits provided under group disability policies issued by the same or another insurer, group hospital, medical, or surgical expense plans, or group-type self-insurance plans providing protection, insurance, or indemnity against hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, when such reduction would operate to reduce the total benefits payable under these policies and plans below an amount equal to 100 percent of the total allowable expenses actually incurred.

(1) No policy of life insurance, except as stated in subsection (3), shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the provisions as required by ss. 627.453-627.462 inclusive, and ss. 627.475 and 627.476 of this chapter, or provisions which in the department's opinion are more favorable to the policyholder.

(2) Any of such provisions or portions thereof not applicable to single premium or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein.

(3) This section does not apply to annuity contracts, or to any provision of a life insurance policy or contract supplemental thereto relating to disability benefits or to additional benefits in the event of death by accident or accidental means.

History.—s. 479, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

<sup>1</sup>627.453 Grace period.—There shall be a provision that the insured is entitled to a grace period of not less than 30 days or at the option of the insurer of 1 month but not less than 30 days, within which payment of any premium after the first may be made, subject at the option of the insurer to an interest charge not in excess of 6 percent per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium, during which period of grace the policy shall continue in force; but in case the policy becomes a claim during the grace period before the overdue premium is paid, or the deferred premiums of the current policy year, if any, are paid, the amount of such premium or premiums with interest not in excess of 6 percent per annum thereon may be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

History.—s. 480, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

tion of the insurer, as to provisions relative to benefits in event of disability and as to provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means.

History.—s. 482, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

<sup>1</sup>627.456 Misstatement of age or sex.—There shall be a provision that if it is found that the age or sex of the insured (or the age or sex of any other individual considered in determining the premium or benefit) has been misstated, the amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased according to the correct age or sex. Such calculations shall be in accordance with the insurer's rate at date of issue and at the option of the insurer this may be so specified in the policy.

(2) Except as hereinafter provided, any dividend so apportioned shall at the option of the party entitled to elect such option be either payable in cash or applied to any one of such other dividend options as may be provided by the policy. If any such other dividend options are provided, the policy shall further state which option shall be automatically effective if such party shall not have elected some other option. If the policy specifies a period within which such other option may be elected, such period shall be not less than 30 days following the date on which such dividend is due and payable.

(3) The annually apportioned dividend shall be deemed to be payable in cash within the meaning of subsection (2) even though the policy provides that payment of such dividend is to be deferred for a specified period, provided such period does not exceed 6 years from the date of apportionment and that interest will be added to such dividend at a specified rate.

(4) If a participating policy provides that the benefit under any paid-up nonforfeiture provision is to be participating, it may provide that any divisible surplus apportioned while the insurance is in force under such nonforfeiture provision shall be applied in the manner set forth in the policy.

(1)(a) There shall be a provision that after the policy has a cash surrender value and while no premium is in default, the insurer will advance, on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding

8 percent per annum, payable in advance, an amount equal to or, at the option of the party entitled thereto, less than the loan value of the policy. The loan value of the policy shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value at the end of the then current policy year, provided that the insurer may deduct, either from such loan value or from the proceeds of the loan, any existing indebtedness not already deducted in determining such cash surrender value including any interest then accrued but not due, any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and interest on the loan to the end of the current policy year. However, as a condition for approval of a policy loan interest rate in excess of 6 percent per annum, the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall require the insurer to furnish such assurances as the Commissioner deems necessary that the interest rate on such loans will bear a reasonable relationship to other interest rates and that the holders of such policies will benefit through higher dividends or lower premiums, or both.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not impair the terms and conditions of any policy of life insurance in force before July 1, 1977.

(2) The policy may also provide that if interest on any indebtedness is not paid when due it shall then be added to the existing indebtedness and shall bear interest at the same rate, and that if and when the total indebtedness on the policy, including interest due or accrued, equals or exceeds the amount of loan value thereof, then the policy shall terminate and become void, but not until at least 30 days' notice shall have been mailed by the insurer to the last known address of the insured or policy owner and of any assignee of record at the home office of the insurer.

(3) The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of a loan, other than for the payment of any premium to the insurer, for 6 months after application therefor.

(4) This section shall not apply to term policies nor to term insurance benefits provided by rider or supplemental policy provision.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1627.459 Reinstatement.—There shall be a provision that the policy may be reinstated upon written application therefor at any time within 3 years after the date of default in the payment of any premiums, unless the policy has been surrendered for its cash value or unless the paid-up term insurance, if any, has expired, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer and the payment of all overdue premiums, and payment (or, within the limits permitted by the then cash value of the policy, reinstatement) of any other indebtedness to the insurer upon the policy with interest as to both premium and indebtedness at a rate not exceeding 6 percent per annum compounded annually.

1627.462 Table of installments.—If a policy provides for payment of its proceeds in installments, a table showing the amount and period of such installments shall be included in the policy; except, that certain tables may be omitted from the policy if in the department's judgment it is not practical to include them.

History.—s. 489, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.463 Excluded or restricted coverage.—A clause in any policy of life insurance providing that such policy shall be incontestable after a specified period shall preclude only a contest of the validity of the policy, and shall not preclude the assertion at any time of defenses based upon provisions in the policy which exclude or restrict coverage, whether or not such restrictions or exclusions are excepted in such clause.

History.—s. 490, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.471 Reversionary annuities; standard provisions.—

(1) Except as stated herein, no contract for a reversionary annuity shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the following provisions:

(a) Any such reversionary annuity contract shall contain the provisions specified in ss. 627.465 through 627.469 except that under s. 627.465 the insurer may at its option provide for an equitable reduction of the amount of the annuity payments in settlement of an overdue or deferred payment in lieu of providing for deduction of such payments from an amount payable upon settlement under the contract.

(b) In such reversionary annuity contracts there shall be a provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the in-suror, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer, and upon condition that all overdue payments and any indebtedness to the insurer on account of the contract be paid, or, within the limits permitted by the then cash value of the contract, reinstated, with interest as to both payments and indebtedness at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding 6 percent per annum compounded annually.

(2) This section shall not apply to group annuities or to annuities included in life insurance policies, and any of such provisions not applicable to single premium annuities shall not to that extent be incorporated therein.

1627.472 Incontestability after reinstatement.

—A reinstated policy of life insurance, fixed dollar annuity contract or variable annuity contract may be contested on account of fraud or misrepresentation of facts material to the reinstatement only for the same period following reinstatement and with the same conditions and exceptions as the policy provides with respect to contestability after original issuance.

History.—s. 499, ch. 59-205; s. 17, ch. 61-441; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.473 Policy settlements.—Any life insurer shall have the power to hold under agreement the proceeds of any policy issued by it, upon such terms and restrictions as to revocation by the policyholder and control by beneficiaries and with such exemptions from the claims of creditors of beneficiaries other than the policyholder as set forth in the policy or as agreed to in writing by the insurer and the policyholder. Upon maturity of a policy, in the event the policyholder has made no such agreement, the insurer shall have the power to hold the proceeds of the policy under an agreement with the beneficiaries. The insurer shall not be required to segregate the funds so held but may hold them as part of its general assets.

1627.475 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.—Each life insurance policy issued between the effective date of this code and the operative date of s. 627.476 (standard nonforfeiture law) shall provide:

(1) That, in the event of default in any premium, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy.

(2) That, upon surrender of the policy within 60 days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least 3 full years, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value at least equal to the minimum cash surrender value herein-after specified. The minimum cash surrender value shall be equal to

(a) The reserve on the date of default of the premium less a sum of not more than 2.5 percent of the face amount, or

(b) An amount as defined in s. 627.476 but on the basis of the commissioners' 1941 standard ordinary mortality table in lieu of the commissioners' 1958 standard ordinary mortality table therein specified. The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of any cash surrender value for 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(3) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit the present value of which shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, provided, however, that where the mortality table used is the commissioners' 1941 standard ordinary mortality table, the rates of mortality to be assumed in calculating any extended term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, may be not more than 130 percent of the rates of mortality according to such table.

(4) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first 20 policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter.

(5) This section does not apply to term policies of uniform amount of 15 years duration or less, to increasing term policies of 15 years duration or less, nor to decreasing term policies.

History.—s. 502, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.476 Standard nonforfeiture law for life insurance.

(2) NONFORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—In the case of policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined in subsection (11), no policy of life insurance, except as set forth in subsection (10), shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions, or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the department are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder.

(a) That in the event of default in any premium payment, after premiums have been paid for at least 1 full year in the case of ordinary insurance or 3 full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date, of such value as may be hereinafter specified.

(b) That upon surrender of the policy within 60 days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least 3 full years in the case of ordinary insurance, and 5 full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(c) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default.

(d) That if the policy shall have become paid up by completion of all premium payments, or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which became effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance, or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay upon surrender of the policy within 30 days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(e) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary, either during the first 20 policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the insurer on the policy.

(f) A statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance law of this state; an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the insurer on the policy; if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy.

(3) Any of the provisions or portions thereof set forth in paragraphs (a) through (f) of subsection (2) which are not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the policy. The insurer shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(4) CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by subsection (2), shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value on such anniversary of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of:

(a) The then present value of the adjusted premiums as defined in subsection (6), corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary, and

(b) The amount of any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

Any cash surrender value available within thirty days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid up by completion of all premium payments, or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, whether or not required by such subsection (2), shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(5) PAID-UP NONFORFEITURE BENEFITS.—Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy, or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this section in the absence of the condition that premiums shall have been paid for at least a specified period.

(6) THE ADJUSTED PREMIUM.—The adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

(a) The then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(b) Two percent of the amount of the insurance if the insurance be uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with the duration of the policy;

(c) Forty percent of the adjusted premium for the first policy year;

(d) Twenty-five percent of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less.

Provided, however, that in applying the percentages specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) above, no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed 4 percent of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this subsection shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(7) In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with the duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of subsection (6) shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy, provided, however, that in the case of a policy for a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age 10, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age 10 were the amount provided by such policy at age 10.

<sup>2</sup>(8) All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall for all policies of ordinary insurance be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners' 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, provided that for any category of such policies issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than 6 years younger than the actual age of the insured. Such calculations for all policies of industrial insurance shall be made on the basis of the following tables:

(a) For policies issued on and after the operative date of this section but before January 1, 1968, the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table, unless the Commissioners' 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table is applicable according to subsection (11) of this section;

(b) For policies issued on and after January 1, 1968, the Commissioners' 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table.

All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits; provided that such rate of interest shall not exceed 3.5 percent per annum, except that a rate of interest not exceeding 4 percent per annum may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1973, and prior to October 1, 1979, and a rate of interest not exceeding 4.5 percent per annum may be used for policies issued on or after October 1, 1979; and provided that in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the Commissioners' 1958 Extended Term Insurance Table, for ordinary policies. In the case of industrial policies:

(c) For policies issued on and after the operative date of this section but before January 1, 1968, not more than 130 percent of the rates of mortality according to the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality

Table, unless the Commissioners' 1961 Industrial Extended Term Insurance Table is applicable according to subsection (11) of this section, in which case not more than those of the latter table;

(d) For policies issued on and after January 1, 1968, not more than those of the Commissioners' 1961 Industrial Extended Term Insurance Table.

For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the department.

(9) CALCULATION OF VALUES.—Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary. All values referred to in subsections (4)-(8) of this section may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death. The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall be not less than the dividends used to provide such additions. If term insurance benefits are provided by a rider or by a supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this section would apply, additional cash surrender values and additional paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, if any, at least equal to those required if issued as a separate policy, may be provided by the insurer and shall be deemed to be in compliance with this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4), additional benefits payable:

(a) In the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means.

(b) In the event of total and permanent disability,

(c) As reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits,

(d) As term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this section would not apply, and

(e) As term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is 26, is uniform in amount after the child's age is 1, and has not become paid-up by reason of the death of a parent of the child, and

(f) As other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits, and premiums for all such additional benefits, shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this section, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits.

(10) EXCEPTIONS.—This section shall not apply to any reinsurance, group insurance, pure endowment, annuity or reversionary annuity contract, nor to any term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, of, 15 years or less expiring before age 66, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy, nor to any term policy of decreasing amount on which each adjusted premium calculated as specified in subsections (6)-(8) is less than the adjusted premium so calculated on a policy of uniform amount issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance for a term defined as follows: For ages at issue 50 and under the term shall be 15 years; thereafter, the term shall decrease 1 year for each year of age beyond 50.

(11) OPERATIVE DATE.—After the effective date of this code, any insurer may file with the department a written notice or notices of its election to comply with the provisions of this section on and after a specified date or dates before January 1, 1966, as to either or both of its policies of ordinary and industrial insurance, in which case such specified date or dates shall be the operative date of this section with respect to such policies. The operative date of this section for policies of both ordinary and industrial insurance shall be the earlier of January 1, 1966, and any prior operative date or dates resulting from such previously filed written notices. With respect to policies of industrial insurance issued on and after the operative date of this section for such policies but before January 1, 1968, any insurer may file with the department written notice of its election to have the Commissioners' 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table and the Commissioners' 1961 Industrial Extended Term Insurance Table applicable with respect to subsection (8) for policies issued on and after the date specified in such election.

§627.477 Registered policies; deposit of assets.—

(1) Any life insurer which has outstanding any policies heretofore issued under laws heretofore in force providing for the deposit with the commissioner of assets equal to the legal reserve on such policies in force, less any loans or liens on such policies not in excess of such legal reserve, and providing for a certificate upon the face of such policies in substantially the following words: "This policy is registered, and approved securities equal in value to the legal reserve thereon are held in trust by the insurance commissioner," shall continue to make such deposits as required by such laws and such policies.

(2) No insurer shall hereafter issue any new such policy.

(3) All deposits under this section are subject to the applicable provisions of part III of chapter 625 of this code (administration of deposits).

History.—s. 504, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§627.478 Same; deficiency of deposit.—

(1) If at any time the value of assets held on deposit as to a particular insurer under s. 627.477 is less than the legal reserves currently required to be held as to all the insurer's life insurance policies and annuity contracts, which are subject to s. 627.477, then in force, the insurer shall not issue any additional life insurance policies or annuity contracts while such deficiency exists. This provision does not apply as to industrial life insurance.

(2) If the insurer has failed to cure such a deficiency after the department has given the insurer notice thereof by registered mail, within such reasonable time, not exceeding ninety days, as may be allowed therefor by the department and so specified in such notice, the insurer shall be deemed to be insolvent and the department shall revoke its certificate of authority and institute delinquency proceedings against the insurer under chapter 631 of this code.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§627.479 Prohibited policy plans.—

(1) No insurer shall issue policies, certificates or contracts to policyholders or members providing for the grouping of its policyholders or members into groups and divisions, classified according to age, and providing for payment of contingent endowment benefits, by whatever name called, from special funds created for such purpose to the oldest member in seniority of the group or division, or under any other similar plan.

(2) No insurer shall issue policies containing annual endowments or other specialty-type policies such as founder's policies or coupon-bearing policies. The Department of Insurance shall, by rules and regulations, define such prohibited policies.

(3) The department shall revoke the certificate of authority of any insurer which violates this section. Any officer or agent of an insurer who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as provided in s. 624.15 of this code.

History.—s. 506, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 74-50; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§627.480 Cash payments of single premium life policies.—Premiums for single premium life insurance policies shall be paid in cash consisting of coins, currency, checks, or money orders. This section shall not be applicable to the use of dividends to purchase paid-up additional insurance or to such other usual and customary methods of paying for life insurance as may be permitted by the Department of Insurance pursuant to rule or regulation.

§627.481 Special permit for certain annuity agreements.—

(1) The department may, in its discretion, issue a special permit to make annuity agreements with donors to any duly organized domestic or foreign non-stock corporation, or to any unincorporated charitable trust, if such corporation or trust has been in active operation for at least 10 years prior thereto and has qualified as an exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. s. 501(c)(3). Such permit shall authorize such corporation or trust to receive gifts conditioned upon, or in return for, its agreement to pay an annuity to the donor or other designated beneficiary or beneficiaries and to make and carry out such annuity agreement. Every such corporation or trust shall, before making any such agreement, file with the department copies of its forms of agreements with annuitants and a schedule of its maximum annuity rates, which shall be so computed, on the basis of the annuity standard adopted by it for the calculation of its reserves, as to return to such corporation or trust upon the death of the annuitant a residue at least equal to one-half the original gift or other consideration for such annuity.

(2) Every such domestic corporation or such domestic or foreign trust shall have and maintain admitted assets at least equal to the sum of the reserves on its outstanding agreements, calculated in accordance with the United States Internal Revenue Code Revenue Ruling 72-438, and a surplus of 25 percent of such reserves. In determining the reserves of any such corporation or trust, a deduction shall be made for all or any portion of an annuity risk which is reinsured by a life insurance company authorized to do business in this state. The assets of such corporation or trust in an amount at least equal to the sum of such reserves and surplus shall be invested only in securities permitted under part II of chapter 625 for the investment of the reserves of authorized life insurance companies, and such assets shall be segregated as separate and distinct funds, independent of all other funds of such corporation or trust, and shall not be applied for the payment of the debts and obligations of the corporation or trust or for any purpose other than the annuity benefits hereinbefore specified.

(3) No such corporation incorporated or organized under the laws of another state shall be permitted to make such annuity agreements in this state unless it complies with all the requirements of this section imposed upon like domestic corporations, except that any such foreign corporation may invest its reserve and surplus funds in the kind of securities permitted by the laws of the state in which it was incorporated or organized.

(4) If the department finds that any such corporation or trust having such a special permit has failed to comply with the requirements of this section, it may revoke or suspend such permit or it may order such corporation or trust to cease making any new annuity contracts until such requirements have been satisfied. The department may, in its discretion, require annual statements by such corporation or trust and may accept in lieu thereof a sworn statement by two or more of the principal officers thereof, in such form as will satisfy the department that the requirements of this section are being complied with.

(5) Except as provided in this section, every such corporation or trust shall be exempt from the provisions of the Insurance Code in making annuity agreements pursuant to a special permit issued under this section.

(6) Any annuity agreement entered into by a corporation or trust whose sole purpose is to support a state institution of higher learning shall contain the following clause:

"This agreement is the entire contract between the parties, with rights and responsibilities of each party to the other as set forth herein. The donor or annuitant shall not have recourse against any assets of the state other than any funds or assets donated by, or funds derived from any assets donated by, the donor as set forth herein."

(2) Any of such provisions or portions thereof not applicable to single premium or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein.

If the application is so made a part of the contract, the policy shall also provide that all statements made by the applicant in such application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed to be representations and not warranties.

1627.512 Beneficiary.—Each such policy shall have a space for the name of the beneficiary designated with a reservation of the right to designate or change the beneficiary after the issuance of the policy. The policy may also provide that no designation or change of beneficiary shall be binding on the insurer until endorsed on the policy by the insurer, and that the insurer may refuse to endorse the name of any proposed beneficiary who does not appear to the insurer to have an insurable interest in the life of the insured.

History.—s. 518, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

The policy may also include a similar provision applicable to any other payment due under the policy.

History.—s. 519, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§627.514 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.—Each industrial life insurance policy issued between the effective date of this code and the operative date of s. 627.476 (standard nonforfeiture law) shall provide:

(1) That, in the event of default in any premiums, the insurer will grant upon proper request not later than 13 weeks or 3 months after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy.

(2) That upon surrender of the policy within 13 weeks or 3 months after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least 5 full years, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value at least equal to the minimum cash surrender value hereinafter specified. The minimum cash surrender value shall be equal to

(a) The reserve on the date of default of the premium less a sum of not more than 2.5 percent of the face amount, or

(b) An amount as defined in s. 627.476. The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of any cash surrender value for 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(3) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, the present value of which shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value, shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than 13 weeks or 3 months after the due date of the premium in default, provided, however, that where the mortality table used is the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table, the rates of mortality to be assumed in calculating any extended term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, may be not more than 130 percent of the rates of mortality according to such table.

(4) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first 20 policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter.

(5) This section does not apply to term policies of uniform amount of 15 years duration or less, to increasing term policies of 15 years duration or less, nor to decreasing term policies.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§627.515 Title.—There shall be a title on the face of each such policy briefly describing its form.

§627.516 Direct payment of premiums.—In the case of weekly premium policies, there may be a provision that upon proper notice to the insurer, while premiums on the policy are not in default beyond the grace period, of the intention to pay future premiums directly to the insurer at its home office or any office designated by the insurer for the purpose, the insurer will at the end of each period of a year from the due date of the first premium so paid, for which period such premiums are so paid continuously without default beyond the grace period, refund a stated percentage of the premiums in an amount which fairly represents the savings in collection expense.

History.—s. 522, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§627.517 Conversion.—There may be a provision in the case of industrial policies granting to the insured, upon proper written request and upon presentation of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer, the privilege of converting any industrial insurance policy to any form of life insurance with less frequent premium payments regularly issued by the insurer, in accordance with terms and conditions agreed upon with the insurer. The privilege of making such conversion need be granted only if the insurer's industrial policies on the life insured, in force as premium paying insurance and on which conversion is requested, grant benefits in event of death, exclusive of additional accidental death benefits and exclusive of any dividend additions, in an amount not less than the minimum amount of such insurance with less frequent premium payments issued by the insurer at the age of the insured on the plan of industrial or ordinary insurance desired.

627.551 Group contracts must meet group requirements.—

(1) No life insurance policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state insuring the lives of more than one individual unless to one of the groups as provided for in ss. 627.552-627.556, and unless in compliance with the other applicable provisions of part V of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to life insurance policies:

(a) Insuring only individuals related by blood, marriage or legal adoption; or

(b) Insuring only individuals having a common interest through ownership of a business enterprise, or a substantial legal interest or equity therein, and who are actively engaged in the management thereof; or

(c) Insuring only individuals otherwise having an insurable interest in each other's lives.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the provisions of ss. 112.08 to 112.14.

History.—s. 524, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

627.552 Employee groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an employer, or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer, which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the employees of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the employees, individual proprietors, and partners of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the employer and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director. No individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. A policy issued to insure the employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" shall include elected or appointed officials.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the policyholder's funds or funds contributed by the employer, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least 60 percent of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees must insure all eligible employees, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least 10 employees at date of issue.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or by the employer or trustees.

History.—s. 525, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 63-187; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

627.553 Debtor groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor whose indebtedness is repayable in installments, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or to the purchase giving rise to the indebtedness. The policy may provide that the term "debtors" shall include the debtors of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the debtors of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the policyholder and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds, or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or from both. A policy on which part or all of the premium is to be derived from the collection from the insured debtors of identifiable charges not required of uninsured debtors shall not include, in the class or classes of debtors eligible for insurance, debtors under obligations outstanding at its date of issue without evidence of individual insurability unless at least 75 percent of the then eligible debtors elect to pay the required charges. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from the collection of such identifiable charges must insure all eligible debtors, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer. The policy may be issued only if the group of eligible debtors is then receiving new entrants at the rate of at least 100 persons yearly, or may reasonably be expected to receive at least 100 new entrants during the first policy year, and only if the policy reserves to the insurer the right to require evidence of individual insurability if less than 75 percent of the new entrants become insured. The policy may exclude from the classes eligible for insurance classes of debtors determined by age.

(3) The amount of insurance on the life of any debtor shall at no time exceed the amount owed by him which is repayable in installments to the creditor, or $20,000, whichever is less, except that loans not exceeding 1 year duration shall not be subject to such limits. However, on such loans not exceeding 1 year duration, the limit of coverage shall not exceed $20,000 with any one insurer.

(4) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Such payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment.

(5) On a policy for which the premium is paid wholly from the creditor's funds without the collection of identifiable charges from the insured debtors for the insurance, directly or indirectly, and which policy is effected through a licensed life agent principally engaged in the sale of life insurance, other than one defined in s. 626.321(1)(e), who shall receive all commission or any other form of compensation thereunder, the provisions of part VIII shall not apply to such policy, and the amount of insurance under such policy on the life of any debtor shall at no time exceed the amount owed by him to the creditor or $20,000, whichever is less, and the term of insurance on any loan insured thereunder shall not be longer than 5 years from the date it becomes effective.

History.—s. 526, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 67-131; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-246; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§627.554 Labor union groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a labor union, or to the trustees of a fund established in this state by a labor union, which shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure members of such union for the benefit of persons other than the union or any of its officials, representatives or agents, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the members of the union, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the union, or both. In the case of a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established in this state by a labor union, the policy may provide that the trustees or their employees, or both, may be insured under the policy if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from the policyholder's funds or funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the labor union, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least 60 percent of the then eligible members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least 10 members at date of issue.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the members or by the union.

History.—s. 527, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 61-107; s. 2, ch. 63-187; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§627.555 Trustee groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same industry, or by two or more labor unions, or to the trustees of a fund established by one or more employers in the same industry and one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions whose members are in the same or related occupations or trades, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions, subject to the following requirements:

(1) No policy may be issued

(a) To insure employees of any employer whose eligibility to participate in the fund as an employer arises out of considerations directly related to the employer being a commercial correspondent or business client or patron of another employer (regardless of whether such other employer is or is not participating in the fund), or

(b) To insure employees of any employer which is not located in this state, unless the majority of the employers whose employees are to be insured are located in this state, or unless the employer has assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and is participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of his employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of his employees, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more labor unions.

(2)(a) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers or all of the members of the unions, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment or to membership in the unions, or both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to retired employees, no individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy as an employee unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(3) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from the policyholder's fund or funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees or members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least 75 percent of the then eligible persons, excluding any as to whom evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(4) The policy must cover at date of issue at least 100 persons and not less than an average of five persons, other than individual proprietors or partners per employer unit unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by employers which have assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and are participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of their employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of their employees, or unless the employer unit is a subsidiary corporation of an employer in the group or is an affiliated corporation, proprietorship or partnership of an employer in the group whose business and that of such employer is under common control, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more labor unions; and in addition to the foregoing requirements if the fund is established by the members of a group of employers the policy may be issued only if either

(a) The participating employers constitute at date of issue at least 60 percent of those employer members whose employees are not already covered for group life insurance, or

(b) The total number of persons covered at date of issue exceeds 600; and the policy shall not require that, if a participating employer discontinues membership in such group of employers, the insurance of his employees shall cease solely by reason of such discontinuance.

(5) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder, or employers or unions.

627.556 Credit union groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a credit union, which shall be deemed to be the policyholder for the purpose of this section, the premium on which is to be paid by the credit union or by the credit union and its members jointly, and insuring all of its eligible members for the amounts of insurance, not in excess of the share balance, or $2,000, whichever is less, as to each member, based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection, for the benefit of the share account of the member or some person or persons other than the credit union or its officials, provided, that all eligible members of a credit union may be insured; provided, also, that when the premium is to be paid by the credit union and its members jointly and the benefits are offered to all eligible members, not less than 75 percent of such members may be so insured.

627.558 Provisions required in group contracts.—No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless it contains in substance the provisions set forth in ss. 627.559-627.568 or provisions which in the opinion of the department are more favorable to the persons insured, or at least as favorable to the persons insured and more favorable to the policyholder; except, however, that:

(1) Sections 627.564-627.568 inclusive shall not apply to policies issued to a creditor to insure debtors of such creditor;

(2) The standard provisions required for individual life insurance policies shall not apply to group life insurance policies; and

(3) If the group life insurance policy is on a plan of insurance other than the term plan, it shall contain a nonforfeiture provision or provisions which in the opinion of the department is or are equitable to the insured persons and to the policyholder, but nothing herein shall be construed to require that group life insurance policies contain the same nonforfeiture provisions as are required for individual life insurance policies.

627.559 Grace period.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the policyholder is entitled to a grace period of 31 days for the payment of any premium due except the first, during which grace period the death benefit coverage shall continue in force, unless the policyholder shall have given the insurer written notice of discontinuance in advance of the date of discontinuance and in accordance with the terms of the policy. The policy may provide that the policyholder shall be liable to the insurer for the payment of a pro rata premium for the time the policy was in force during such grace period.

627.560 Incontestability.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the validity of the policy shall not be contested, except for nonpayment of premium, after it has been in force for two years from its date of issue; and that no statement made by any person insured under the policy relating to his insurability shall be used in contesting the validity of the insurance with respect to which such statement was made after such insurance has been in force prior to the contest for a period of two years during such person's lifetime nor unless it is contained in a written instrument signed by him.

627.561 Application; statements deemed representations.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that a copy of the application, if any, of the policyholder shall be attached to the policy when issued, that all statements made by the policyholder or by the persons insured shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made by any person insured shall be used in any contest unless a copy of the instrument containing the statement is or has been furnished to such person or to his beneficiary.

627.562 Insurability.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision setting forth the conditions, if any, under which the insurer reserves the right to require a person eligible for insurance to furnish evidence of individual insurability satisfactory to the insurer as a condition to part or all of his coverage.

627.565 Certificate.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the insurer will issue to the policyholder for delivery to each person insured an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which he is entitled, to whom the insurance benefits are paya-

627.566 Conversion on termination of eligibility.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that if the insurance, or any portion of it, on a person covered under the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy, such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits, provided application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within 31 days after such termination, and provided further that:

(1) The individual policy shall, at the option of such person, be on any one of the forms, except term insurance, then customarily issued by the insurer at the age and for the amount applied for;

(2) The individual policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of life insurance which ceases because of such termination, less, in the case of a person whose membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage terminates but who continues in employment in another class, the amount of any life insurance for which such person is or becomes eligible under any other group policy within 31 days after such termination, provided that any amount of insurance which shall have matured on or before the date of such termination as an endowment payable to the person insured, whether in one sum or in installments or in the form of an annuity, shall not, for the purposes of this provision, be included in the amount which is considered to cease because of such termination; and

(3) The premium on the individual policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the form and amount of the individual policy, to the class of risk to which such person then belongs, and to his age attained on the effective date of the individual policy.

(1) The amount of the person's life insurance protection ceasing because of the termination or amendment of the group policy, less the amount of any life insurance for which he is or becomes eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within 31 days after such termination, and

(2) Two thousand dollars.

If the aforesaid dividend, premium refund, rate reduction, commission or service fee is received by a trustee fund, it shall be applied by the trustees for the sole purposes of the trust.

1627.571 Assignment of incidents of ownership in group life insurance policies, including conversion privileges.—

(1) Nothing in this insurance code or in any other law shall be construed to prohibit any person insured under a group life insurance policy from making an assignment of all or any part of his incidents of ownership under such policy, including, but not limited to, the privilege of having issued to him an individual policy of life insurance pursuant and subject to the provisions of ss. 627.566 and 627.567 and the right to name a beneficiary. Subject to the terms of the policy, agreement, or arrangement between the insured, the group policyholder, and the insurer, relating to assignment of incidents of ownership thereunder, such an assignment by an insured, heretofore or hereafter made, is valid for the purpose of vesting in the assignee, in accordance with any provisions included therein as to the time at which it is to be effective, all of such incidents of ownership so assigned, but without prejudice to the insurer on account of any payment it may make or individual policy it may issue in accordance with ss. 627.566 and 627.567 prior to receipt of notice of the assignment.

(2) The purpose of subsection (1) is to declare and codify existing rights under policies of the types described therein.

1627.572 Group life insurance; association.—

The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an association whose members are engaged in a particular profession, members of which are licensed to engage in such profession in the State of Florida and which has been in existence for at least 10 years, and holds regular meetings not less than annually to further the purposes of the association members, or to the trustees of a fund established in this state for such association, which shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure the members of such association for the benefit of persons other than the association or any of its official representatives or agents, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the members of the association, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their profession, or to membership in the association, or both. In the case of a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established in this state by an association, the policy may provide that the trustees or their employees, or both, may be insured under the policy if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from the policyholder's funds or funds contributed by the insured persons or by the association, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance:

(a) A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least 200 of the then eligible members elect to make the required contributions. The policy may contain a provision requiring evidence of insurability of individual members.

(b) A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members.

(3) The association shall have been in existence for at least 10 years prior to the issuance of the policy, its annual dues actually collected from its members shall have been not less than $25, and it shall not have been organized for the sole and exclusive purpose of qualifying for insurance under this section.

(4) No policy of group life insurance may be issued to an association, or to the trustees of a fund established in whole or in part by an association, which provides term insurance on any person that, together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to any association of which such person is a member or to the trustees of any fund or funds established in whole or in part by such an association, exceeds $20,000, unless 200 percent of the annual compensation of such person exceeds $20,000, in which event such term insurance shall not exceed $100,000 or 200 percent of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(5) If a dividend, premium refund, rate reduction, commission, or service fee is received by any association or by the trustees of a fund established in whole or in part by an association, under any and all group insurance policies heretofore or hereafter delivered in this state, with respect to which they are the policyholder, covering the members of the association, to which such members contribute to the cost of the premiums for such insurance, the excess, if any, of the aggregate of such dividends, premium refunds, rate reductions, commissions, and service fees over the aggregate expenditure of such association or trustees towards the cost of such insurance, including its administration, for the current and preceding 2 years, to the extent that they were not defrayed by dividends, premium refunds, rate reductions, commissions, and service fees, shall be applied by the policyholder for the sole benefit of insured members, on a basis which precludes individual selection and unfair discrimination.

1627.573 Replacement or termination of group life insurance; liability of prior insurer.—

When an insurance purchaser replaces or terminates an existing group life contract, the prior insurer remains liable only to the extent of its accrued liabilities and extensions of benefits as required by s. 627.575.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-72; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 1, 3, ch. 79-179.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date. Section 3, ch. 79-179, provides that, if ch. 627 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-179 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

627.574 Liability of succeeding insurer on replacement of group policy.—

(1) Each person who is eligible for coverage in accordance with the succeeding insurer's plan of benefits shall be covered by that insurer's plan of benefits unless such coverage would result in duplication of benefits payable under the prior insurer's plan.

(2) Each person not covered under the succeeding insurer's plan of benefits in accordance with subsection (1) must be covered by the succeeding insurer in accordance with the following provisions if such individual was validly covered, including benefit extensions, under the prior plan on the date of discontinuance of the prior plan and if such individual is a member of the class or classes of individuals eligible for coverage under the succeeding insurer's plan.

(a) The minimum level of benefits to be provided by the succeeding insurer shall be the applicable level of benefits of the prior insurer's plan reduced by any benefits payable by the prior plan.

(b) Coverage must be provided by the succeeding insurer until at least the earliest of the following dates:

1. The date the individual becomes eligible under the succeeding insurer's plan as described in subsection (1).

2. The date the individual's coverage would terminate in accordance with the succeeding insurer's plan provisions applicable to individual termination of coverage (e.g., at termination of employment).

3. In the case of an individual who was totally disabled immediately prior to the date the succeeding insurer's coverage became effective and the policy of the prior insurer did not conform to s. 627.575, the end of any period of extension or accrued liability which would have been required of the prior insurer by s. 627.575, had s. 627.575 been applicable.

(3) If chapter 627 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, Laws of Florida, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that this section shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 79-179.

627.575 Extension of benefits.—

(1) Every group life policy delivered or issued for delivery in this state or under which benefits are hereafter altered, modified, or amended shall provide a reasonable provision for extension of benefits for those individuals who become totally disabled while insured under the policy on or after the date ch. 79-179, Laws of Florida, becomes applicable to such policy and who continue to be totally disabled at the date of discontinuance of the policy, as required by subsection (2).

(2) A reasonable provision for extension of benefits in the case of a group life plan is either premium waiver extension, extended death benefit for a period of at least 12 months in the event of total disability, or payment of income for a specified period during total disability. The discontinuance of the group policy shall not operate to terminate such extension.

(3) If chapter 627 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, Laws of Florida, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that this section shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), each such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain the provisions specified in ss. 627.606-627.617, inclusive, in the words in which the same appear; except, that the insurer may, at its option, substitute for one or more of such provisions corresponding provisions of different wording approved by the department which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Each such provision shall be preceded individually by the applicable caption shown, or at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the department may approve.

(2) If any such provision is in whole or in part inapplicable to or inconsistent with the coverage provided by a particular form of policy, the insurer, with the approval of the department, shall omit from such policy any inapplicable provision or part of a provision, and shall modify any inconsistent provision or part of a provision in such manner as to make the provision as contained in the policy consistent with the coverage provided by the policy.

History.—s. 548, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.6055 Handicapped children; continuation of coverage under individual policy.—An individual hospital or medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service plan contract, delivered or issued for delivery in this state subsequent to October 29, 1970, which provides that coverage of a dependent child shall terminate upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the policy or contract shall also provide in substance that attainment of such limiting age shall not operate to terminate the coverage of such child while the child is and continues to be both:

(1) Incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or physical handicap; and

(2) Chiefly dependent upon the policyholder or subscriber for support and maintenance, provided proof of such incapacity and dependency is furnished to the insurer or service plan corporation by the policyholder or subscriber within 31 days of the child's attainment of the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by the insurer or corporation, but not more frequently than annually after the 2-year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

"Entire Contract; Changes: This policy, including the endorsements and the attached papers, if any, constitutes the entire contract of insurance. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions."

History.—s. 549, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.607 Time limit on certain defenses.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (1) After 3 years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such 3-year period."

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial 3-year period, nor to limit the application of ss. 627.619-627.623 in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.)

A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (a) Until at least age 50 or, (b) In the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "Incontestable":

"After this policy has been in force for a period of 3 years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application."

(2) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after three years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy."

(For the purpose of permitting insurers to use a uniform policy in several states, the insurer is permitted to print in the policy form in required provisions (1) and (2), above, the term "3 years." Nevertheless, the provisions of the contract and text of the statute to the contrary notwithstanding, the time limits for such defenses under any contract delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall not exceed 2 years.)

History.—s. 550, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.608 Grace period.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Grace Period: A grace period of .... (insert a number not less than '7' for the weekly premium policies, '10' for monthly premium policies and '31' for all other policies) days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force."

(A policy which contains a cancellation provision may add, at the end of the above provision:

"subject to the right of the insurer to cancel in accordance with the cancellation provision hereof.")

A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse any renewal shall have, at the beginning of the above provision:

"Unless not less than 5 days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted."

History.—s. 551, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.609 Reinstatement.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium, without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement, shall reinstate the policy; provided, however, that if the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the 45th day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than 10 days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than 60 days prior to the date of reinstatement."

(The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums until at least age 50 or, in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue.)

History.—s. 552, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.610 Notice of claim.—

(1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Notice of Claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within 20 days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on behalf of insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at ..... (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose), or to any authorized agent of the insurer, with information sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed notice to the insurer."

(2) In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least 2 years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision:

"Subject to the qualifications set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least 2 years, he shall, at least once in every 6 months after having given notice of the claim, give to the insurer notice of continuance of the disability, except in the event of legal incapacity. The period of 6 months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision. Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of 6 months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given."

History.—s. 553, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

If such forms are not furnished within 15 days after the giving of such notice the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made."

History.—s. 554, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.6111 Standard health claim form.—

(1) The Department of Insurance shall prescribe a standard health claim form to be used by all hospitals and a standard health claim form to be used by all physicians and pharmacists. Such forms shall be in a format that allows for the use of generally accepted coding systems by providers in order to facilitate the processing of claims. The required information on diagnosis, medical procedures, services, date of service, supplies, and fees may also be met by an attachment to the physician claim form. However, for the purpose of filing Medicaid claims, such attachments shall be prohibited. Such standard health claim forms shall be accepted by all insurers and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) This section shall not apply to claims submitted by electronic or electromechanical means.

1627.612 Proofs of loss.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Proofs of Loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within 90 days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within 90 days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than 1 year from the time proof is otherwise required."

History.—s. 555, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

"Time of Payment of Claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid ..... (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof."

(1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Payment of Claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may, at the option of the insurer, be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured."

(2) The following provisions, or either of them, may be included with the foregoing provision at the option of the insurer:

"If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured, or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $.....(insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment."

"Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proof of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person."

627.616 Legal actions.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Legal Actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of 60 days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the appropriate caption or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the department may approve.

History.—s. 561, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.619 Change of occupation.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer, upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation, will reduce the premium rate accordingly, and will return the excess pro rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof, whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision, the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued; but if such filing was not required, then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation."

1627.620 Misstatement of age or sex.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Misstatement of Age or Sex: If the age or sex of the insured has been misstated, all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased according to the correct age or sex."

History.—s. 563, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.621 Other insurance in this insurer.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Other Insurance in This Insurer: If an accident or sickness or accident and sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity for ..... (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $.....(insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities) the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate."

Or, in lieu thereof:

"Insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured, his beneficiary or his estate, as the case may be, and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies."

History.—s. 564, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.622 Insurance with other insurers.—(Provision of service or expense incurred basis).

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance with Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on a provision of service basis or on an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability under any expense incurred coverage of this policy shall be for such proportion of the loss as the amount which would otherwise have been payable hereunder plus the total of the like amounts under all such other valid coverages for the same loss of which this insurer had notice bears to the total like amounts under all valid coverages for such loss, and for the return of such portion of the premiums paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the amount so determined. For the purpose of applying this provision when other coverage is on a provision of service basis, the 'like amount' of such other coverage shall be taken as the amount which the services rendered would have cost in the absence of such coverage."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in s. 627.623, there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Expense Incurred Benefits." The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage," approved as to form by the department, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, and by hospital or medical service organizations, and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the department. In the absence of such definition, such term shall not include group insurance, automobile medical payments insurance, or coverage provided by hospital or medical service organizations or by union welfare plans or employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision, no third-party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage."

1627.623 Same; other benefits.—

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance With Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on other than an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability for such benefits under this policy shall be for such proportion of the indemnities otherwise provided hereunder for such loss as the like indemnities of which the insurer had notice (including the indemnities under this policy) bear to the total amount of all like indemnities for such loss, and for the return of such portion of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the indemnities thus determined."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in s. 627.622, there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Other Benefits." The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage," approved as to form by the department, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the department. In the absence of such definition, such term shall not include group insurance, or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision, no third-party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage."

627.624 Relation of earnings to insurance.—

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Relation of Earnings to Insurance: If the total monthly amount of loss of time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss of time coverage upon the insured, whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis, shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of 2 years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made, whichever is the greater, the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such 2 years as shall exceed the pro rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder; but this shall not operate to reduce the total monthly amount of benefits payable under all such coverage upon the insured below the sum of $200 or the sum of the monthly benefits specified in such coverages, whichever is the lesser, nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time."

(2) The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums until at least age 50 or, in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue. The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "valid loss of time coverage," approved as to form by the department, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the department or any combination of such coverages. In the absence of such definition, such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute), or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations.

In the event of cancellation, the insurer will return promptly the unearned portion of any premium paid. If the insured cancels, the earned premium shall be computed by the use of the short-rate table last filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided when the policy was issued. If the insurer cancels, the earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior to the effective date of cancellation."

1627.631 Third party ownership.—The word "Insured," as used in this chapter, shall not be construed as preventing a person other than the insured with a proper insurable interest from making application for and owning a policy covering the insured or from being entitled under such a policy to any indemnities, benefits, and rights provided therein.

1627.633 Other policy provisions.—No policy provision which is not subject to part VI of this chapter shall make a policy, or any portion thereof, less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions thereof which are subject to this chapter.

1627.634 Age limit.—If any such policy contains a provision establishing, as an age limit or otherwise, a date after which the coverage provided by the policy will not be effective, and if such date falls within a period for which premium is accepted by the insurer or if the insurer accepts a premium after such date, the coverage provided by the policy will continue in force subject to any right of cancellation until the end of the period for which premium has been accepted. In the event the age of the insured has been misstated and if, according to the correct age of the insured, the coverage provided by the policy would not have become effective, or would have ceased prior to the acceptance of such premium or premiums, then the liability of the insurer shall be limited to the refund, upon request, of all premiums paid for the period not covered by the policy.

1627.635 Excess insurance.—

(1) No provision of this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit an insurer from issuing a policy as, or including in a policy a provision providing for, excess insurance; that is, to the effect that the insurer's liability for benefits payable on account of expense incurred for any hospitalization, medical, surgical and other service resulting from covered sickness or injury of the insured, shall be limited to that part of such expense, if any, which is in excess of all benefits payable on account thereof by the same insurer under any other policy or policies covering the same insured and by all other insurers and service organizations by whom benefits are payable as to the same such expense.

(2) Any such policy, or any policy containing any such provision, shall have imprinted or stamped conspicuously upon the face thereof the designation "excess insurance" or appropriate words of similar import approved by the department.

Each such policy shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter except that:

(1) Any such policy may contain a provision requiring proof of continuance of disability. If such provision is used it shall be in the following words: "Affirmative proof of continuance of disability must be furnished at the expiration of each period for which a claim is filed."

627.637 Construction of noncomplying contracts.—If any insurer writes or issues in this state any disability insurance contract, as contemplated by this chapter, and the form of such contract is not authorized by or in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, such contract shall nevertheless be a valid and binding contract of the insurer, and shall be construed as though the terms and provisions thereof were in conformity with those required by this chapter, any provision in such contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

To comply with this section the words "or to the hospital, doctor, or person rendering services covered by this policy," or similar words appropriate to the terms of the policy, shall be added to applicable provisions of the policy.

(2) The coverage for newborn children shall consist of coverage for injury or sickness, including the necessary care or treatment of medically diagnosed congenital defects, birth abnormalities, or prematurity.

627.642 Outline of coverage.

(1) No individual or family accident and health insurance policy shall be delivered, or issued for delivery, in this state unless:

(a) Accompanied by an appropriate outline of coverage; or

(b) An appropriate outline of coverage is completed and delivered to the applicant at the time application is made, and an acknowledgment of receipt or certificate of delivery of such outline is provided to the insurer with the application.

In the case of a direct response, such as a written application to the insurance company from an applicant, the outline of coverage shall accompany the policy when issued.

(2) Such outline of coverage shall contain:

(a) A statement identifying the applicable category of coverage afforded by the policy as based on the minimum basic standards set forth in the rules and regulations issued to effect compliance with s. 627.643.

1627.643 Uniform minimum standards.—

(1) The department shall adopt rules and regulations which establish minimum standards for the general content of forms of individual and family health policies, which shall be inclusive of terms of renewability, initial and subsequent conditions of eligibility, termination of insurance, probationary periods, exclusions, limitations, and reductions. The minimum standards expressed in such rules and regulations shall be in addition to, and in accord with, individual accident and sickness policy provisions as provided in parts II and VI.

(2) The department shall adopt rules and regulations which establish minimum standards of benefits and identification for each of the following categories of coverage in individual and family forms, other than conversion policies, of accident and health insurance:

- (a) Basic hospital expense insurance.
- (b) Basic medical expense insurance.
- (c) Basic surgical expense insurance.
- (d) Hospital confinement indemnity insurance.
- (e) Major medical expense insurance.
- (f) Disability income protection insurance.
- (g) Accident-only insurance.
- (h) Limited benefit insurance.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the issuance of any policy which combines two or more of the categories of coverage enumerated in paragraphs (a) through (e), or any policy which does not meet the prescribed minimum standards for categories of coverage in paragraphs (a) through (g) when such policy is, in the opinion of the department, either experimental in nature or is demonstrated to be a type of coverage that will fulfill a reasonable need of the person or persons to be insured. Any policy so approved will be identified as to category only as prescribed by the department.

(3) The department may, within such time as provided by law for the disapproval of an individual or family form of accident or health insurance, disapprove any such form if it finds that it does not comply with applicable law in this state or it finds that such form is unjust, unfair, or inequitable to the policyholder, any person insured thereunder, or any beneficiary. In acting upon any such submission, the commissioner shall, under this section, consider whether the benefits afforded under the submitted policy or benefit form would fulfill a reasonable need of a policyholder.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-281; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1627.644 Discrimination against handicapped prohibited.—No disability insurer shall refuse to provide, or charge unfairly discriminatory rates for, disability coverage for a person solely because he or she is mentally or physically handicapped. Nothing in this section should be construed as requiring an insurer to provide insurance coverage against a person's handicap which the applicant or policyholder has already sustained.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-127; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.645 Disability insurance claims.—No claim for payment under a disability insurance policy for medical care or treatment of a child in a licensed hospital which is nonprofit, which primarily provides diagnosis, treatment, or care for patients whose physical functions or movements are impaired by accident, disease, or congenital deformity, and which accepts patients for treatment without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, religion, or affiliation shall be denied solely because the hospital does not have facilities for major surgery or because the treatment and care is primarily of a charitable nature. This section shall apply to any claim presented under a policy with an effective date or renewal date on or after October 1, 1977.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-32; s. 12, ch. 78-106.

Note.—Former s. 391.11.

627.646 Conversion on termination of eligibility.—Every disability insurance policy providing hospital or medical expense coverage hereafter delivered or issued for delivery in this state or under which benefits are altered, modified, or amended shall contain a provision that if the insurance on a person covered under the policy ceases because of the termination of such person's eligibility for coverage, prior to his becoming eligible for Medicare or Medicaid benefits, then such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, a policy of disability insurance, either individual or family, whichever is appropriate, provided that application for the policy shall be made and the first premium paid to the insurer within 31 days after such termination and provided further that:

(1) The policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of disability insurance which ceases because of such termination.

(2) The premium on the policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to such policies, to the class of risk to which such person then belongs, and to his age attained on the effective date of the policy.

(3) The policy of disability insurance will not result in overinsurance on the basis of the company's underwriting standards at the time of issue.

(4) The policy of disability insurance may be reduced by the amount of any benefits paid for the same injury or same sickness under the prior policy.

(5) The policy of disability insurance may exclude any condition excluded by the prior policy.

(6) The provisions of this section shall be effectuated in such a way as to result in continuous coverage during the 31-day period for such insured.

Subject to the terms of the policy or any contract relating thereto, an assignment by an insured or by any other owner of rights under the policy, made either before or after May 7, 1970 is valid for the purpose of vesting in the assignee, in accordance with any provisions included therein as to the time at which it is to be effective, all incidents of ownership so assigned, but without prejudice to the company on account of any payment it may make or individual policy it may issue prior to receipt of notice of the assignment.

(2) The purpose of subsection (1) is to declare and codify existing rights under policies of the types described therein.

§627.666 Liability of succeeding insurer on replacement of group policy or contract.—

(1) Each person who is eligible for coverage in accordance with the succeeding insurer's plan of benefits shall be covered by that insurer's plan of benefits.

(2) Each person not covered under the succeeding insurer's plan of benefits in accordance with subsection (1) must be covered by the succeeding insurer in accordance with the following provisions if such individual was validly covered (including benefit extension) under the prior plan on the date of discontinuance of the prior plan and if such individual is a member of the class or classes of individuals eligible for coverage under the succeeding insurer's plan.

(a) The minimum level of benefits to be provided by the succeeding insurer shall be the applicable level of benefits of the prior insurer's plan reduced by any benefits payable by the prior plan.

(b) Coverage must be provided by the succeeding insurer until at least the earliest of the following dates:

1. The date the individual becomes eligible under the succeeding insurer's plan as described in subsection (1);

2. The date the individual's coverage would terminate in accordance with the succeeding insurer's plan provisions applicable to individual termination of coverage (e.g., at termination of employment or ceasing to be an eligible dependent, etc.).

3. In the case of an individual who was totally disabled immediately prior to the date the succeeding insurer's coverage became effective, the end of any period of extension or accrued liability required of the prior insurer under s. 627.667, if s. 627.667 is applicable, or the end of any period of extension or accrued liability which would have been required of the prior insurer by s. 627.667, had s. 627.667 been applicable.

(3) If the succeeding insurer's plan contains a "pre-existing conditions" clause, the level of benefits applicable while the limitation would otherwise apply shall be the lesser of:

(a) The benefits of the succeeding insurer's plan determined without application of the pre-existing conditions limitation, or

(b) The benefits of the prior plan.

(4) The succeeding insurer, in applying any deductibles or waiting periods in its plan, shall give credit for the satisfaction or partial satisfaction of the same or similar provisions under a prior plan providing similar benefits. In the case of deductible provisions, the credit shall apply for the same or overlapping benefit periods and shall be given for expenses actually incurred and applied against the deductible provisions of the prior insurer's plan during the 90 days preceding the effective date of the succeeding insurer's plan, but only to the extent these expenses are recognized under the terms of the succeeding insurer's plan and are subject to a similar deductible provision.

(5) In any situation in which a determination of the prior insurer's benefit is required by the succeeding insurer, the prior insurer shall, at the succeeding insurer's request, furnish a statement of the benefits available or pertinent information sufficient to permit verification of the benefit determination, or the determination itself, by the succeeding insurer. For the purpose of this section, benefits of the prior plan will be determined in accordance with all of the definitions, conditions, and covered expense provisions of the prior plan rather than those of the succeeding plan. The benefit determination will be made as if coverage had not been replaced by the succeeding insurer.

§627.667 Extension of benefits.—

(1) Every group, blanket, or franchise policy or contract subject to the provisions of this act hereafter delivered, or issued for delivery, in this state, or under which benefits are hereafter altered, modified, or amended, shall provide a reasonable provision for extension of benefits in the event of total disability at the date of discontinuance of the policy or contract, as required by this section. Such extension shall be required irrespective of whether the group policyholder or other entity secures replacement coverage from a new insurer or foregoes the provision of coverage.

(2) In the case of a group plan providing benefits for loss of time from work or specific indemnity during hospital confinement, discontinuance of the policy during a disability shall have no effect on benefits payable for that disability or confinement.

(3) In the case of hospital or medical expense coverages other than dental and maternity expense, a reasonable extension-of-benefits-or-acrued-liability provision is required. Such provision will be considered "reasonable" if it provides an extension of at least 12 months under "major medical" and "comprehensive medical" type coverages and, under other types of hospital or medical expense coverages, provides either an extension of at least 90 days or an accrued liability for expenses incurred during a period of disability or during a period of at least 90 days starting with a specific event which occurred while coverage was in force (e.g., an accident).

(4) Any applicable extension of benefits or accrued liability shall be described in any policy or contract involved as well as in group insurance certificates. The benefits payable during any period of extension or accrued liability may be subject to the policy's or contract's regular benefit limits (e.g., benefits ceasing at exhaustion of a benefit period or of maximum benefits).

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-279; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.6675 Conversion on termination of eligibility.—Every group, blanket, or franchise policy or contract providing hospital or medical expense coverage hereafter delivered or issued for delivery in this state or under which benefits are altered, modified, or amended shall contain a provision that if the insurance on a person covered under the policy or contract ceases because of the termination of such person's eligibility for coverage, prior to his becoming eligible for Medicare or Medicaid benefits, then such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, a nongroup policy of disability insurance, either individual or family, whichever is appropriate, in the event that the insurer offers such a policy, provided that application for such a policy shall be made and the first premium paid to the insurer within 31 days after such termination and provided further that:

(1) The policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of disability insurance which ceases because of such termination.

(2) The premium on the policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to such policies, to the class of risk to which such person then belongs, and to his age attained on the effective date of the policy.

The rate charged in this policy is based upon use of a coinsurance clause attached hereto, with the consent of the insured." (1) In event of total loss by fire or lightning of any building or structure or mobile home as defined in s. 320.01(2) or <sup>2</sup>factory-built housing as defined in s. 553.36(4) located in this state and insured by any insurer as to such perils, in the absence of any change increasing the risk without the insurer's consent, the insurer's liability, if any, under the policy for such total loss shall be in the amount of money for which such property was so insured as specified in the policy and for which premium has been charged and paid.

(2) In the case of partial loss by fire or lightning of any such property the insurer's liability, if any, under the policy shall be for the actual amount of such loss but not to exceed the amount of insurance specified in the policy as to such property and such perils.

(3) Except, however, that the amount of any loss referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall be subject to any coinsurance clause contained in the policy pursuant to s. 627.701.

However, when coverage is written for mobile homes on any basis other than stated value, a complete disclosure of relative cost between that policy and the stated value policy shall be made to the insured on a form and in a format approved by the Department of Insurance. Such forms shall disclose and describe the differences between the types of policies and shall be signed by the insured, and cop-

Such insurance shall be primary for the limits of liability and personal injury protection coverage as required by ss. 324.021(7) and 627.736.

(2) Each rental or lease agreement between the lessee and the lessor shall contain a provision on the face of the agreement, stated in bold type, informing the lessee of the provisions of subsection (1) and shall provide a space for the lessee's insurance company's name if the lessor's insurance is not to be primary.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

627.727 Automobile liability insurance; uninsured vehicle coverage; insolvent insurer protection.—

(1) No automobile liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state with respect to any motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death, resulting therefrom. However, the coverage required under this section shall not be applicable when, or to the extent that, any insured named in the policy shall reject the coverage. When a vehicle is leased for a period of 1 year or longer and the lessor of such vehicle, by the terms of the lease contract, provides liability coverage on the leased vehicle in a policy wherein the lessee is a named insured or on a certificate of a master policy issued to the lessor, the lessee of such vehicle shall have the sole privilege to reject uninsured motorist coverage. Unless the named insured, or lessee having the privilege of rejecting uninsured motorist coverage, requests such coverage in writing, the coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy when the named insured had rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued to him by the same insurer. The coverage provided under this section shall be over and above, but shall not duplicate the benefits available to an insured under any workers' compensation law, personal injury protection benefits, disability benefits law, or any similar law; under automobile medical expense coverages; or from the owner or operator of the uninsured motor vehicle or any other person or organization jointly or severally liable together with such owner or operator for the accident. Only the underinsured motorist's automobile liability insurance shall be set off against underinsured motorist coverage. Such coverage shall not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any workers' compensation or disability benefits carrier or any person or organization qualifying as a self-insurer under any workers' compensation or disability benefits law or any similar law.

(2) The limits of uninsured motorist coverage shall be not less than the limits of bodily injury liability insurance purchased by the named insured, or such lower limit complying with the company's rating plan as may be selected by the named insured, but in any event the insurer shall make available, at the written request of the insured, limits up to $100,000 each person, $300,000 each occurrence, irrespective of the limits of bodily injury liability purchased, in compliance with the company's rating plan.

(3) For the purpose of this coverage, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall, subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, be deemed to include an insured motor vehicle when the liability insurer thereof:

(a) Is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency; or

(b) Has provided limits of bodily injury liability for its insured which are less than the limits applicable to the injured person provided under uninsured motorist's coverage applicable to the injured person.

(4) An insurer's insolvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's uninsured motorist coverage is in effect when the liability insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent within 1 year after such an accident. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any insurer from affording insolvency protection under terms and conditions more favorable to its insureds than is provided hereunder.

(5) Any person having a claim against an insolvent insurer as defined in s. 631.54(5) under the provisions of this section shall present such claim for payment to the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association only. In the event of a payment to any person in settlement of a claim arising under the provisions of this section, the association shall not be subrogated or entitled to any recovery against the claimant's insurer. The association shall, however, have the rights of recovery as set forth in chapter 631 in the proceeds recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer.

(6) If an injured person or, in the case of death, the personal representative agrees to settle a claim with a liability insurer and its insured for the limits of liability, and such settlement would not fully satisfy the claim for personal injuries or wrongful death so as to create an uninsured motorist claim against the uninsured motorist insurer, then such settlement agreement shall be submitted in writing to the uninsured motorist insurer, which shall have a period of 30 days from receipt thereof in which to agree to arbitrate the uninsured motorist claim and approve the settlement, waive its subrogation rights against the liability insurer and its insured, and authorize the execution of a full release. If the uninsured motorist insurer does not agree within 30 days to arbitrate the uninsured motorist claim and approve the proposed settlement agreement, waive its subrogation rights against the liability insurer and its insured, and authorize the execution of a full release, the injured person or, in the case of death, the personal representative may file suit joining the liability insurer's insured and the uninsured motorist insurer to resolve their respective liability for any damages to be awarded; however, in such action, the liability insurer's coverage shall first be exhausted before any award may be entered against the uninsured motorist insurer, and any such award against the uninsured motorist insurer shall be excess and subject to the provisions of s. 627.727(1). Any award in such action against the liability insurer's insured shall be binding and conclusive as to the injured person and uninsured motorist insurer's liability for damages up to its coverage limits. The provisions of s. 627.428 shall not apply to any action brought pursuant to this section against the uninsured motorist insurer.

(7) The legal liability of an uninsured motorist coverage insurer shall not include damages in tort for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and inconvenience unless the injury or disease is described in one or more of paragraphs (a) through (d) of s. 627.737(2).

627.728 Cancellations; nonrenewals.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Policy" means the bodily injury and property damage liability, medical payments and uninsured motorist coverage portions of a policy of automobile liability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state:

1. Insuring a natural person as named insured or one or more related individuals resident of the same household, and

2. Insuring only a motor vehicle of the private passenger or station wagon type which is not used as a public or livery conveyance for passengers or rented to others; or insuring any other four-wheel motor vehicle having a load capacity of 1500 pounds or less which is not used in the occupation, profession, or business of the insured other than farming, and

3. Other than any policy:

a. Issued under an automobile insurance assigned risk plan, or

b. Insuring more than four automobiles, or

c. Covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards.

(b) "Renewal" or "to renew" means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a policy superseding at the end of the policy period a policy previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a policy beyond its policy period or term. Any policy with a policy period or term of less than 6 months or any policy with no fixed expiration date shall for the purpose of this section be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of 6 months.

(c) "Nonpayment of premium" means failure of the named insured to discharge when due any of his obligations in connection with the payment of premiums on a policy or any installment of such premium, whether the premium is payable directly to the insurer or its agent or indirectly under any premium finance plan or extension of credit, or failure to maintain membership in an organization if such membership is a condition precedent to insurance coverage and if such organization does not constitute a fictitious grouping in violation of s. 626.973.

(2) No notice of cancellation of a policy shall be effective unless it is based on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) Nonpayment of premium;

(b) Material misrepresentation or fraud; or

(c) The driver's license or motor vehicle registration of the named insured or of any other operator who either resides in the same household or customarily operates an automobile insured under the policy has been under suspension or revocation during the policy period or the 180 days immediately preceding its effective date or, if the policy is a renewal, during its policy period. This subsection shall not apply to any policy which has been in effect less than 60 days at the time notice of cancellation is mailed or delivered by the insurer unless it is a renewal policy. Nothing in this subsection shall apply to non-renewal.

(3)(a) No notice of cancellation of a policy to which this section applies shall be effective unless mailed or delivered by the insurer to the named insured and to the named insured's insurance agent at least 45 days prior to the effective date of cancellation, except that when cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least 10 days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reason therefor shall be given. No notice of cancellation of a policy to which this section applies shall be effective unless the reason or reasons for cancellation accompany the notice of cancellation.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (3) shall apply to nonrenewal.

(4)(a) No insurer shall fail to renew a policy unless it shall mail by registered mail or certified mail, or deliver to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, and to the named insured's insurance agent at his business address, at least 45 days' advance notice of its intention not to renew, and the reasons for refusal to renew must accompany such notice. The requirement for mailing notice by registered mail or certified mail shall not apply to an agent that has agreed to represent exclusively one insurer or a group of insurers under common management. This subsection shall not apply:

1. If the insurer has manifested its willingness to renew; or

2. In case of nonpayment of premium.

Notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this subsection, the policy shall terminate on the effective date of any other automobile liability insurance policy procured by the insured with respect to any automobile designated in both policies. Unless a written explanation for refusal to renew accompanies the notice of intention not to renew, the policy shall remain in full force and effect.

(b) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal.

(c) No insurer shall fail to renew a policy for reasons based entirely on the sex, occupation, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, residence, military service, or age of the insured or on the principal place of garaging the insured vehicle in this state, or for any other reason which is arbitrary or capricious.

(5) Proof of mailing of notice of cancellation, of intention not to renew, or of reasons for cancellation to the named insured at the address shown in the policy shall be sufficient proof of notice.

(6) When a policy is canceled, other than for nonpayment of premium, or in the event of failure to renew a policy to which subsection (4) applies, the insurer shall notify the named insured of his possible eligibility for insurance through the automobile assigned risk plan. Such notice shall accompany or be included in the notice of cancellation or the notice of intent not to renew, and shall state that such notice of availability of the automobile assigned risk plan is given pursuant to this section.

(7) Where the reason or reasons for cancellation do not accompany or are not included in the notice of cancellation, the insurer shall, upon written request of the named insured mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than 15 days prior to the effective date of cancellation, specify in writing the reason or reasons for such cancellation. Such reasons shall be mailed or delivered to the named insured within 5 days after receipt of such request, except in the case of cancellation for nonpayment of premium, and shall contain or be accompanied by a notice of the named insured's right to apply to the department for a hearing thereon if the application is made not less than 4 days prior to the effective date of cancellation and is accompanied by a filing fee of $7.50. If the reasons for cancellation are stated in or accompany the notice of cancellation, such notice shall, except in the case of cancellation of nonpayment of premium, also contain or be accompanied by a notice of the named insured's right to apply to the department for a hearing if the application is made not less than 10 days prior to the effective date of cancellation and is accompanied by a filing fee of $7.50. This subsection shall apply only to a cancellation to which subsection (2) applies.

(8)(a) A named insured who wishes to contest the reason or reasons for a cancellation to which subsection (2) is applicable, shall, not less than 4 days prior to the effective date of cancellation where the reasons for cancellation are furnished upon written request and not less than 10 days prior to the effective date of cancellation where the reasons for cancellation are furnished with the notice of cancellation, mail or deliver to the department a written request for a hearing, which shall state clearly the basis for the appeal and be accompanied by a filing fee of $7.50. This subsection shall not apply to cancellation for nonpayment of premium.

(b) A cancellation which is subject to the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed effective unless the department determines otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(9)(a) Within 2 working days after receipt of a timely request for a hearing, the department shall call a hearing upon 10 days' notice to the parties. The department may, where it finds that a request for a hearing is not timely made because the insurer did not, within the time period provided in subsection (8), furnish the reason for cancellation upon the timely request therefor by the named insured, accept the request for a hearing and, after notice to the insurer, extend the effective date of cancellation for a period not to exceed 4 days from the date the reason for cancellation was mailed or delivered.

(b) Each insurer subject to this section shall maintain on file with the department the name and address of the person authorized to receive notices pursuant to this section on behalf of the insurer.

(c) The department shall, at the conclusion of the hearing or not later than 2 working days thereafter, issue its written findings to the parties and, if it finds for the named insured, it shall assess the insurer $7.50 to defray the cost of the hearing and shall refund the $7.50 filing fee to the named insured, and it shall either order the insurer to rescind its notice of cancellation or, if the date cancellation is to be effective has elapsed, order the policy reinstated from the date of cancellation, and such coverage shall be continuous to, and shall operate prospectively from, the date on which the order was issued. However, no policy shall be reinstated while the named insured is in arrears in payment of premium on such policy. If the department finds for the insurer, its written order shall so state, and it shall assess the named insured $7.50 and apply the named insured's $7.50 filing fee against the assessment to defray the cost of the hearing.

(d) Reinstatement of a policy under this subsection shall not operate in any way to extend the expiration, termination, or anniversary date provided in the policy. Upon such reinstatement, costs and attorney's fees may be assessed by the department and paid to the named insured by an insurer who has wrongfully canceled or wrongfully refused to renew a policy, as determined by the hearing provided for in paragraph (c).

(10) The department shall deposit all filing fees provided for in this section in the insurance commissioner's regulatory trust fund.

(11) There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, any insurer or its authorized representative, agents, or employees or any firm, person or corporation furnishing to the insurer or insured information as to reasons for cancellation or refusal to renew, for any statement made by any of them in any written notice of cancellation or refusal to renew, for the providing of information pertaining thereto, or for statements made or evidence submitted at the hearings conducted in connection therewith.

(12) The notice of cancellation as provided by this section shall contain the following words which are to be prominently displayed:

"You are permitted by law to appeal this cancellation. Appeal should be filed before the effective date of cancellation set forth in this notice. Forms for such appeal and the regulations pertaining thereto may be obtained from the offices of the Department of Insurance. Appeals must be accompanied by a deposit. You or this company may be charged with the costs of the appeal, depending on the outcome."

627.7285 Experience while operating a train.

—The experience of any person while operating any vehicle or train as a public conveyance or acting as a member of the crew of such train shall not be a factor in the setting of such person's motor vehicle liability insurance rates, nor shall such person's personal motor vehicle liability insurance policy be canceled or nonrenewed due to such experience. As used in this section, the term "public conveyance" means any vehicle or train operated over fixed rails.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-50.

627.7286 Renewal of policy and setting of rates; certain experience not a factor.—No insurer providing motor vehicle liability coverage shall refuse to renew any policy providing coverage for a personal motor vehicle of any person based solely on such person's experience while operating a vehicle as a part of his employment for any local transit system or as a part of his employment as a bus operator for any nonpublic-sector bus company certified by the Public Service Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission, and no points assessed against such person under s. 322.27 in connection with such experience shall be considered as a factor in the setting of such person's personal motor vehicle liability insurance rates. The burden of demonstrating that such points were assessed in connection with such experience shall lie with the insured.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-75; ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-389.

Note.—Section 2, ch. 79-389, provides that, if ch. 627 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-389 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

627.729 Cancellation of policies following holding of invalidity of ch. 70-989, Laws of Florida.—In the event that a law preventing increases on automobile insurance policy premium rates effective July 1, 1970, should be found to be invalid, no insurance policy in effect on July 1, 1970, or renewed in reliance of such law, shall be declared canceled or invalid. Provided, however, that the policyholder shall be required to remit, within 30 days after receiving written notice from the insurer of an increase in rates, the difference between the rate on July 1, 1970, and the rate set by the insurer. Such notice shall not be effective unless sent to the insured after a law preventing the increase of rates is declared invalid.

627.731 Purpose.—The purpose of ss. 627.730-627.741 is to require medical, surgical, funeral and disability insurance benefits to be provided without regard to fault under motor vehicle policies that provide bodily injury and property damage liability insurance, or other security, for motor vehicles registered in this state and, with respect to motor vehicle accidents, a limitation on the right to claim damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish and inconvenience.

History.—s. 2, ch. 71-252; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.732 Definitions.—As used in ss. 627.730-627.741:

(1) "Motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle which is of a type both designed and required to be licensed for use on the highways of this state except mopeds, as defined in s. 316.003(2), and any trailer or semi-trailer designed for use with such vehicle and includes:

(2) "Owner" means a person who holds the legal title to a motor vehicle, or, in the event a motor vehicle is the subject of a security agreement or lease

(3) "Named insured" means a person, usually the owner of a vehicle, identified in a policy by name as the insured under the policy.

(4) "Relative residing in the same household" means a relative of any degree by blood or by marriage who usually makes his home in the same family unit, whether or not temporarily living elsewhere.

(3) Such security shall be provided by one of the following methods:

Any such policy of motor vehicle insurance covering motor vehicles registered or licensed in this state and any policy of insurance represented or sold as providing the security required hereunder for registered and licensed motor vehicles under ss. 627.730-627.741 shall be deemed to provide insurance for the payment of such benefits; or

(b) Security may be provided with respect to any motor vehicle by any other method authorized by s. 324.031(2), (3), or (4) and approved by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles as affording security equivalent to that afforded by a policy of insurance, if such security is continuously maintained throughout the motor vehicle's registration or licensing period. The person filing such security shall have all of the obligations and rights of an insurer under ss. 627.730-627.741.

(4) An owner of a motor vehicle with respect to which security is required by this section who fails to have such security in effect at the time of an accident shall have no immunity from tort liability, but shall be personally liable for the payment of benefits under s. 627.736. (3) Sections 627.730-627.741 do not apply to any motor vehicle owned by the state, a political subdivision of the state, or the Federal Government.

627.735 Operation of a motor vehicle illegal without security; penalties.—Any owner or registrant of a motor vehicle with respect to which security is required under s. 627.733 who operates such motor vehicle or permits it to be operated in this state without having in full force and effect security complying with the terms of s. 627.733 shall have his operator's license and registration suspended.

627.736 Required personal injury protection benefits; exclusions; priority.—

(1) REQUIRED BENEFITS.—Every insurance policy complying with the security requirements of s. 627.733 shall provide personal injury protection providing for payment of all reasonable expenses incurred for necessary medical, surgical, X-ray, dental, and rehabilitative services, including prosthetic devices; necessary ambulance, hospital, and nursing services; and funeral and disability benefits to the named insured, relatives residing in the same household, persons operating the insured motor vehicle, passengers in such motor vehicle, and other persons struck by such motor vehicle and suffering bodily injury while not an occupant of a self-propelled vehicle, all as specifically provided in subsection (2) and paragraph (4)(d), to a limit of $10,000 for loss sustained by any such person as a result of bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle as follows:

(a) Medical benefits.—Eighty percent of all reasonable expenses for necessary medical, surgical, X-ray, dental, and rehabilitative services, including prosthetic devices, and necessary ambulance, hospital, and nursing services. Such benefits shall also include necessary remedial treatment and services recognized and permitted under the laws of the state for an injured person who relies upon spiritual means through prayer alone for healing, in accordance with his religious beliefs.

(b) Disability benefits.—Eighty percent of any loss of gross income and loss of earning capacity per individual, unless such benefits are deemed not includable in gross income for federal income tax purposes, in which event such benefits shall be limited to 60 percent, from inability to work proximately caused by the injury sustained by the injured person, plus all expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining from others ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those that, but for the injury, the injured person would have performed without income for the benefit of his household. All disability benefits payable under this provision shall be paid not less than every 2 weeks.

Any insurer providing medical or disability benefits which have been reduced under this section shall also provide a corresponding rate reduction to the insured in proportion to the reduction of benefits provided.

(c) Funeral, burial, or cremation benefits.—Funeral, burial, or cremation expenses in an amount not to exceed $1,000 per individual.

Only insurers writing motor vehicle liability insurance in this state may provide the required benefits of this section, and no such insurer shall require the purchase of any other motor vehicle coverage as a condition for providing such required benefits. Such insurers shall make such benefits available through normal marketing channels. Any insurer writing motor vehicle liability insurance in this state failing to comply with such availability requirement as a general business practice shall be deemed to have violated part VII of chapter 626, and such violation shall constitute an unfair method of competition or an unfair or deceptive act or practice involving the business of insurance, and any such insurer committing such violation shall be subject to the penalties afforded in such part, as well as those which may be afforded elsewhere in the insurance code.

(2) AUTHORIZED EXCLUSIONS.—Any insurer may exclude benefits:

(a) For injury sustained by the named insured and relatives residing in the same household while occupying another motor vehicle owned by the named insured and not insured under the policy or for injury sustained by any person operating the insured motor vehicle without the express or implied consent of the insured.

(b) To any injured person, if such person's conduct contributed to his injury under any of the following circumstances:

1. Causing injury to himself intentionally;

2. Being convicted of driving while under the influence of alcohol or narcotic drugs to the extent that his driving faculties are impaired; or
3. Being injured while committing a felony.

Whenever an insured is charged with conduct as set forth in subparagraphs 2. or 3., the 30-day payment provision of paragraph (4)(b) shall be held in abeyance, and the insurer shall withhold payment of any personal injury protection benefits pending the outcome of the case at the trial level. If the charge is nolle prossed or dismissed or the insured is acquitted, the 30-day payment provision shall run from the date the insurer is notified of such action.

(3) INSURED'S RIGHTS TO RECOVERY OF SPECIAL DAMAGES IN TORT CLAIMS.—No insurer shall have a lien on any recovery in tort by judgment, settlement, or otherwise for personal injury protection benefits, whether suit has been filed or settlement has been reached without suit. An injured party who is entitled to bring suit under the provisions of s. 627.737, or his legal representative, shall have no right to recover any damages for which personal injury protection benefits are paid or payable. The plaintiff may prove all of his special damages notwithstanding this limitation, but if special damages are introduced in evidence, the trier of facts, whether judge or jury, shall not award damages for personal injury protection benefits paid or payable. In all cases in which a jury is required to fix damages, the court shall instruct the jury that the plaintiff shall not recover such special damages for personal injury protection benefits paid or payable.

(4) BENEFITS; WHEN DUE.—Benefits due from an insurer under ss. 627.730-627.741 shall be primary, except that benefits received under any workers' compensation law or Medicaid as provided under 42 U.S.C. s. 1396 et seq. shall be credited against the benefits provided by subsection (1) and shall be due and payable as loss accrues, upon receipt of reasonable proof of such loss and the amount of expenses and loss incurred which are covered by the policy issued under ss. 627.730-627.741.

(a) An insurer may require written notice to be given as soon as practicable after an accident involving a motor vehicle with respect to which the policy affords the security required by ss. 627.730-627.741.

(b) Personal injury protection insurance benefits shall be overdue if not paid within 30 days after the insurer is furnished written notice of the fact of a covered loss and of the amount of same. If such written notice is not furnished to the insurer as to the entire claim, any partial amount supported by written notice is overdue if not paid within 30 days after such written notice is furnished to the insurer. Any part or all of the remainder of the claim that is subsequently supported by written notice is overdue if not paid within 30 days after such written notice is furnished to the insurer. However, any payment shall not be deemed overdue when the insurer has reasonable proof to establish that the insurer is not responsible for the payment, notwithstanding that written notice has been furnished to the insurer. For the purpose of calculating the extent to which any benefits are overdue, payment shall be treated as being made on the date a draft or other valid instrument which is equivalent to payment was placed in the United States mail in a properly addressed, post-paid envelope or, if not so posted, on the date of delivery.

(c) All overdue payments shall bear simple interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum.

(d) The insurer of the owner of a motor vehicle shall pay personal injury protection benefits for:

1. Accidental bodily injury sustained in this state by the owner while occupying a motor vehicle, or while not an occupant of a self-propelled vehicle if the injury is caused by physical contact with a motor vehicle.

2. Accidental bodily injury sustained outside this state, but within the United States of America or its territories or possessions or Canada by the owner while occupying the owner's motor vehicle.

3. Accidental bodily injury sustained by a relative of the owner residing in the same household, under the circumstances described in subparagraph 1. or subparagraph 2., provided the relative at the time of the accident is domiciled in the owner's household and is not himself the owner of a motor vehicle with respect to which security is required under ss. 627.730-627.741.

4. Accidental bodily injury sustained in this state by any other person while occupying the owner's motor vehicle or, if a resident of this state, while not an occupant of a self-propelled vehicle, if the injury is caused by physical contact with such motor vehicle, provided the injured person is not himself:

a. The owner of a motor vehicle with respect to which security is required under ss. 627.730-627.741, or

b. Entitled to personal injury benefits from the insurer of the owner or owners of such a motor vehicle.

(e) If two or more insurers are liable to pay personal injury protection benefits for the same injury to any one person, the maximum payable shall be as specified in subsection (1), and any insurer paying the benefits shall be entitled to recover from each of the other insurers an equitable pro rata share of the benefits paid and expenses incurred in processing the claim.

(5) CHARGES FOR TREATMENT OF INJURED PERSONS.—Any physician, hospital, clinic, or other person or institution lawfully rendering treatment to an injured person for a bodily injury covered by personal injury protection insurance may charge only a reasonable amount for the products, services, and accommodations rendered, and the insurer providing such coverage may pay for such charges directly to such person or institution lawfully rendering such treatment, if the insured receiving such treatment or his guardian has countersigned the invoice or bill upon which such charges are to be paid for as having actually been rendered, to the best knowledge of the insured or his guardian. In no event, however, may such a charge be in excess of the amount the person or institution customarily charges for like products, services, or accommodations in cases involving no insurance.

(6) DISCOVERY OF FACTS ABOUT AN INJURED PERSON; DISPUTES.—

(a) Every employer shall, if a request is made by an insurer providing personal injury protection benefits under ss. 627.730-627.741 against whom a claim has been made, furnish forthwith, in a form approved by the Department of Insurance, a sworn statement of the earnings, since the time of the bodily injury and for a reasonable period before the injury, of the person upon whose injury the claim is based.

(b) Every physician, hospital, clinic, or other medical institution providing, before or after bodily injury upon which a claim for personal injury protection insurance benefits is based, any products, services, or accommodations in relation to that or any other injury, or in relation to a condition claimed to be connected with that or any other injury, shall, if requested to do so by the insurer against whom the claim has been made, furnish forthwith a written report of the history, condition, treatment, dates, and costs of such treatment of the injured person, together with a sworn statement that the treatment or services rendered were reasonable and necessary with respect to the bodily injury sustained and identifying which portion of the expenses for said treatment or services was incurred as a result of such bodily injury, and produce forthwith, and permit the inspection and copying of, his or its records regarding such history, condition, treatment, dates, and costs of treatment. Said sworn statement shall read as follows: "Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief." No cause of action for violation of the physician-patient privilege or invasion of the right of privacy shall be permitted against any physician, hospital, clinic, or other medical institution complying with the provisions of this section. The person requesting such records and said sworn statement shall pay all reasonable costs connected therewith.

(c) In the event of any dispute regarding an insurer's right to discovery of facts about an injured person's earnings or about his history, condition, or treatment, or the dates and costs of such treatment, the insurer may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enter an order permitting such discovery. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to all persons having an interest, and it shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the discovery. Such court may, in order to protect against annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, as justice requires, enter an order refusing discovery or specifying conditions of discovery and may order payments of costs and expenses of the proceeding, including reasonable fees for the appearance of attorneys at the proceedings, as justice requires.

(d) The injured person shall be furnished, upon request, a copy of all information obtained by the insurer under the provisions of this section, and shall pay a reasonable charge, if required by the insurer.

(e) Notice to an insurer of the existence of a claim shall not be unreasonably withheld by an insured.

(7) MENTAL AND PHYSICAL EXAMINATION OF INJURED PERSON; REPORTS.—

(a) Whenever the mental or physical condition of an injured person covered by personal injury protection is material to any claim that has been or may be made for past or future personal injury protection insurance benefits, such person shall, upon request of an insurer, submit to mental or physical examination by a physician or physicians. The costs of any examinations requested by an insurer shall be borne entirely by the insurer. Such examination shall be conducted within the city of residence of the insured. If there is no qualified physician to conduct the examination within the city of residence of the insured, then such examination shall be conducted in an area of the closest proximity to the insured's residence. Personal protection insurers are authorized to include reasonable provisions in personal injury protection insurance policies for mental and physical examination of those claiming personal injury protection insurance benefits.

(b) If requested by the person examined, a party causing an examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of every written report concerning the examination rendered by an examining physician, at least one of which reports must set out the examining physician's findings and conclusions in detail. After such request and delivery, the party causing the examination to be made is entitled, upon request, to receive from the person examined every written report available to him or his representative concerning any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same mental or physical condition. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered, or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the person examined waives any privilege he may have, in relation to the claim for benefits, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined, or may thereafter examine, him in respect to the same mental or physical condition. If a person unreasonably refuses to submit to an examination, the personal injury protection carrier is no longer liable for subsequent personal injury protection benefits.

(8) With respect to any dispute under the provisions of ss. 627.730-627.741 between the insured and the insurer, the provisions of s. 627.428 shall apply.

(1) Every owner, registrant, operator, or occupant of a motor vehicle with respect to which security has been provided as required by ss. 627.730-627.741, and every person or organization legally responsible for his acts or omissions, is hereby exempted from tort liability for damages because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease arising out of the ownership, operation, maintenance, or use of such motor vehicle in this state to the extent that the benefits described in s. 627.736(1) are payable for such injury, or would be payable but for any exclusion or deductible authorized by ss. 627.730-627.741, under any insurance policy or other method of security complying with the requirements of s. 627.733, or by an owner personally liable under s. 627.733 for the payment of such benefits, unless a person is enti-

(2) In any action of tort brought against the owner, registrant, operator, or occupant of a motor vehicle with respect to which security has been provided as required by ss. 627.730-627.741, or against any person or organization legally responsible for his acts or omissions, a plaintiff may recover damages in tort for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and inconvenience because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease arising out of the ownership, maintenance, operation, or use of such motor vehicle only in the event that the injury or disease consists in whole or in part of:

(a) Significant and permanent loss of an important bodily function.

(b) Permanent injury within a reasonable degree of medical probability, other than scarring or disfigurement.

If the court finds that the plaintiff will not be able to submit such evidence, then the court shall dismiss the plaintiff's claim without prejudice.

(4) In any action brought against an automobile liability insurer for damages in excess of its policy limits, no claim for punitive damages shall be allowed.

(2) For purposes of this section, "collateral sources" means any payments made to the claimant, or on his behalf, by or pursuant to:

(a) The United States Social Security Act; any federal, state, or local income disability act; or any other public programs providing medical expenses, disability payments, or other similar benefits.

(b) Any health, sickness, or income disability insurance; automobile accident insurance that provides health benefits or income disability coverage; and any other similar insurance benefits except life insurance benefits available to the claimant, wheth-

(c) Any contract or agreement of any group, organization, partnership, or corporation to provide, pay for, or reimburse the costs of hospital, medical, dental, or other health care services.

(d) Any contractual or voluntary wage continuation plan provided by employers or any other system intended to provide wages during a period of disability.

627.739 Personal injury protection; optional limitations; deductibles; optional methods of payment for repair work.—In order to prevent duplication with other private or governmental insurance or benefits for senior citizens and others with access to such insurance or benefits, each insurer providing the coverage and benefits described in s. 627.736(1) shall offer to the named insureds modified forms of personal injury protection as described in this section. Such election may be made by the named insured to apply to the named insured alone, or to the named insured and dependent relatives residing in the same household. Any person electing such modified coverage, or subject to such modified coverage as a result of the named insured's election, shall have no right to claim or to recover any amount so deducted from any owner, registrant, operator, or occupant of a vehicle or any person or organization legally responsible for any such person's acts or omissions who is made exempt from tort liability by ss. 627.730-627.741. Premium reductions for each modification or combination of modifications shall be adequate to recognize the reduction in hazard and shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Insurance.

(1) Insurers shall offer to each applicant and to each policyholder, upon the renewal of an existing policy, deductibles, in amounts of $250, $500, $1,000, $2,000, $3,000, $4,000, $6,000 and $8,000, said amount to be deducted from the benefits otherwise due each person subject to the deduction, and shall explain to each applicant or policyholder that if they have coverage under private or governmental disability plans, they may avail themselves of deducti-

(5) Each insurer may prepare and distribute to each of its policyholders a listing of all business entities under contract with the insurer to perform motor vehicle repair work at the rates described in paragraph (4)(b) of this section. The listing shall include a clear and plain explanation of the options provided as required by this section, and shall further state that if the policyholder elects to have required motor vehicle repair work done by any such business entity, the rates stipulated in the contract with the insurer shall be all of the consideration which the business entity will demand for such work and shall be paid by the insurer.

(6) Insurers may offer coverage wherein, at the election of the named insured, medical services shall be limited to specified medical providers, including hospitals, which specified medical providers may be health maintenance organizations, as provided in chapter 641, part II.

Rates shall be made in accordance with the following:

(a) Due consideration shall be given to past and prospective loss experience, to a reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies, to past and prospective expenses for administration and handling of risks, and other relevant factors.

(b) Rates may be grouped by classification or schedule and may differ as to class of risk assumed.

(c) Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

1627.783 Rate deviation.—

(1) At any time after the first promulgation of risk rates as provided for in part XII of this chapter, an authorized insurer may petition the department for an order authorizing and permitting a specific deviation in the risk premium. Such petition shall be in writing and sworn to and shall set forth allegations of fact upon which the petitioner will rely including the petitioner's reasons for requesting such deviation. Any authorized title insurer may join in such petition for like authority to deviate or may file a separate petition praying for such authority or opposing such deviation. All such petitions shall be ruled upon simultaneously.

(2) If in the judgment of the department the requested deviation is not justified, the department may enter an order denying such petition. The order or orders entered by the department granting a deviated rate shall be in the nature of a change and amendment of the promulgated risk rate and the provisions of the rate section of part XII of this chapter shall apply to any such change and amendment and the order or orders affecting the same.

All amounts received by the company which are required by contract to be applied to provide such variable payments or values shall be added to the appropriate separate account. If so provided under applicable contracts, that portion of the assets of any such separate account equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities with respect to such account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct. Any deficit from mortality experience which may arise in any such separate account shall be adjusted by additions to such account by the company so that the assets of such account are always at least equal to the assets required to satisfy the company's obligations for such variable payments.

However, in the case of variable life or variable endowment contracts the amount of proceeds may never decrease below the face amount of the contract. Any such contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state, and any such group certificate, shall contain on its first page, in a prominent position in 10-point type or larger, a clear statement that the benefits or values thereunder are on a variable basis.

The investments in such separate account or accounts shall not be taken into account in applying the investment limitations otherwise applicable to the investments of the company.

(1) The department, notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall have the sole authority to regulate the issuance and sale of variable contracts and to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this part.

(2) No life insurance corporation heretofore or hereafter incorporated pursuant to the provisions of any general or special law of this state shall undertake the issuance of any contract on a variable basis, and no insurance company formed by authority of another state or foreign country and heretofore or hereafter admitted to transact business in this state, shall undertake the issuance or delivery of any contract on a variable basis within this state, until said company has satisfied the department that its condition or methods of operation in connection with the issuance of such contracts on a variable basis will not be such as would render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this state. In determining the qualification of a company requesting authority to issue or deliver contracts on a variable basis within this state, the department will consider, among other things,

- (a) The history of the company;
- (b) The character, responsibility and general fitness of the officers and directors of the company; and

(1) Except as provided in ss. 627.901 and 627.902, no person shall engage in the business of a premium finance company without a license therefor obtained from the department, as provided in part XIV of this chapter. Every premium finance company licensed under the provisions of this part shall maintain at all times a net worth of $35,000, except that any licensed premium finance company in existence on October 1, 1973, and not having a net worth of $35,000 shall have a period of 3 years from said date to attain such net worth. The increase in net worth during each year of such 3-year period shall not be less than $10,000 or such amount as is needed to attain the required $35,000 net worth. However, in lieu of having a net worth of $35,000, a premium finance company may file a surety bond or other acceptable collateral with the department as approved by it in the amount of $35,000.

(2) The application for license required under part XIV of this chapter shall be in writing and in the form prescribed by the department. Every applicant shall provide proof, on forms prescribed by the department, of a net worth of $35,000 as provided for in subsection (1). Assets to be used in computing the required net worth shall be determined by rules and regulations adopted by the department.

(3) When an applicant has more than one office, separate applications for license shall be made for each such office.

(4) At the time of filing an application for a license, the applicant shall pay to the department the license fee and, upon original application or upon application subsequent to denial of application, or revocation, suspension or surrender of a license, an investigation fee.

(a) The license fee specified in s. 627.849 for each license year or part thereof shall be paid for each office where the business of a premium finance company is conducted.

(b) The investigation fee specified in s. 627.849, when required by this section, shall be paid for each office where the business of a premium finance company is conducted, except that when an applicant files application for license for more than three offices at the same time, the total investigation fee for all the applications shall be the same as the fee for three offices.

(1) The department shall issue the license or refuse to issue the license, if it is found by it that the management of the premium finance company filing the application is lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed operation hazardous to the insurance-buying public, or which it has good reason to believe is affiliated directly or indirectly through ownership, control, or in other business relations with any person or persons whose business operations are or have been marked as detrimental to the public, policyholders, stockholders, investors, or creditors by manipulation of assets or of accounts or by bad faith. Such license to engage in business in accordance with the provisions of this law at the location specified in the application shall be executed in duplicate by the department, and it shall transmit one copy thereof to the applicant and file a copy in the office of the department.

(2) If the department refuses to issue a license, it shall notify the applicant of the denial, return to the applicant the sum paid as a license fee, but retain the investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the applicant.

(3) Each license issued hereunder shall remain in full force and effect until September 30 of the year for which issued unless earlier surrendered, suspended, or revoked pursuant to part XIV, and may be renewed for the ensuing license year upon the filing of an application in conformity with s. 627.828 but subject to all of the provisions of this section. If an application for a renewal of a license is filed with the department before October 1 of any year, the license sought to be renewed shall be continued in full force and effect either until the issuance by the department of the renewal license applied for or until 5 days after the department refuses to issue such renewal license under the provisions of this section.

(4) Only one office may be maintained under each license, but more than one license may be issued to the same licensee pursuant to part XIV.

(5) Any person engaged in the business of a premium finance company on October 1, 1963 may continue in operation in accordance with the provisions of part XIV but must obtain a license for each office at which he engages in the business of a premium finance agency by October 1, 1963.

627.831 Change of location.—Before any licensee changes any office of his to another location, he shall give written notice thereof to the department which shall without charge issue an endorsement indicating the change and the date thereof, which endorsement shall be attached to the license for such office and be authority for the operation of the business under such license at such new location.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-16; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

627.832 Grounds for refusal, suspension, and revocation of license.—

(1) The department may forthwith deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue any license hereunder, if it shall find that:

(a) The licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee or any sum of money lawfully demanded under authority of any other section of this chapter, or to comply with any demand, ruling, or requirement of the department lawfully made pursuant to and within the authority of part XIV.

(b) The licensee has violated any provision of part XIV or any rule or regulation lawfully made by the department under and within the authority of part XIV.

(c) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, clearly would have warranted the department in refusing originally to issue such license.

(2) The department may revoke or suspend only the particular license with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension may occur or exist; or if it shall find that such grounds for revocation or suspension are of general application to all offices, or to more than one office, operated by such licensee, it shall revoke or suspend all of the licenses issued to such licensee or such number of licenses as such grounds apply to, as the case may be.

(3) Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the department written notice that he thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect such licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to such surrender.

(4) No revocation or suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any insured under any lawful premium finance agreement previously acquired or held by the licensee.

(5) Every license issued hereunder shall remain in force and effect until the same shall have been surrendered, revoked, suspended, or expires in accordance with the provisions of part XIV; but the department shall have authority to reinstate suspended licenses or to issue new licenses to a licensee whose license or licenses shall have been revoked, if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have warranted the department in refusing originally to issue such license under part XIV.

627.833 Administrative fine and probation in lieu of suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew license.—The department may in its discretion in lieu of a suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license, impose on the licensee an administrative penalty or place such licensee on probation pursuant to ss. 626.681 and 626.691 of this code.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-16; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Every licensee shall preserve such books, accounts, and records, including cards used in a card system, if any, for at least 3 years after making the final entry in respect to any premium finance agreement recorded therein; provided, however, the preservation of photographic reproductions thereof or records in photographic form shall constitute compliance with this requirement.

(2) Each licensee shall annually, on or before March 1, file a report with the department giving such information as the department may require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year of each licensed place of business conducted by the licensee within the state under the authority of part XIV. Such report shall be made under oath and in the form prescribed by the department and shall be accompanied by the annual report filing fee specified in s. 627.849. The department may make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports. At the expiration of 30 days from date of filing, a form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by written order of the department. The department may extend by not more than an additional 15 days the period within which it may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form by giving notice of such extension before the expiration of the initial 30-day period. 3. Under the law, you have the right to pay off in advance the full amount due and under certain conditions to obtain a partial refund of the service charge."

(3) A premium finance agreement shall:

(2) A premium finance company may, in a premium finance agreement, contract for, charge, receive, and collect a service charge for financing the premiums under the agreement computed as provided in subsection (3).

(3)(a) The service charge provided for in this section shall be computed on the balance of the premiums due, after subtracting the down payment made by the insured in accordance with the premium finance agreement, from the effective date of the insurance coverage for which the premiums are being advanced to and including the date when the final payment of the premium finance agreement is payable.

(b) The service charge shall be a maximum of $9 per $100 per annum plus an additional charge, which shall not exceed $15, which additional charge need not be refunded upon prepayment. Such additional charge may be charged only once in a 12-month period for any one customer unless that customer's policy has been canceled due to nonpayment within the immediately preceding 12-month period. However, any insured may prepay his premium finance agreement in full at any time before due date of the final payment, and in such event the unearned service charge shall be refunded in accordance with the "Rule of 78ths" and shall represent at least as great a proportion of the service charge, if any, as the sum of the periodic balances after the month in which prepayment is made bears to the sum of all periodic balances under the schedule of payments in the agreement. When the amount of the refund is less than $1, no refund need be made.

(c) Such service charge shall be inclusive of all charges incident to the premium finance agreement and for the extension of credit provided for therein.

(d) Paragraphs (a)-(c) apply if the premiums under only one insurance contract are advanced or to be advanced under a premium finance agreement; if premiums under more than one insurance contract are advanced or to be advanced under a premium finance agreement, the service charge shall be computed from the inception date of such insurance contracts, or from the due date of such premiums; however, not more than one minimum service charge shall apply to each premium finance agreement.

(e) No insurance agent or premium finance company shall induce an insured to become obligated under more than one premium finance agreement for the purpose of obtaining more than one minimum service charge.

(1) A premium finance agreement may provide for the payment by the insured of a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in default for a period of not less than 5 days in an amount of $1 to a maximum not to exceed 5 percent of such installment or $5, whichever is less, provided that only one such delinquency and collection charge may be collected on any such installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default; and if the default results in the cancellation of any insurance contract listed in the agreement, the agreement may provide for the payment by the insured of a cancellation charge equal to the difference between any delinquency and collection charge imposed in respect to the installment in default and $5.

(2) A premium finance agreement may, also, provide for the payment of attorney's fees not exceeding 20 percent of the amount due and payable under the agreement if it is referred for collection to an attorney not a salaried employee of the premium finance company holding the agreement.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a premium finance company shall not take, receive from, or charge an insured any cancellation charge or attorney's fees unless, within 10 days after default in the payment of any installment of a premium finance agreement, the premium finance company has mailed a notice of the default to the insured at his address as shown on the agreement and to any insurance agent named therein at his place of business as shown giving the insured at least 5 days within which to make the payment in default.

Such a statement shall be supplied once each year without charge; if any additional statement is requested, the premium finance company shall supply such statement at a charge not exceeding $1 for each additional statement so supplied. An insured shall be given a receipt for a payment when made in cash.

(2) After the payment of all sums for which an insured is obligated under a premium finance agreement, and upon his written demand, the premium finance company holding the agreement shall deliver, or mail to the insured at his last known address, such one or more good and sufficient instruments as may be necessary to acknowledge payment in full and to release all interest in or rights to the insurance contracts, the premiums for which were advanced or are to be advanced under the agreement.

The agreement for such extension or deferment must be in writing and signed by the parties thereto. The premium finance company may charge and contract for the payment of an extension or deferral charge by the insured and collect and receive the same; but such charge may not exceed an amount equal to 1 percent per month simple interest on the amount of the installment or installments, or part thereof, extended or deferred for the period of extension or deferral. (1) The provisions of s. 628.271 shall not be deemed to prohibit or prevent an insurer from:

(a) Establishing and maintaining branch offices or regional home offices in other states where necessary or convenient to the transaction of its business and keeping therein the detailed records and assets customary and reasonably necessary for the servicing of its insurance in force and affairs in the territory served by such an office, as long as such records and assets are made readily available at such office for examination by the department at its request.

(b) Having, depositing or transmitting funds and assets of the insurer in or to jurisdictions outside of this state as reasonably and customarily required in the regular course of its business.

(c) Establishing and maintaining its principal operations offices, its usual operations records, and such of its assets as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose, in another state in which the insurer is authorized to transact insurance in order that general administration of its affairs may be combined with that of an affiliated insurer or insurers, but subject to the following conditions:

1. That the department consents in writing to such removal of offices, records, and assets from Florida upon evidence satisfactory to it that the same will facilitate and make more economical the operations of the insurer, and will not unreasonably diminish the service or protection thereafter to be given the insurer's policyholders in this state and elsewhere;

2. That the insurer will continue to maintain in this state its principal corporate office or place of business, and maintain therein available to the inspection of the department complete records of its corporate proceedings and a copy of each financial statement of the insurer current within the preceding 5 years, including a copy of each interim financial statement prepared for the information of the insurer's officers or directors;

3. That upon the department's written request the insurer will with reasonable promptness produce at its principal corporate offices in this state for examination or for subpoena, its records or copies thereof relative to a particular transaction or transactions of the insurer as designated by the department in its request; and

4. That if at any time the department finds that the conditions justifying the maintenance of such offices, records, and assets outside of this state no longer exist, or that the insurer has willfully and knowingly violated any of the conditions stated in subparagraphs 2. and 3., the department may order the return of such offices, records, and assets to this state within such reasonable time, not less than 6 months, as may be specified in the order; and that for failure to comply with such order, as thereafter modified or extended, if any, the department shall suspend or revoke the insurer's certificate of authority.

(a) Contracts entered into where the prospective insured is personally present in the state in which the insurer is authorized to do business when he signs the application;

(b) Issuance of certificates under any lawfully transacted group life or group disability policy, where the master policy is entered into in a state in which the insurer is authorized to do business;

(d) The renewal, reinstatement, conversion, or continuance in force with or without modification of contracts otherwise lawfully entered into and which were not originally entered into in violation of this section.

(2) The term "reciprocal state" as used in this section means a state the laws of which prohibit an insurer organized under the laws of that state from insuring the lives or property of persons resident or located in Florida, unless such insurer is authorized pursuant to the laws of this state to do business in this state.

(3) The department shall annually mail to every domestic insurer notice specifying the several reciprocal states.

§628.301 Membership in mutuals.—

(1) Each policyholder of a domestic mutual insurer, other than of a reinsurance contract, is a member of the insurer with all rights and obligations of such membership, and the policy shall so specify.

(2) Any person, public or private corporation, board, association, firm, estate, trustee or fiduciary may be a member of a domestic mutual insurer. Any officer, stockholder, trustee or legal representative of any such corporation, board, association or estate may be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such membership, and shall not be personally liable upon any contract of insurance for acting in such representative capacity. A mutual insurer may issue policies of insurance covering property of this state, or of any county or municipality of this state, without contingent liability, when such policy contains a provision that the state or any such county or municipality insured under it may not participate in the profits of such insurer.

History.—s. 650, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§628.311 Contingent liability of mutual members.—

(1) Each member of a domestic mutual insurer shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided with respect to nonassessable policies, have a contingent liability, pro rata and not one for another, for the discharge of its obligations, which contingent liability shall be expressed in the policy and be in such maximum amount as is specified in the insurer's certificate of incorporation.

(2) Termination of the policy of any such member shall not relieve the member of contingent liability for his proportion, if any, of the obligations of the insurer which accrued while the policy was in force.

(3) Unrealized contingent liability of members does not constitute an asset of the insurer in any determination of its financial condition.

History.—s. 651, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§628.321 Levy of contingent liability.—

(1) If at any time the assets of a domestic mutual insurer are less than its liabilities and the minimum amount of surplus required to be maintained by it under this code for authority to transact the kinds of insurance being transacted, and the deficiency is not cured from other sources, its directors shall levy an assessment only upon its members who held policies providing for contingent liability at any time within the 12 months preceding the date notice of such assessment was mailed to them, and such members shall be liable to the insurer for the amount so assessed.

(2) The assessment shall be for such an amount as is required to cure such deficiency and to provide a reasonable amount of working funds above such minimum amount of surplus, but such working funds so provided shall not exceed 5 percent of the insurer's liabilities as of the date as of which the amount of such deficiency was determined.

(3) In levying an assessment on policies providing for contingent liability, the assessment shall be computed on a basis of premium earned on such policy.

(4) No member shall have an offset against any assessment for which he is liable, on account of any claim for unearned premium or loss payable.

(5) As to life insurance, any part of such an assessment upon a member which remains unpaid following notice of assessment, demand for payment, and lapse of a reasonable waiting period as specified in such notice, may, if approved by the department as being in the best interests of the insurer and its members, be secured by placing a lien upon the cash surrender values and accumulated dividends held by the insurer to the credit of such member.

History.—s. 652, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§628.331 Enforcement of contingent liability.—

(1) Any assessment made by an insurer under s. 628.321 is prima facie correct. The amount of such assessment to be paid by each member as determined by the insurer is likewise prima facie correct.

(2) The insurer shall notify each member of the amount of the assessment to be paid by written notice mailed to the address of the member last of record with the insurer. Failure of the member to receive the notice so mailed, within the time specified therein for the payment of the assessment or at all, shall be no defense in any action to collect the assessment.

(3) If a member fails to pay the assessment within the period specified in the notice, which period shall not be less than 20 days after mailing, the insurer may institute suit to collect the same.

History.—s. 653, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

'628.341 Nonassessable policies; mutual insurers.—

(1) While possessing surplus funds in amount not less than the paid-in capital stock required of a domestic stock insurer transacting like kinds of insurance, a domestic mutual insurer may, upon receipt of the department's order so authorizing, extinguish the contingent liability of its members as to all its policies in force and may omit provisions imposing contingent liability in all its policies currently issued so long as such surplus funds meet such requirement as to amount.

(2) A foreign or alien mutual insurer may issue nonassessable policies to its members in this state pursuant to its articles of incorporation and the laws of its domicile.

History.—s. 654, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

'628.351 Same; revocation of authority.—The department shall revoke the authority of a domestic mutual insurer to issue policies without contingent liability if at any time the insurer's assets are less than the sum of its liabilities and the surplus required for such authority, or if the insurer, by resolution of its board of directors approved by a majority of its members, requests that the authority be revoked. During the absence of such authority the insurer shall not issue any policy without providing therein for the contingent liability of the policyholder, nor renew any policy which is renewable at the option of the insurer without endorsing the same to provide for such contingent liability. Such renewal or endorsement shall bear conspicuously on its face the provision for contingent liability of the policyholder.

History.—s. 655, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

'628.361 Participating policies.—

(1) If provided in its certificate of incorporation, a domestic stock or domestic mutual insurer may issue any or all of its policies with or without participation in profits, savings, or unabsorbed portions of premiums, may classify policies issued on a participating and nonparticipating basis, and may determine the right to participate and the extent of participation of any class or classes of policies. Any such classification or determination shall be reasonable, and shall not unfairly discriminate as between policyholders within the same such classifications. A life insurer may issue both participating and nonparticipating policies only if the right or absence of right to participate is reasonably related to the premium charged.

(2) No dividend, otherwise earned, shall be made contingent upon the payment of renewal premium on any policy.

History.—s. 656, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

'628.371 Dividends to stockholders.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer shall not pay any cash dividend to stockholders except out of that part of its available and accumulated surplus funds which is derived from realized net operating profits on its business and realized capital gains. Such cash dividend payments to stockholders shall not exceed 10 percent of such surplus in any 1 year unless otherwise approved by the department. Nothing herein shall in any way limit, or be applicable to, cash dividend payments out of the insurer's net operating profits and realized capital gains derived during the immediately preceding calendar year.

(2) A stock dividend may be paid out of any available surplus funds in excess of the aggregate amount of surplus advanced to the insurer under s. 628.401.

(3) A dividend otherwise lawful may be payable out of the insurer's earned surplus even though its total surplus is then less than the aggregate of its past contributed surplus resulting from issuance of its capital stock at a price in excess of the par value thereof.

History.—s. 657, ch. 59-205; s. 1, ch. 70-68; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

'628.381 Dividends to mutual policyholders.—

(1) The directors of a domestic mutual insurer may from time to time apportion and pay or credit to its members dividends only out of that part of its surplus funds which represents net realized savings and net realized earnings in excess of the surplus required by law to be maintained.

(2) A dividend otherwise proper may be payable out of such savings and earnings even though the insurer's total surplus is then less than the aggregate of its contributed surplus.

History.—s. 658, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

'628.391 Illegal dividends; penalty.—

(1) Any director of a domestic stock or mutual insurer who knowingly votes for or concurs in declaration or payment of a dividend to stockholders or members other than as authorized under s. 628.371 or s. 628.381 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and shall be jointly and severally liable, together with other such directors likewise voting for or concurring, for any loss thereby sustained by creditors of the insurer to the extent of such dividend.

(2) Any stockholder receiving such an illegal dividend shall be liable in the amount thereof to the insurer.

(3) The department may revoke or suspend the certificate of authority of an insurer which has declared or paid such an illegal dividend.

History.—s. 659, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 653, ch. 71-136; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective

July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§628.401 Borrowed surplus.—

(1) A domestic stock or mutual insurer may borrow money to defray the expenses of its organization, provide it with surplus funds, or for any purpose of its business, upon a written agreement that such money is required to be repaid only out of the insurer's surplus in excess of that stipulated in such agreement. The agreement may provide for interest not exceeding 10 percent simple interest per annum. The interest shall or shall not constitute a liability of the insurer as to its funds other than such excess of surplus, as stipulated in the agreement. No commission or promotion expense shall be paid in connection with any such loan.

(2) Money so borrowed, together with the interest thereon if so stipulated in the agreement, shall not form a part of the insurer's legal liabilities except as to its surplus in excess of the amount thereof stipulated in the agreement, or be the basis of any setoff; but until repaid, financial statements filed or published by the insurer shall show as a footnote thereto the amount thereof then unpaid together with any interest thereon accrued but unpaid.

(3) Any such loan to a mutual insurer shall be subject to the department's approval. The insurer shall, in advance of the loan, file with the department a statement of the purpose of the loan and a copy of the proposed loan agreement. The department shall disapprove any proposed loan or agreement if it finds the loan is unnecessary or excessive for the purpose intended, or that the terms of the loan agreement are not fair and equitable to the parties, and to other similar lenders, if any, to the insurer, or that the information so filed by the insurer is inadequate.

(4) Any such loan to a mutual insurer or substantial portion thereof shall be repaid by the insurer when no longer reasonably necessary for the purpose originally intended. No repayment of such a loan shall be made by a mutual insurer unless in advance approved by the department.

(5) This section shall not apply to loans obtained by the insurer in ordinary course of business from banks and other financial institutions, nor to loans secured by pledge or mortgage of assets.

History.—s. 660, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-165; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-13; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

§628.411 Impairment of capital or assets.—

(1) If a domestic stock insurer's capital (as represented by the aggregate par value of its outstanding capital stock) becomes impaired, or the assets of a mutual insurer are less than its liabilities and the minimum amount of surplus required to be maintained by it under this code for authority to transact the kinds of insurance being transacted, the department shall at once determine the amount of deficiency and serve notice upon the insurer to make good the deficiency within 90 days after service of such notice.

(2) The deficiency may be made good in cash or in assets eligible under part II of chapter 625 (investments) for the investment of the insurer's funds; or by amendment of the insurer's certificate of authority to cover only such kind or kinds of insurance thereafter for which the insurer has sufficient paid-in capital (if a stock insurer) or surplus (if a mutual insurer) under this code; or, if a stock insurer, by reduction of the insurer's authorized capital stock through amendment of its certificate of incorporation, to an amount of paid-in capital stock not below the minimum required for the kinds of insurance thereafter to be transacted.

(3) After any such reduction of authorized capital stock the insurer shall have the right to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by each stockholder in exchange for new certificates to be issued in lieu thereof for such number of shares as the stockholder is entitled to in the proportion that the reduced capital bears to the original capital.

(4) If the deficiency is not made good and proof thereof filed with the department within such 90-day period, the insurer shall be deemed insolvent and the department shall institute delinquency proceedings against it under chapter 631 of this code; except that if such deficiency exists because of increased loss reserves required by the department, or because of disallowance by the department of certain assets or reduction of the value at which carried in the insurer's accounts, the department may, in its discretion and upon application and good cause shown, and if it finds that establishment or maintenance of such inadequate reserves or over-valued assets were not willful on the part of the insurer, extend for not more than an additional 60 days the period within which such deficiency may be so made good and such proof thereof so filed.

History.—s. 661, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§628.421 Assessment of stockholders or members.—

(1) Any insurer receiving the department's notice mentioned in s. 628.411(1):

(a) If a stock insurer, by resolution of its board of directors and subject to any limitations upon assessment contained in its certificate of incorporation, may assess its stockholders for amounts necessary to cure the deficiency and provide the insurer with a reasonable amount of surplus in addition. If any stockholder fails to pay a lawful assessment after notice given to him in person or by advertisement in such time and manner as approved by the department, the insurer may require the return of the original certificate of stock held by the stockholder, and in cancellation and in lieu thereof issue a new certificate for such number of shares as the stockholder may then be entitled to, upon the basis of the stockholder's proportionate interest in the amount of the insurer's capital stock as determined by the department to be remaining at the time of determination of amount of impairment under s. 628.411, after deducting from such proportionate interest the amount of such unpaid assessment. The insurer may pay for or issue fractional shares under this subsection.

(b) If a mutual insurer, shall levy such an assessment upon members as is provided for under s. 628.321.

(2) Neither this section nor s. 628.411 shall be deemed to prohibit the insurer from curing any such deficiency through any lawful means other than those referred to in such sections.

History.—s. 662, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

628.431 Mutualization of stock insurers.—

(1) A stock insurer other than a title insurer may become a mutual insurer under such plan and procedure as may be approved by the department.

(2) The department shall not approve any such plan, procedure or mutualization unless:

(a) It is equitable to stockholders and policyholders;

(b) It is subject to approval by the holders of not less than three-fourths of the insurer's outstanding capital stock having voting rights and by not less than two-thirds of the insurer's policyholders who vote on such plan in person, by proxy or by mail pursuant to such notice and procedure as may be approved by the department;

(c) If a life insurer, the right to vote thereon is limited to holders of policies other than term or group policies, and whose policies have been in force for more than 1 year;

(d) Mutualization will result in retirement of shares of the insurer's capital stock at a price not in excess of the fair market value thereof as determined by competent disinterested appraisers;

(e) The plan provides for the purchase of the shares of any nonconsenting stockholder in the same manner and subject to the same applicable conditions as provided by s. 607.247, as to rights of nonconsenting stockholders, with respect to consolidation or merger of private corporations;

(f) The plan provides for definite conditions to be fulfilled by a designated early date upon which such mutualization will be deemed effective; and

(g) The mutualization leaves the insurer with surplus funds reasonably adequate for the security of its policyholders and to enable it to continue successfully in business in the states in which it is then authorized to transact insurance, and for the kinds of insurance included in its certificates of authority in such states.

(3) This section shall not apply to mutualization under order of court pursuant to rehabilitation or reorganization of an insurer under chapter 631.

History.—s. 663, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95; s. 12, ch. 79-9.

628.441 Converting mutual insurer.—

(1) A mutual insurer may become a stock insurer under such plan and procedure as may be approved by the department.

(2) The department shall not approve any such plan or procedure unless:

(a) It is equitable to the insurer's members;

(b) It is subject to approval by vote of not less than three-fourths of the insurer's current members voting thereon in person, by proxy or by mail at a meeting of members called for the purpose pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as may be approved by the department; if a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members who hold policies other than term or group policies, and whose policies have been in force for not less than 1 year;

(c) The corporate equity of each policyholder in the insurer (other than as to unearned premiums, nonforfeiture rights, and benefit claims under his policy) is determinable under a fair formula approved by the department, which such equity shall be based upon not less than the insurer's entire surplus (after deducting contributed or borrowed surplus funds) plus a reasonable present equity in its reserves and in all nonadmitted assets;

(d) The policyholders entitled to participate in the purchase of stock or distribution of assets shall include all current policyholders and all existing persons who had been a policyholder of the insurer within 3 years prior to the date such plan was submitted to the department;

(e) The plan gives to each policyholder of the insurer as specified in paragraph (d) a preemptive right to acquire his proportionate part of all of the proposed capital stock of the insurer, within a designated reasonable period, and to apply upon the purchase thereof the amount of his equity in the insurer as determined under paragraph (c);

(f) Shares are so offered to policyholders at a price not greater than to be thereafter offered to others;

(g) The plan provides for payment to each policyholder not electing to apply his equity in the insurer for or upon the purchase price of stock to which preemptively entitled, of cash in the amount of not less than 50 percent of the amount of his equity not so used for the purchase of stock, and which cash payment together with stock so purchased, if any, shall constitute full payment and discharge of the policyholder's corporate equity in such mutual insurer; and

(h) The plan, when completed, would provide for the converted insurer paid-in capital stock in an amount not less than the minimum paid-in capital required of a domestic stock insurer transacting like kinds of insurance, together with surplus funds in amounts not less than one-half of such required capital.

History.—s. 664, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

628.451 Mergers and consolidations of stock insurers.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer may merge or consolidate with one or more domestic or foreign stock insurers authorized to transact insurance in this state, by complying with the applicable provisions of the statutes of this state governing the merger or consolidation of stock corporations formed for profit, but subject to the special provisions of this section:

(a) Mergers or consolidations may be initially proposed at any meeting of the board of directors of a domestic stock insurer by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total number of directors of the corporation, or at any meeting of the stockholders of the corporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote, provided the notice of such meeting shall set forth such proposal.

(b) The plan of merger or consolidation, proposed as required by paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall be submitted to a duly called meeting of the stockholders of record of each domestic stock insurer, and may become effective only if adopted at such meeting by the affirmative vote of 75 percent of the total number of shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote. The notice of such meeting shall set forth in full the proposed plan of merger or consolidation.

(2) No such merger or consolidation shall be effectuated unless in advance thereof the plan and agreement therefor have been filed with the department and approved by it. The department shall give such approval unless it finds such plan or agreement:

- (a) Is contrary to law;
- (b) Is inequitable to the stockholders of any insurer involved; or
- (c) Would substantially reduce the security of and service to be rendered to policyholders of the domestic insurer in this state or elsewhere.

(3) No director, officer, agent or employee of any insurer party to such merger or consolidation shall receive any fee, commission, compensation or other valuable consideration whatsoever for in any manner aiding, promoting or assisting therein except as set forth in such plan or agreement.

(4) Any plan or proposal through which a stock insurer proposes to acquire a controlling stock interest in another stock insurer through an exchange of stock of the first insurer, issued by the insurer for the purpose, for such controlling stock of the second insurer is deemed to be a plan or proposal of merger of the second insurer into the first insurer for the purposes of this section and is subject to the applicable provisions hereof.

1628.461 Acquisition of controlling stock.—

(1) No person shall make a tender offer or exchange offer for 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of a domestic stock insurance company or of a controlling company, enter into any agreement to exchange securities for 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of a domestic stock insurance company or of a controlling company, or otherwise seek to acquire 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of a domestic stock insurance company or of a controlling company, unless:

(a) Such person has filed with the department and sent to such insurer and controlling company a statement as specified in subsection (3) at least 60 days prior to the time any form of tender offer or exchange offer is to be furnished to securityholders, or at least 60 days prior to the proposed date of the acquisition of such securities if no such tender offer or exchange offer is involved; and

(b) The department has approved the proposed offer or acquisition prior to the time any form of tender offer or exchange offer is made to securityholders, or prior to the acquisition of such securities if no such tender offer or exchange offer is involved, and such approval is in effect.

(2) This section shall not apply to any acquisition of voting securities of a domestic stock insurer or of a controlling company by any person who, on July 1, 1976, is the owner of a majority of such voting securities or who, on or after July 1, 1976, becomes the owner of a majority of such voting securities with the approval of the department pursuant to this section. It shall apply, however, whenever any domestic stock insurance company or controlling company shall make a tender offer, exchange offer, enter into an agreement to exchange securities for 5 percent or more of the voting stock, or otherwise seek to acquire 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of any stock insurance company or controlling company.

(3) The statement to be filed with the department and furnished to the insurer and controlling company shall contain the following information and any such additional information as the department may deem necessary to determine the character, experience, ability, and other qualifications of such person for the protection of the policyholders and shareholders of such insurer and the public:

(a) The identity of, and the background information specified in subsection (4) on, each natural person by whom, or on whose behalf, the acquisition is to be made, and if the acquisition is to be made by, or on behalf of, a corporation, association, or trust, the identity of, and the background information specified in subsection (4) on, each director, officer, trustee, or other natural person performing duties similar to that of a director, officer, or trustee for the corporation, association, or trust;

(b) The source and amount of the funds or other consideration used, or to be used, in making the acquisition;

(c) Any plans or proposals which such persons may have made to liquidate such insurer, to sell its assets or merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management; and any plans or proposals which such persons may have made to liquidate any controlling company of such insurer, to sell its assets or merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management;

(d) The number of shares of such security which such person proposes to acquire and the terms of the offer or exchange, as the case may be; and

(4)(a) The information as to the background and identity of each person, which information is required to be furnished pursuant to paragraph (3)(a), shall include:

1. Such person's occupations, positions of employment, and offices held during the past 10 years.

2. The principal business and address of any business, corporation, or other organization in which each such office was held, or in which such occupation or position of employment was carried on.

3. Whether such person was, at any time during such 10-year period, convicted of any crime other than a traffic violation.

4. Whether such person has been, during such 10-year period, the subject of any proceeding for the revocation of any license and, if so, the nature of such proceeding and the disposition thereof.

5. Whether, during such 10-year period, such person has been the subject of any proceeding under the Federal Bankruptcy Act or whether, during such 10-year period, any corporation, partnership, firm, trust, or association in which such person was a director, officer, trustee, partner, or other official has been subject to any such proceeding, either during the time in which such person was a director, officer, trustee, partner, or other official, or within 12 months thereafter.

6. Whether, during such 10-year period, such person has been enjoined, either temporarily or permanently, by a court of competent jurisdiction from violating any federal or state law regulating the business of insurance, securities, or banking, or from carrying out any particular practice or practices in the course of the business of insurance, securities, or banking, together with details as to any such event.

(b) Any corporation, association, or trust filing the statement required by this section shall give all required information as is within the knowledge of its directors, trustees, officers, or others performing functions similar to that of a director, officer, or trustee. A copy of the statement and any amendments thereto shall be sent by registered mail to the insurer at its principal office within the state and to any controlling company at its principal office. If any material change occurs in the facts set forth in the statement filed with the department and sent to such insurer or controlling company pursuant to this section, an amendment setting forth such changes shall be filed immediately with the department and sent immediately to such insurer and controlling company.

(5) The acquisition of voting securities shall be deemed approved unless the department, within 60 days after the statement required by subsection (1) has been filed, calls a public hearing to consider the matter. The department shall call and hold such public hearing if requested in writing to do so by the insurer or controlling company within such 60-day period and, if not so requested, may call and hold such public hearing in its discretion. If the domestic stock insurer and controlling company file an instrument in writing with the department waiving their right to request a public hearing, the department may, in its discretion, by order shorten the 60-day period and approve the acquisition.

(6) The person or persons filing the statement required by subsection (1) shall have the burden of proof. The department shall approve any such acquisition if it finds, on the basis of the filed statement if there is no public hearing, or on the basis of the record made at a public hearing, that:

(a) Upon completion of the acquisition, the domestic stock insurer would be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license to write the line or lines of insurance for which it is presently licensed;

(b) The financial condition of the acquiring person will not jeopardize the financial stability of the insurer or prejudice the interests of its policyholders and will not prejudice the interests of any remaining shareholders who are unaffiliated with the acquiring person;

(c) Any plans or proposals which the acquiring person has made to liquidate the insurer, to sell its assets or to merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management; or to liquidate any controlling company, to sell its assets or to merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any major change in its business or corporate structure or management which would have an effect upon the insurer, are fair and free of prejudice to the policyholders and shareholders of the domestic stock insurer;

(d) The competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the domestic stock insurer indicate that the acquisition is in the best interest of the policyholders and shareholders of such insurer, and in the public interest; and

(e) The natural persons whose backgrounds are required to be furnished pursuant to this section have such backgrounds as to indicate that it is in the best interests of the policyholders and shareholders of the domestic stock insurer, and in the public interest, to permit such persons to exercise control over such domestic stock insurer.

(7) No vote by the stockholder of record, or by any other person, of any security acquired in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be valid. Any acquisition of any security contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void. The Circuit Court for the county in which the principal office of such domestic stock insurer is located may, without limiting the generality of its authority, upon the petition of the domestic stock insurer or controlling company, order the issuance or entry of an injunction or other order to enforce the provisions of this section. There shall be a private right of action in favor of the domestic stock insurer or controlling company to enforce the provisions of this section. No demand upon the department to perform its functions shall be a prerequisite to any suit by the domestic stock insurer or controlling company against any other person, and in no case shall the department be deemed to be a necessary party to any action by such domestic stock insurer or controlling company to enforce the provisions of this section. Any person who makes or proposes any acquisition requiring the filing of a statement pursuant to this section, or who files such a statement, shall be deemed to have thereby designated the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer or his assistant or deputy or another person in charge of his office as such person's agent for service of process under this section, and shall thereby be deemed to have submitted himself to the administrative jurisdiction of the department and the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court.

(8) No approval of the department under this section shall constitute a recommendation by the department of any acquisition, tender offer, or exchange offer. It shall be unlawful for any person to represent that any such approval constitutes any such recommendation. Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. The statute of limitations for prosecution of offenses committed under this subsection shall be 5 years.

(9) The department is authorized to adopt, amend, or repeal rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this section, pursuant to chapter 120.

(10) For the purposes of this section, the term "controlling company" means any corporation, trust, or association owning 25 percent or more of the voting securities of one or more domestic stock insurance companies.

§628.471 Mergers and consolidations, mutual insurers.—

(1) A domestic mutual insurer shall not merge or consolidate with a stock insurer.

(2) A domestic mutual insurer may merge or consolidate with another mutual insurer under the applicable procedures prescribed by the statutes of this state applying to corporations formed for profit, except as hereinbelow provided.

(3) The plan and agreement for merger or consolidation shall be submitted to and approved by at least two-thirds of the members of each mutual insurer voting thereon at meetings called for the purpose pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as has been approved by the department. If a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members whose policies are other than term and group policies, and have been in effect for more than 1 year.

(4) No such merger or consolidation shall be effectuated unless in advance thereof the plan and agreement therefor have been filed with the department and approved by it. The department shall give such approval unless it finds such plan or agreement:

(a) Is inequitable to the policyholders of any domestic insurer involved; or

(b) Would substantially reduce the security of and service to be rendered to policyholders of the domestic insurer in this state and elsewhere.

History.—s. 667, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

§628.481 Bulk reinsurance; stock insurers.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer may reinsure all or substantially all of its insurance in force or a major class thereof, with another insurer by an agreement of bulk reinsurance; but no such agreement shall become effective unless filed with the department and approved by it in writing.

(2) The department shall approve such agreement unless it finds that it is inequitable to the stockholders of the domestic insurer or it would substantially reduce the protection or service to its policyholders.

History.—s. 668, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

§628.491 Same; mutual insurers.—

(1) A domestic mutual insurer may reinsure all or substantially all its business in force, or all or substantially all of a major class thereof, with another insurer, stock or mutual, by an agreement of bulk reinsurance after compliance with this section. No such agreement shall become effective unless filed with the department and approved by it.

(2) The department shall approve such agreement if it finds it to be fair and equitable to each domestic insurer involved, and that such reinsurance if effectuated would not substantially reduce the protection or service to its policyholders.

(3) The plan and agreement for such reinsurance must be approved by vote of not less than two-thirds of each domestic mutual insurer's members voting thereon at meetings of members called for the purpose, pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as the department may approve. If a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members whose policies are other than term or group policies, and have been in effect for more than 1 year.

(4) If for reinsurance of a mutual insurer in a stock insurer, the agreement must provide for payment in cash to each member of the insurer entitled thereto, as upon conversion of such insurer pursuant to s. 628.441, of his equity in the business reinsured as determined under a fair formula approved by the department, which equity shall be based upon such member's equity in the reserves, assets (whether or not admitted assets), and surplus, if any, of the mutual insurer to be taken over by the stock insurer.

History.—s. 669, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

§628.501 Mutual member's share of assets on liquidation.—

(1) Upon any liquidation of a domestic mutual insurer, its assets remaining after discharge of its indebtedness, policy obligations, repayment of contributed or borrowed surplus, if any, and expenses of administration, shall be distributed to existing persons who were its members at any time within 5 years next preceding the date such liquidation was authorized or ordered, or date of last termination of the insurer's certificate of authority, whichever date is the earlier; except, that if the department has reason to believe that those in charge of the management of the insurer have caused or encouraged the reduction of the number of members of the insurer in anticipation of liquidation and for the purpose of reducing thereby the number of persons who may be entitled to share in distribution of the insurer's assets, it may enlarge the 5 years' qualification period above provided for by such additional period as it may deem to be reasonable.

(2) The distributive share of each such member shall be in the proportion that the aggregate premiums earned by the insurer on the policies of the member during the combined periods of his membership bear to the aggregate of all premiums so earned on the policies of all such members. The insurer may, and if a life insurer shall, make a reasonable classification of its policies so held by such members, and a formula based upon such classification, for determining the equitable distributive share of each such member. Such classification and formula shall be subject to the approval of the department.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

No such withdrawal or repayment shall be made without the advance approval of the department. This section does not apply as to bank loans or to loans made upon security.

Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this state shall, in addition to the rights, powers, and franchises specified in its articles of incorporation, have full power and authority as a subscriber to exchange insurance contracts through such reciprocal insurer. The right to exchange such contracts is hereby declared to be incidental to the purposes for which such corporations are organized and to be as fully granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred upon such corporations. Any officer, representative, trustee, receiver, or legal representative of any such subscriber shall be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such contract but shall not be personally liable upon such contract by reason of acting in such representative capacity.

629.211 Subscribers' liability.—

(1) The liability of each subscriber, other than as to a nonassessable policy, for the obligations of the reciprocal insurer shall be an individual, several and proportionate liability, and not joint.

(2) Except as to a nonassessable policy, each subscriber shall have a contingent assessment liability, in the amount provided for in the power of attorney or in the subscribers' agreement, for payment of actual losses and expenses incurred while his policy was in force. Such contingent liability may be at the rate of not less than one nor more than ten times the premium or premium deposit stated in the policy, and the maximum aggregate thereof shall be computed in the manner set forth in s. 629.251.

629.231 Assessments.—

(1) Assessments may from time to time be levied upon subscribers of a domestic reciprocal insurer liable therefor under the terms of their policies by the attorney upon approval in advance by the subscribers' advisory committee and the department; or by the department in liquidation of the insurer.

(2) Each subscriber's share of a deficiency for which an assessment is made, but not exceeding in any event his aggregate contingent liability as computed in accordance with s. 629.251, shall be computed by applying to the premium earned on the subscriber's policy or policies during the period to be covered by the assessment, the ratio of the total deficiency to the total premiums earned during such period upon all policies subject to the assessment.

(3) In computing the earned premiums for the purposes of this section, the gross premium received by the insurer for the policy shall be used as a base, deducting therefrom solely charges not recurring upon the renewal or extension of the policy.

(4) No subscriber shall have an offset against any assessment for which he is liable, on account of any claim for unearned premium or losses payable.

History.—s. 693, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

629.241 Time limit for assessments.—Every subscriber of a domestic reciprocal insurer having contingent liability shall be liable for, and shall pay his share of any assessment, as computed and limited in accordance with this chapter, if:

(1) While his policy is in force or within 1 year after its termination, he is notified by either the attorney or the department of its intentions to levy such assessment, or

(2) If an order to show cause why a receiver, conservator, rehabilitator or liquidator of the insurer should not be appointed is issued while his policy is in force or within 1 year after its termination.

History.—s. 694, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

629.251 Aggregate liability.—No one policy or subscriber as to such policy shall be assessed or charged with an aggregate of contingent liability as to obligations incurred by a domestic reciprocal insurer in any 1 calendar year in excess of the amount provided for in the power of attorney or in the subscribers' agreement, computed solely upon premium earned on such policy during that year.

(1) If a reciprocal insurer has a surplus of assets over all liabilities at least equal to the minimum paid-in capital stock required of a domestic stock insurer authorized to transact like kinds of insurance, upon application of the attorney and as approved by the subscribers' advisory committee the department shall issue its certificate authorizing the insurer to extinguish the contingent liability of subscribers under its policies then in force in this state, and to omit provisions imposing contingent liability in all policies delivered or issued for delivery in this state for so long as all such surplus remains unimpaired.

(2) Upon impairment of such surplus, the department shall forthwith revoke the certificate. Such revocation shall not render subject to contingent liability any policy then in force and for the remainder of the period for which the premium has theretofore been paid; but after such revocation no policy shall be issued or renewed without providing for contingent assessment liability of the subscriber.

(3) The department shall not authorize a domestic reciprocal insurer so to extinguish the contingent liability of any of its subscribers or in any of its policies to be issued, unless it qualifies to and does extinguish such liability of all its subscribers and in all such policies for all kinds of insurance transacted by it. Except, that if required by the laws of another state in which the insurer is transacting insurance as an authorized insurer, the insurer may issue policies providing for the contingent liability of such of its subscribers as may acquire such policies in such state, and need not extinguish the contingent liability applicable to policies theretofore in force in such state.

History.—s. 696, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§629.271 Distribution of savings.—A reciprocal insurer may from time to time return to its subscribers any unused premiums, savings or credits accruing to their accounts. Any such distribution shall not unfairly discriminate between classes of risks, or policies, or between subscribers, but such distribution may vary as to classes of subscribers based upon the experience of such classes.

History.—s. 697, ch. 59-205; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§629.281 Subscribers' share in assets.—Upon the liquidation of a domestic reciprocal insurer, its assets remaining after discharge of its indebtedness and policy obligations, the return of any contributions of the attorney or other persons to its surplus made as provided in s. 629.161, and the return of any unused premium, savings, or credits then standing on subscribers' accounts, shall be distributed to its subscribers who were such within the 12 months prior to the last termination of its certificate of authority, according to such reasonable formula as the department may approve.

History.—s. 698, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§629.291 Merger or conversion.—

(1) A domestic reciprocal insurer, upon affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of its subscribers who vote on such merger pursuant to due notice and the approval of the department of the terms therefor, may merge with another reciprocal insurer or be converted to a stock or mutual insurer.

(2) Such a stock or mutual insurer shall be subject to the same capital or surplus requirements and shall have the same rights as a like domestic insurer transacting like kinds of insurance.

(3) The department shall not approve any plan for such merger or conversion which is inequitable to subscribers, or which, if for conversion to a stock insurer, does not give each subscriber preferential right to acquire stock of the proposed insurer proportionate to his interest in the reciprocal insurer as determined in accordance with s. 629.281, and a reasonable length of time within which to exercise such right.

(4) Reinsurance of all or substantially all of the insurance in force of a domestic reciprocal insurer in another insurer shall be deemed to be a merger for the purposes of this section.

History.—s. 699, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§629.301 Impaired reciprocals.—

(1) If the assets of a domestic reciprocal insurer are at any time insufficient to discharge its liabilities, other than any liability on account of funds contributed by the attorney or others, and to maintain the required surplus, its attorney shall forthwith make up the deficiency or levy an assessment upon the subscribers for the amount needed to make up the deficiency; but subject to the limitation set forth in the power of attorney or policy.

(2) If the attorney fails to make up such deficiency or to make the assessment within 30 days after the department orders him to do so, or if the deficiency is not fully made up within 60 days after the date the assessment was made, the insurer shall be deemed insolvent and shall be proceeded against as authorized by this code.

(3) If liquidation of such an insurer is ordered, an assessment shall be levied upon the subscribers for such an amount, subject to limits as provided by this chapter, as the department determines to be necessary to discharge all liabilities of the insurer, exclusive of any funds contributed by the attorney or other persons, but including the reasonable cost of the liquidation.

History.—s. 700, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective

July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1629.401 Florida Insurance Exchange.—

(1) There shall be created a Florida Insurance Exchange, subject to such rules as may be promulgated by the commissioner. The purposes of the exchange are:

- (a) To provide a facility for the underwriting of:
  1. Reinsurance of all kinds of insurance.
  2. Direct insurance of all kinds on risks located entirely outside the United States.
  3. Risks which shall be certified according to s. 626.920(1)(b) as being eligible for export according to s. 626.916(1)(a).

(b) To manage the facility authorized by this section, in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(2) The operation of this subsection shall become effective only after a determination by the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer that the exchange created by this section may operate in an economic and beneficial manner. A committee shall be appointed to write the constitution and bylaws of the Florida Insurance Exchange, to make such other recommendations as may be necessary to assure maximum coordination of the operations of the exchange with existing insurance industry operations, and to assure maximum economic benefits to the state from the operations of the exchange. The committee shall consist of 13 members, 6 to be appointed by the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer, 2 each to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate, 1 each to be appointed by the minority leader of the House of Representatives and the minority leader of the Senate, and 1 to be the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer or his designated representative. The chairman shall be elected by a majority of the committee. The committee shall transmit such proposed constitution and bylaws and such other recommendations to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer no later than 30 days prior to the commencement of a regular annual legislative session, and the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall submit his recommendations to the Legislature no later than the first day of the regular annual legislative session. Subject to the disapproval of the constitution and bylaws by either house of the Legislature by resolution before the end of the regular annual legislative session, the exchange shall have full authority to function pursuant to its constitution and bylaws 60 days after the end of the session. The initial board of governors of the exchange shall consist of seven members, three appointed by the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer, two by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and two by the President of the Senate, to serve until the first election pursuant to the constitution or bylaws.

(3) The constitution and bylaws of the exchange shall provide for, but not be limited to:

(a) The election of no less than 6 nor more than 13 governors, at least one-third of whom shall not be members of the exchange and who shall be public representatives.

(b) The location of the principal offices of the exchange and the principal offices of its members to be within this state for the purpose of the transaction of the type of business described in subsection (1). A principal office shall be one where officers and qualified personnel who are engaged in the administration, underwriting, claims, policyholders' service, marketing, accounting, recordkeeping, and all supportive services shall be located.

(c) The submission by members and all applicants for membership on the exchange of such financial information as may be required by the commissioner.

(d) The establishment by the exchange of a security fund in such form and amount as approved by the commissioner.

(e) The voting power of members who are underwriting syndicates.

(f) The voting power and other rights granted under the provisions of the not-for-profit corporation law, chapter 617, to participate in the conduct and management of the affairs of the exchange, by brokers, agents, and intermediaries transacting business on the exchange, each of whom shall be considered "members" only under the provisions of such law.

(g) The rights and duties of exchange members, which may include, but shall not be limited to, the manner and form of conducting business, financial stability, dues, membership fees, mandatory arbitration, and all other matters necessary or appropriate to conduct any business permitted herein.

Any amendments to the constitution and bylaws shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner.

(4) The Florida Insurance Exchange formed under the provisions of this section shall not be subject to any state or local taxes or fees measured by income, premiums, or gross receipts, except that for purposes of taxation under s. 624.509 direct premiums written, procured, or received by a member or members through the exchange on risks located in Florida shall be construed to be written, procured, or received by the exchange, and the premium tax due on said premium shall be reported and paid by the exchange.

(5) The exchange shall reimburse the commissioner for any expenses incurred by him relating to the regulation of the exchange and its members.

(6) The insurance law and rules promulgated thereunder shall apply to the exchange, its members, and the insurance or reinsurance written through the exchange, except as may be exempted by the commissioner pursuant to rule. However, no such exemption shall be unfairly discriminatory or detrimental to the solvency of licensed insurers; no such exemption shall have the effect of allowing the exchange to participate in a practice contrary to the public welfare; no such exemption or application of the insurance law shall inhibit the viability, effectiveness or efficiency of the exchange; and no such exemption shall operate contrary to the purposes of the exchange set out in subsection (1). The commissioner may establish limitations on investments in members of the exchange. The investment in any member by brokers, agents, and intermediaries transacting business on the exchange, and the investment in any such broker, agent, or intermediary by any member, directly or indirectly, all as defined by rule, shall in each case be limited in the aggregate to less than 20 percent, or such lesser amount as determined by the commissioner, of the total investment in such member, broker, agent, or intermediary, as the case may be.

(7) The performance of the contractual obligations of the exchange or its members entered into pursuant to subsection (1) shall not be covered by any of the Florida state security or guaranty funds.

History.—ss. 3, 4, ch. 79-394.

Note.—Section 4, chapter 79-394, provides that, if chapter 629 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by chapter 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that chapter 79-394 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

History.—s. 701, ch. 59-205.

630.021 Required deposit of assets.—

(1) An alien insurer may use Florida as a state of entry to transact insurance in the United States by making and maintaining in this state a deposit of assets in trust with a solvent bank or trust company approved by the department.

(2) The deposit, together with other trust deposits of the insurer held in the United States for the same purpose, shall be in amount not less than the deposits required of an alien insurer under s. 624.412 and shall consist of cash or securities eligible for the investment of the funds of domestic insurers under part II of chapter 625.

(3) Such a deposit may be referred to as "trustee assets."

(4) All trustee assets shall be continuously kept within the United States.

History.—s. 702, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

630.031 Existing trusts.—All trusts of trustee assets heretofore created and now existing shall be continued under the instruments creating them, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. No amendment of the deed of trust under which such assets are so held shall be effective unless approved by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 703, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

630.041 Purpose and duration.—The deposit required by s. 630.021 shall be for the benefit, security and protection of the policyholders, or policyholders and creditors, of the insurer in the United States. It shall be maintained as long as there is outstanding any liability of the insurer arising out of its insurance transactions in the United States.

History.—s. 704, ch. 59-205.

630.051 Trust agreement; approval; amendment.—

(1) The deposit referred to in s. 630.021 shall be made under a written trust agreement between the insurer and the trustee, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and the agreement and any amendments thereto shall be authenticated in such form and manner as the department may designate or approve.

(2) The agreement shall not be effective until filed with and approved in writing by the department. If the department finds that the trust agreement is sufficient in form and in conformity with law, that the trustee or trustees are eligible as such, and that the trust agreement is adequate to protect the interests of the beneficiaries of the trust, it shall give its written approval thereof. If the department finds that any of the above-mentioned requisites do not exist, it shall refuse to approve the trust agreement.

(3) If after a trust agreement has become effective the department finds that the requisites for approval of the agreement no longer exist, it may withdraw its approval.

(4) A trust agreement may be amended, but no amendment shall be effective unless the agreement as so amended is found by the department to be consistent with the provisions of this chapter and the amendment is approved by it.

History.—s. 705, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

630.061 Authority to execute trust agreement.—An alien insurer proposing to use Florida as a state of entry to transact business of insurance in the United States, whether or not it is then authorized to transact insurance in this state, is authorized to make and execute any trust agreement required by this chapter.

History.—s. 706, ch. 59-205.

630.071 Requirements and contents of trust agreement.—Trustee assets of an alien insurer held in this state under this chapter shall be subject to, and the trust agreement shall make provisions consistent with, the following conditions:

(1) Legal title to the trustee assets is vested in the trustee or trustees, and their successors lawfully appointed, in trust for the purposes and duration as stated in s. 630.041.

(2) Substitution of a new trustee or trustees in case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise may be made, subject to the department's approval.

(3) All trustee assets shall at all times be maintained as a trust fund separate and distinct from all other assets.

(4) The trustee or trustees shall maintain a record at all times sufficient to identify the assets of the trust.

(5) Withdrawal of or from the trustee assets shall be made only as provided in s. 630.081.

History.—s. 707, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

630.081 Withdrawal of assets, in general.—

(1) The trust agreement shall provide, in substance, that no withdrawals of trustee assets shall be made by the insurer or permitted by the trustee or trustees without the written authorization or approval of the department in advance thereof, except as follows:

(a) Any or all income, earnings, dividends or interest accumulations of the trustee assets may be paid over to the United States manager of the insurer upon request of the insurer or the manager.

(b) For substitution, coincidentally with such withdrawal, of other securities or assets of value at least equal in amount to those being withdrawn, if such substituted securities or assets are likewise such as are eligible for investment of the funds of domestic insurers under part II of chapter 625; and if such withdrawal is requested in writing by the insurer's United States manager pursuant to general or specific written authority previously given or delegated by the insurer's board of directors or other similar governing body, and a copy of such authority has been filed with the trustee or trustees.

(c) For the purpose of making deposits required by law in any state in which the insurer is or thereafter becomes an authorized insurer, for the protection of the insurer's policyholders or policyholders and creditors in such state or in the United States, if such withdrawal does not reduce the insurer's deposit in this state to an amount less than the minimum deposit required under s. 624.412(1)(a) and (b) of this code. The trustee or trustees shall transfer any assets so withdrawn and in the amount so required to be deposited in the other state direct to the depository required to receive such deposit in such other state, as certified in writing by the public official having supervision of insurance in the other state.

(d) For the purpose of transferring the trustee assets to an official liquidator, conservator or rehabilitator pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The department shall so authorize or approve withdrawal of only such assets as are in excess of the amount of assets required to be so held in trust under s. 630.021, or as may otherwise be consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) In the case of withdrawal of trustee assets deposited in another state in which the insurer is authorized to do business, it shall be sufficient if the trust agreement requires similar written approval of the insurance supervisory official of such state in lieu of any required approval of the department. In

631.001 Title, construction, and purpose.—

(1) Part I of chapter 631 may be cited as the "Insurers Rehabilitation and Liquidation Act."

(2) This part shall not be interpreted to limit the powers granted the Department of Insurance by other provisions of the law.

(3) This part shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose stated in subsection (4).

(4) The purpose of this part is the protection of the interests of insureds, creditors, and the public generally, through:

(a) Early detection of any potentially dangerous condition in an insurer and prompt application of appropriate corrective measures which are neither unduly harsh nor subject to unwarranted publicity needlessly damaging to the insurer;

(b) Enhanced efficiency and economy of liquidation through clarification and specification of the law to minimize legal uncertainty and litigation;

(c) Equitable apportionment of any unavoidable loss;

(d) Lessening the problems of interstate rehabilitation and liquidation by facilitating cooperation between states in the liquidation process and by extension of the scope of personal jurisdiction over debtors of the insurer outside this state.

*History.—*s. 1, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

631.011 Definitions.—For the purpose of this part:

(1) "Assets" as used in subsections (3)-(5) means only allowed assets as defined in chapter 625.

(2) "Liabilities" as used in subsections (3)-(5) means all liabilities, including those specifically required in s. 625.041.

(3) "Impairment of surplus" means that the surplus of a stock insurer, the additional surplus of a mutual or reciprocal insurer, or the additional net trust fund of a business trust insurer does not comply with the requirements of s. 624.408(3).

(4) "Impairment of capital" means that the minimum surplus required to be maintained in s. 624.408(3) has been dissipated and the insurer is not possessed of assets at least equal to all its liabilities together with its total issued and outstanding capital stock, if a stock insurer, or the minimum surplus or net trust fund required by s. 624.407, if a mutual, reciprocal, or business trust insurer.

(5) "Insolvency" means that all the assets of the insurer, if made immediately available, would not be sufficient to discharge all its liabilities; or that the insurer is unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business. When the context of any provision of this code so indicates, insolvency shall also include and be defined as "impairment of surplus" as defined in subsection (3) and "impairment of capital" as defined in subsection (4).

(6) "Insurer," in addition to persons so defined under s. 624.03, includes also persons purporting to be insurers or organizing, or holding themselves out as organizing, in this state for the purpose of becoming insurers and all insurers who have insureds resident in this state.

(7) "Delinquency proceedings" means any proceeding commenced against an insurer pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing, or conserving such insurer, and any summary proceeding authorized by ss. 631.351-631.371.

(8) "State" is as defined in s. 624.08.

(9) "Foreign country" means territory not in any state.

(10) "Domiciliary state" means the state in which an insurer is incorporated or organized or, in the case of an insurer incorporated or organized in a foreign country, the state in which such insurer, having become authorized to do business in such state, has, at the commencement of delinquency proceedings, the largest amount of its assets held in trust and assets held on deposit for the benefit of its policyholders or policyholders and creditors in the United States, and any such insurer is deemed to be domiciled in such state.

(11) "Ancillary state" means any state other than a domiciliary state.

(12) "Reciprocal state" means any state other than this state in which in substance and effect the provisions of the Uniform Insurers Liquidation Act, as defined in s. 631.211, are in force, including the provisions requiring that the commissioner of insurance or equivalent insurance supervisory official be the receiver of a delinquent insurer.

(13) "General assets" means all property, real, personal, or otherwise, not specifically mortgaged, pledged, deposited, or otherwise encumbered for the security or benefit of specified persons or a limited class or classes of persons, and as to such specifically encumbered property the term includes all such property or its proceeds in excess of the amount necessary to discharge the sum or sums secured thereby. Assets held in trust and assets held on deposit for the security or benefit of all policyholders or all policyholders and creditors in the United States shall be deemed general assets.

(14) "Preferred claim" means any claim with respect to which the law of the state or of the United States accords priority of payment from the general assets of the insurer.

(15) "Special deposit claim" means any claim secured by a deposit made pursuant to statute for the security or benefit of a limited class or classes of persons, but not including any general assets.

(16) "Secured claim" means any claim secured by mortgage, trust deed, pledge, deposit as security, escrow, or otherwise, but not including special deposit claim or claims against general assets. The term also includes claims which more than 4 months prior to the commencement of delinquency proceedings in the state of the insurer's domicile have become liens upon specific assets by reason of judicial process.

(17) "Receiver" means receiver, liquidator, rehabilitator, or conservator, as the context may require.

631.021 Jurisdiction of delinquency proceedings; venue; change of venue; exclusiveness of remedy; appeal.—

(1) The circuit court shall have original jurisdiction of delinquency proceedings under this chapter and any court with jurisdiction is authorized to make all necessary or proper orders to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The venue of delinquency proceedings against a domestic insurer shall be in the circuit court in the judicial circuit of the insurer's principal place of business. The venue of such proceedings against foreign and alien insurers shall be in the circuit court of Leon County.

(3) At any time after the commencement of a proceeding under this chapter the department may apply to the court for an order changing the venue of, and removing the proceeding to, Leon County or to any other county of this state in which it deems that such proceeding may be most economically and efficiently conducted.

(4) Delinquency proceedings pursuant to this chapter shall constitute the sole and exclusive method of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing, or conserving an insurer, and no court shall entertain a petition for the commencement of such proceedings unless the same has been filed in the name of the state on the relation of the department. The Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated, shall be given reasonable written notice by the department of all hearings which pertain to an adjudication of insolvency of a member insurer.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the District Court of Appeal, First District, from an order granting or refusing rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation, and from every order in delinquency proceedings having the character of a final order as to the particular portion of the proceedings embraced therein.

631.031 Commencement of delinquency proceedings.—The department shall commence any such proceedings by application to the court for an order directing the insurer to show cause why the department should not have the relief prayed for. On the return of such order to show cause, and after a full hearing, the court shall either deny the application or grant the application, together with such other relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the policyholders, creditors, stockholders, members, subscribers, or public may require.

History.—s. 719, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 213, ch. 77-104.

(2) The court may at any time during a proceeding under this chapter issue such other injunctions or orders as may be deemed necessary to prevent interference with the department or the proceeding, or waste of the assets of the insurer, or the commencement or prosecution of any actions, or the obtaining of preferences, judgments, attachments or other liens, or the making of any levy against the insurer or against its assets or any part thereof.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no bond shall be required of the department as a prerequisite for the issuance of any injunction or restraining order pursuant to this section.

History.—s. 720, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.051 Grounds for rehabilitation; domestic insurers.—The department may petition for an order directing it to rehabilitate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state on any one or more of the following grounds, that the insurer:

- (2) Has failed to comply with an order of the department to make good an impairment of capital or surplus or both;

- (4) Has failed, or its parent corporation, subsidiary, or affiliated person controlled by either the insurer or the parent corporation has failed, to submit its books, documents, accounts, records, and affairs pertaining to the insurer to the reasonable inspection or examination of the department or its authorized representative; or any individual exercising any executive authority in the affairs of the insurer or parent corporation, or subsidiary, or affiliated person has refused to be examined under oath by the department or its authorized representative, whether within this state or otherwise, concerning the pertinent affairs of the insurer, or parent corporation or subsidiary or affiliated person; or if examined under oath refuses to divulge pertinent information reasonably known to him; or officers, directors, agents, employees, or other representatives of the insurer or parent corporation, subsidiary, or affiliated person have failed to comply promptly with the reasonable requests of the department or its authorized representative for the purposes of, and during the conduct of, any such examination;

(5) Has concealed or removed records or assets or otherwise violated s. 628.271 or s. 628.281;

(6) Through its board of directors or governing body is deadlocked in the management of the insurer's affairs and that the members of a mutual, reciprocal, or any other type of organization or stockholders are unable to break the deadlock and that irreparable injury to the insurer, its creditors, its policyholders, its members or subscribers, or the public is threatened by reason thereof;

(7) Has transferred or attempted to transfer substantially its entire property or business, or has entered into any transaction the effect of which is to merge substantially its entire property or business into that of any other insurer or entity without having first obtained the written approval of the department under the provisions of s. 628.451 or s. 628.461, as the case may be;

(8) Has willfully violated its charter or certificate of incorporation or any law of this state;

(9) Is in such a position that control of it, whether by stock ownership or otherwise, and whether direct or indirect, is in one or more persons found by the department after notice and hearing to be dishonest or untrustworthy; or that the insurer has failed, upon order of the department and expiration of such reasonable time for such removal as the department shall specify in the order, to remove any person who in fact has executive authority, directly or indirectly, in the insurer, whether as an officer, director, manager, agent, employee, or otherwise, and if such person has been found by the department after notice and hearing, to be incompetent, dishonest, untrustworthy, or so lacking in insurance company managerial experience as to be hazardous to the insurance-buying public;

(10) Has been or is the subject of an application for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or sequestrator of the insurer or its property otherwise than pursuant to the provisions of this code, but only if such an appointment has been made or is imminent;

(11) Has consented to such an order through a majority of its directors, stockholders, members, or subscribers;

(12) Has failed to pay a final judgment rendered against it in this state upon any insurance contract issued or assumed by it, within 60 days after the judgment became final, within 60 days after the time for taking an appeal has expired, or within 30 days after dismissal of an appeal before final determination, whichever date is the later;

(13) Has been the victim of embezzlement, wrongful sequestration, conversion, diversion, or encumbering of its assets; forgery or fraud affecting it; or other illegal conduct in, by, or with respect to it, which if established would threaten its solvency; or that the department has reasonable cause to so believe any of the foregoing has occurred or may occur;

(14) Is engaging in a systematic practice of reaching settlements with and obtaining releases from policyholders or third-party claimants and then unreasonably delaying payment of, or failing to pay, the agreed-upon settlements; or

(15) Within the previous 12 months has systematically attempted to compromise with creditors on the ground that it is financially unable to pay its claims in full.

(1) Is or is about to become insolvent.

(2) Is an insolvent insurer and has commenced voluntary liquidation or dissolution, or attempts to commence or prosecute any action or proceeding to liquidate its business or affairs, or to dissolve its corporate charter, or to procure the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or sequestrator under any law except this code.

631.141 Conduct of delinquency proceedings; domestic and alien insurers.—

(1) Whenever under this chapter a receiver is to be appointed in delinquency proceedings for a domestic or alien insurer, the court shall appoint the department as such receiver. The court shall order the department forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer the same under the orders of the court.

(2) As a domiciliary receiver, the department shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and rights of action, and all of the books and records of the insurer, wherever located, as of the date of entry of the order directing it to rehabilitate or liquidate a domestic insurer or to liquidate the United States branch of an alien insurer domiciled in this state, and it shall have the right to recover the same and reduce the same to possession; except that ancillary receivers in reciprocal states shall have, as to assets located in their respective states, the rights and powers which are herein prescribed for ancillary receivers appointed in this state as to assets located in this state.

(3) The filing or recording of the order directing possession to be taken, or a certified copy thereof, in any office where instruments affecting title to property are required to be filed or recorded shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded.

(4) The department as domiciliary receiver shall be responsible for the proper administration of all assets coming into its possession or control. The court may at any time require a bond from it or its agents if deemed desirable for the protection of such assets.

(5) Upon taking possession of the assets of an insurer, the domiciliary receiver shall, subject to the direction of the court, immediately proceed to conduct the business of the insurer or to take such steps as are authorized by this chapter for the purpose of rehabilitating, liquidating, or conserving the affairs or assets of the insurer.

(6) In connection with delinquency proceedings, the department may appoint one or more special agents to act for it and it may employ such counsel, clerks, and assistants as it deems necessary. The compensation of the special agents, counsel, clerks, or assistants and all expenses of taking possession of the insurer and of conducting the proceedings shall be fixed by the receiver, subject to the approval of the court, and shall be paid out of the funds or assets of the insurer. Within the limits of duties imposed upon them, special agents shall possess all the powers given to and, in the exercise of those powers, shall be subject to all duties imposed upon the receiver with respect to such proceedings.

History.—s. 730, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.152 Same; foreign insurers.—

(1) Whenever under this chapter an ancillary receiver is to be appointed in delinquency proceedings for an insurer not domiciled in this state, the court shall appoint the department as ancillary receiver. The department shall file a petition requesting the appointment on the grounds set forth in s. 631.091:

(a) If it finds that there are sufficient assets of the insurer located in this state to justify the appointment of an ancillary receiver, or

(b) If ten or more persons resident in this state having claims against such insurer file a petition with the department requesting the appointment of such ancillary receiver.

(2) The domiciliary receiver for the purpose of liquidating an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and rights of action, and all of the books and records of the insurer located in this state, and it shall have the immediate right to recover balances due from local agents and to obtain possession of any books and records of the insurer found in this state. It shall also be entitled to recover the other assets of the insurer located in this state, except that upon the appointment of an ancillary receiver in this state, the ancillary receiver shall during the ancillary receivership proceedings have the sole right to recover such other assets. The ancillary receiver shall, as soon as practicable, liquidate from their respective securities those special deposit claims and secured claims which are proved and allowed in the ancillary proceedings in this state, and shall pay the necessary expenses of the proceedings. All remaining assets it shall promptly transfer to the domiciliary receiver. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the ancillary receiver and its agents shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties with respect to the administration of such assets as a receiver of an insurer domiciled in this state.

(3) The domiciliary receiver of an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state may sue in this state to recover any assets of such insurer to which it may be entitled under the laws of this state.

History.—s. 731, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.161 Claims of nonresidents against domestic insurers.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding begun in this state against a domestic insurer, claimants residing in reciprocal states may file claims either with the ancillary receivers, if any, in their respective states, or with the domiciliary receiver. All such claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary delinquency proceedings.

(2) Controverted claims belonging to claimants residing in reciprocal states may either:

(a) Be proved in this state, or

(b) If ancillary proceedings have been commenced in such reciprocal states, may be proved in those proceedings. In the event a claimant elects to prove his claim in ancillary proceedings, if notice of the claim and opportunity to appear and be heard is afforded the domiciliary receiver of this state, as provided in s. 631.171 with respect to ancillary proceedings in this state, the final allowance of such claim by the courts in the ancillary state shall be accepted in this state as conclusive as to its amount and shall also be accepted as conclusive as to its priority, if any, against special deposits or other security located within the ancillary state.

History.—s. 732, ch. 59-205.

631.171 Claims against foreign insurers.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding in a reciprocal state against an insurer domiciled in that state, claimants against such insurer who reside within this state may file claims either with the ancillary receiver, if any, appointed in this state, or with the domiciliary receiver. All such claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary delinquency proceedings.

(2) Controverted claims belonging to claimants residing in this state may either:

(a) Be proved in the domiciliary state as provided by the law of that state, or

(b) If ancillary proceedings have been commenced in this state, be proved in those proceedings. In the event that any such claimant elects to prove his claim in this state, he shall file his claim with the ancillary receiver and shall give notice in writing to the receiver in the domiciliary state, either by registered mail or by personal service at least 40 days prior to the date set for hearing. The notice shall contain a concise statement of the amount of the claim, the facts on which the claim is based, and the priorities asserted, if any. If the domiciliary receiver within 30 days after the giving of such notice shall give notice in writing to the ancillary receiver and to the claimant, either by registered mail or by personal service, of his intention to contest such claim, he shall be entitled to appear or to be represented in any proceeding in this state involving adjudication of the claim. The final allowance of the claim by the courts of this state shall be accepted as conclusive as to its amount and shall also be accepted as conclusive as to its priority, if any, against special deposits or other security located within this state.

History.—s. 733, ch. 59-205.

631.181 Form of claim; notice; hearing.—

(1) All claims against an insurer against which delinquency proceedings have been begun shall set forth in reasonable detail the amount of the claim, or the basis upon which such amount can be ascertained, the facts upon which the claim is based, and the priorities asserted, if any. All such claims shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant, or someone authorized to act on his behalf and having knowledge of the facts, and shall be supported by such documents as may be material thereto.

(2) All claims filed in this state shall be filed with the receiver, whether domiciliary or ancillary, in this state, on or before the last date for filing as specified in this chapter.

(3) As soon as he has evaluated claims filed in the delinquency proceeding, the receiver shall report the claims to the circuit court, specifying in such report his recommendations with respect to the actions to be taken thereon. Upon receipt of such report, the court shall fix a time for hearing the claims so reported and direct that the receiver shall give such notice as the court shall determine to such persons as shall appear to the court to be interested therein. All such notices shall specify the time and place of the hearing and concisely state the amount and nature of the claim, the priorities asserted, if any, and the recommendation of the receiver with reference thereto.

(4) At the hearing, all persons interested shall be entitled to appear and the court shall enter an order allowing, allowing in part, or disallowing the claim. Any such order shall be deemed to be an appealable order.

History.—s. 734, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 70-27.

631.191 Priority of certain claims.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding against an insurer domiciled in this state, claims owing to residents of ancillary states shall be preferred claims if like claims are preferred under the laws of this state. All such claims owing to residents or nonresidents shall be given equal priority of payment from general assets regardless of where such assets are located.

(2) In a delinquency proceeding against an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state, claims owing to residents of this state shall be preferred if like claims are preferred by the laws of that state.

(3) The owners of special deposit claims against an insurer for which a receiver is appointed in this or any other state shall be given priority against their several special deposits in accordance with the provisions of the statutes governing the creation and maintenance of such deposits. If there is a deficiency in any such deposit so that the claims secured thereby are not fully discharged therefrom, the claimants may share in the general assets, but such sharing shall be deferred until general creditors, and also claimants against other special deposits who have received smaller percentages from their respective special deposits, have been paid percentages of their claims equal to the percentage paid from the special deposit.

(4) The owner of a secured claim against an insurer for which a receiver has been appointed in this or any other state may surrender his security and file his claim as a general creditor, or the claim may be discharged by resort to the security, in which case the deficiency, if any, shall be treated as a claim against the general assets of the insurer on the same basis as claims of unsecured creditors. If the amount of the deficiency has been adjudicated in ancillary proceedings as provided in this chapter, or if it has been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings in which the domiciliary receiver has had notice and opportunity to be heard, such amounts shall be conclusive; otherwise the amount shall be determined in the delinquency proceeding in the domiciliary state.

History.—s. 735, ch. 59-205.

631.201 Attachment and garnishment of assets.—During the pendency of delinquency proceedings in this or any reciprocal state, no action or proceeding in the nature of an attachment, garnishment or execution shall be commenced or maintained in the courts of this state against the delinquent insurer or its assets. Any lien obtained by any such action or proceeding within 4 months prior to the commencement of any such delinquency proceeding or at any time thereafter shall be void as against any rights arising in such delinquency proceeding.

History.—s. 736, ch. 59-205.

631.211 Uniform Insurers Liquidation Act.—

(1) Subsections (2) to (13) inclusive, of s. 631.011, together with ss. 631.031, 631.041 and 631.141-631.211 constitute and may be referred to as the "Uniform Insurers Liquidation Act."

(2) The Uniform Insurers Liquidation Act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it. To the extent that its provisions when applicable conflict with other provisions of this chapter, the provisions of such act shall control.

History.—s. 737, ch. 59-205.

631.221 Deposit of moneys collected.—The moneys collected by the department in a proceeding under this chapter shall be from time to time deposited in one or more state or national banks, savings banks or trust companies, and in the case of the insolvency or voluntary or involuntary liquidation of any such depository which is an institution organized and supervised under the laws of this state, such deposits shall be entitled to priority of payment on an equality with any other priority given by the banking laws of this state. The department may in its discretion deposit such moneys or any part thereof in such a bank or trust company as a trust fund.

History.—s. 738, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.231 Exemption from fees.—The department shall not be required to pay any fee to any public officer in this state for filing, recording, issuing a transcript or certificate or authenticating any paper or instrument pertaining to the exercise by the department of any of the powers or duties conferred upon it under this chapter, whether or not such paper or instrument be executed by the department or its employees or attorneys of record and whether or not it is connected with the commencement of any action or proceeding by or against the department, or with the subsequent conduct of such action or proceeding.

History.—s. 739, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.241 Borrowing on pledge of assets.—For the purpose of facilitating the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation, or dissolution of an insurer pursuant to this chapter, the department may, subject to the approval of the court, borrow money and execute, acknowledge and deliver notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefor and secure the repayment of the same by the mortgage, pledge, assignment, transfer in trust, or hypothecation of any or all of the property, whether real, personal or mixed, of such insurer, and the department subject to the approval of the court shall have power to take any and all other action necessary and proper to consummate any such loan and to provide for the repayment thereof. The department shall be under no obligation in its official capacity to repay any loan made pursuant to this section.

History.—s. 740, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.243 Termination of rehabilitation.—If at any time the court finds, after hearing in open court, upon petition of the department or of the insurer or on its own motion, that the objectives of an order to rehabilitate a domestic insurer or an alien insurer domiciled in this state have been accomplished and that the insurer can be returned to its own management without further jeopardy to the insurer and its creditors, claimants, policyholders, and stockholders, and to the public, the court may, upon a full report and accounting by the department relative to the conduct of the insurer's affairs during the rehabilitation and to the insurer's current financial condition, terminate the rehabilitation and by order return the insurer and its assets and affairs to the insurer's management.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

631.251 Date rights fixed on liquidation.—Except as provided in ss. 631.252 and 631.291, the rights and liabilities of the insurer and its creditors, policyholders, stockholders, members, subscribers and all other persons interested in its estate shall, unless otherwise directed by the court, be fixed as of the date on which the order directing the liquidation of the insurer is filed in the office of the clerk of the court which made the order, subject to the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rights of claimants holding contingent claims.

History.—s. 741, ch. 59-205; s. 9, ch. 70-27.

631.252 Continuation of coverage.—

(1) All insurance policies or similar contracts of coverage issued by the insurer shall continue in force until the earliest to occur of the following:

(a) Expiration of 30 days from the date of entry of the liquidation order, if the order so specifies;

(b) Normal expiration of the policy or contract coverage;

(c) Replacement of the coverage by the insured, or replacement of the policy or contract of coverage, with a policy or contract acceptable to the insured by the receiver with another insurer; or

(d) Termination of the coverage by the insured.

(2) A claim arising during such continuation of coverage shall be treated as if it arose immediately before the petition for liquidation.

(3) The 30-day coverage continuation period provided in subsection (1)(a) shall in no event be extended, and failure of actual notice to the policyholder of the insolvency of the insurer, of commencement of delinquency proceedings, or of expiration of the extension period shall not affect such expiration.

History.—s. 10, ch. 70-27.

631.261 Voidable transfers.—

(1) Any transfer of, or lien upon, the property of an insurer which is made or created within 4 months prior to the granting of an order to show cause under this chapter with the intent of giving to any creditor a preference or of enabling him to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other creditor of the same class and which is accepted by such creditor having reasonable cause to believe that such preference will occur, shall be voidable.

(2) Every director, officer, employee, stockholder, member, subscriber, and any other person acting on behalf of such insurer who shall be concerned in any such act or deed and every person receiving thereby any property of such insurer or the benefit thereof shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the department.

(3) The department as receiver in any proceeding under this chapter may avoid any transfer of or lien upon the property of an insurer which any creditor, stockholder, subscriber, or member of such insurer might have avoided and may recover the property so transferred unless such person was a bona fide holder for value prior to the date of the entering of an order to show cause under this chapter. Such property or its value may be recovered from anyone who has received it except a bona fide holder for value as herein specified.

631.262 Transfers prior to petition.—

(1) Every transfer made or suffered and every obligation incurred by an insurer within 1 year prior to the filing of a successful petition in any delinquency proceeding under this chapter, upon a showing by the receiver that the same was incurred without fair consideration, or with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud either then existing or future creditors, shall be fraudulent and voidable. However, every such transfer or obligation incurred or suffered within 6 months prior to the filing of the above petition shall be presumed void and fraudulent, with the burden of proof upon the obligee or transferee to show otherwise. This subsection shall not apply to a person who in good faith is a purchaser, lienor, or obligee, for a present fair equivalent value, but any purchaser, lienor, or obligee who in good faith has given a valuable consideration less than fair for such transfer, lien, or obligation may retain the property, lien, or obligation as a security for repayment. The court may, on due notice, order any such transfer or obligation to be preserved for the benefit of the estate, and in that event the receiver shall succeed to and may enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor, or obligee.

(2) Transfers shall be deemed to have been made or suffered, or obligations incurred, when perfected according to the following criteria:

(a) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee;

(b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee;

(c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created;

(d) Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition in a delinquency proceeding shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of a successful petition;

(e) Paragraphs (a) through (d) apply whether or not there are or were creditors who might have obtained any liens or persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

(3) The transferor or obligor insurer shall record and preserve adequate official memoranda by corporate minutes which shall fully reflect all transactions involving transfers as contemplated by this section of real property or securities of any type and, in the case of all other property or assets, any transfer out of the insurer's ordinary course of business. Any person, firm, or corporation, or any officer, director, or employee thereof, who shall violate this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or by a fine of not more than $5,000. Each instance of such violation shall be considered a separate offense.

(4) The personal liability of the officers or directors of an insolvent insurer shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 607 and the penalties provided therein.

(5) Every transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer within 1 year prior to the filing of the petition shall be voidable upon a showing that such transaction was made without fair consideration or with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud either then existing or future creditors, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1).

History.—s. 11, ch. 70-27; s. 654, ch. 71-136; s. 13, ch. 79-9.

631.263 Transfers after petition.—

(1) After the original petition is filed in any delinquency proceeding, a transfer of any of the real property of the insurer made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefor, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred. The recording of a copy of the petition for, or order in, any delinquency proceeding with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where any real property in question is located is constructive notice of the commencement of a delinquency proceeding. The exercise by a court of the United States or any state with jurisdiction to authorize or effect a judicial sale of real property of the insurer within any county in any state shall not be impaired by the pendency of such a proceeding unless the copy is recorded in the county prior to the consummation of the judicial sale.

(2) After the original petition for a delinquency proceeding has been filed and before an order of conservation, rehabilitation, or liquidation is granted:

(a) A transfer of any of the property of the insurer, other than real property, made to a person acting in good faith shall be valid against the receiver if made for a present fair equivalent value or, if not made for a present fair equivalent value, then to the extent of the present consideration actually paid therefor, for which amount the transferee shall have a lien on the property so transferred.

(b) A person indebted to the insurer or holding property of the insurer may, if acting in good faith, pay the indebtedness or deliver the property or any part thereof to the insurer or upon his order, with the same effect as if the petition were not pending.

(3) A person having actual knowledge of the pending delinquency proceeding shall be deemed not to act in good faith.

(4) A person asserting the validity of a transfer under this section shall have the burden of proof. Except as elsewhere provided in this section, any transfer by or in behalf of the insurer after the date of the appointment of a receiver as defined in s. 631.011(17) by any person other than the receiver shall not be valid against the receiver.

(5) Nothing in this section shall impair the negotiability of currency or negotiable instruments.

History.—s. 12, ch. 70-27.

631.271 Priority of claims for compensation of employees and administrative expenses.—

(1) Compensation actually owing to employees, other than officers and directors, of an insurer for services rendered within 3 months prior to the commencement of a proceeding against the insurer under this chapter, but not exceeding $1,000 for each employee, shall be paid prior to the payment of any other debt or claim, and in the discretion of the department may be paid as soon as practicable after the proceeding has been commenced; except that at all times the department shall reserve such funds as will in its opinion be sufficient for the payment of all expenses of administration, which expenses shall have priority over all other debts and claims.

(2) Such priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority which may be authorized by law as to wages or compensation of such employees.

History.—s. 743, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 13, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

631.281 Offsets.—

(1) In all cases of mutual debts or mutual credits between the insurer and another person in connection with any action or proceeding under this chapter, such credits and debts shall be set off and the balance only shall be allowed or paid, except as provided in subsection (2).

(2) No offset shall be allowed in favor of any such person where:

(a) The obligation of the insurer to such person would not at the date of the entry of any liquidation order or otherwise, as provided in s. 631.251, entitle him to share as a claimant in the assets of the insurer.

(b) The obligation of the insurer to such person was purchased by or transferred to such person with a view of its being used as an offset.

(c) The obligation of such person is to pay an assessment levied against the members of a mutual insurer, or against the subscribers of a reciprocal insurer, or is to pay a balance upon the subscription to the capital stock of a stock insurer.

History.—s. 744, ch. 59-205.

631.291 Allowance of certain claims.—

(1) No claim based upon a contract of insurance, suretyship, or indemnity shall be allowed or paid from the assets of an insurer in process of liquidation unless the event causing the loss to, or creating the liability of, the obligee of the contract shall have occurred prior to the order of liquidation or pursuant to the provisions of s. 631.252.

(2)(a) Claims of a third party shall not be deemed contingent, but shall be fairly evaluated even though liability has not been established by the date set forth in subsection (1) if:

1. It may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured;

2. Such person shall furnish suitable proof, unless the court for good cause shown shall otherwise direct, that no further valid claim against such insurer arising out of his cause of action other than those already presented can be made;

3. The total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising out of the same act of its insured shall be no greater than its maximum liability would be were it not in liquidation; and

4. The filing of such claim shall constitute a release of the insured from liability to the claimant to the amount of the claim so filed or the claimant shall otherwise so agree.

(b) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to deny the right of an insured to file a claim in order to secure for himself the benefits under a liability insurance policy.

(3) No judgment against such an insured or the insurer taken after the date of entry of the liquidation order and no judgment against an insured or the insurer taken by default, or by collusion, prior to the entry of the liquidation order shall be considered as evidence in the liquidation proceedings as to liability or the amount of damages. No judgment or order against an insured or the insurer entered within 4 months prior to the entry of the liquidation order shall be considered as evidence of liability or the amount of damages.

(4)(a) Claims not covered by the provisions of subsection (1) shall not be allowed or paid from the assets of an insurer in process of liquidation unless:

1. The event, whether an act or omission, occurred prior to the date of the order of liquidation;

2. The goods were delivered or services were rendered prior to the order of liquidation; or

3. The duty to perform under a contract matured prior to the order of liquidation.

(b) Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to extinguish or limit any right the receiver may otherwise have to cancel any contract or part thereof by virtue of any contractual provision or law of this state. It shall be the duty of every claimant under this subsection to mitigate and minimize any damage suffered as a result of a breach of contract upon entry of the order of liquidation. Recovery by any claimant under this subsection shall be limited to the actual damages suffered by virtue of a breach.

(5) The value of any security held by a secured creditor shall be determined under supervision of the court by:

(a) Converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which the security was delivered to such creditor; or

(b) By agreement, arbitration, compromise, or litigation between the creditor and the receiver.

The amount so determined shall be credited upon the secured claim, and any deficiency shall be treated as an unsecured claim. If the claimant surrenders his security to the receiver, the entire claim shall be allowed as if unsecured.

History.—s. 745, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 70-27.

631.301 Time to file claims.—

(1) If upon the entry of an order of liquidation under this chapter or at any time thereafter during liquidation proceedings the insurer shall not be clearly solvent, the court shall, upon hearing after such notice it deems proper, make and enter an order adjudging the insurer to be insolvent.

(2) After the entry of the order of insolvency, regardless of any prior notice that may have been given to creditors, the department shall notify all persons who may have claims against such insurer to file such claims with it, at a place and within the time specified in the notice, or that such claims shall be forever barred. The time specified in the notice shall be as fixed by the court for filing of claims and which shall be not less than 6 months after the entry of the order of insolvency. The notice shall be given in such manner and for such reasonable period of time as may be ordered by the court.

631.311 Report and petition for assessment.

—Within 3 years after the date of the entry of an order of rehabilitation or liquidation of a domestic mutual insurer or a domestic reciprocal insurer, the department may make and file its report and petition to the court setting forth:

(1) The reasonable value of the assets of the insurer;

(2) The liabilities of the insurer to the extent thus far ascertained by the department;

(3) The aggregate amount of the assessment, if any, which the department deems reasonably necessary to pay all claims, the costs and expenses of the collection of the assessments and the costs and expenses of the delinquency proceedings in full;

(4) Any other information relative to the affairs or property of the insurer that the department deems material.

History.—s. 747, ch. 59-205; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

631.321 Order and levy of assessment.—

(1) Upon the filing and reading of the report and petition provided for in s. 631.311, the court, ex parte, may order the department to assess all members or subscribers of the insurer who may be subject to such an assessment, in such an aggregate amount as the court finds reasonably necessary to pay all valid claims as may be timely filed and proved in the delinquency proceedings, together with the costs and expenses of levying and collecting assessments and the costs and expenses of the delinquency proceedings in full. Any such order shall require the department to assess each such member or subscriber for his proportion of the aggregate assessment, according to such reasonable classification of such members or subscribers and formula as may be made by the department and approved by the court.

(2) The court may order additional assessments upon the filing and reading of any amendment or supplement to the report and petition referred to in subsection (1), if such amendment or supplement is filed within 3 years after the date of the entry of the order of rehabilitation or liquidation.

(3) After the entry of the order to levy an assessment upon members or subscribers of an insurer referred to in subsections (1) or (2), the department shall levy an assessment upon such members or subscribers in accordance with the order.

(4) The total of all assessments against any member or subscriber with respect to any policy, whether levied pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to any other provision of this code, shall be for no greater amount than that specified in the policy or policies of the member or subscriber and as limited under this code; except as to any policy which was issued at a rate of premium below the minimum rate lawfully permitted for the risk insured, in which event the assessment against any such policyholder shall be upon the basis of the minimum rate for such risk.

(5) No assessment shall be levied against any member or subscriber with respect to any nonassessable policy issued in accordance with this code.

631.331 Assessment prima facie correct; notice; payment; proceedings to collect.—

(1) Any assessment of a subscriber or member of an insurer made by the department pursuant to the order of court fixing the aggregate amount of the assessment against all members or subscribers and approving the classification and formula made by the department under s. 631.321(1) shall be prima facie correct.

(2) Each member or subscriber shall be notified of the amount of assessment to be paid by him by written notice mailed to the address of the member or subscriber last of record with the insurer. Failure of the member or subscriber to receive the notice so mailed, within the time specified therein or at all, shall be no defense in any proceeding to collect the assessment.

(3) If any such member or subscriber fails to pay the assessment within the period specified in the notice, which period shall not be less than 20 days after mailing, the department may obtain an order in the delinquency proceedings requiring the member or subscriber to show cause at a time and place fixed by the court why judgment should not be entered against such member or subscriber for the amount of the assessment together with all costs, and a copy of the order and a copy of the petition therefor shall be served upon the member or subscriber within the time and in the manner designated in the order.

(4) If the subscriber or member after due service of a copy of the order and petition referred to in subsection (3) is made upon him:

(a) Fails to appear at the time and place specified in the order, judgment shall be entered against him as prayed for in the petition; or

(b) Appears in the manner and form required by law in response to the order, the court shall hear and determine the matter and enter a judgment in accordance with its decision.

(5) The department may collect any such assessment through any other lawful means.

631.341 Notice of insolvency to policyholders by insurer, general agent, or agent.—

(1) The receiver shall, immediately after appointment in delinquency proceedings against an insurer, give written notice of such proceedings to each general agent and licensed agent of the insurer in Florida. Each general agent and licensed agent of the insurer in Florida shall forthwith give written notice of such proceedings to all subagents, producing agents, brokers, solicitors, and service representatives writing business through such general agent or licensed agent, whether or not such subagents, producing agents, brokers, solicitors, and servicing representatives are licensed or permitted by the insurer and whether or not operating under a written agency contract.

(2) Unless, within 15 days subsequent to the date of such notice, all agents referred to in subsection (1) shall have either replaced or reinsured in a solvent authorized insurer the insurance coverages placed by or through such agent in the delinquent insurer, such agents shall then, by registered or certified mail, send to the last known address of any policyholder a written notice of the insolvency of the delinquent insurer.

(3) The license, permit, or certificate of authority of any person, firm, or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to revocation as otherwise provided by law.

(4) If such person, firm, or corporation is not licensed or permitted or the holder of a certificate of authority under any section of this code, then such person, firm, or corporation, or the officers and directors thereof, shall upon conviction, be subject to fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than 1 year in the county jail or both, upon failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

631.351 Summary proceedings.—

(1) Upon the department filing a verified petition with any circuit judge of the proper judicial circuit as required in s. 631.021(2), which petition states that prima facie grounds exist for rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation of an insurer under s. 631.051, s. 631.061, or s. 631.131, the department shall be entitled to an ex parte hearing forthwith and an appropriate order from the judge or court in the interest of protecting the public and the insurer and its policyholders, claimants, and creditors. After a diligent effort to be heard by the judges of the circuit is made, and such judges or the court fail or refuse to hear such petition for any reason, the department shall then file a duplicate original of said petition and exhibits, if any, in the Circuit Court of Leon County, along with an affidavit which shall state that a diligent effort was made to obtain such initial hearing in the judicial circuit where such hearing was sought and that the request to be heard was refused or that a hearing was not granted and the reasons therefor, if known. Upon compliance with the above, and if said affidavit states that the department believes that irreparable harm will result to the public and the insurer and its policyholders, claimants, or creditors as a result of further delay, it may thereafter proceed summarily in accordance with the following provision: It may make and serve upon the insurer and any other persons involved such orders, other than seizure orders under ss. 631.361 and 631.371, as it deems reasonably necessary to correct, eliminate, or remedy such conduct, condition, or ground.

(2) Violation of any order issued by the department under this section by any person affected shall, upon conviction by a court, subject such person to being punished in the same manner as if in contempt of a court order, and punishment shall be as otherwise provided by law.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to amend, modify, or limit any rights, powers, or authority of the department which exist by virtue of any other provision of this code.

631.361 Seizure under court order.—

(1) Upon filing by the department in any circuit court of this state of its verified petition alleging any ground for a formal delinquency proceeding against an insurer under this chapter, alleging that the interests of the insurer's policyholders, claimants, or creditors or the public will be endangered or jeopardized by delay, and setting forth the order deemed necessary by the department, the court may, ex parte and without notice or hearing, issue forthwith the requested order. The requested order may:

(a) Direct the department to take possession and control of all or part of the property, books, documents, accounts, and other records of the insurer and the premises occupied by it for transaction of its business; and

(b) Until further order of court, enjoin the insurer and its officers, directors, managers, agents, and employees from removal, concealment, or other disposition of its property, books, records, or accounts and from transaction of its business except with the department's written consent.

(2) The court's order shall be for such duration specified in the order as the court deems necessary to enable the department to ascertain the insurer's condition. Upon motion of any party or its own motion, the court may hold such hearings as it deems desirable after such notice as it deems appropriate, and may extend, shorten, or modify the terms of the order. The court shall vacate the seizure order if the department fails to commence a formal proceeding under this chapter after having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and a seizure order is automatically vacated by issuance of the court's order pursuant to formal delinquency proceedings under this chapter.

(3) Entry of a seizure order under this section shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer.

631.371 Seizure under the department's order.—

(1) Upon the department filing a verified petition with any circuit judge of the proper judicial circuit as required by s. 631.021(2), which states that it believes that the interest of policyholders, the insurer, claimants, creditors, or the public will be endangered or jeopardized and that prima facie grounds exist for rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation of an insurer under ss. 631.051, 631.061, or s. 631.131 of this chapter, the department may request a seizure order and shall be entitled to an ex parte hearing forthwith and an appropriate seizure order from the judge or court in the interest of protecting the public and such insurer and its policyholders, claimants, or creditors. After a diligent effort is made to be heard by the judges of the circuit and such judges or the court fail or refuse to hear such petition for any reason, the department shall then file a duplicate original of said petition and exhibits, if any, in the circuit court of Leon County along with an affidavit which shall state that a diligent effort was made to obtain such initial hearing in the judicial circuit where such hearing was sought and that the request to be heard was refused or that a hearing was not granted and the reasons therefor, if known. Upon compliance with the above and if said affidavit further states that the department believes that irreparable harm will result to the public and the insurer and its policyholders, creditors, or claimants as a result of further delay, it may thereafter issue a seizure order on any ground that would justify court seizure under s. 631.361. Such seizure order may contain any or all the provisions of s. 631.361(1). The department shall retain possession and control until the order is vacated or is replaced by an order of court pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) or pursuant to a formal delinquency proceeding under this chapter.

(2) The department may, at any time after seizure under its order, report its actions to the proper court, and in the event that the insurer, for any reason, fails to avail itself of the judicial review provided for by law, then the department shall forthwith report its actions to the proper court. The department may request the court to substitute its order for the department's or it may seek any other order which it deems appropriate.

(3) Every law enforcement officer of this state authorized by law shall assist the department in making and enforcing any such seizure, and every such officer shall furnish it with such deputies, patrolmen, or officers as are necessary to assist it in execution of its order.

(4) Entry of a seizure order under this section shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any contract of the insurer.

History.—s. 18, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

631.391 Cooperation of officers and employees.—

(1) Any officer, director, manager, trustee, agent, or adjuster of any insurer and any other person who possesses any executive authority over, or who exercises any control over, any segment of the insurer's affairs shall fully cooperate with the department in any proceeding under this chapter or any investigation preliminary or incidental to the proceeding. To cooperate includes, but is not limited to the following:

(a) To reply promptly in writing to any inquiry from the department requesting such a reply; and,

(b) Promptly to make available and deliver to the department any books, accounts, documents, other records, information, or property of or pertaining to the insurer and in his possession, custody, or control.

(2) No person shall obstruct or interfere with the department in the conduct of any delinquency proceeding or any preliminary investigation or incidental thereto.

(3) This section shall not prohibit any person from seeking legal relief from a court when aggrieved by the petition for liquidation or other delinquency proceedings or other orders.

(4) Any person referred to in subsection (1) who fails to cooperate with the department or any other person who obstructs or interferes with the department in the conduct of any delinquency proceedings or any investigation preliminary or incidental thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by fine of not more than $5,000.

History.—s. 19, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 655, ch. 71-136.

631.395 Guaranty fund; orders of court.—Any order of liquidation issued pursuant to s. 631.111 or s. 631.131 shall authorize and direct the department as receiver to coordinate the operation of the receivership with the operation of any insurance guaranty fund authorized to operate in this state. Such authorization shall include, but not be limited to, release of copies of any of the following:

(1) Claims files, records, or documents pertaining to claims on file with the insolvent insurer; and

(2) Insurance claims filed with the receiver.

History.—s. 20, ch. 70-27; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

631.397 Use of certain marshaled assets.—

(1) Within 120 days of a final determination of insolvency of an insurer by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state, the department, as receiver, shall apply to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse assets out of such insurer's marshaled assets, as such assets become available, to each association entitled thereto or, if there are no assets available for such disbursement, then for approval of such proposal as the receiver deems appropriate. For the purposes of this section, the term "association" includes the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated, and any entity or person performing a function in another state similar to that performed in this state by the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated, provided the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated, is entitled to like payment under the laws of the association's state of domicile in respect to insolvent companies doing business in that state.

(2) Such proposal shall at least include provisions for:

(a) Reserving amounts for the payment of expenses of administration, the payment of claims of secured creditors to the extent of the value of the security held, and the payment of claims falling within the priorities established in this part.

(b) Disbursement of the other assets marshaled to date and subsequent disbursements of assets as they become available.

(c) Equitable allocation of disbursements to each association entitled thereto.

(d) The securing by the receiver, from each association entitled to disbursements pursuant to this section, of an agreement to return to the receiver such assets previously disbursed as may be required to pay claims of secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in this part, in accordance with such priorities; however, no bond shall be required of any such association.

(e) A full report to be made by each association to the receiver, which report shall account for all assets so disbursed to the association, all disbursements made therefrom, any interest earned by the association on such assets, and any other matter as the court may direct.

(3) The department's proposal shall provide for disbursements to each association in amounts at least equal to the claim payments made, and estimated to be made, by such association for which such association could assert a claim against the receiver, and shall provide that if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amount of such claim payments made, or to be made, by each such association, then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets.

(4) Notice of such application shall be given by the department to the associations in, and to the commissioners of insurance of, each of the states to which disbursement may be made. Such notice shall be made by certified mail, first class postage prepaid, at least 15 days prior to submission of such application to the court. Such notice shall be deemed to have been made when deposited in the mail.

(5) Action on the application may be taken by the court if notice has been given pursuant to subsection (4) and the department's proposal complies with subsection (2).

631.51 Purposes.—The purposes of this part are to:

(1) Provide a mechanism for the payment of covered claims under certain insurance policies to avoid excessive delay in payment and to avoid financial loss to claimants or policyholders because of the insolvency of an insurer;

(2) Assist in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies;

(3) Create a nonprofit corporation to administer and supervise the operation of such association; and

(4) Assess the cost of such protection among insurers.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-20.

631.52 Scope.—This part shall apply to all kinds of direct insurance except life, title, surety, disability, credit, mortgage guaranty, surplus lines, ocean marine, and wet marine insurance.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-20; s. 1, ch. 77-227.

631.53 Construction.—This part shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes set forth in s. 631.51, which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation.

History.—s. 4, ch. 70-20.

631.54 Definitions.—As used in this part:

(1) "Account" means any one of the four accounts created by s. 631.55.

(2) "Association" means the Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Insurance.

(4) "Covered claim" means an unpaid claim, including one of unearned premiums, which arises out of, and is within the coverage, and not in excess of, the applicable limits of an insurance policy to which this part applies, issued by an insurer, if such insurer becomes an insolvent insurer after October 1, 1970, and the claimant or insured is a resident of this state at the time of the insured event or the property from which the claim arises is permanently located in this state. "Covered claim" shall not include any amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association, as subrogation recoveries or otherwise. Member insurers shall have no right of subrogation against the insured of any insolvent member.

(5) "Insolvent insurer" means a member insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state, either at the time the policy was issued or when the insured event occurred, and against which an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction if such order has become final by the exhaustion of appellate review.

(6) "Member insurer" means any person who writes any kind of insurance to which this part applies under s. 631.52, including the exchange of reciprocal or interinsurance contracts, and is licensed to transact insurance in this state.

(7) "Net direct written premiums" means direct gross premiums written in this state on insurance policies to which this part applies, less return premiums thereon and dividends paid or credited to policyholders on such direct business. "Net direct written premiums" does not include premiums on contracts between insurers or reinsurers.

(9) "Expenses in handling claims" means expenses, including, but not limited to, those which relate to the investigation, adjustment, defense, or settlement of specific claims under, or arising out of, a specific policy.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-20; ss. 2, 4, ch. 77-227; s. 1, ch. 79-55.

631.55 Creation of the association.—

(1) There is created a nonprofit corporation to be known as the "Florida Insurance Guaranty Association, Incorporated." All insurers defined as member insurers in s. 631.54(6) shall be members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance in this state. The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under s. 631.58 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under s. 631.56. The corporation shall have all those powers granted or permitted nonprofit corporations, as provided in chapter 617.

(2) For the purposes of administration and assessment, the association shall be divided into four separate accounts:

- (a) The workers' compensation insurance account;
- (b) The auto liability account;
- (c) The auto physical damage account; and
- (d) The account for all other insurance to which this part applies.

History.—s. 6, ch. 70-20; s. 117, ch. 79-40.

631.56 Board of directors.—

(1) The board of directors of the association shall consist of not less than five or more than nine persons serving terms as established in the plan of operation. The department shall approve and appoint to the board persons recommended by the member insurers. In the event the department finds that any recommended person does not meet the qualifications for service on the board, the department shall request the member insurers to recommend another person. Each member shall serve for a 4-year term and may be reappointed. Vacancies on the board shall be filled for the remaining period of the term in the same manner as initial appointments. If no members are selected by November 30, 1970, the department may appoint the initial members of the board of directors.

(2) In appointing members to the board, the department shall consider among other things whether all areas of insurance covered by this part are fairly represented.

(3) Members of the board may be reimbursed from the assets of the association for expenses incurred by them as members of the board of directors.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-20.

631.57 Powers and duties of the association.—

(1) The association shall:

(a) Be obligated to the extent of the covered claims existing:

1. Prior to the adjudication of insolvency and arising within 30 days after the determination of insolvency;

2. Before the policy expiration date if less than 30 days after the determination; or

3. Before the insured replaces the policy or causes its cancellation, if he does so within 30 days of the determination, but such obligation shall include only that amount of each covered claim which is in excess of $100 and is less than $300,000, except that the association shall pay the full amount of any covered claim arising out of a workers' compensation policy. In no event shall the association be obligated to a policyholder or claimant in an amount in excess of the obligation of the insolvent insurer under the policy from which the claim arises.

(b) Be deemed the insurer to the extent of its obligation on the covered claims, and, to such extent, shall have all rights, duties, and obligations of the insolvent insurer as if the insurer had not become insolvent. In no event shall the association be liable for any penalties or interest.

(2) The association may:

(a) Employ or retain such persons as are necessary to handle claims and perform other duties of the association;

(b) Borrow funds necessary to effect the purposes of this part in accord with the plan of operation;

(c) Sue or be sued; and

(d) Negotiate and become a party to such contracts as are necessary to carry out the purpose of this part.

(3)(a) To the extent necessary to secure the funds for the respective accounts for the payment of covered claims and also to pay the reasonable costs to administer the same, the department, upon certification of the board of directors, shall levy assessments in the proportion that each insurer's net direct written premiums in this state in the classes protected by the account bears to the total of said net direct written premiums received in this state by all such insurers for the preceding calendar year for the kinds of insurance included within such account. Assessments shall be remitted to and administered by the board of directors in the manner specified by the approved plan. Each insurer so assessed shall have at least 30 days' written notice as to the date the assessment is due and payable. Every assessment shall be made as a uniform percentage applicable to the net direct written premiums of each insurer in the kinds of insurance included within the account in which the assessment is made. The assessments levied against any insurer shall not exceed in any one year more than 1 percent of that insurer's net direct written premiums in this state for the kinds of insurance included within such account during the calendar year next preceding the date of such assessments.

(b) If sufficient funds from such assessments, together with funds previously raised, are not available in any one year in the respective account to make all the payments or reimbursements then owing to insurers, the funds available shall be prorated and the unpaid portion shall be paid as soon thereafter as funds become available.

(c) Assessments shall be included as an appropriate factor in the making of rates.

(d) No state funds of any kind shall be allocated or paid to said association or any of its accounts.

(4) The department may exempt any insurer from an assessment if an assessment would result in such insurer's financial statement reflecting an amount of capital or surplus less than the sum of the minimum amount required by any jurisdiction in which the insurer is authorized to transact insurance.

(5) Any necessary and proper expenses incurred by an insurer in the investigation, adjustment, compromise, settlement, denial, or handling of claims assigned to it shall, upon proper verification under the rules of the association, entitle the insurer to reimbursement. Any insurer whose employee serves on the staff of the association may set off from its assessment any necessary and proper expenses incurred by the insurer resulting from said service of its employee. An insurer which ceases to engage in the business of writing property or casualty insurance policies in this state shall have no right to a refund of any assessment previously remitted.

631.58 Plan of operation.—

(1)(a) The association shall submit to the department a proposed plan of operation and any amendments thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The plan of operation and any amendments thereto shall become effective upon approval in writing by the department.

(b) If the association fails to submit a suitable proposed plan of operation by December 30, 1970, or if at any time thereafter the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the department shall adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions of this part. Such rules shall continue in force until modified by the department or superseded by a plan submitted by the association and approved by the department.

(2) All member insurers shall comply with the plan of operation.

(3) The plan of operation shall:

(a) Establish the procedures whereby all the powers and duties of the association under s. 631.57 will be performed;

(b) Establish procedures for handling assets of the association;

(c) Establish the amount and method of reimbursing members of the board of directors under s. 631.56;

(d) Establish procedures by which claims may be filed with the association and acceptable forms of proof of covered claims. Notice of claims to the receiver or liquidator of the insolvent insurer shall be deemed notice to the association or its agent, and a list of such claims shall be periodically submitted to the association or similar organization in another state by the receiver or liquidator;

(e) Establish regular places and times for meetings of the board of directors;

(f) Establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions of the association, its agents, and the board of directors;

(g) Provide that any member insurer aggrieved by any final action or decision of the association may appeal to the department within 30 days after the action or decision;

(h) Establish the procedures whereby recommendations for the board of directors will be submitted to the department; and

(i) Contain additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association.

(4) The plan of operation may provide that any or all powers and duties of the association, except those under s. 631.57(2)(b) and (c) are delegated to a corporation, association, or other organization which performs or will perform functions similar to those of this association or its equivalent in two or more states. Such a corporation, association, or organization shall be reimbursed as a servicing facility would be reimbursed and shall be paid for its performance of any other functions of the association. A delegation under this subsection shall take effect only with the approval of both the board of directors and the department, and may be made only to a corporation, association, or organization which extends protection not substantially less favorable and effective than that provided by this part.

631.59 Duties and powers of Department of Insurance.—

(1) The department shall:

(a) Notify the association of the existence of an insolvent insurer not later than 3 days after it receives notice of the determination of the insolvency; and

(b) Upon request of the board of directors, provide the association with a statement of the net direct written premiums of each member insurer.

(2) The department may:

(a) Require that the association notify the insureds of the insolvent insurer and any other interested parties of the determination of insolvency and of their rights under this part. Such notification shall be by mail at their last known address, when available, but if sufficient information for notification by mail is not available, notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation shall be sufficient.

(b) Suspend or revoke the certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state of any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due or fails to comply with the plan of operation. As an alternative, the department may levy a fine on any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due. Such fine may not exceed 5 percent of the unpaid assessment per month, except that no fine shall be less than $100 per month.

(c) Revoke the designation of any servicing facility if it finds claims are being handled unsatisfactorily.

History.—s. 10, ch. 70-20; s. 21, ch. 78-95.

631.60 Effect of paid claims.—

(1) Any person recovering under this part shall be deemed to have assigned his rights under the policy to the association to the extent of his recovery from the association. Every insured or claimant seeking the protection of this part shall cooperate with the association to the same extent as such person would have been required to cooperate with the insolvent insurer. The association shall have no cause of action against the insured of the insolvent insurer for any sums it has paid out except such causes of action as the insolvent insurer would have had if such sums had been paid by the insolvent insurer. In the case of an insolvent insurer operating on a plan with assessment liability, payments of claims of the association shall not operate to reduce the liability of insureds to the receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor for unpaid assessments.

(2) The receiver, liquidator, or statutory successor of an insolvent insurer shall be bound by settlements of covered claims by the association or a similar organization in another state. The court having jurisdiction shall grant such claims priority equal to that to which the claimant would have been entitled in the absence of this part against the assets of the insolvent insurer. The expenses of the association or similar organization in handling claims shall be accorded the same priority as the liquidator's expenses.

(3) The association shall periodically file with the receiver or liquidator of the insolvent insurer statements of the covered claims paid by the association and estimates of anticipated claims on the association which shall preserve the rights of the association against the assets of the insolvent insurer.

(4) In the event chapter 70-20, Laws of Florida, is held to be constitutional, covered claims paid under chapter 71-970, Laws of Florida, shall not be recoverable under chapter 70-20.

History.—s. 11, ch. 70-20; s. 11, ch. 71-970.

631.61 Nonduplication of recovery.—

(1) Any person having a claim against an insurer under any provision in an insurance policy other than a policy of an insolvent insurer which is also a covered claim, shall not be required to exhaust first his rights under such a policy. Any amount payable on a covered claim under this part shall be reduced by the amount of any recovery under such insurance policy.

(2) Any person having a claim which may be recovered under more than one insurance guaranty association or its equivalent shall seek recovery first from the association of the place of residence of the insured, except that if it is a first-party claim for damage to property with a permanent location, he shall seek recovery first from the association of the location of the property, and if it is a workers' compensation plan, he shall seek recovery first from the association of the residence of the claimant. Any recovery under this part shall be reduced by the amount of recovery from any other insurance guaranty association or its equivalent.

History.—s. 12, ch. 70-20; s. 119, ch. 79-40.

631.62 Prevention of insolvencies.—To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies:

(1) It shall be the duty of the board of directors, upon majority vote, to notify the department of any information indicating any member insurer may be insolvent or in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public.

(2) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, request that the department order an examination of any member insurer which the board in good faith believes may be in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public. Within 30 days of the receipt of such request, the department shall begin such examination. The examination may be conducted as a National Association of Insurance Commissioners examination or may be conducted by such persons as the department designates. The cost of such examination shall be paid by the association and the examination report shall be treated as are other examination reports. In no event shall such examination report be released to the board of directors prior to its release to the public, but this shall not preclude the department from complying with subsection (3). The department shall notify the board of directors when the examination is completed. The request for an examination shall be kept on file by the department, but it shall not be open to public inspection prior to the release of the examination report to the public.

(3) It shall be the duty of the department to report to the board of directors when it has reasonable cause to believe that any member insurer, examined or being examined at the request of the board of directors, may be insolvent or in a financial condition hazardous to the policyholders or the public.

(4) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make reports and recommendations to the department upon any matter germane to the solvency, liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation of any member insurer. Such reports and recommendations shall not be considered public documents.

(5) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make recommendations to the department for the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies.

(6) The board of directors shall, at the conclusion of any insurer insolvency in which the association was obligated to pay covered claims, prepare a report on the history and causes of such insolvency, based on the information available to the association, and submit such report to the department.

History.—s. 13, ch. 70-20.

631.63 Examination of the association.—The association shall be subject to examination and regulation by the department. The board of directors shall submit, not later than March 30 of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the department.

History.—s. 14, ch. 70-20.

631.64 Recognition of assessments in rates.—The rates and premiums charged for insurance policies to which this part applies may include amounts sufficient to recoup a sum equal to the amounts paid to the association by the member insurer less any amounts returned to the member insurer by the association, and such rates shall not be deemed excessive because they contain an amount reasonably calculated to recoup assessments paid by the member insurer.

History.—s. 15, ch. 70-20.

631.65 Prohibited advertisement, solicitation, etc.—No person shall make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine, or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster, or over any radio station or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement, or statement which uses the existence of the insurance guaranty association for the purpose of sales, solicitation, or inducement to purchase any form of insurance covered under this part.

History.—s. 16, ch. 70-20.

631.66 Immunity.—There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, any member insurer, the association or its agents or employees, the board of directors, or the department or its representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this part.

History.—s. 17, ch. 70-20.

631.67 Stay of proceedings; reopening of default judgments.—All proceedings in which the insolvent insurer is a party or is obligated to defend a party in any court or before any quasi-judicial body or administrative board in this state shall be stayed for up to 6 months, or such additional period from the date the insolvency is adjudicated, by a court of competent jurisdiction to permit proper defense by the association of all pending causes of action as to any covered claims arising from a judgment under any decision, verdict, or finding based on the default of the insolvent insurer or its failure to defend an insured. The association, either on its own behalf or on behalf of such insured, may apply to have such judgment, order, decision, verdict, or finding set aside by the same court or administrator that made such judgment, order, decision, verdict, or finding, and shall be permitted to defend against such claim on the merits. If requested by the association, the stay of proceedings may be shortened or waived.

History.—s. 18, ch. 70-20; s. 18, ch. 71-970; s. 5, ch. 77-227.

631.68 Limitation; certain actions.—Notwithstanding any other provision of chapter 71-970, a covered claim as defined herein with respect to which settlement is not effected and suit is not instituted against the insured of an insolvent insurer or the association within 1 year after the deadline for filing claims, or any extension thereof, with the receiver of the insolvent insurer shall thenceforth be barred as a claim against the association.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-970; s. 6, ch. 77-227.

631.70 Attorney's fee.—The provisions of s. 627.428 providing for an attorney's fee shall not be applicable to any claim presented to the association under the provisions of this part, except when the association denies by affirmative action, other than delay, a covered claim or a portion thereof.

History.—s. 7, ch. 77-227.

(1) There is created a nonprofit legal entity to be known as the Florida Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association. All member insurers shall be and remain members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance in this state. The association shall perform its functions under the plan of operation established and approved under the provisions of s. 631.721 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under the provisions of s. 631.716. For purposes of administration and assessment, the association shall maintain three accounts:

- (a) The health insurance account;
- (b) The life insurance account; and
- (c) The annuity account.

(2) The association shall come under the immediate supervision of the department and shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the insurance laws of this state.

History.—s. 5, ch. 79-189.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—This cross-reference was corrected by the editors to conform to the renumbering of sections in S.B. 403 (ch. 79-189) by Amendment 5. By apparent oversight, this cross-reference was not amended to reflect such renumbering.

631.716 Board of directors.—

(1) The board of directors of the association shall be comprised of not fewer than five nor more than nine member insurers, serving terms as established in the plan of operation. At all times at least one member of the board shall be a domestic insurer as defined in s. 624.06(1). The members of the board shall be elected by member insurers subject to the approval of the department. A vacancy on the board shall be filled for the remaining period of the term by a majority vote of the remaining board members, subject to the approval of the department. Prior to the selection of the initial board of directors and the organization of the association, the department shall give notice to all member insurers of the time and place of the organizational meeting. At the organizational meeting, each member insurer shall be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy. If the board of directors is not elected within 60 days after notice of the organizational meeting, the department may appoint the initial members.

(2) In approving the election of members to the board, or in appointing members to the board, the department shall consider, among other things, whether all member insurers are fairly represented.

(3) Members of the board may be reimbursed from the assets of the association for expenses incurred by them as members of the board of directors, but members of the board shall not otherwise be compensated by the association for their services.

History.—s. 6, ch. 79-189.

631.717 Powers and duties of the association.—

(1) If a domestic insurer is an impaired insurer, the association may, subject to the approval of the impaired insurer and the department:

(a) Guarantee or reinsure, or cause to be guaranteed, assumed, or reinsured, any or all of the covered policies of the impaired insurer;

(b) Provide such moneys, pledges, notes, guarantees, or other means as are proper to effectuate paragraph (a) and assure payment of the contractual obligations of the impaired insurer pending action under paragraph (a); and

(c) Loan money to the impaired insurer.

(2) If a domestic insurer is an insolvent insurer, the association shall, subject to the approval of the department:

(a) Guarantee, assume, or reinsure or cause to be guaranteed, assumed, or reinsured the covered policies of the insolvent insurer,

(b) Assure payment of the contractual obligations of the insolvent insurer, and

(c) Provide such moneys, pledges, notes, guarantees, or other means as are reasonably necessary to discharge such duties.

(3) If a foreign or alien insurer is an insolvent insurer, the association shall, subject to the approval of the department:

(a) Guarantee, assume, or reinsure or cause to be guaranteed, assumed, or reinsured the covered policies of residents of this state;

(b) Assure payment of the contractual obligations of the insolvent insurer to residents of this state; and

(c) Provide such moneys, pledges, notes, guarantees, or other means as are reasonably necessary to discharge such duties.

However, this subsection shall not apply when the department has determined that the foreign or alien insurer's domiciliary jurisdiction or state of entry provides, by statute, protection substantially similar to that provided by this part for residents of this state.

(4)(a) In carrying out its duties under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), the association may impose a lien on the premiums of any permanent policy or contract in connection with any guarantee, assumption, or reinsurance agreement made by it. Such lien may be enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction if the court:

1. Finds that the amounts which may be assessed under this part are less than the amounts needed to assure full and prompt performance of the insolvent insurer's contractual obligations, or that the economic or financial conditions as they affect member insurers are sufficiently adverse to render the imposition of policy or contract liens, to be in the public interest; and

2. Approves the specific policy liens or contract liens to be used.

(b) Before becoming obligated under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), the association may request that temporary moratoriums or liens be imposed on payments of cash values and policy loans in addition to any contractual provisions for deferral of cash or policy loan values. Such temporary moratoriums and liens may be imposed if they are approved by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) If the association fails to act within a reasonable period of time as provided in subsections (2) and (3), the department shall have the powers and duties of the association under this part with respect to insolvent insurers.

(6) The association may render assistance and advice to the department, upon its request, concerning rehabilitation, payment of claims, continuance of coverage, or the performance of other contractual obligations of any impaired or insolvent insurer.

(7) The association shall have standing to appear before any court in this state which has jurisdiction over an impaired or insolvent insurer to which the association is or may become obligated under this part. Such standing shall extend to all matters germane to the powers and duties of the association, including but not limited to, proposals for reinsuring or guaranteeing the covered policies of the impaired or insolvent insurer and the determination of the covered policies and contractual obligations.

(8)(a) Any person receiving benefits under this part shall be deemed to have assigned his rights under the covered policy to the association to the extent of the benefits received, whether the benefits are payments of contractual obligations or continuations of coverages. The association may require an assignment to it of such rights by any payee, policy or contract owner, beneficiary, insured, or annuitant as a condition precedent to the receipt of any rights or benefits conferred by this part upon such person. The association shall have subrogation rights against the assets of any insolvent insurer.

(b) The subrogation rights of the association under this subsection shall have the same priority against the assets of the insolvent insurer as those possessed by the person entitled to receive benefits under this part.

(9) The association's liability for the contractual obligations of the insolvent insurer shall be as great as, but no greater than, the contractual obligations of the insurer in the absence of such insolvency, unless such obligations are reduced as permitted by subsection (4), but the aggregate liability of the association shall not exceed $100,000 in cash values, or $300,000 for all benefits including cash values, with respect to any one life.

(10) The association may,

(a) Enter into such contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part.

(b) Sue or be sued, including the taking of any legal actions necessary or proper for the recovery of any unpaid assessments under s. 631.718.

(c) Borrow money to effect the purposes of this part. Any notes or other evidence of indebtedness of the association not in default shall be legal investments for domestic insurers and may be carried as admitted assets.

(d) Employ or retain such persons as are necessary to handle the financial transactions of the association and to perform such other functions as become necessary or proper under this part.

(e) Negotiate and contract with any liquidator, rehabilitator, conservator, or ancillary receiver to carry out the powers and duties of the association.

(f) Take such legal action as may be necessary to avoid payment of improper claims.

(g) Exercise, for the purposes of this part and to the extent approved by the department, the powers of a domestic life or health insurer, but in no case may the association issue insurance policies or annuity contracts other than those issued to satisfy the contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurer.

History.—s. 7, ch. 79-189.

631.718 Assessments.—

(1) For the purpose of providing the funds necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the association, the board of directors shall assess the member insurers separately, for each of the accounts referred to in s. 631.715 at such time and for such amounts as the board finds necessary. Assessments shall be due not less than 30 days after written notice to the member insurers.

(2) There shall be three classes of assessments, as follows:

(a) Class A assessments shall be made by the board of directors for the purpose of meeting administrative costs and other general expenses and for examinations conducted under the authority of s. 631.723(5) which are not related to a particular impaired or insolvent insurer.

(b) Class B assessments shall be made by the board of directors for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the association under s. 631.717 relating to an impaired or insolvent domestic insurer.

(c) Class C assessments shall be made by the board of directors for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the association under s. 631.717 relating to an insolvent foreign or alien insurer.

(3)(a) The amount of any Class A assessment shall be determined by the board and may be made on a non-pro rata basis. Such assessment shall not be credited against future insolvency assessments and shall not exceed $50 per member insurer in any 1 calendar year.

(b) Class B assessments for each account shall be made separately for each state in which the impaired or insolvent domestic insurer was authorized to transact insurance at any time, in the proportion that the premiums received on business in such state by the impaired or insolvent insurer on policies covered by such account for the last calendar year preceding the assessment in which the impaired or insolvent insurer received premiums bear to such premiums received in all such states for such calendar year by the impaired or insolvent insurer. The assessments against member insurers shall be in the proportion that the premiums received on business in each such state by each assessed member insurer on policies covered by each account for the calendar year preceding the assessment bear to such premiums received on business in each state for the calendar year preceding assessment by all assessed member insurers.

(c) Class C assessments against member insurers for each account shall be in the proportion that the premiums received on business in this state by each assessed member insurer on policies covered by each account for the calendar year preceding the assessment bear to such premiums received on business in this state for the calendar year preceding the assessment by all assessed member insurers.

(d) The amount of any Class B or Class C assessment shall be allocated among the accounts in the proportion that the premiums received by the impaired or insolvent insurer on the policies covered by each account for the last calendar year preceding the assessment in which the impaired or insolvent insurer received premiums bear to the premiums received by such insurer in such calendar year on all covered policies.

(e) Assessments for funds to meet the requirements of the association with respect to an impaired or insolvent insurer shall not be made until necessary to implement the purposes of this part.

(f) Classification of assessments under subsection (2) and computation of assessments under this subsection shall be made with a reasonable degree of accuracy, recognizing that exact determinations may not always be possible.

(4) The association may abate or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of a member insurer if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member insurer to fulfill its contractual obligations. In the event an assessment against a member insurer is abated, or deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which such assessment is abated or deferred may be assessed against the other member insurers in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in this section.

(5) The total of all assessments upon a member insurer for each account shall not in any 1 calendar year exceed 1 percent of such insurer's premiums written in this state during the calendar year preceding the assessment on the policies covered by the account. If the maximum assessment, together with the other assets of the association in either account, does not provide in any 1 year in either account an amount sufficient to carry out the responsibilities of the association, the necessary additional funds shall be assessed as soon thereafter as permitted by this part.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, no member insurer may be assessed in any 1 calendar year an amount greater than the amount which it paid to this state in the previous year as premium tax and corporate income tax on the business to which this part applies or 0.1 percent of written premium on such business in this state, whichever is greater.

(7) The board may, by an equitable method as established in the plan of operation, refund to member insurers, in proportion to the contribution of each insurer to an account, the amount by which the assets of such account exceed the amount the board finds is necessary to carry out during the coming year the obligations of the association with regard to that account, including assets accruing from net realized gains and income from investments. A reasonable amount may be retained in any account to provide funds for the continuing expenses of the association and for future losses if refunds are impractical.

(8) It shall be proper for any member insurer, in determining its premium rates and policyowner dividends as to any kind of insurance within the scope of this part, to consider the amount reasonably necessary to meet its assessment obligations under this part.

(9) The association shall issue to each insurer paying an assessment under this part, other than a Class A assessment, a certificate of contribution, in a form prescribed by the department, for the amount of the assessment so paid. All outstanding certificates shall be of equal dignity and priority without reference to amounts or dates of issue. A certificate of contribution may be shown by the insurer in its financial statement as an asset in such form and for such amount, if any, and period of time as the department may approve. However, any amount offset pursuant to s. 631.719 shall not be shown as an asset of the insurer on any of its financial statements.

History.—s. 8, ch. 79-189.

Note.—This cross-reference was corrected by the editors to conform to the renumbering of sections in S.B. 403 (ch. 79-189) by Amendment 5. By apparent oversight, this cross-reference was not amended to reflect such renumbering. See 1979 Senate Journal, p. 662.

631.719 Premium or income tax credits for assessments paid.—

(1) A member insurer may offset against its premium or income tax liability or liabilities to this state any assessment described in s. 631.718(9) to the extent of 20 percent of the amount of such assessment for each of the 5 calendar years following the year in which such assessment was paid. In the event a member insurer should cease doing business, all uncredited assessments may be credited against its premium or corporate income tax liability or liabilities for the year it ceases doing business.

(2) Any sums acquired by refund pursuant to s. 631.718(7) from the association which have theretofore been written off by contributing insurers and offset against premium or corporate income taxes as provided in subsection (1) above, and which are not needed for purposes of this part, shall be paid by the association to the department for deposit with the State Treasurer to the credit of the state General Revenue Fund.

(1)(a) The association shall submit to the department a proposed plan of operation and any amendments thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The proposed plan of operation and any amendments thereto shall become effective upon approval in writing by the department.

(b) If the association fails to submit a suitable proposed plan of operation within 180 days following October 1, 1979, or if at any time thereafter the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the department shall, after notice and hearing, adopt such reasonable rules as are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this part. Such rules shall continue in force until modified by the department or superseded by a proposed plan submitted by the association and approved by the department.

(2) All member insurers shall comply with the approved plan of operation.

(3) The plan of operation shall, in addition to requirements enumerated elsewhere in this part:

(a) Establish procedures for handling the assets of the association.

(b) Establish the amount and method of reimbursing members of the board of directors under s. 631.716.

(c) Establish regular places and times for meetings of the board of directors.

(d) Establish procedures for keeping records of all financial transactions of the association, its agents, and the board of directors.

(e) Establish the procedures whereby selections for the board of directors shall be made and submitted to the department.

(f) Establish any additional procedures for assessments under s. 631.718.

(g) Contain additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association.

(4) The plan of operation may provide that any or all powers and duties of the association, except those under s. 631.717(10)(c) and s. 631.718, are delegated to a corporation, association, or other organization which performs or will perform functions similar to those of this association, or its equivalent, in two or more states. Such a corporation, association, or organization shall be reimbursed for any payments made on behalf of the association and shall be paid for its performance of any function of the association. A delegation under this subsection shall take effect only with the approval of both the board of directors and the department and may be made only to a corporation, association, or organization which extends protection not substantially less favorable and effective than that provided by this part.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-189.

631.722 Powers and duties of department.—

(1) The department shall:

(a) Upon request of the board of directors, provide the association with a statement of the premiums in each of the appropriate states for each member insurer.

(b) When an impairment is declared and the amount of the impairment is determined, serve a demand upon the impaired insurer to make good the impairment within a reasonable time. Notice to the impaired insurer shall constitute notice to its shareholders, if any. The failure of the insurer to promptly comply with such demand shall not excuse the association from the performance of its powers and duties under this part.

(c) In any liquidation or rehabilitation proceeding involving a domestic insurer, be appointed as the liquidator or rehabilitator. If a foreign or alien member insurer is subject to a liquidation proceeding in its domiciliary jurisdiction or state of entry, the department shall be appointed conservator.

(2) The department may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state of any member in-suror that fails to pay an assessment when due or fails to comply with the approved plan of operation of the association. As an alternative, the department may levy a forfeiture on any member insurer that fails to pay an assessment when due. Such forfeiture shall not exceed 5 percent of the unpaid assessment per month, but no forfeiture shall be less than $100 per month.

(3) Any action of the board of directors or of the association may be appealed to the department by any member insurer if such appeal is taken within 30 days of the action being appealed. Any final action or order of the department shall be subject to judicial review in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) The liquidator, rehabilitator, or conservator of any impaired insurer may notify all interested persons of the effect of this part.

History.—s. 11, ch. 79-189.

631.723 Prevention of insolvencies.—To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies or impairments:

(1) It shall be the duty of the department:

(a) To report to the board of directors when it has reasonable cause to believe from any examination, whether completed or in process, of any member insurer that such insurer may be an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(b) To furnish to the board of directors any available NAIC Early Warning Tests developed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. The board may use the information contained therein in carrying out its duties and responsibilities under this section. Such report and the information contained therein shall be kept confidential by the board of directors until such time as it is made public by the department or by any other lawful authority.

(2) The department may seek the advice and recommendations of the board of directors concerning any matter affecting the department's duties and responsibilities regarding the financial condition of member companies and companies seeking admission to transact insurance business in this state.

(3) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make reports and recommendations to the department upon any matter germane to the solvency, liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation of any member insurer or germane to the solvency of any company seeking to do an insurance business in this state. Such reports and recommendations shall be confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1).

(4) It shall be the duty of the board of directors, upon a majority vote, to notify the department of any information indicating any member insurer may be an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(5) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, request that the department order an examination of any member insurer which the board in good faith believes may be an impaired or insolvent insurer. Within 30 days of the receipt of such request, the department shall begin such examination. The examination may be conducted as a National Association of Insurance Commissioners examination or may be conducted by such persons as the Insurance Commissioner designates. The cost of such examination shall be paid by the association, and the examination report shall be treated in a manner similar to other examination reports. In no event shall such examination report be released to the board of directors prior to its release to the public, but this shall not preclude the department from complying with subsection (1). The department shall notify the board of directors when the examination is completed. The request for an examination shall be kept on file by the department, but it shall not be open to public inspection prior to the release of the examination report to the public.

(6) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make recommendations to the department for the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies.

(7) The board of directors shall, at the conclusion of any insurer insolvency proceeding in which the association was obligated to pay covered claims, prepare a report to the department containing such information in its possession relating to the history and causes of such insolvency. The board shall cooperate with the boards of directors of guaranty associations in other states in preparing a report on the history and causes for insolvency of a particular insurer, and may adopt by reference any report prepared by such other associations.

History.—s. 12, ch. 79-189.

631.724 Records of association.—Records shall be kept of all negotiations and meetings in which the association or its representatives discuss the activities of the association in carrying out its powers and duties under s. 631.717. Records of such negotiations or meetings shall be made public only upon the termination of a liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation proceeding involving the impaired or insolvent insurer, upon the termination of the impairment or insolvency of the insurer, or upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing in this section shall limit the duty of the association to render a report of its activities under s. 631.725.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-189.

Note.—This cross-reference was corrected by the editors to conform to the renumbering of sections in S.B. 403 (ch. 79-189) by Amendment 5. By apparent oversight, this cross-reference was not amended to reflect such renumbering.

631.725 Examination of the association; annual report.—The association shall be subject to examination and regulation by the department. The board of directors shall submit to the department, not later than May 1 of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the department and a report of its activities during the preceding calendar year.

History.—s. 14, ch. 79-189.

631.726 Tax exemptions.—The association shall be exempt from payment of all fees and all taxes levied by this state or any of its subdivisions, except taxes levied on real property.

History.—s. 15, ch. 79-189.

631.727 Immunity.—There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, any member insurer or its agents or employees, the association or its agents or employees, members of the board of directors, or the department or its representatives for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this part.

History.—s. 16, ch. 79-189.

631.728 Extent of liability of association.—

For the purpose of carrying out its obligations under this part, the association shall be deemed to be a creditor of the impaired or insolvent insurer to the extent of assets attributable to covered policies reduced by any amounts to which the association is entitled as subrogee pursuant to s. 631.717(8). Assets of the impaired or insolvent insurer attributable to covered policies shall be used to continue all covered policies and pay all contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurer as required by this part. An asset attributable to covered policies, as used in this section, is that proportion of the assets which the reserves that should have been established for such policies bear to the reserves that should have been established for all policies of insurance written by the impaired or insolvent insurer.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-189.

631.729 Liability of insureds for unpaid assessments.—No provision of this part shall be construed to reduce the liability for unpaid assessments of the insureds of an impaired or insolvent insurer operating under a plan with assessment liability.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-189.

631.731 Liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation proceedings; distributions.—

(1) Prior to the termination of any liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation proceeding, the court may take into consideration the contributions of the respective parties, including the association, the shareholders and policyowners of the insolvent insurer, and any other party with a bona fide interest, in making an equitable distribution of the ownership rights of such insolvent insurer. In such a determination, consideration shall be given to the welfare of the policyholders of the continuing or successor insurer.

(2) No distribution to stockholders, if any, of an impaired or insolvent insurer shall be made until and unless the total amount of valid claims of the association for funds expended in carrying out its powers and duties under s. 631.717 with respect to such insurer has been fully recovered by the association.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-189.

631.732 Receiver's right to recover distributions made to controlling affiliate.—

(1) If an order for liquidation or rehabilitation of an insurer domiciled in this state has been entered, the receiver appointed under such order shall have a right to recover on behalf of the insurer, from any affiliate that controlled it, the amount of distributions, other than stock dividends paid by the insurer on its capital stock, made at any time during the 5 years preceding the petition for liquidation or rehabilitation, subject to the limitations of subsections (2), (3), and (4).

(2) No such dividend shall be recoverable if the insurer shows that when paid the distribution was lawful and reasonable and that the insurer did not know and could not reasonably have known that the distribution might adversely affect the ability of the insurer to fulfill its contractual obligations.

(3) Any person who was an affiliate that controlled the insurer at the time the distributions were paid shall be liable up to the amount of distributions he received. Any person who was an affiliate that controlled the insurer at the time the distributions were declared shall be liable up to the amount of distributions he would have received if they had been paid immediately. If two persons are liable with respect to the same distributions, they shall be jointly and severally liable.

(4) The maximum amount recoverable under this section shall be the amount needed in excess of all other available assets of the insolvent insurer to pay the contractual obligations of the insolvent insurer.

(5) If any person liable under subsection (3) is insolvent, all its affiliates that controlled it at the time the dividend was paid shall be jointly and severally liable for any resulting deficiency in the amount recovered from the insolvent affiliate.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-189.

631.733 Stay of proceedings.—All proceedings in which the insolvent insurer is a party in any court in this state shall be stayed 60 days from the date an order of liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation is final to permit proper legal action by the association on any matters germane to its powers or duties.

History.—s. 17, ch. 79-189.

631.734 Reopening default judgments.—As to judgment under any decision, order, verdict, or finding based on default, the association may apply to have such judgment set aside by the same court that made such judgment and shall be permitted to defend against such suit on the merits.

History.—s. 18, ch. 79-189.

631.735 Prohibited advertisement of Florida Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Act in sale of insurance.—No person shall make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause directly or indirectly to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in any newspaper, magazine, or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster, or over any radio station or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement, or statement which uses the existence of the Insurance Guaranty Association of this state for the purpose of sales, solicitation, or inducement to purchase any form of insurance covered by the Florida Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Act. However, this section shall not apply to the Florida Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association or any other entity which does not sell or solicit insurance.

A copy of the application for membership and of the declaration of insurability, if any, shall be endorsed upon or attached to the certificate.

(2) All statements purporting to be made by the member shall be representations and not warranties. Any waiver of this provision shall be void.

§632.301 Standard provisions.

(1) After 1 year from the effective date of this chapter, no life benefit certificate shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless a copy of the form has been filed with the department.

(2) The certificate shall contain in substance the following standard provisions or, in lieu thereof, provisions which are more favorable to the member:

(a) Title on the face and filing page of the certificate clearly and correctly describing its form;

(b) A provision stating the amount of rates, premiums, or other required contributions, by whatever name known, which are payable by the insured under the certificate;

(c) A provision that the member is entitled to a grace period of not less than a full month (or 30 days at the option of the society) in which the payment of any premium after the first, may be made. During such grace period the certificate shall continue in full force, but in case the certificate becomes a claim during the grace period before the overdue payment is made, the amount of such overdue payment or payments may be deducted in any settlement under the certificate;

(d) A provision that the member shall be entitled to have the certificate reinstated at any time within 3 years from the due date of the premium in default, unless the certificate has been completely terminated through the application of a nonforfeiture benefit, cash surrender value or certificate loan, upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the society and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the society upon the certificate, together with interest on such premiums and such indebtedness, if any, at a rate not exceeding 6 percent per annum compounded annually;

(e) Except in the case of pure endowment, annuity, or reversionary annuity contracts, reducing term insurance contracts, or contracts of term insurance of uniform amount of 15 years or less expiring before age 66, a provision that, in the event of default in payment of any premium after 3 full years' premiums have been paid or after premiums for a lesser period have been paid if the contract so provides, the society will grant, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on the plan stipulated in the certificate, effective as of such due date, of such value as specified in this chapter. The certificate may provide, if the society's laws so specify or if the member shall so elect prior to the expiration of the grace period of any overdue premium, that default shall not occur so long as premiums can be paid under the provisions of an arrangement for automatic premium loan as may be set forth in the certificate;

(f) A provision that one paid-up nonforfeiture benefit as specified in the certificate shall become effective automatically unless the member elects another available paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default;

(g) A statement of the mortality table and rate of interest used in determining all paid-up nonforfeiture benefits and cash surrender options available under the certificate, and a brief general statement of the method used in calculating such benefits;

(h) A table showing in figures the value of every paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and cash surrender option available under the certificate for each certificate anniversary either during the first 20 certificate years or during the term of the certificate whichever is shorter;

(i) A provision that the certificate shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the member for a period of 2 years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums, violation of the provisions of the certificate relating to military, aviation, or naval service and violation of the provisions relating to suspension or expulsion as substantially set forth in the certificate. At the option of the society, supplemental provisions relating to benefits in the event of temporary or permanent disability or hospitalization and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means, may also be excepted. The certificate shall be incontestable on the ground of suicide after it has been in force during the lifetime of the member for a period of 2 years from date of issue. The certificate may provide, as to statements made to procure reinstatement, that the society shall have the right to contest a reinstated certificate within a period of 2 years from date of reinstatement with the same exceptions as herein provided;

(j) A provision that in case the age or sex of the member or of any other person is considered in determining the premium and it is found at any time before final settlement under the certificate that the age or sex has been misstated, and the discrepancy and premium involved have not been adjusted, the amount payable shall be such as the premium would have purchased according to the correct age or sex; but if the correct age or sex was not insurable under the society's charter or laws, only the premiums paid to the society, less any payments previously made to the member, shall be returned or, at the option of the society, the amount payable under the certificate shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age according to the society's promulgated rates and any extension thereof based on actuarial principles;

(k) A provision or provisions which recite fully, or which set forth the substance of, all sections of the charter, constitution, laws, rules, or regulations of the society, in force at the time of issuance of the certificate, the violation of which will result in the termination of, or in the reduction of, the benefit or benefits payable under the certificate;

(l) If the constitution or laws of the society provide for expulsion or suspension of a member, any member so expelled or suspended, except for nonpayment of a premium or within the contestable period for material misrepresentations in such member's application for membership shall have the privilege of maintaining his insurance in force by continuing payment of the required premium; and

(3) Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance or because the certificate is an annuity certificate may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the certificate.

(1) Any provision limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than 2 years after the cause of action accrues;

(2) Any provision by which the certificate purports to be issued or to take effect more than 6 months before the original application for the certificate was made, except in case of transfer from one form of certificate to another in connection with which the member is to receive credit for any reserve accumulation under the form of certificate from which the transfer is made; or

(3) Any provision for forfeiture of the certificate for failure to repay any loan thereon or to pay interest on such loan while the total indebtedness, including interest, is less than the loan value of the certificate.

632.371 Annual statement.—Reports shall be filed and synopses of annual statements shall be published in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(1) Every society transacting business in this state shall annually, on or before March 1, unless for cause shown such time has been extended by the department, file with the department a true statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs for the preceding calendar year and pay a fee for filing same, as provided in s. 624.501(4). The statement shall be in the general form and context as approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for Fraternal Benefit Societies and as supplemented by additional information required by the department.

(2) A synopsis of its annual statement providing an explanation of the facts concerning the condition of the society thereby disclosed shall be printed and mailed to each benefit member of the society not later than June 1 of each year, or, in lieu thereof, such synopsis may be published in the society's official publication.

(3) The department shall deposit all fees received by it under this section to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund.

632.381 Annual valuation of certificates.—

(1) As a part of the annual statement required under s. 632.371, each society shall, on or before March 1, file with the department a valuation of its certificates in force on December 31 last preceding provided, the department may, in its discretion for cause shown, extend the time for filing such valuation for not more than 2 calendar months. Such report of valuation shall show, as reserve liabilities, the difference between the present midyear value of the promised benefits provided in the certificates of such society in force and the present midyear value of the future net premiums as the same are in practice actually collected, not including therein any value for the right to make extra assessments and not including any amount by which the present midyear value of future net premiums exceeds the present midyear value of promised benefits on individual certificates. At the option of any society, in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the new tabular value. Such net tabular value as to certificates issued prior to 1 year after the effective date of this chapter shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of law applicable prior to the effective date of this chapter and as to certificates issued on or after 1 year from the effective date of this chapter shall not be less than the reserves determined according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method as hereafter defined. If the premium charged is less than the tabular net premium according to the basis of valuation used, an additional reserve equal to the present value of the deficiency in such premiums shall be set up and maintained as a liability. The reserve liabilities shall be properly adjusted in the event that the midyear or tabular values are not appropriate.

(2) Reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method, for life insurance and endowment benefits of certificates providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such certificates, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such certificate shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the certificate, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the certificate and the excess of (a) over (b), as follows:

(a) A net level premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first certificate year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such certificate on which a premium falls due; provided however, that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the 19-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age 1 year higher than the age at issue of such certificate; and

(b) A net 1-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first certificate year.

(3) Reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method for

(a) Life insurance benefits for varying amounts of benefits or requiring the payment of varying premiums,

(b) Annuity and pure endowment benefits,

(c) Disability and accidental death benefits in all certificates and contracts, and

(d) All other benefits except life insurance and endowment benefits shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of subsection (2) above.

(4) The present value of deferred payments due under incurred claims or matured certificates shall be deemed a liability of the society and shall be computed upon mortality and interest standards prescribed in the following subsection.

(5) Such valuation and underlying data shall be certified by a competent actuary or, at the expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the state of domicile of the society.

(6) The minimum standards of valuation for certificates issued prior to 1 year from the effective date of this chapter shall be those provided by the law applicable immediately prior to the effective date of this chapter, but not lower than the standards used in the calculating of rates for such certificates.

(7) The minimum standard of valuation for certificates issued from and after the effective date of this act shall be 3.5 percent interest and the following tables:

(a) For certificates of life insurance—American Men Ultimate Table of Mortality, with Bowerman's or Davis' extension thereof, or, with the consent of the department, the Commissioners' 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table, the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table or the Commissioners' 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table; provided, that for any category of such certificates, based on the last mortality table listed above, issued on female risks modified net premiums and present values, referred to in subsection (2), may be calculated according to an age not more than 3 years younger than the actual age of the insured;

(b) For annuity and pure endowment certificates, including life annuities and settlements available under optional modes of settlement in such certificates, but excluding any disability or accidental death benefits in such certificates—the 1937 Standard Annuity Mortality Table or the Annuity Mortality Table for 1949, Ultimate, or any modification of either of these tables approved by the department;

(c) For disability benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificates—Hunter's Disability Table; except, that for total and permanent disability benefits the Class Three Disability Table (1926) modified to conform to the contractual waiting period, or the tables of period 2 disablement rates and the 1930 to 1950 termination rates of the 1952 Disability Study of the Society of Actuaries, with due regard to the type of benefit shall be used to compute the reserves. Any such table for active lives shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance certificates;

(d) For accidental death benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificates—the Intercompany Double Indemnity Mortality Table or the 1959 Accidental Death Benefits Table. Either table shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance certificates; and

(e) For noncancelable accident and health benefits—the Class Three Disability Table (1926) with conference modifications or, with the consent of the department, tables based upon the society's own experience.

However, any society may value its certificate in accordance with valuation standards authorized by the laws of this state for the valuation of policies issued by life insurance companies.

(8) The department may, in its discretion, accept other standards for valuation if it finds that the reserves produced thereby will not be less in the aggregate than reserves computed in accordance with the minimum valuation standard herein prescribed. The department may, in its discretion, vary the standards of mortality applicable to all certificates of insurance on substandard lives or other extra-hazardous lives by any society authorized to do business in this state. Whenever the mortality experience under all certificates valued on the same mortality table is in excess of the expected mortality according to such table for a period of 3 consecutive years, the department may require additional reserves when deemed necessary in its judgment on account of such certificates.

(9) Any society, with the consent of the insurance supervisory official of the state of domicile of the society and under such conditions, if any, which he may impose, may establish and maintain reserves on its certificates in excess of the reserves required thereunder, but the contractual rights of any insured member shall not be affected thereby.

The department shall deposit all sums collected by it under this section to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund.

(1) The department, or any person it may appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any domestic society, and it shall make such examination at least once in every 3 years. It may employ assistants for the purpose of such examination, and it, or any person it may appoint, shall have free access to all books, papers, and documents that relate to the business of the society.

(2) In making any such examination the department may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents, and employees or other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions, and condition of the society.

(3) A summary of the report of the department and such recommendations or statements of the department as may accompany such report, shall be read at the first meeting of the board of directors or corresponding body of the society following the receipt thereof, and if directed so to do by the department, shall also be read at the first meeting of the supreme legislative or governing body of the society following the receipt thereof. (b) Any false or misleading estimate or statement concerning the dividends or shares of surplus paid or to be paid by any society on any insurance contract; or

(c) Any incomplete comparison of an insurance contract of one society with an insurance contract of another society or insurer for the purpose of inducing the lapse, forfeiture, or surrender of any insurance contract. A comparison of insurance contracts is incomplete if it does not compare in detail:

1. The gross rates, and the gross rates less any dividend or other reduction allowed at the date of the comparison; and

2. Any increase in cash values, and all the benefits provided by each contract for the possible duration thereof as determined by the life expectancy of the insured; or if it omits from consideration:

3. Any benefit or value provided in the contract;
4. Any differences as to amount or period of rates; or
5. Any differences in limitations or conditions or provisions which directly or indirectly affect the benefits.

In any determination of the incompleteness or misleading character of any comparison or statement, it shall be presumed that the insured had no knowledge of any of the contents of the contract involved.

(2) Any person who violates any provision of such violation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and shall in addition, be liable for a civil penalty in the amount of 3 times the sum received by such violator as compensation or commission, which penalty may be sued for and recovered by any person or society aggrieved for his or its own use and benefit in accordance with the provisions of civil practice.

No member shall receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any rebate of premium, or part thereof, or agent's or solicitor's commission thereon, payable on any certificate or receive or accept any favor or advantage or share in the dividends or other benefits to accrue on, or any valuable consideration or inducement not specified in the contract of insurance.

Copies of such appointment, certified by the department, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original thereof might be admitted.

(2) Service shall only be made upon the insurance commissioner and treasurer, or if absent, upon the person in charge of his office. It shall be made in duplicate and shall constitute sufficient service upon the society. When legal process against a society is served upon the insurance commissioner and treasurer, he shall forthwith forward one of the duplicate copies by registered mail, prepaid, directed to the secretary or corresponding officer. (d) Evidence that at least 60 days prior to the action of the supreme legislative or governing body of each society, the text of the contract has been furnished to all members of each society either by mail or by publication in full in the official organ of each society.

(2) The affidavit of any officer of the society or of anyone authorized by it to mail any notice or document, stating that such notice or document has been duly addressed and mailed, shall be prima facie evidence that such notice or document has been furnished the addressees.

(3) If the department finds that the contract is in conformity with the provisions of this section, that the financial statements are correct, and that the consolidation or merger is just and equitable to the members of each society, it shall approve the contract and issue its certificate to such effect. Upon such approval, the contract shall be in full force and effect unless any society which is a party to the contract is incorporated under the laws of any other state. In such event the consolidation or merger shall not become effective unless and until it has been approved as provided by the laws of such state and a certificate of such approval filed with the department or, if the laws of such state contain no such provision, then the consolidation or merger shall not become effective unless and until it has been approved by the insurance supervisory official of such

Such plan shall be prepared in writing setting forth in full the terms and conditions thereof. The board of directors shall submit the plan to the supreme legislative or governing body of such society at any regular or special meeting thereof, by giving a full, true, and complete copy of the plan with the notice of such meeting. The notice shall be given as provided in the laws of the society for the convocation of a regular or special meeting of such body, as the case may be. The affirmative vote of two-thirds of all members of such body shall be necessary for the approval of the agreement. No such conversion shall take effect unless and until approved by the department, which may give such approval if it finds that the proposed change is in conformity with the requirements of law and not prejudicial to the certificate holders of the society.
